A copy may be substituted for the original document, book, record, or memorandum if the copy is certified to be correct by a person authorized to take acknowledgments.

(B) Notwithstanding division (A) of this section, if a will incorporates a trust instrument only in the event that a bequest or devise to the trust is ineffective, the trust instrument shall be deposited in the probate court not later than thirty days after the final determination that such bequest or devise is ineffective.

delivery and the person by whom the will was delivered. The 398 envelope may be indorsed with the name of a person to whom it is 399 to be delivered after the death of the testator. The will shall 400 not be opened or read until delivered to a person entitled to 401 pursuant to section ~~2107.081~~ 5817.02 of the Revised Code, or 404 until otherwise disposed of as provided in section 2107.08 of 405 the Revised Code. Subject to section 2107.08 of the Revised 406 Code, the deposited will shall not be a public record until the 407 time that an application is filed to probate it. 408 envelope of the will, if there is a person named who demands it. 416

(A)(1) of section ~~2107.084~~ 5817.10 of the Revised Code, it shall 428 be publicly opened in the probate court within one month after 429 notice of the testator's death and retained in the office of the 430 probate judge until offered for probate. If the jurisdiction 431 belongs to any other probate court, the will shall be delivered 432 to the person entitled to its custody, to be presented for 433 probate in the other court. If the probate judge who opens the 434 will has jurisdiction of it, the probate judge immediately shall 435 give notice of its existence to the executor named in the will 436 or, if any, to the persons holding a power to nominate an 437 executor as described in section 2107.65 of the Revised Code, 438 or, if it is the case, to the executor named in the will and to 439 the persons holding a power to nominate a coexecutor as 440 described in that section. If no executor is named and no 441 persons hold a power to nominate an executor as described in 442 that section, the probate judge shall give notice to other 443 persons immediately interested. 444

Sec. 2107.09. (A) If real property is devised or personal 445 property is bequeathed by a will, the executor or any interested 446 person may cause the will to be brought before the probate court 447 of the county in which the decedent was domiciled. By judicial 448 order, the court may compel the person having the custody or 449 control of the will to produce it before the court for the 450 purpose of being proved. 451

If the person having the custody or control of the will 452 intentionally conceals or withholds it or neglects or refuses to 453 produce it for probate without reasonable cause, the person may 454 be committed to the county jail and kept in custody until the 455 will is produced. The person also shall be liable to any party 456 aggrieved for the damages sustained by that neglect or refusal. 457

Any judicial order issued pursuant to this section may be 458 issued into any county in the state and shall be served and 459 returned by the officer to whom it is delivered. 460

The officer to whom the process is delivered shall be 461 liable for neglect in its service or return in the same manner 462 as sheriffs are liable for neglect in not serving or returning a 463 capias issued upon an indictment. 464

(B) In the case of a will that has been declared valid 465 pursuant to division (A) (1) of section 2107.084-5817.10 of the 466 Revised Code, the probate judge of the probate court or of the 467 general division of the court of common pleas to which the 468 proceeding was transferred pursuant to division (A) of section 469 5817.04 of the Revised Code who made the declaration ~~or who has~~ 470 ~~possession of the will~~ shall cause ~~the will and the~~ judgment 471 declaring ~~validity~~ the will valid to be brought before the 472 proper probate court as determined by section 2107.11 of the 473 Revised Code at a time after the death of the testator. If the 474 death of the testator is brought to the attention of the ~~probate-~~ 475 applicable judge by an interested party, the judge shall cause 476 the judgment declaring the will valid to be brought before the 477 proper probate court at that time. 478

Sec. 2107.10. (A) No property or right, testate or 479 intestate, shall pass to a beneficiary named in a will who knows 480 of the existence of the will for one year after the death of the 481 testator and has the power to control it and, without reasonable 482 cause, intentionally conceals or withholds it or neglects or 483 refuses within that one year to cause it to be offered for or 484 admitted to probate. The property devised or bequeathed to that 485 beneficiary shall pass as if the beneficiary had predeceased the 486
testator. 487

(B) No property or right, testate or intestate, passes to 488 a beneficiary named in a will when the will was declared valid 489 ~~and filed with a probate judge by a court pursuant to~~ division 490
(A) (1) of section 2107.084-5817.10 of the Revised Code, the 491 declaration ~~and filing~~ took place in a county different from the 492 county in which the will of the testator would be probated under 493 section 2107.11 of the Revised Code, and the named beneficiary 494 knew of the declaration ~~and filing~~ and of the death of the 495 testator and did not notify the ~~probate~~ judge ~~with whom of the~~ court in which the will was filed declared valid. This division 496 does not preclude a named beneficiary from acquiring property or 497 rights from the estate of the testator for failing to notify a 498 ~~probate~~ judge of that court if the named beneficiary reasonably 499 believes that the judge has previously been notified of the 500 testator's death. 501 502

Sec. 2107.11. (A) A will shall be admitted to probate: 503

(1) In the county in this state in which the testator was 504 domiciled at the time of the testator's death; 505

(2) In any county of this state where any real property or 506 personal property of the testator is located if, at the time of 507 the testator's death, the testator was not domiciled in this 508 state, and provided that the will has not previously been 509 admitted to probate in this state or in the state of the 510 testator's domicile; 511

(3) In the county of this state in which a ~~probate~~ court 512 rendered a judgment declaring that the will was valid ~~and in~~ ~~which the will was filed with the probate court~~ pursuant to division (A) (1) of section 5817.10 of the Revised Code. 513
515

(B) For the purpose of division (A) (2) of this section, 516 intangible personal property is located in the place where the 517 instrument evidencing a debt, obligation, stock, or chose in 518 action is located or if there is no instrument of that nature 519 where the debtor resides. 520

Sec. 2107.12. When a will is presented for probate or for 521 a declaratory judgment of its validity pursuant to ~~section~~ 522 ~~2107.081~~ Chapter 5817. of the Revised Code, persons interested 523 in its outcome may contest the jurisdiction of the court to 524 entertain the application. Preceding a hearing of a contest as 525 to jurisdiction, all parties named in such will as legatees, 526 devisees, trustees, or executors shall have notice ~~thereof~~ of 527 the hearing in such manner as may be ordered by the court. 528

When ~~such~~ that contest is made, the parties may call 529 witnesses and shall be heard upon the question involved. The 530 decision of the court as to its jurisdiction may be reviewed on 531 error. 532

Sec. 2107.16. (A) When offered for probate, a will may be 533 admitted to probate and allowed upon such proof as would be 534 satisfactory, and in like manner as if an absent or incompetent 535 witness were dead: 536

(1) If it appears to the probate court that a witness to 537 such will has gone to parts unknown; 538

(2) If the witness was competent at the time of attesting 539 its execution and afterward became incompetent; 540

(3) If testimony of a witness cannot be obtained within a 541 reasonable time. 542

(B) When offered for probate, a will shall be admitted to 543 probate and allowed when there has been a prior judgment by a 544 ~~probate~~ court declaring that the will is valid pursuant to 545 division (A) (1) of section 2107.084-5817.10 of the Revised Code, 546 if the will ~~has not been removed from the possession of the~~ 547 ~~probate judge and has not been modified or revoked under~~ 548 ~~division (C) or (D) of section 2107.084 of the Revised Code.~~ 549

Sec. 2107.18. The probate court shall admit a will to 550 probate if it appears from the face of the will, or if the 551 probate court requires, in its discretion, the testimony of the 552 witnesses to a will and it appears from that testimony, that the 553 execution of the will complies with the law in force at the time 554 of the execution of the will in the jurisdiction in which it was 555 executed, with the law in force in this state at the time of the 556 death of the testator, or with the law in force in the 557 jurisdiction in which the testator was domiciled at the time of 558 the testator's death. 559

The probate court shall admit a will to probate when there 560 has been a prior judgment by a ~~probate~~ court declaring that the 561 will is valid, rendered pursuant to division (A) (1) of section 562 ~~2107.084-5817.10~~ of the Revised Code, if the will ~~has not been~~ 563
~~removed from the possession of the probate judge and has not~~ 564
~~been modified or revoked under division (C) or (D) of section~~ 565
~~2107.084 of the Revised Code.~~ 566

