1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

2 Congress finds the following:

3 (1) Since 2008, incidents of murder, other vio-
4 lent crime, and corruption perpetrated by criminal 5 networks, armed gangs and groups, and illicit traf-
6 ficking organizations have remained at alarming lev-
7 els in El Salvador, Guatemala, and Honduras.

8 (2) In 2017, El Salvador and Honduras—

9 (A) continued to be among the most vio-
10 lent countries in Latin America and the world, 11 with 60 and 42 murders for every 100,000 peo-12 ple, respectively; and

13 (B) were characterized by a high preva-
14 lence of gang-related violence and crimes involv-15 ing sexual and gender-based violence.

1           (3) El Salvador and Honduras are both among 2 the top 3 countries in the world with the highest 3 child homicide rates, with more than 22 and 32 4 deaths per 100,000 children respectively, according 5 to the nongovernmental organization Save the Chil-6 dren.

7           (4) A November 2017 report by the United Na-
8 tions Development Programme and UN Women
9 stated that femicide “is taking on a devastating 10 magnitude and trend in Central America, where 2 in 11 every 3 women murdered, are killed because of their 12 gender.”.

13           (5) Since 2014, elevated numbers of unaccom-
14 panied minors, women, and other vulnerable individ-
15 uals have fled violence in Central America’s North-
16 ern Triangle and left for the United States in search 17 of protection.

18           (6) Unaccompanied minors emigrating from El 19 Salvador, Guatemala, and Honduras cite violence, 20 forced gang recruitment, extortion, poverty, and lack 21 of opportunity as reasons for leaving their home 22 countries.

23           (7) Challenges to the rule of law in the North-
24 ern Triangle continue to be exacerbated by high lev-
25 els of impunity related to murders and violent crime.

1 In 2015, approximately 95 percent of murders tak-
2 ing place in Honduras and El Salvador remained 3 unresolved.

4 (8) The presence of major drug trafficking or-5 ganizations in the Northern Triangle contributes to 6 violence, corruption, and criminality. According to 7 the Department of State's 2017 International Nar-
8 cotics Control Strategy Report, El Salvador, Guate-
9 mala, and Honduras continue to be transit countries
10 for illicit drugs originating from countries in South
11 America that are destined for the United States.

12 (9) In June 2018, the Office of the United Na-
13 tions High Commissioner for Human Rights found
14 that in El Salvador, a pattern of behavior among se-
15 curity personnel and weak institutional responses
16 may have resulted in extrajudicial executions and ex-17 cessive use of force, with official figures indicating 18 an alarming increase in the number of persons (al-19 leged gang-members) who have been killed by secu-20 rity personnel.

21 (10) Widespread public sector corruption in the 22 Northern Triangle undermines economic and social 23 development and directly affects regional political 24 stability.

1           (11) Human rights defenders, journalists, trade
2 unionists, social leaders, and LGBT activists in the 3 Northern Triangle face dire conditions, as evidenced 4 by—

5                   (A) the March 2016 murder of the promi-
6 nent Honduran environmental activist, Berta 7 Caceres; and

8                   (B) the ongoing targeted killing of civil so-9 ciety leaders in all 3 countries in the Northern 10 Triangle.

11           (12) The Northern Triangle struggles with high 12 levels of economic insecurity. In 2016, 60.9 percent 13 of Hondurans and 38 percent of Salvadorans lived 14 below the poverty line. In 2014, 59.3 percent of 15 Guatemalans lived below the poverty line.

16           (13) Weak investment climates, low levels of tax 17 collection, and low levels of educational opportunity 18 are barriers to inclusive economic growth and social 19 development in the Northern Triangle.

20           (14) In January 2018 and May 2018, the 21 Trump Administration announced the termination of 22 Temporary Protected Status designations for Hon-
23 duras and El Salvador, respectively, which would af-24 fect more than 500,000 individuals and their United

1 States citizen children who may have to return to 2 dangerous conditions in those countries.

3 (15) In a November 2017 letter to the Depart-
4 ment of Homeland Security, then Secretary of State
5 Rex Tillerson warned that as a result of ending 6 Temporary Protected Status, the Governments of El 7 Salvador and Honduras “may take retaliatory ac-
8 tions counter to our long-standing national security 9 and economic interests like withdrawing their coun-10 ternarcotics and anti-gang cooperation with the 11 United States, reducing their willingness to accept 12 the return of their deported citizens, or refraining 13 from efforts to control illegal migration.”.

