(F) Every public body, by rule, shall establish a	144 reasonable method whereby any person may determine the time and	145 place of all regularly scheduled meetings and the time, place,	146 and purpose of all special meetings. A public body shall not	147 hold a special meeting unless it gives at least twenty-four	148 hours' advance notice to the news media that have requested	149
notification, except in the event of an emergency requiring	150 immediate official action. In the event of an emergency, the	151 member or members calling the meeting shall notify the news	152
media that have requested notification immediately of the time,	153
place, and purpose of the meeting.	154
The rule shall provide that any person, upon request and	155

the person. 162

(G) Except as provided in divisions (G)(8) and (J) of this 163 section, the members of a public body may hold an executive 164 session only after a majority of a quorum of the public body 165 determines, by a roll call vote, to hold an executive session 166 and only at a regular or special meeting for the sole purpose of 167
the consideration of any of the following matters: 168

(1) To consider the appointment, employment, dismissal, 169 discipline, promotion, demotion, or compensation of a public 170 employee or official, or the investigation of charges or 171 complaints against a public employee, official, licensee, or 172 regulated individual, unless the public employee, official, 173 licensee, or regulated individual requests a public hearing. 174 Except as otherwise provided by law, no public body shall hold 175 an executive session for the discipline of an elected official 176 for conduct related to the performance of the elected official's 177 official duties or for the elected official's removal from 178 office. If a public body holds an executive session pursuant to 179 division (G)(1) of this section, the motion and vote to hold 180 that executive session shall state which one or more of the 181 approved purposes listed in division (G)(1) of this section are 182 the purposes for which the executive session is to be held, but 183 need not include the name of any person to be considered at the 184 meeting. 185

(2) To consider the purchase of property for public 186 purposes, the sale of property at competitive bidding, or the 187 sale or other disposition of unneeded, obsolete, or unfit-for- 188 use property in accordance with section 505.10 of the Revised 189 Code, if premature disclosure of information would give an 190 unfair competitive or bargaining advantage to a person whose 191 personal, private interest is adverse to the general public 192 interest. No member of a public body shall use division (G) (2) 193 of this section as a subterfuge for providing covert information 194 to prospective buyers or sellers. A purchase or sale of public 195 property is void if the seller or buyer of the public property 196 has received covert information from a member of a public body 197 that has not been disclosed to the general public in sufficient 198 time for other prospective buyers and sellers to prepare and 199 submit offers. 200

If the minutes of the public body show that all meetings 201 and deliberations of the public body have been conducted in 202 compliance with this section, any instrument executed by the 203 public body purporting to convey, lease, or otherwise dispose of 204 any right, title, or interest in any public property shall be 205 conclusively presumed to have been executed in compliance with 206 this section insofar as title or other interest of any bona fide 207 purchasers, lessees, or transferees of the property is 208 concerned. 209

(3) Conferences with an attorney for the public body 210 concerning disputes involving the public body that are the 211 subject of pending or imminent court action; 212

(4) Preparing for, conducting, or reviewing negotiations 213 or bargaining sessions with public employees concerning their 214 compensation or other terms and conditions of their employment; 215

(5) Matters required to be kept confidential by federal 216 law or regulations or state statutes; 217

(6) Details relative to the security arrangements and 218 emergency response protocols for a public body or a public 219 office, if disclosure of the matters discussed could reasonably 220 be expected to jeopardize the security of the public body or 221 public office; 222

(7) In the case of a county hospital operated pursuant to 223
Chapter 339. of the Revised Code, a joint township hospital 224 operated pursuant to Chapter 513. of the Revised Code, or a 225 municipal hospital operated pursuant to Chapter 749. of the 226 Revised Code, to consider trade secrets, as defined in section 227
1333.61 of the Revised Code; 228

(8) To consider confidential information related to the 229 marketing plans, specific business strategy, production 230 techniques, trade secrets, or personal financial statements of 231 an applicant for economic development assistance, or to 232 negotiations with other political subdivisions respecting 233 requests for economic development assistance, provided that both 234 of the following conditions apply: 235

(a) The information is directly related to a request for 236 economic development assistance that is to be provided or 237 administered under any provision of Chapter 715., 725., 1724., 238 or 1728. or sections 701.07, 3735.67 to 3735.70, 5709.40 to 239 5709.43, 5709.61 to 5709.69, 5709.73 to 5709.75, or 5709.77 to 240 5709.81 of the Revised Code, or that involves public 241 infrastructure improvements or the extension of utility services 242 that are directly related to an economic development project. 243

(b) A unanimous quorum of the public body determines, by a 244 roll call vote, that the executive session is necessary to 245 protect the interests of the applicant or the possible 246 investment or expenditure of public funds to be made in 247 connection with the economic development project. 248

If a public body holds an executive session to consider 249 any of the matters listed in divisions (G) (2) to (8) of this 250 section, the motion and vote to hold that executive session 251 shall state which one or more of the approved matters listed in 252 those divisions are to be considered at the executive session. 253

A public body specified in division (B) (1) (c) of this 254 section shall not hold an executive session when meeting for the 255 purposes specified in that division. 256

(H) A resolution, rule, or formal action of any kind is 257 invalid unless adopted in an open meeting of the public body. A 258 resolution, rule, or formal action adopted in an open meeting 259 that results from deliberations in a meeting not open to the 260 public is invalid unless the deliberations were for a purpose 261 specifically authorized in division (G) or (J) of this section 262 and conducted at an executive session held in compliance with 263 this section. A resolution, rule, or formal action adopted in an 264 open meeting is invalid if the public body that adopted the 265 resolution, rule, or formal action violated division (F) of this 266
section. 267

(I) (1) ~~Any (a) In order to enforce this section, any~~ 268 ~~person may bring an action to enforce this section may do only~~ 269 one of the following, and not both: 270

(i) File a complaint with the clerk of the court of claims 271 or the clerk of the court of common pleas under section 2743.76 272
of the Revised Code; 273

(ii) Bring an action for injunction in the court of common 274 pleas in the county in which the public body involved is 275 located. 276

(b) An action under division (I) (1) (a) (ii) of this section 277 shall be brought within two years after the date of the alleged 278 violation or threatened violation. Upon proof of a violation or 279 threatened violation of this section in an action brought by any 280 person under that division, the court of common pleas shall 281 issue an injunction to compel the members of the public body to 282 comply with its provisions. 283

(2) (a) If the court of common pleas issues an injunction 284 pursuant to division (I) (1) (b) of this section, the court shall 285 order the public body that it enjoins to pay a civil forfeiture 286 of five hundred dollars to the party that sought the injunction 287 and shall award to that party all court costs and, subject to 288 reduction as described in division (I) (2) of this section, 289 reasonable attorney's fees. The court, in its discretion, may 290 reduce an award of attorney's fees to the party that sought the 291 injunction or not award attorney's fees to that party if the 292 court determines both of the following: 293

(i) That, based on the ordinary application of statutory 294 law and case law as it existed at the time of violation or 295 threatened violation that was the basis of the injunction, a 296 well-informed public body reasonably would believe that the 297 public body was not violating or threatening to violate this 298
section; 299

(ii) That a well-informed public body reasonably would 300 believe that the conduct or threatened conduct that was the 301 basis of the injunction would serve the public policy that 302 underlies the authority that is asserted as permitting that 303 conduct or threatened conduct. 304

(b) If the court of common pleas does not issue an 305 injunction pursuant to division (I) (1) (b) of this section and 306 the court determines at that time that the bringing of the 307 action was frivolous conduct, as defined in division (A) of 308 section 2323.51 of the Revised Code, the court shall award to 309 the public body all court costs and reasonable attorney's fees, 310 as determined by the court. 311

(3) Irreparable harm and prejudice to the party that 312 sought the injunction shall be conclusively and irrebuttably 313 presumed upon proof of a violation or threatened violation of 314
this section. 315

(4) A member of a public body who knowingly violates an 316 injunction issued pursuant to division (I)(1)(b) of this section 317 may be removed from office by an action brought in the court of 318 common pleas for that purpose by the prosecuting attorney or the 319 attorney general. 320

(J)(1) Pursuant to division (C) of section 5901.09 of the 321
Revised Code, a veterans service commission shall hold an 322 executive session for one or more of the following purposes 323 unless an applicant requests a public hearing: 324

(a) Interviewing an applicant for financial assistance 325 under sections 5901.01 to 5901.15 of the Revised Code; 326

(b) Discussing applications, statements, and other 327 documents described in division (B) of section 5901.09 of the 328
Revised Code; 329

(c) Reviewing matters relating to an applicant's request 330 for financial assistance under sections 5901.01 to 5901.15 of 331
the Revised Code. 332

(2) A veterans service commission shall not exclude an 333 applicant for, recipient of, or former recipient of financial 334 assistance under sections 5901.01 to 5901.15 of the Revised 335 Code, and shall not exclude representatives selected by the 336 applicant, recipient, or former recipient, from a meeting that 337

the commission conducts as an executive session that pertains to 338 the applicant's, recipient's, or former recipient's application 339 for financial assistance. 340

(3) A veterans service commission shall vote on the grant 341 or denial of financial assistance under sections 5901.01 to 342 5901.15 of the Revised Code only in an open meeting of the 343 commission. The minutes of the meeting shall indicate the name, 344 address, and occupation of the applicant, whether the assistance 345 was granted or denied, the amount of the assistance if 346 assistance is granted, and the votes for and against the 347 granting of assistance. 348