Sec. 2107.20. When admitted to probate every will shall be 567 filed in the office of the probate judge and recorded, together 568 with any testimony or prior judgment of a ~~probate~~ court 569 declaring the will valid pursuant to division (A) (1) of section 570 5817.10 of the Revised Code, by the judge or the clerk of the 571 probate court in a book to be kept for that purpose. 572

A copy of the recorded will, with a copy of the order of 573 probate annexed to the copy of the recorded will, certified by 574 the judge under seal of the judge's court, shall be as effectual 575 in all cases as the original would be, if established by proof. 576

Sec. 2107.22. (A) (1) (a) When a will has been admitted to 577 probate by a probate court and another will of later date is 578 presented to the same court for probate, notice of the will of 579 later date shall be given to those persons required to be 580 notified under section 2107.19 of the Revised Code, and to the 581 fiduciaries and beneficiaries under the will of earlier date. 582

The probate court may admit the will of later date to probate 583 the same as if no earlier will had been so admitted if it 584 appears from the face of the will of later date, or if an 585 interested person makes a demand as described in division (A)(1) 586 (b) of this section and it appears from the testimony of the 587 witnesses to the will given in accordance with that division, 588 that the execution of the will complies with the law in force at 589 the time of the execution of the will in the jurisdiction in 590 which it was executed, with the law in force in this state at 591 the time of the death of the testator, or with the law in force 592 in the jurisdiction in which the testator was domiciled at the 593 time of the testator's death. 594

(b) Upon the demand of a person interested in having a 595 will of later date admitted to probate, the probate court shall 596 cause at least two of the witnesses to the will of later date, 597 and any other witnesses that the interested person desires to 598 have appear, to come before the probate court and provide 599 testimony. If the interested person so requests, the probate 600 court shall issue a subpoena to compel the presence of any such 601 witness before the probate court to provide testimony. 602

Witnesses before the probate court pursuant to this 603 division shall be examined, and may be cross-examined, in open 604 court, and their testimony shall be reduced to writing and then 605 filed in the records of the probate court pertaining to the 606 testator's estate. 607

(2) When an authenticated copy of a will has been admitted 608 to record by a probate court, and an authenticated copy of a 609 will of later date that was executed and proved as required by 610 law, is presented to the same court for record, it shall be 611 admitted to record in the same manner as if no authenticated 612 copy of the will of earlier date had been so admitted. 613

(3) If a probate court admits a will of later date to 614 probate, or an authenticated copy of a will of later date to 615 record, its order shall operate as a revocation of the order 616 admitting the will of earlier date to probate, or shall operate 617 as a revocation of the order admitting the authenticated copy of 618 the will of earlier date to record. The probate court shall 619 enter on the record of the earlier will a marginal note "later 620 will admitted to probate ..." (giving the date admitted). 621

(B) When a will that has been declared valid pursuant to 622 division (A) (1) of section 2107.084-5817.10 of the Revised Code 623 has been admitted to probate by a probate court, and an 624 authenticated copy of another will of later date that was 625 executed and proved as required by law is presented to the same 626 court for record, the will of later date shall be admitted the 627 same as if no other will had been admitted and the proceedings 628 shall continue as provided in this section. 629

Sec. 2107.33. (A) A will shall be revoked in the following 630 manners: 631

(1) By the testator by tearing, canceling, obliterating, 632 or destroying it with the intention of revoking it; 633

(2) By some person, at the request of the testator and in 634 the testator's presence, by tearing, canceling, obliterating, or 635 destroying it with the intention of revoking it; 636

(3) By some person tearing, canceling, obliterating, or 637 destroying it pursuant to the testator's express written 638 direction; 639

(4) By some other written will or codicil, executed as 640 prescribed by this chapter; 641

(5) By some other writing that is signed, attested, and 642 subscribed in the manner provided by this chapter. 643

~~(B) A will that has been declared valid and is in the 644 possession of a probate judge also may be revoked according to 645 division (C) of section 2107.084 of the Revised Code. 646~~

~~(C) If a testator removes a will that has been declared 647 valid and is in the possession of a probate judge pursuant to 648 section 2107.084 of the Revised Code from the possession of the 649 judge, the declaration of validity that was rendered no longer 650 has any effect. 651~~

~~(D) If after executing a will, a testator is divorced, 652 obtains a dissolution of marriage, has the testator's marriage 653 annulled, or, upon actual separation from the testator's spouse, 654 enters into a separation agreement pursuant to which the parties 655 intend to fully and finally settle their prospective property 656 rights in the property of the other, whether by expected 657 inheritance or otherwise, any disposition or appointment of 658 property made by the will to the former spouse or to a trust 659 with powers created by or available to the former spouse, any 660 provision in the will conferring a general or special power of 661 appointment on the former spouse, and any nomination in the will 662 of the former spouse as executor, trustee, or guardian shall be 663 revoked unless the will expressly provides otherwise. 664~~

~~(E) (C) Property prevented from passing to a former spouse 665 or to a trust with powers created by or available to the former 666 spouse because of revocation by this section shall pass as if 667~~ the former spouse failed to survive the decedent, and other 668 provisions conferring some power or office on the former spouse 669 shall be interpreted as if the spouse failed to survive the 670 decedent. If provisions are revoked solely by this section, they 671 shall be deemed to be revived by the testator's remarriage with 672 the former spouse or upon the termination of a separation 673 agreement executed by them. 674

~~(F)~~ (D) A bond, agreement, or covenant made by a testator, 675 for a valuable consideration, to convey property previously 676 devised or bequeathed in a will does not revoke the devise or 677 bequest. The property passes by the devise or bequest, subject 678 to the remedies on the bond, agreement, or covenant, for a 679 specific performance or otherwise, against the devisees or 680 legatees, that might be had by law against the heirs of the 681 testator, or the testator's next of kin, if the property had 682 descended to them. 683

~~(G)~~ (E) A testator's revocation of a will shall be valid 684 only if the testator, at the time of the revocation, has the 685 same capacity as the law requires for the execution of a will. 686

~~(H)~~ (F) As used in this section: 687

(1) "Trust with powers created by or available to the 688 former spouse" means a trust that is revocable by the former 689 spouse, with respect to which the former spouse has a power of 690 withdrawal, or with respect to which the former spouse may take 691 a distribution that is not subject to an ascertainable standard 692 but does not mean a trust in which those powers of the former 693 spouse are revoked by section 5815.31 of the Revised Code or 694 similar provisions in the law of another state. 695

(2) "Ascertainable standard" means a standard that is 696 related to a trust beneficiary's health, maintenance, support, 697 or education. 698

Sec. 2107.52. (A) As used in this section: 699

(1) "Class member" means an individual who fails to 700 survive the testator but who would have taken under a devise in 701 the form of a class gift had the individual survived the 702
testator. 703

(2) "Descendant of a grandparent" means an individual who 704 qualifies as a descendant of a grandparent of the testator or of 705 the donor of a power of appointment under either of the 706 following: 707

(a) The rules of construction applicable to a class gift 708 created in the testator's will if the devise or the exercise of 709 the power of appointment is in the form of a class gift; 710

(b) The rules for intestate succession if the devise or 711 the exercise of the power of appointment is not in the form of a 712 class gift. 713

(3) "Devise" means an alternative devise, a devise in the 714 form of a class gift, or an exercise of a power of appointment. 715

(4) "Devisee" means any of the following: 716

(a) A class member if the devise is in the form of a class 717 gift; 718

(b) An individual or class member who was deceased at the 719 time the testator executed the testator's will or an individual 720 or class member who was then living but who failed to survive 721
the testator; 722

(c) An appointee under a power of appointment exercised by 723

the testator's will. 724

(5) "Per stirpes" means that the shares of the descendants 725 of a devisee who does not survive the testator are determined in 726 the same way they would have been determined under division (A) 727 of section 2105.06 of the Revised Code if the devisee had died 728 intestate and unmarried on the date of the testator's death. 729

(6) "Stepchild" means a child of the surviving, deceased, 730 or former spouse of the testator or of the donor of a power of 731 appointment and not of the testator or donor. 732

(7) "Surviving devisee" or "surviving descendant" means a 733 devisee or descendant, whichever is applicable, who survives the 734 testator by at least one hundred twenty hours. 735

(8) "Testator" includes the donee of a power of 736 appointment if the power is exercised in the testator's will. 737

(B) (1) As used in "surviving descendants" in divisions (B) 738
(2) (a) and (b) of this section, "descendants" means the 739 descendants of a deceased devisee or class member under the 740 applicable division who would take under a class gift created in 741
the testator's will. 742

(2) Unless a contrary intent appears in the will, if a 743 devisee fails to survive the testator and is a grandparent, a 744 descendant of a grandparent, or a stepchild of either the 745 testator or the donor of a power of appointment exercised by the 746 testator's will, either of the following applies: 747

(a) If the devise is not in the form of a class gift and 748 the deceased devisee leaves surviving descendants, a substitute 749 gift is created in the devisee's surviving descendants. The 750 surviving descendants take, per stirpes, the property to which 751 the devisee would have been entitled had the devisee survived 752

the testator. 753

(b) If the devise is in the form of a class gift, other 754 than a devise to "issue," "descendants," "heirs of the body," 755
"heirs," "next of kin," "relatives," or "family," or a class 756 described by language of similar import that includes more than 757 one generation, a substitute gift is created in the surviving 758 descendants of any deceased devisee. The property to which the 759 devisees would have been entitled had all of them survived the 760 testator passes to the surviving devisees and the surviving 761 descendants of the deceased devisees. Each surviving devisee 762 takes the share to which the surviving devisee would have been 763 entitled had the deceased devisees survived the testator. Each 764 deceased devisee's surviving descendants who are substituted for 765 the deceased devisee take, per stirpes, the share to which the 766 deceased devisee would have been entitled had the deceased 767 devisee survived the testator. For purposes of division (B) (2) 768
(b) of this section, "deceased devisee" means a class member who 769 failed to survive the testator by at least one hundred twenty 770 hours and left one or more surviving descendants. 771

(C) For purposes of this section, each of the following 772 applies: 773

(1) Attaching the word "surviving" or "living" to a 774 devise, such as a gift "to my surviving (or living) children," 775 is not, in the absence of other language in the will or other 776 evidence to the contrary, a sufficient indication of an intent 777 to negate the application of division (B) of this section. 778

(2) Attaching other words of survivorship to a devise, 779 such as "to my child, if my child survives me," is, in the 780 absence of other language in the will or other evidence to the 781 contrary, a sufficient indication of an intent to negate the 782 application of division (B) of this section.	783

(3) A residuary clause is not a sufficient indication of an intent to negate the application of division (B) of this section unless the will specifically provides that upon lapse or failure the nonresiduary devise, or nonresiduary devises in general, pass under the residuary clause.	784 785 786 787 788
(4) Unless the language creating a power of appointment expressly excludes the substitution of the descendants of an appointee for the appointee, a surviving descendant of a deceased appointee of a power of appointment may be substituted for the appointee under this section, whether or not the descendant is an object of the power of appointment.	789 790 791 792 793 794
(D) Except as provided in division (A), (B), or (C) of this section, each of the following applies:	795 796
(1) A devise, other than a residuary devise, that fails for any reason becomes a part of the residue.	797 798
(2) If the residue is devised to two or more persons, the share of a residuary devisee that fails for any reason passes to the other residuary devisee, or to other residuary devisees in proportion to the interest of each in the remaining part of the residue.	799 800 801 802 803
(3) If a residuary devise fails for any reason in its entirety, the residue passes by intestate succession.	804 805
(E) This section applies only to outright devises and appointments. Devises and appointments in trust, including to a testamentary trust, are subject to section 5808.19 of the Revised Code.	806 807 808 809
(F) This section applies to wills of decedents who die on	810 or after ~~the effective date of this section~~ March 22, 2012. 811

Sec. 2107.71. (A) A person interested in a will or codicil 812 admitted to probate in the probate court that has not been 813 declared valid by judgment of a ~~probate court~~ pursuant to 814 division (A) (1) of section 2107.084-5817.10 of the Revised Code 815
~~or that has been declared valid by judgment of a probate court~~
~~pursuant to section 2107.084 of the Revised Code but has been~~ 816 ~~removed from the possession of the probate judge,~~ may contest 817 its validity by filing a complaint in the probate court in the 818 county in which the will or codicil was admitted to probate. 819 820

(B) Except as otherwise provided in this division, no 821 person may contest the validity of any will or codicil as to 822 facts decided if it was submitted to a probate court by the 823 testator during the testator's lifetime and declared valid by 824 judgment of ~~the probate a court and filed with the judge of the~~ ~~probate court~~ pursuant to division (A) (1) of section 2107.084- 825 5817.10 of the Revised Code ~~and if the will was not removed from~~ 826
~~the possession of the probate judge.~~ A person may contest the 827 validity of that will, ~~modification,~~ or codicil as to those 828 facts if the person is one who should have been named a party 829 defendant in the action in which the will, ~~modification,~~ or 830 codicil was declared valid, pursuant to division (A) of section 831 2107.081 or 2107.084-5817.05 of the Revised Code, and if the 832 person was not named a defendant and properly served in that 833 action. Upon the filing of a complaint contesting the validity 834 of a will or codicil that is authorized by this division, the 835 court shall proceed with the action ~~in the same manner as if the~~ 836 ~~will, modification, or codicil had not been previously declared~~ 837
~~valid under sections 2107.081 to 2107.085 of the Revised Code.~~ 838
839

(C) No person may introduce, as evidence in an action 840 authorized by this section contesting the validity of a will, 841 the fact that the testator of the will did not file a complaint 842 for a judgment declaring its validity under ~~section 2107.081~~ 843 Chapter 5817. of the Revised Code. 844

Sec. 2111.182. If a minor is entitled to money or property 845 whether by settlement or judgment for personal injury or damage 846 to tangible or intangible property, inheritance or otherwise, 847 the probate court may order that all or a portion of the amount 848 received by the minor be deposited into a trust for the benefit 849 of that beneficiary until the beneficiary reaches twenty-five 850 years of age, and order the distribution of the amount in 851 accordance with the provisions of the trust. Prior to the 852 appointment as a trustee of a trust created pursuant to this 853 section, the person to be appointed shall be approved by a 854 parent or guardian of the minor beneficiary of the trust, unless 855 otherwise ordered by the probate court. 856

Sec. 2111.52. (A) A probate court may accept funds or 857 other program assistance from, or charge fees for services 858 described in division (C) of this section rendered to, 859 allowed under this division for commencing an action: 1132

(1) An action to contest the validity of the trust;	1133
(2) An action to contest the validity of any amendment to the trust that was made during the lifetime of the settlor of the trust;	1134 1135 1136

(2) The trustee receives written notification from a potential contestant of a potential action to contest the validity of the trust, any amendment to the trust, the revocation of the trust, or any transfer made to the trust during the lifetime of the settlor of the trust, and the action is actually filed within ninety days after the written notification was given to the trustee.	1150 1151 1152 1153 1154 1155 1156
(C) If a distribution of trust property is made pursuant to division (B) of this section, a beneficiary of the trust shall return any distribution to the extent that it exceeds the distribution to which the beneficiary is entitled if the trust, an amendment to the trust, or a transfer made to the trust later	1157 1158 1159 1160 1161

is determined to be invalid. 1162

(D) This section applies only to revocable trusts that are 1163 made irrevocable by the death of the settlor of the trust if the 1164 grantor dies on or after July 23, 2002. 1165

(E) Except as otherwise provided in this division, no 1166 person may contest the validity of any trust as to facts decided 1167 if the trust was submitted to a probate court by the settlor 1168 during the settlor's lifetime and declared valid by the judgment 1169 of a court pursuant to division (B) (1) of section 5817.10 of the 1170 party defendant in the action in which the trust was declared 1173 valid, pursuant to division (A) of section 5817.06 of the 1174 Revised Code, and if the person was not named a defendant and 1175 properly served in that action. 1176

Sec. 5808.19. (A) As used in this section, unless 1177 otherwise provided in any other provision in this section: 1178

(1) "Beneficiary" means the beneficiary of a future 1179 interest and includes a class member if the future interest is 1180 in the form of a class gift. 1181

(2) "Class member" means an individual who fails to 1182 survive the distribution date by at least one hundred twenty 1183 hours but who would have taken under a future interest in the 1184 form of a class gift had the individual survived the 1185 distribution date by at least one hundred twenty hours. 1186

(3) "Descendant of a grandparent of the transferor" means 1187 an individual who would qualify as a descendant of a grandparent 1188 of the transferor under the rules of construction that would 1189 apply to a class gift under the transferor's will to the 1190 descendants of the transferor's grandparent. 1191

(4) "Distribution date," with respect to a future 1192 interest, means the time when the future interest is to take 1193 effect in possession or enjoyment. The distribution date need 1194 not occur at the beginning or end of a calendar day but may 1195 occur at a time during the course of a day. 1196

(5) "Future interest" means an alternative future interest 1197 or a future interest in the form of a class gift. 1198

(6) "Future interest under the terms of a trust" means a 1199 future interest that was created by a transfer creating a trust 1200 or a transfer to an existing trust, or by an exercise of a power 1201 of appointment to an existing trust, that directs the 1202 continuance of an existing trust, designates a beneficiary of an 1203 existing trust, or creates a trust. 1204

(7) "Per stirpes" means that the shares of the descendants 1205 of a beneficiary who does not survive the distribution date by 1206 at least one hundred twenty hours are determined in the same way 1207 they would have been determined under division (A) of section 1208 2105.06 of the Revised Code if the beneficiary had died 1209 intestate and unmarried on the distribution date. 1210

(8) "Revocable trust" means a trust that was revocable 1211 immediately before the settlor's death by the settlor alone or 1212 by the settlor with the consent of any person other than a 1213 person holding an adverse interest. A trust's characterization 1214 as revocable is not affected by the settlor's lack of capacity 1215 to exercise the power of revocation, regardless of whether an 1216 agent of the settlor under a power of attorney, or a guardian of 1217 the person or estate of the settlor, was serving. 1218

(9) "Stepchild" means a child of the surviving, deceased, 1219 or former spouse of the transferor and not of the transferor. 1220

(10) "Transferor" means any of the following: 1221

(a) The donor and donee of a power of appointment, if the 1222 future interest was in property as a result of the exercise of a 1223 power of appointment; 1224

(b) The testator, if the future interest was devised by 1225 will; 1226

(c) The settlor, if the future interest was conveyed by 1227 inter vivos trust. 1228

(B) (1) (a) As used in "surviving descendants" in divisions 1229
(B) (2) (b) (i) and (ii) of this section, "descendants" means the 1230 descendants of a deceased beneficiary or class member who would 1231 take under a class gift created in the trust. 1232

(b) As used in divisions (B) (2) (b) (i) and (ii) of this 1233 section, "surviving beneficiaries" or "surviving descendants" 1234 means beneficiaries or descendants, whichever is applicable, who 1235 survive the distribution date by at least one hundred twenty 1236 hours. 1237

(2) Unless a contrary intent appears in the instrument 1238 creating a future interest under the terms of a trust, each of 1239 the following applies: 1240

(a) A future interest under the terms of a trust is 1241 contingent on the beneficiary's surviving the distribution date 1242 by at least one hundred twenty hours. 1243

(b) If a beneficiary of a future interest under the terms 1244 of a trust does not survive the distribution date by at least 1245 one hundred twenty hours and if the beneficiary is a grandparent 1246 of the transferor, a descendant of a grandparent of the 1247 transferor, or a stepchild of the transferor, either of the 1248 following applies: 1249

(i) If the future interest is not in the form of a class 1250 gift and the deceased beneficiary leaves surviving descendants, 1251 a substitute gift is created in the beneficiary's surviving 1252 descendants. The surviving descendants take, per stirpes, the 1253 property to which the beneficiary would have been entitled had 1254 the beneficiary survived the distribution date by at least one 1255 hundred twenty hours. 1256