14 SEC. 3. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

15 It is the sense of Congress that—

16 (1) United States support is necessary to ad-
17 dress irregular migration by addressing the violence
18 and humanitarian crisis in the Northern Triangle,
19 which has resulted in the elevated numbers of Cen-20 tral American unaccompanied children, women, and 21 other refugees and migrants arriving at the South-
22 western border of the United States;

23 (2) the violence and humanitarian crisis is 24 linked to the severe challenges posed by—

1 (A) high rates of homicide, sexual and gen-2 der-based violence, and violent crime per-3 petrated by armed criminal actors, including 4 drug trafficking organizations and criminal
5 gangs, such as the MS-13 and 18th Street
6 gangs;

7 (B) endemic corruption carried out by or-8 ganized networks and the weak rule of law, in-9 cluding the limited institutional capacity of na-10 tional police forces, public prosecutors, and 11 court systems; and

12 (C) the limited capabilities and lack of po-
13 litical will on the part of Northern Triangle
14 governments to establish the rule of law, guar-15 antee security, and ensure the well-being of 16 their citizens;

17 (3) the United States must work with inter-
18 national partners—

19 (A) to address the complicated conditions 20 in the Northern Triangle that contribute to the 21 violence and humanitarian crisis; and

22 (B) to guarantee protections for vulnerable
23 populations, particularly women and children, 24 fleeing violence in the region;

1           (4) the Plan of the Alliance for Prosperity in 2 the Northern Triangle, which was developed by the 3 Governments of El Salvador, Guatemala, and Hon-
4 duras, with the technical assistance of the Inter-
5 American Development Bank, represents a com-
6 prehensive approach to address the complex situa-
7 tion in the Northern Triangle;

8           (5) the United States Strategy for Engagement
9 in Central America, as first developed by President
10 Obama and Vice President Biden, provides impor-11 tant support for the Alliance for Prosperity and 12 other United States national security priorities, in-13 cluding rule of law and anti-corruption initiatives;

14           (6) President Trump’s decision to reduce 15 United States foreign assistance to El Salvador, 16 Guatemala, and Honduras from funding levels set in 17 fiscal years 2017 and 2018—

18           (A) poses a serious risk to United States 19 national security; and

20           (B) will damage the efforts of the United 21 States to address the underlying conditions 22 causing citizens of El Salvador, Guatemala, and 23 Honduras to flee their homelands and migrate
24 to the United States;

1           (7) the Trump Administration’s proposed cuts
2           in United States foreign assistance for Central 3           America for fiscal year 2020, if implemented, would 4           undermine the United States ability to work with 5           the Governments of El Salvador, Guatemala, and 6           Honduras to address critical United States national 7           security priorities and the factors driving migration
8           to the United States;

9           (8) the Trump Administration must reverse its 10          decision to terminate the Temporary Protected Sta-11          tus designations for El Salvador and Honduras in 12          order to prevent negative consequences to United 13          States foreign policy objectives;

14          (9) the United States should partner with the 15          Government of Mexico—

16                 (A) to strengthen Mexico’s internal asylum 17                 system; and

18                 (B) ensure that Mexico upholds inter-19                 national and humanitarian standards;

20          (10) combating corruption in the Northern Tri-21          angle must remain a critical priority and the United 22          States must continue its public and financial support
23          for the United Nation’s Commission Against Impu-24          nity in Guatemala (CICIG) and the Organization of 25          American States’ Mission to Support the Fight

1       Against Corruption and Impunity in Honduras
2       (MACCIH) as part of this effort;

3               (11) the Government of Guatemala should re-
4       verse its efforts—

5                       (A) to terminate CICIG’s mandate; and 6                       (B) to undermine the effectiveness of 7       CICIG’s ongoing operations, including prohib-

8       iting the current CICIG Commissioner from en-9       tering the country; and

10               (12) it is imperative for the United States to 11       implement a multi-year strategy and sustain a long-
12       term commitment to addressing the underlying fac-
13       tors causing Central Americans to flee their coun-14       tries by strengthening citizen security, the rule of 15       law, democratic governance, the protection of human 16       rights, and inclusive economic growth in the North-17       ern Triangle.