Sec. 2323.52. (A) As used in this section: 349

(1) "Conduct" has the same meaning as in section 2323.51 350
of the Revised Code. 351

(2) "Vexatious conduct" means conduct of a party in a 352 civil action that satisfies any of the following: 353

(a) The conduct obviously serves merely to harass or 354 maliciously injure another party to the civil action. 355

(b) The conduct is not warranted under existing law and 356 cannot be supported by a good faith argument for an extension, 357 modification, or reversal of existing law. 358

(c) The conduct is imposed solely for delay. 359

(3) "Vexatious litigator" means any person who has 360 habitually, persistently, and without reasonable grounds engaged 361 in vexatious conduct in a civil action or actions, whether in 362 the court of claims or in a court of appeals, court of common 363 pleas, municipal court, or county court, whether the person or 364 another person instituted the civil action or actions, and 365 whether the vexatious conduct was against the same party or 366 against different parties in the civil action or actions. 367

"Vexatious litigator" does not include a person who is 368 authorized to practice law in the courts of this state under the 369
Ohio Supreme Court Rules for the Government of the Bar of Ohio 370 unless that person is representing or has represented self pro 371 se in the civil action or actions. For the purposes of division 372
(A) (3) of this section, "civil action" includes a proceeding 373 under section 2743.75 or 2743.76 of the Revised Code. 374

(B) A person, the office of the attorney general, or a 375 prosecuting attorney, city director of law, village solicitor, 376 or similar chief legal officer of a municipal corporation who 377 has defended against habitual and persistent vexatious conduct 378 in the court of claims or in a court of appeals, court of common 379 pleas, municipal court, or county court may commence a civil 380 action in a court of common pleas with jurisdiction over the 381 person who allegedly engaged in the habitual and persistent 382 vexatious conduct to have that person declared a vexatious 383 litigator. The person, office of the attorney general, 384
prosecuting attorney, city director of law, village solicitor, 385 or similar chief legal officer of a municipal corporation may 386 commence this civil action while the civil action or actions in 387 which the habitual and persistent vexatious conduct occurred are 388 still pending or within one year after the termination of the 389 civil action or actions in which the habitual and persistent 390 vexatious conduct occurred. 391

(C) A civil action to have a person declared a vexatious 392 litigator shall proceed as any other civil action, and the Ohio 393 Rules of Civil Procedure apply to the action. 394

(D) (1) If the person alleged to be a vexatious litigator 395 is found to be a vexatious litigator, subject to division (D) (2) 396 of this section, the court of common pleas may enter an order 397 prohibiting the vexatious litigator from doing one or more of 398 the following without first obtaining the leave of that court to 399 proceed: 400

(a) Instituting legal proceedings in the court of claims 401 or in a court of common pleas, municipal court, or county court; 402

(b) Continuing any legal proceedings that the vexatious 403 litigator had instituted in any of the courts specified in 404 division (D) (1) (a) of this section prior to the entry of the 405
order; 406

(c) Making any application, other than an application for 407 leave to proceed under division (F) (1) of this section, in any 408 legal proceedings instituted by the vexatious litigator or 409 another person in any of the courts specified in division (D) (1) 410
(a) of this section. 411

(2) If the court of common pleas finds a person who is 412 authorized to practice law in the courts of this state under the 413
Ohio Supreme Court Rules for the Government of the Bar of Ohio 414 to be a vexatious litigator and enters an order described in 415 division (D) (1) of this section in connection with that finding, 416 the order shall apply to the person only insofar as the person 417 would seek to institute proceedings described in division (D) (1) 418
(a) of this section on a pro se basis, continue proceedings 419 described in division (D) (1) (b) of this section on a pro se 420 basis, or make an application described in division (D) (1) (c) of 421 this section on a pro se basis. The order shall not apply to the 422 person insofar as the person represents one or more other 423 persons in the person's capacity as a licensed and registered 424 attorney in a civil or criminal action or proceeding or other 425 matter in a court of common pleas, municipal court, or county 426 court or in the court of claims. Division (D) (2) of this section 427 does not affect any remedy that is available to a court or an 428 adversely affected party under section 2323.51 or another 429 section of the Revised Code, under Civil Rule 11 or another 430 provision of the Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure, or under the 431 common law of this state as a result of frivolous conduct or 432 other inappropriate conduct by an attorney who represents one or 433 more clients in connection with a civil or criminal action or 434 proceeding or other matter in a court of common pleas, municipal 435 court, or county court or in the court of claims. 436

