78B-6-2104 , as enacted by Laws of Utah 2017, Chapter 464
ENACTS:
78B-6-2105 , Utah Code Annotated 1953
Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:
Section 1. Section 78B-6-2104 is amended to read:
78B-6-2104. Damages Class action.
(1) If a court finds that a person [violates] is violating Section 78B-6-2103, the court may award the plaintiff:
(a) actual damages; and
(b) punitive damages, if it is proven that the person targeted minors.
(2) A class action may be brought under this part in accordance with Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 23.
Section 2. Section 78B-6-2105 is enacted to read:
78B-6-2105. Civil action for enforcement Penalties.
(1) A person may not distribute material the state considers harmful to minors as defined in Section 76-10-1201 without first giving a clear and reasonable warning of the harmful impact of exposing minors to the material. The warning of the harm shall be prominently displayed in the following form:
STATE OF UTAH WARNING
Exposing minors to pornography is known to the state of Utah to cause negative impacts to brain development, emotional development, and the ability to maintain intimate relationships.
Such exposure may lead to harmful and addictive sexual behavior, low self-esteem, and the improper objectification of and sexual violence towards others, among numerous other harms.
(2) (a) For print publications, the warning in Subsection (1) shall be placed in clear, readable type on the cover of each publication which includes material as defined in Section
76-10-1201.
(b) For digital publications, the warning in Subsection (1) shall be displayed for at least
15 seconds prior to the display of any video or each image which includes material as defined
in Section 76-10-1201.
(3) A person who violates Section 78B-6-2103 shall be liable for a civil penalty not to

59	exceed $2,500 per violation, plus filing fees and attorney fees, in addition to any other penalty
60	established by law, and enjoined from further violations. The civil penalty may be assessed and
61	recovered in a civil action brought in any court of competent jurisdiction. Each violation shall
62	be the sale or display of potentially harmful content without the warning required in Subsection
63	(1), in accordance with Subsection (2). The court, in ordering payment, shall specify each
64	amount for the civil penalty, filing fees, and attorney fees.
65	(4) In assessing the amount of a civil penalty for a violation of this chapter, the court
66	shall consider all of the following:
67	(a) the nature and extent of the violation;
68	(b) the number and severity of the violations;
69	(c) the economic effect of the penalty on the violator;
70	(d) whether the violator took good faith measures to comply with this chapter and
71	when those measures were taken;
72	(e) the willfulness of the violator's misconduct;
73	(f) the deterrent effect that the imposition of the penalty would have on both the
74	violator and the regulated community as a whole; and
75	(g) any other factor that the court determines justice requires.
76	(5) Actions pursuant to this section may be brought by the attorney general's office in
77	the name of the people of the state or by a private person in accordance with Subsection (6).
78	(6) A private person may bring an action in the public interest pursuant to this section
79	if:
80	(a) the person has served notice of an alleged violation of Section 78B-6-2103 on the
81	alleged violator and the attorney general's office;
82	(b) the attorney general's office has not provided a letter to the noticing party within 60
83	days of receipt of the notice of an alleged violation indicating that:
84	(i) an action is currently being pursued or will be pursued by the attorney general's
85	office regarding the violation; or
86	(ii) the attorney general believes that there is no merit to the action; and
87	(c) the alleged violator has not responded to the notice of alleged violation or returned
88	the proof of compliance form provided in Subsection (12).
89	(7) If a lawsuit is commenced, the plaintiff may include additional violations in the

90	claim that are discovered through the discovery process.
91	(8) Notice of the alleged violation shall be executed by the attorney for the noticing
92	party, or by the noticing party, if the noticing party is not represented by an attorney, and
93	include a notice of alleged violation. The notice of alleged violation shall:
94	(a) state that the person executing the notice believes that there is a violation; and
95	(b) provide factual information sufficient to establish the basis for the alleged violation.
96	(9) A person who serves a notice of alleged violation identified in Subsection (8) shall
97	complete and provide to the alleged violator at the time the notice of alleged violation is
98	served, a notice of special compliance procedure and proof of compliance form pursuant to
99	Subsection (12). The person may file an action against the alleged violator, or recover from the
100	alleged violator if:
101	(a) the notice of alleged violation alleges that the alleged violator failed to provide a
102	clear and reasonable warning as required under Subsection (1); and
103	(b) within 14 days after receipt of the notice of alleged violation, the alleged violator
104	has not:
105	(i) corrected the alleged violation and all similar violations known to the alleged
106	violator;
107	(ii) agreed to pay a penalty for the alleged violation in the amount of $500 per
108	violation; and
109	(iii) notified, in writing, the noticing party that the violation has been corrected.
110	(10) The written notice required in Subsection (9)(b)(iii) shall be the notice of special
111	compliance procedure and proof of compliance form specified in Subsection (12). The alleged
112	violator shall deliver the civil penalty to the noticing party within 30 days of receipt of the
113	notice of alleged violation.
114	(11) The attorney general shall review the notice of alleged violation and may confer
115	with the noticing party. If the attorney general believes there is no merit to the action, the
116	attorney general shall, within 45 days of receipt of the notice of alleged violation, provide a
117	letter to the noticing party and the alleged violator stating that the attorney general believes
118	there is no merit to the action.
119	(12) The notice required to be provided to an alleged violator pursuant to Subsection
120	(9) shall be presented as follows:
