In the House of Representatives, U. S.,

October 22, 2019.

- Whereas United States citizen Paul Whelan is a resident of Novi, Michigan, and a United States Marine Corps veteran;
- Whereas Paul Whelan traveled to Moscow for the wedding of a personal friend on December 22, 2018;
- Whereas Russia's Federal Security Service arrested Paul Whelan at the Metropol Hotel in Moscow on December 28, 2018, and charged him with espionage;
- Whereas Paul Whelan was imprisoned in Lefortovo Prison and continues to be held there more than 8 months after his arrest;
- Whereas the Federal Security Service has not provided any evidence of supposed wrongdoing;
- Whereas a Moscow court has extended Paul Whelan's pretrial detention multiple times without publicly presenting justification or evidence of wrongdoing;
- Whereas officials from the United States Embassy in Moscow have routinely had their topics of discussion with Paul Whelan severely limited by the Federal Security Service;
- Whereas even Paul Whelan's Federal Security Service-appointed lawyer, Vladimir Zherebenkov, said on May 24,

- 2019, "[The Federal Security Service] always roll[s] out what they have, but in this case, we've seen nothing concrete against Whelan in five months. That means there is nothing.";
- Whereas the United States Ambassador to Russia, Jon Huntsman, responded on April 12, 2019, to a question about the detention of Paul Whelan, "If the Russians have evidence, they should bring it forward. We have seen nothing. If there was a case, I think the evidence would have been brought forward by now."; and
- Whereas Secretary of State Mike Pompeo met with Russian Foreign Minister Sergey Lavrov on May 14, 2019, and urged him to ensure United States citizens are not unjustly held abroad: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

- (1) urges the Government of the Russian Federation to present credible evidence on the allegations against Paul Whelan or immediately release him from detention;
- (2) urges the Government of the Russian Federation to provide unrestricted consular access to Paul Whelan while he remains in detention;
- (3) urges the Government of the Russian Federation to ensure Paul Whelan is afforded due process and universally recognized human rights;
- (4) encourages the President and the Secretary of State to continue to press the Government of the Russian Federation at every opportunity and urge the Russian Government to guarantee a fair and transparent judicial process without undue delay in accordance with its international legal obligation; and

(5) expresses sympathy to the family of Paul Whelan and expresses hope that their ordeal can soon be brought to an end.

Attest:

Clerk.