(3) A person who is subject to an order entered pursuant 437 to division (D) (1) of this section may not institute legal 438 proceedings in a court of appeals, continue any legal 439 proceedings that the vexatious litigator had instituted in a 440 court of appeals prior to entry of the order, or make any 441 application, other than the application for leave to proceed 442 allowed by division (F) (2) of this section, in any legal 443 proceedings instituted by the vexatious litigator or another 444 person in a court of appeals without first obtaining leave of 445 the court of appeals to proceed pursuant to division (F) (2) of 446
this section. 447

(E) An order that is entered under division (D) (1) of this 448 section shall remain in force indefinitely unless the order 449 provides for its expiration after a specified period of time. 450

(F) (1) A court of common pleas that entered an order under 451 division (D) (1) of this section shall not grant a person found 452 to be a vexatious litigator leave for the institution or 453 continuance of, or the making of an application in, legal 454 proceedings in the court of claims or in a court of common 455 pleas, municipal court, or county court unless the court of 456 common pleas that entered that order is satisfied that the 457 proceedings or application are not an abuse of process of the 458 court in question and that there are reasonable grounds for the 459 proceedings or application. If a person who has been found to be 460 a vexatious litigator under this section requests the court of 461 common pleas that entered an order under division (D)(1) of this 462 section to grant the person leave to proceed as described in 463 division (F)(1) of this section, the period of time commencing 464 with the filing with that court of an application for the 465 issuance of an order granting leave to proceed and ending with 466 the issuance of an order of that nature shall not be computed as 467 a part of an applicable period of limitations within which the 468 legal proceedings or application involved generally must be 469 instituted or made. 470

(2) A person who is subject to an order entered pursuant 471 to division (D)(1) of this section and who seeks to institute or 472 continue any legal proceedings in a court of appeals or to make 473 an application, other than an application for leave to proceed 474 under division (F)(2) of this section, in any legal proceedings 475 in a court of appeals shall file an application for leave to 476 proceed in the court of appeals in which the legal proceedings 477 would be instituted or are pending. The court of appeals shall 478 not grant a person found to be a vexatious litigator leave for 479
the institution or continuance of, or the making of an 480 application in, legal proceedings in the court of appeals unless 481 the court of appeals is satisfied that the proceedings or 482 application are not an abuse of process of the court and that 483 there are reasonable grounds for the proceedings or application. 484
If a person who has been found to be a vexatious litigator under 485 this section requests the court of appeals to grant the person 486 leave to proceed as described in division (F) (2) of this 487 section, the period of time commencing with the filing with the 488 court of an application for the issuance of an order granting 489 leave to proceed and ending with the issuance of an order of 490 that nature shall not be computed as a part of an applicable 491 period of limitations within which the legal proceedings or 492 application involved generally must be instituted or made. 493

(G) During the period of time that the order entered under 494 division (D) (1) of this section is in force, no appeal by the 495 person who is the subject of that order shall lie from a 496 decision of the court of common pleas or court of appeals under 497 division (F) of this section that denies that person leave for 498
the institution or continuance of, or the making of an 499 application in, legal proceedings in the court of claims or in a 500 court of appeals, court of common pleas, municipal court, or 501 county court. 502

(H) The clerk of the court of common pleas that enters an 503 order under division (D) (1) of this section shall send a 504 certified copy of the order to the supreme court for publication 505 in a manner that the supreme court determines is appropriate and 506 that will facilitate the clerk of the court of claims and a 507 clerk of a court of appeals, court of common pleas, municipal 508 court, or county court in refusing to accept pleadings or other 509 papers submitted for filing by persons who have been found to be 510 a vexatious litigator under this section and who have failed to 511 obtain leave to proceed under this section. 512

(I) Whenever it appears by suggestion of the parties or 513 otherwise that a person found to be a vexatious litigator under 514 this section has instituted, continued, or made an application 515 in legal proceedings without obtaining leave to proceed from the 516 appropriate court of common pleas or court of appeals to do so 517 under division (F) of this section, the court in which the legal 518 proceedings are pending shall dismiss the proceedings or 519 application of the vexatious litigator. 520

Sec. 2743.03. (A) (1) There is hereby created a court of 521 claims. The court of claims is a court of record and has 522 exclusive, original jurisdiction of all civil actions against 523 the state permitted by the waiver of immunity contained in 524 section 2743.02 of the Revised Code and exclusive jurisdiction 525 of the causes of action of all parties in civil actions that are 526 removed to the court of claims. The court shall have full equity 527 powers in all actions within its jurisdiction and may entertain 528 and determine all counterclaims, cross-claims, and third-party 529 claims. 530

(2) If the claimant in a civil action as described in 531 division (A) (1) of this section also files a claim for a 532 declaratory judgment, injunctive relief, or other equitable 533 relief against the state that arises out of the same 534 circumstances that gave rise to the civil action described in 535 division (A) (1) of this section, the court of claims has 536 exclusive, original jurisdiction to hear and determine that 537 claim in that civil action. This division does not affect, and 538 shall not be construed as affecting, the original jurisdiction 539 of another court of this state to hear and determine a civil 540 action in which the sole relief that the claimant seeks against 541 the state is a declaratory judgment, injunctive relief, or other 542 equitable relief. 543

(3) In addition to its exclusive, original jurisdiction as 544 conferred by divisions (A) (1) and (2) of this section, the court 545 of claims has exclusive, original jurisdiction as follows: 546

(a) As described in division (F) of section 2743.02, 547 division (B) of section 3335.03, and division (C) of section 548
5903.02 of the Revised Code; 549

(b) Under section 2743.75 of the Revised Code to hear 550 complaints alleging a denial of access to public records in 551 violation of division (B) of section 149.43 of the Revised Code, 552 regardless of whether the public office or person responsible 553 for public records is an office or employee of the state or of a 554 political subdivision; 555

(c) Under section 2743.76 of the Revised Code to hear 556 complaints alleging a violation of section 121.22 of the Revised 557
Code by a public body, as defined in section 121.22 of the 558
Revised Code. 559

(B) The court of claims shall sit in Franklin county, its 560 hearings shall be public, and it shall consist of incumbent 561 justices or judges of the supreme court, courts of appeals, or 562 courts of common pleas, or retired justices or judges eligible 563 for active duty pursuant to division (C) of Section 6 of Article 564 IV, Ohio Constitution, sitting by temporary assignment of the 565 chief justice of the supreme court. The chief justice may direct 566 the court to sit in any county for cases on removal upon a 567 showing of substantial hardship and whenever justice dictates. 568

(C) (1) A civil action against the state shall be heard and 569 determined by a single judge. Upon application by the claimant 570 or the state, the chief justice of the supreme court may assign 571 a panel of three judges to hear and determine a civil action 572 presenting novel or complex issues of law or fact. Concurrence 573 of two members of the panel is necessary for any judgment or 574
order. 575

(2) Whenever the chief justice of the supreme court 576 believes an equitable resolution of a case will be expedited, 577 the chief justice may appoint magistrates in accordance with 578 Civil Rule 53 to hear the case. 579

(3) When any dispute under division (B) of section 153.12 580 of the Revised Code is brought to the court of claims, upon 581 request of either party to the dispute, the chief justice of the 582 supreme court shall appoint a single referee or a panel of three 583 referees. The referees need not be attorneys, but shall be 584 persons knowledgeable about construction contract law, a member 585 of the construction industry panel of the American arbitration 586 association, or an individual or individuals deemed qualified by 587 the chief justice to serve. No person shall serve as a referee 588 if that person has been employed by an affected state agency or 589 a contractor or subcontractor involved in the dispute at any 590 time in the preceding five years. Proceedings governing referees 591 shall be in accordance with Civil Rule 53, except as modified by 592 this division. The referee or panel of referees shall submit its 593 report, which shall include a recommendation and finding of 594 fact, to the judge assigned to the case by the chief justice, 595 within thirty days of the conclusion of the hearings. Referees 596 appointed pursuant to this division shall be compensated on a 597 per diem basis at the same rate as is paid to judges of the 598 court and also shall be paid their expenses. If a single referee 599 is appointed or a panel of three referees is appointed, then, 600 with respect to one referee of the panel, the compensation and 601 expenses of the referee shall not be taxed as part of the costs 602 in the case but shall be included in the budget of the court. If 603 a panel of three referees is appointed, the compensation and 604 expenses of the two remaining referees shall be taxed as costs 605 of the case. 606

All costs of a case shall be apportioned among the 607 parties. The court may not require that any party deposit with 608 the court cash, bonds, or other security in excess of two 609 hundred dollars to guarantee payment of costs without the prior 610 approval in each case of the chief justice. 611

(4) An appeal from a decision of the attorney general 612 pursuant to sections 2743.51 to 2743.72 of the Revised Code 613 shall be heard and determined by the court of claims. 614

(D) The Rules of Civil Procedure shall govern practice and 615 procedure in all actions in the court of claims, except insofar 616 as inconsistent with this chapter. The supreme court may 617 promulgate rules governing practice and procedure in actions in 618 the court as provided in Section 5 of Article IV, Ohio 619 Constitution. 620

