EXPLANATION: CAPITALS INDICATE MATTER ADDED TO EXISTING LAW.

[Brackets] indicate matter deleted from existing law.

Underlining indicates amendments to bill.

Strike out indicates matter stricken from the bill by amendment or deleted from the law by amendment.

1 On receipt of an order by an administrative law judge granting a (a) (1) $\mathbf{2}$ petition under subsection (b) of this section, the Board of Public Works shall compensate 3 an individual erroneously convicted, sentenced, and confined under State law for a crime 4 the individual did not commit in an amount equal to the product of the total number of days that the individual was wrongfully confined after the erroneous conviction multiplied by a $\mathbf{5}$ 6 daily rate of the State's most recent annual median household income as published in the 7 American Community Survey of the U.S. Census Bureau in the year the order of eligibility 8 is issued under subsection (b) of this section and divided by 365 days to the nearest whole 9 cent.

10 (2) In addition to the compensation awarded under paragraph (1) of this 11 subsection, the administrative law judge issuing an order under subsection (b) of this 12 section may direct the appropriate State agency or service provider to provide to the 13 individual free of charge any of the following benefits:

(i) a State identification card and any other document necessary forthe individual's health or welfare on the individual's release from confinement;

(ii) housing accommodations [available on the individual's release from confinement] for a period not exceeding 5 years AFTER THE DATE THE ORDER OF ELIGIBILITY IS ISSUED UNDER SUBSECTION (B) OF THIS SECTION;

(iii) education and training relevant to life skills, job and vocational training, or financial literacy for a period of time until the individual elects to no longer receive the education and training;

(iv) health care and dental care for at least 5 years after the [individual's release from confinement] DATE THE ORDER OF ELIGIBILITY IS ISSUED
UNDER SUBSECTION (B) OF THIS SECTION;

(v) access to enrollment at and payment of tuition and fees for attending a public senior higher education institution, a regional higher education center, or the Baltimore City Community College for a period of enrollment not exceeding [5] 8 years; and

(vi) reimbursement for court fines, fees, and restitution paid by the individual for the crime for which the individual was erroneously convicted, sentenced, and confined.

32 (3) (i) If an individual previously received a monetary award from a 33 civil suit or entered into a settlement agreement with the State or a political subdivision of 34 the State for an erroneous conviction, sentence, or confinement, the amount owed to the 35 individual under this subsection shall be reduced by the amount of the monetary award or 36 settlement that was paid to the individual less any amount paid for attorney's fees and 37 costs for litigating the award or settlement.

1 (ii) 1. If, after receiving compensation under this subsection, an 2 individual receives a monetary award from a civil suit or enters into a settlement 3 agreement with the State or a political subdivision of the State for an erroneous conviction, 4 sentence, or confinement, the individual shall reimburse the State the amount of money 5 paid under this section less any amount paid for attorney's fees and costs for litigating the 6 award or settlement.

Reimbursement required under subsubparagraph 1 of this subparagraph may not exceed the amount of the monetary award the individual received in the civil suit or settlement agreement.

3. The State may obtain a lien against the monetary award from a civil suit or settlement agreement to satisfy an obligation under subsubparagraph 1 of this subparagraph.

13 (4) [An individual may not receive compensation under this subsection for 14 any period of confinement during which the individual was concurrently serving a sentence 15 for a conviction of another offense for which the individual was lawfully convicted and 16 confined.

17 (5)] If an individual eligible for compensation and benefits under this 18 subsection is deceased, the individual's estate has standing to be compensated under this 19 subsection.

20 (b) (1) An administrative law judge shall issue an order that an individual is 21 eligible for compensation and benefits from the State under subsection (a) of this section if:

(i) the individual has received from the Governor a full pardon stating that the individual's conviction has been shown conclusively to be in error; or

(ii) subject to paragraph (2) of this subsection, the administrative law judge finds that the individual has proven by clear and convincing evidence that:
