A BILL

To prohibit discrimination based on an individual's texture or style of hair.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Creating a Respectful
3 and Open World for Natural Hair Act of 2019” or the 4 “CROWN Act of 2019”.

5 SEC. 2. FINDINGS; SENSE OF CONGRESS; PURPOSE.

6 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

7 (1) Throughout United States history, society
8 has used (in conjunction with skin color) hair tex-
9 ture and hairstyle to classify individuals on the basis
10 of race.

11 (2) Like one’s skin color, one’s hair has served
12 as a basis of race and national origin discrimination.

13 (3) Racial and national origin discrimination
14 can and do occur because of longstanding racial and 15 national origin biases and stereotypes associated 16 with hair texture and style.

17 (4) For example, routinely, people of African 18 descent are deprived of educational and employment
19 opportunities because they are adorned with natural 20 or protective hairstyles in which hair is tightly coiled
21 or tightly curled, or worn in locs, cornrows, twists,
22 braids, Bantu knots, or Afros.

23 (5) Racial and national origin discrimination is 24 reflected in school and workplace policies and prac-
25 tices that bar natural or protective hairstyles com-
26 monly worn by people of African descent.

1 (6) For example, as recently as 2018, the
2 United States Armed Forces had grooming policies 3 that barred natural or protective hairstyles that 4 servicewomen of African descent commonly wear and 5 that described these hairstyles as “unkempt”.

6 (7) In 2018, the United States Armed Forces
7 rescinded these policies and recognized that this de-
8 scription perpetuated derogatory racial stereotypes.

9 (8) The United States Armed Forces also rec-
10 ognized that prohibitions against natural or protec-
11 tive hairstyles that African-American servicewomen
12 are commonly adorned with are racially discrimina-
13 tory and bear no relationship to African-American 14 servicewomen’s occupational qualifications and their 15 ability to serve and protect the Nation.

16 (9) As a type of racial or national origin dis-
17 crimination, discrimination on the basis of natural 18 or protective hairstyles that people of African de-19 scend are commonly adorned with violates existing 20 Federal law, including provisions of the Civil Rights
21 Act of 1964 (42 U.S.C. 2000e et seq.), section 1977
22 of the Revised Statutes (42 U.S.C. 1981), and the 23 Fair Housing Act (42 U.S.C. 3601 et seq.). How-24 ever, some Federal courts have misinterpreted Fed-25 eral civil rights law by narrowly interpreting the

1 meaning of race or national origin, and thereby per-
2 mitting, for example, employers to discriminate
3 against people of African descent who wear natural 4 or protective hairstyles even though the employment
5 policies involved are not related to workers' ability to 6 perform their jobs.

7 (10) Applying this narrow interpretation of race
8 or national origin has resulted in a lack of Federal 9 civil rights protection for individuals who are dis-
10 criminated against on the basis of characteristics 11 that are commonly associated with race and national 12 origin.

13 (11) In 2019, State legislatures and municipal 14 bodies throughout the United States have introduced 15 and passed legislation that rejects certain Federal 16 courts' restrictive interpretation of race and national 17 origin, and expressly classifies race and national ori-18 gin discrimination as inclusive of discrimination on 19 the basis of natural or protective hairstyles com-
20 monly associated with race and national origin.

21 (b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-
22 gress that—

23 (1) the Federal Government should acknowl-
24 edge that individuals who have hair texture or wear 25 a hairstyle that is historically and contemporarily as-

1 sociated with African Americans or persons of Afri-
2 can descent systematically suffer harmful discrimi-
3 nation in schools, workplaces, and other contexts
4 based upon longstanding race and national origin
5 stereotypes and biases;

6 (2) a clear and comprehensive law should ad-
7 dress the systematic deprivation of educational, em-
8 ployment, and other opportunities on the basis of 9 hair texture and hairstyle that are commonly associ-
10 ated with race or national origin;

11 (3) clear, consistent, and enforceable legal 12 standards must be provided to redress the wide-
13 spread incidences of race and national origin dis-
14 crimination based upon hair texture and hairstyle in 15 schools, workplaces, housing, federally funded insti-
16 tutions, and other contexts;

17 (4) it is necessary to prevent educational, em-
18 ployment, and other decisions, practices, and policies 19 generated by or reflecting negative biases and 20 stereotypes related to race or national origin;

21 (5) the Federal Government must play a key
22 role in enforcing Federal civil rights laws in a way 23 that secures equal educational, employment, and 24 other opportunities for all individuals regardless of 25 their race or national origin;

1 (6) the Federal Government must play a central 2 role in enforcing the standards established under 3 this Act on behalf of individuals who suffer race or 4 national origin discrimination based upon hair tex-
5 ture and hairstyle;

6 (7) it is necessary to prohibit and provide rem-
7 edies for the harms suffered as a result of race or 8 national origin discrimination on the basis of hair 9 texture and hairstyle; and

10 (8) it is necessary to mandate that school,
11 workplace, and other applicable standards be applied
12 in a nondiscriminatory manner and to explicitly pro-
13 hibit the adoption or implementation of grooming re-14 quirements that disproportionately impact people of 15 African descent.

16 (c) PURPOSE.—The purpose of this Act is to institute
17 definitions of race and national origin for Federal civil 18 rights laws that effectuate the comprehensive scope of pro-
19 tection Congress intended to be afforded by such laws and 20 Congress’ objective to eliminate race and national origin
21 discrimination in the United States.