(E) (1) A party who files a counterclaim against the state 621 or makes the state a third-party defendant in an action 622 commenced in any court, other than the court of claims, shall 623 file a petition for removal in the court of claims. The petition 624 shall state the basis for removal, be accompanied by a copy of 625 all process, pleadings, and other papers served upon the 626 petitioner, and shall be signed in accordance with Civil Rule 627 11. A petition for removal based on a counterclaim shall be 628 filed within twenty-eight days after service of the counterclaim 629 of the petitioner. A petition for removal based on third-party 630 practice shall be filed within twenty-eight days after the 631 filing of the third-party complaint of the petitioner. 632

(2) Within seven days after filing a petition for removal, 633 the petitioner shall give written notice to the parties, and 634 shall file a copy of the petition with the clerk of the court in 635 which the action was brought originally. The filing effects the 636 removal of the action to the court of claims, and the clerk of 637 the court where the action was brought shall forward all papers 638 in the case to the court of claims. The court of claims shall 639 adjudicate all civil actions removed. The court may remand a 640 civil action to the court in which it originated upon a finding 641 that the removal petition does not justify removal, or upon a 642 finding that the state is no longer a party. 643

(3) Bonds, undertakings, or security and injunctions, 644 attachments, sequestrations, or other orders issued prior to 645 removal remain in effect until dissolved or modified by the 646 court of claims. 647

Sec. 2743.76. (A) In order to provide for an expeditious 648 and economical procedure that attempts to resolve disputes 649 alleging a violation of section 121.22 of the Revised Code, 650 except for a court that hears an action pursuant to that 651 section, the court of claims shall be the sole and exclusive 652 authority in this state that adjudicates or resolves complaints 653 based on alleged violations of that section. The clerk of the 654 court of claims shall designate one or more current employees or 655 hire one or more individuals to serve as special masters to hear 656 complaints brought under this section. All special masters shall 657 have been engaged in the practice of law in this state for at 658 least four years and be in good standing with the supreme court 659 at the time of designation or hiring. The clerk may assign 660 administrative and clerical work associated with complaints 661 brought under this section to current employees or may hire such 662 additional employees as may be necessary to perform such work. 663

(B) The clerk of the court of common pleas in each county 664 shall act as the clerk of the court of claims for purposes of 665 accepting those complaints filed with the clerk under division 666

(D) (1) of this section, accepting filing fees for those 667 complaints, and serving those complaints. 668

(C) (1) Subject to division (C) (2) of this section, a 669 person allegedly aggrieved by a violation of section 121.22 of 670 the Revised Code may seek relief under that section or under 671 this section, provided, however, that if the allegedly aggrieved 672 person files a complaint under either section, that person may 673 not seek relief that pertains to the same allegation in a 674 complaint filed under the other section. 675

(2) If the allegedly aggrieved person files a complaint 676 under this section and the court of claims determines that the 677 complaint constitutes a case of first impression that involves 678 an issue of substantial public interest or a unique or complex 679 case that manifestly requires discovery, hearings, or oral 680 testimony, the court shall dismiss the complaint without 681 prejudice and direct the allegedly aggrieved person to commence 682 an action in the court of common pleas with appropriate 683 jurisdiction as provided in division (I) (1) (a) (ii) of section 684
121.22 of the Revised Code. 685

(D) (1) An allegedly aggrieved person who proceeds under 686 this section shall file a complaint, on a form prescribed by the 687 clerk of the court of claims, with the clerk of the court of 688 claims or with the clerk of the court of common pleas of the 689 county in which the public body that allegedly violated section 690 121.22 of the Revised Code is located. The person shall attach 691 to the complaint copies of any documents, written responses, or 692 other communications relating to the alleged violation from the 693 public body or its authorized representative and shall pay a 694 filing fee of twenty-five dollars made payable to the clerk of 695 the court with whom the complaint is filed. The clerk shall 696 serve a copy of the complaint on the public body and its 697 authorized representative in accordance with Civil Rule 4.1 and, 698 if the complaint is filed with the clerk of the court of common 699 pleas, shall forward the complaint to the clerk of the court of 700 claims, and to no other court, within five business days after 701 service on the public body and its authorized representative is 702 complete. 703

(2) Upon receipt of a complaint filed under division (D) 704
(1) of this section, the clerk of the court of claims shall 705 assign a case number for the action and a special master to 706 examine the complaint. Notwithstanding any provision to the 707 contrary in this section, upon the recommendation of the special 708 master, the court of claims on its own motion may dismiss the 709 complaint at any time. The allegedly aggrieved person may 710 voluntarily dismiss the complaint filed by that person under 711 division (D) (1) of this section. 712

(E) (1) Upon service of a complaint under division (D) (1) 713 of this section, except as otherwise provided in this division, 714 the special master assigned by the clerk under division (D) (2) 715 of this section immediately shall refer the case to mediation 716 services that the court of claims makes available to persons. 717
If, in the interest of justice considering the circumstances of 718 the case or the parties, the special master determines that the 719 case should not be referred to mediation, the special master 720 shall notify the court that the case was not referred to 721 mediation, and the case shall proceed in accordance with 722 division (F) of this section. If the case is referred to 723 mediation, any further proceedings under division (F) of this 724 section shall be stayed until the conclusion of the mediation. 725 Any mediation proceedings under this division may be conducted 726 by teleconference, telephone, or other electronic means. If an 727 agreement is reached during mediation, the court shall dismiss 728 the complaint. If an agreement is not reached, the special 729 master shall notify the court that the case was not resolved and 730 that the mediation has been terminated. 731

(2) Within ten business days after the termination of the 732 mediation or the notification to the court that the case was not 733 referred to mediation under division (E) (1) of this section, the 734 public body or its authorized representative shall file a 735 response, and if applicable, a motion to dismiss the complaint, 736 with the clerk of the court of claims and transmit copies of the 737 pleadings to the allegedly aggrieved party. No further motions 738 or pleadings shall be accepted by the clerk of the court of 739 claims or by the special master assigned by the clerk under 740 division (D) (2) of this section unless the special master 741 directs in writing that a further motion or pleading be filed. 742

(3) All of the following apply prior to the submission of 743 the special master's report and recommendation to the court of 744 claims under division (F) (1) of this section: 745

(a) The special master shall not permit any discovery. 746

(b) The parties may attach supporting affidavits to their 747 respective pleadings. 748

(c) The special master may require either or both of the 749 parties to submit additional information or documentation 750 supported by affidavits. 751

(F) (1) Not later than thirty business days after receiving 752 the response, or motion to dismiss the complaint, if applicable, 753 of the public body or its authorized representative, the special 754 master shall submit to the court of claims a report and 755 recommendation based on the ordinary application of statutory 756 law and case law as they existed at the time of the filing of 757 the complaint. For good cause shown, the special master may 758 extend the thirty-day period for the submission of the report 759 and recommendation to the court of claims under this division. 760

(2) Upon submission of the special master's report and 761 recommendation to the court of claims under division (F) (1) of 762 this section, the clerk shall send copies of the report and 763 recommendation to each party by certified mail, return receipt 764 requested, not later than three business days after the report 765 and recommendation is filed. Either party may object to the 766 report and recommendation within seven business days after 767 receiving the report and recommendation by filing a written 768 objection with the clerk and sending a copy to the other party 769 by certified mail, return receipt requested. Any objection to 770 the report and recommendation shall be specific and state with 771 particularity all grounds for the objection. If neither party 772 timely objects, the court of claims shall promptly issue a final 773 order adopting the report and recommendation, unless it 774 determines that there is an error of law or other defect evident 775 on the face of the report and recommendation. If either party 776 timely objects, the other party may file with the clerk a 777 response within seven business days after receiving the 778 objection and send a copy of the response to the objecting party 779 by certified mail, return receipt requested. The court, within 780 seven business days after the response to the objection is 781 filed, shall issue a final order that adopts, modifies, or 782 rejects the report and recommendation. 783

(3) If the court of claims determines that the public body 784 violated section 121.22 of the Revised Code as alleged by the 785 aggrieved person and if no appeal from the court's final order 786 is taken under division (G) of this section, all of the 787

following apply:

(a) The public body shall comply with the remedy that the court requires in its order.

(b) The aggrieved person shall be entitled to recover from the public body the amount of the filing fee of twenty-five dollars and any other costs associated with the action that are incurred by the aggrieved person, but shall not be entitled to recover attorney's fees, except that division (G) (2) of this section applies if an appeal is taken under division (G) (1) of this section.

(c) The court of claims shall issue an injunction to compel the members of the public body to comply with section 121.22 of the Revised Code.

(G) (1) Any appeal from a final order of the court of claims under this section or from an order of the court of claims dismissing the complaint as provided in division (D) (2) of this section shall be taken to the court of appeals of the appellate district where the principal place of business of the public body that is alleged to have violated section 121.22 of the Revised Code is located. However, no appeal may be taken from a final order of the court of claims that adopts the special master's report and recommendation unless a timely objection to that report and recommendation was filed under division (F) (2) of this section. If the court of claims materially modifies the special master's report and recommendation, either party may take an appeal to the court of appeals of the appellate district of the principal place of business where that public body is located but the appeal shall be limited to the issue in the report and recommendation that is materially modified by the court of claims. In order to facilitate the expeditious resolution of disputes over alleged 818 violations of section 121.22 of the Revised Code, the appeal 819 shall be given such precedence over other pending matters as 820 will ensure that the court will reach a decision promptly. 821