(ii) If the future interest is in the form of a class 1257 gift, other than a future interest to "issue," "descendants," 1258
"heirs of the body," "heirs," "next of kin," "relatives," or 1259
"family," or a class described by language of similar import 1260 that includes more than one generation, a substitute gift is 1261 created in the surviving descendants of the deceased beneficiary 1262 or beneficiaries. The property to which the beneficiaries would 1263 have been entitled had all of them survived the distribution 1264 date by at least one hundred twenty hours passes to the 1265 surviving beneficiaries and the surviving descendants of the 1266 deceased beneficiaries. Each surviving beneficiary takes the 1267 share to which the surviving beneficiary would have been 1268 entitled had the deceased beneficiaries survived the 1269 distribution date by at least one hundred twenty hours. Each 1270 deceased beneficiary's surviving descendants who are substituted 1271 for the deceased beneficiary take, per stirpes, the share to 1272 which the deceased beneficiary would have been entitled had the 1273 deceased beneficiary survived the distribution date by at least 1274 one hundred twenty hours. For purposes of division (B) (2) (b) (ii) 1275 of this section, "deceased beneficiary" means a class member who 1276 failed to survive the distribution date by at least one hundred 1277 twenty hours and left one or more surviving descendants. 1278

(C) For purposes of this section, each of the following 1279
applies: 1280

(1) Describing a class of beneficiaries as "surviving" or 1281
"living," without specifying when the beneficiaries must be 1282 surviving or living, such as a gift "for my spouse for life, 1283 then to my surviving (or living) children," is not, in the 1284 absence of other language in the trust instrument or other 1285 evidence to the contrary, a sufficient indication of an intent 1286 to negate the application of division (B) (2) (b) of this section. 1287

(2) Subject to division (C) (1) of this section, attaching 1288 words of survivorship to a future interest under the terms of a 1289 trust, such as "for my spouse for life, then to my children who 1290 survive my spouse" or "for my spouse for life, then to my then- 1291 living children" is, in the absence of other language in the 1292 trust instrument or other evidence to the contrary, a sufficient 1293 indication of an intent to negate the application of division 1294
(B) (2) (b) of this section. Words of survivorship under division 1295
(C) (2) of this section include words of survivorship that relate 1296 to the distribution date or to an earlier or an unspecified 1297 time, whether those words of survivorship are expressed as 1298 condition-precedent, condition-subsequent, or in any other form. 1299

(3) A residuary clause in a will is not a sufficient 1300 indication of an intent that is contrary to the application of 1301 this section, whether or not the will specifically provides that 1302 lapsed or failed devises are to pass under the residuary clause. 1303
A residuary clause in a revocable trust instrument is not a 1304 sufficient indication of an intent that is contrary to the 1305 application of this section unless the distribution date is the 1306 date of the settlor's death and the revocable trust instrument 1307 specifically provides that upon lapse or failure the 1308 nonresiduary devise, or nonresiduary devises in general, pass 1309 under the residuary clause. 1310

(D) If, after the application of divisions (B) and (C) of 1311 this section there is no surviving taker of the property, and a 1312 contrary intent does not appear in the instrument creating the 1313 future interest, the property passes in the following order: 1314

(1) If the future interest was created by the exercise of 1315 a power of appointment, the property passes under the donor's 1316 gift-in-default clause, if any, which clause is treated as 1317 creating a future interest under the terms of a trust. 1318

(2) If no taker is produced under division (D) (1) of this 1319 section and the trust was created in a nonresiduary devise in 1320

2107.085 of the Revised Code are hereby repealed. 1721

Section 3. This act's amendment of section 2107.05 of the 1722
Revised Code is intended to abrogate the holdings of the Ohio 1723
Supreme Court in Hageman v. Cleveland Trust Company, 45 Ohio 1724 St.2d 178 (1976) and the Ohio Second District Court of Appeals 1725 in Gehrke v. Senkiw, 2016 Ohio 2657 (2016). 1726

Section 4. Section 2101.24 of the Revised Code is 1727 presented in this act as a composite of the section as amended 1728 by both Sub. S.B. 23 of the 130th General Assembly and Sub. H.B. 1729 158 of the 131st General Assembly. The General Assembly, 1730 applying the principle stated in division (B) of section 1.52 of 1731 the Revised Code that amendments are to be harmonized if 1732 reasonably capable of simultaneous operation, finds that the 1733 composite is the resulting version of the section in effect 1734 prior to the effective date of the section as presented in this 1735

act. 1736