(2) If a court of appeals in any appeal taken under 822 division (G) (1) of this section by the public body or its 823 authorized representative determines that the public body 824 violated section 121.22 of the Revised Code as alleged by the 825 aggrieved person and obviously filed the appeal with the intent 826 to either delay compliance with the court of claims' order from 827 which the appeal is taken for no reasonable cause or unduly 828 harass the aggrieved person, the court of appeals may award 829 reasonable attorney's fees to the aggrieved person in accordance 830 with division (I) (2) (a) of section 121.22 of the Revised Code. 831
No discovery may be conducted on the issue of the public body or 832 its authorized representative filing the appeal with the alleged 833 intent to either delay compliance with the court of claims' 834 order for no reasonable cause or unduly harass the aggrieved 835 person. This division shall not be construed as creating a 836 presumption that the public body or its authorized 837 representative filed the appeal with the intent to either delay 838 compliance with the court of claims' order for no reasonable 839 cause or unduly harass the aggrieved person. 840

(H) The powers of the court of claims prescribed in 841 section 2743.05 of the Revised Code apply to the proceedings in 842 that court under this section. 843

(I) (1) All filing fees collected by a clerk of the court 844 of common pleas under division (D) (1) of this section shall be 845 paid to the county treasurer for deposit into the county general 846 revenue fund. All such money collected during a month shall be 847 transmitted on or before the twentieth day of the following 848 month by the clerk of the court of common pleas to the county 849 treasurer. 850

(2) All filing fees collected by the clerk of the court of 851 claims under division (D) (1) of this section shall be kept by 852 the court of claims to assist in paying for its costs to 853 implement this section. Not later than the first day of February 854 of each year, the clerk of the court of claims shall prepare a 855 report accessible to the public that details the fees collected 856 during the preceding calendar year by the clerk of the court of 857 claims and the clerks of the courts of common pleas under this 858
section. 859

(J) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit 860 the authority of the auditor of state under division (G) of 861 section 109.43 of the Revised Code. 862

Sec. 2746.04. In addition to any applicable fees or costs 863 set forth in sections 2746.01 and 2746.02 of the Revised Code or 864 any other applicable provision of law, a court of common pleas 865 shall tax as costs or otherwise require the payment of fees for 866
the following services rendered or as compensation for the 867 following persons or any other of the following fees that are 868 applicable in a particular case: 869

(A) The fees provided for in section 2303.20 of the 870
Revised Code; 871

(B) Additional fees to computerize the court, make 872 available computerized legal research services, computerize the 873 office of the clerk of the court, provide financial assistance 874 to legal aid societies, support the office of the state public 875 defender, fund shelters for victims of domestic violence, and 876 special projects of the court, as provided in section 2303.201 877 and, for a court that has a domestic relations division, section 878

2301.031 of the Revised Code; 879

(C) Filing for a divorce decree under section 3105.10 or a 880 decree of dissolution under section 3105.65 of the Revised Code, 881 as provided in section 3109.14 of the Revised Code; 882

(D) Filing of a foreign judgment pursuant to section 883 2329.022 of the Revised Code, as provided in section 2329.025 of 884
the Revised Code; 885

(E) Interpreters, as provided in section 2301.14 of the 886
Revised Code; 887

(F) Jurors in civil actions, as provided in section 888
2335.28 of the Revised Code; 889

(G) Reporters, as provided in sections 2301.21 and 2301.24 890
of the Revised Code; 891

(H) In a case involving the operation by a nonresident of 892 a vessel upon the waters in this state, or the operation on the 893 waters in this state of a vessel owned by a nonresident if 894 operated with the nonresident's consent, actual traveling 895 expenses of the defendant, as provided in section 1547.36 of the 896
Revised Code; 897

(I) In a civil case, the expenses of taking a deposition 898 of a person who is imprisoned in a workhouse, juvenile detention 899 facility, jail, or state correctional institution within this 900 state, or who is in the custody of the department of youth 901 services, as provided in section 2317.06 of the Revised Code; 902

(J) In proceedings relating to the examination of a 903 judgment debtor under sections 2333.09 to 2333.27 of the Revised 904

Code, compensation for clerks, sheriffs, referees, receivers, 905 and witnesses, as provided in section 2333.27 of the Revised 906 Code; 907

(K) In an appeal from an order of an agency issued 908 pursuant to an adjudication under section 119.12 of the Revised 909 Code, the expense of preparing and transcribing the record; 910

(L) In a case in which the court issues a protection order 911 upon a petition alleging that the respondent engaged in domestic 912 violence against a family or household member, the cost of 913 supervision of the respondent's exercise of parenting time, 914 visitation, or companionship rights, as provided in section 915
3113.31 of the Revised Code; 916

(M) Upon a petition to have a person involuntarily 917 institutionalized, the costs of appointed counsel for the 918
