

116TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. RES. 823

Condemning the Government of Iran's state-sponsored persecution of its Baha'i minority and its continued violation of the International Covenants on Human Rights.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JANUARY 30, 2020

Mr. DEUTCH (for himself, Mr. WILSON of South Carolina, Mr. ENGEL, Mr. McCAUL, Ms. SCHAKOWSKY, Mr. SMITH of New Jersey, Mr. SCHNEIDER, Mr. CHABOT, Mr. MEEKS, and Mrs. WAGNER) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs

RESOLUTION

Condemning the Government of Iran's state-sponsored persecution of its Baha'i minority and its continued violation of the International Covenants on Human Rights.

Whereas, in 1982, 1984, 1988, 1990, 1992, 1993, 1994, 1996, 2000, 2004, 2006, 2008, 2009, 2012, 2013, 2015, 2016, 2017, and 2018, Congress declared that it deplored the religious persecution by the Government of Iran of the Baha'i community and would hold the Government of Iran responsible for upholding the rights of all Iranian nationals, including members of the Baha'i faith;

Whereas, since 1979, authorities have killed or executed more than 200 Baha'i leaders, and more than 10,000 have been dismissed from government and university jobs;

Whereas the Report of the United Nations Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights in the Islamic Republic of Iran (A/74/188) dated July 18, 2019, provides, in part—

(1) the Iranian authorities and the Iranian criminal justice system regard the Baha'is as “unprotected infidels”; the Baha'i faith is also “regarded as a misguided sect”; and “Baha'i worship and religious practices are deemed heresy.”;

(2) “Baha'is have been murdered with impunity and violations of their human rights have not been investigated.”;

(3) members of the Baha'i faith “frequently face charges, such as, ‘breaching national security’, ‘propaganda against the holy regime of the Islamic Republic of Iran’, or ‘propaganda activities against the regime in the interests of the Baha'i sect’”;

(4) “Since August 2005, more than 1,168 Baha'is have been arrested and charged with vaguely worded offences.”;

(5) “There were a total of 95 Baha'is reportedly arrested in 2018, compared with at least 84 in 2017 and 81 in 2016.”;

(6) “On 1 January 2019, the court of appeal of Isfahan reportedly condemned, in separate judgments, nine Baha'i citizens to a total of 48 years of prison. They had been charged with ‘membership of the illegal Baha'i community and propaganda against the regime by spreading the Baha'i faith in the society.’”;

(7) directed by a 2007 letter from the Security Unit of the Public Place Supervision Office of the Islamic Republic of Iran to police commanders throughout the country, Iranian authorities continue to apply economic pressure against the Baha'i community, by banning them from specific professions and "halting their entry to 'high earning businesses.'"; and

(8) "Since 2013, there have been more than 803 incidents of violations of economic rights of the Baha'is, including arbitrary shop closures, unfair dismissals from employment and the actual or threatened revocation of business licenses.";

Whereas the Department of State's International Religious Freedom Report for 2018, Iran section, provides, in part—

(1) "Non-Shia Muslims and those affiliated with a religion other than Islam, especially members of the Baha'i community, continued to face societal discrimination and harassment, and employers experienced social pressures not to hire Baha'is or to dismiss them from their private sector jobs."; and

(2) "The law bars Baha'is from founding their own educational institutions. A Ministry of Science, Research, and Technology order requires universities to exclude Baha'is from access to higher education or expel them if their religious affiliation becomes known.";

Whereas, on March 13, 2019, the Department of State released the Country Reports on Human Rights Practices for 2018 and, in connection with Iran, the report provides, in part—

(1) Iranian authorities "barred Baha'i students from higher education", and in September 2018, denied enrollment to more than 50 Baha'i college applicants because of their religious affiliation; and

(2) "The country materially contributed to human rights abuses . . . in Yemen, through its support for Houthi rebels and directing authorities in Houthi-controlled areas of Yemen to harass and detain Baha'is because of their religious affiliation.";

Whereas the 2019 Annual Report of the United States Commission on International Religious Freedom provides, in part—

(1) "There are more than 300,000 Baha'is in Iran, who together constitute the largest non-Muslim religious majority in the country.";

(2) "Shiraz city councilman Mehdi Hajati was arrested on the order of the Shiraz Revolutionary Court after criticizing the arrests of Baha'is in his city."; and

(3) "Security forces also prevented the burial of two deceased Baha'i individuals in a Baha'i cemetery in Kerman after it was sealed in March 2018. In October, the body of a deceased Baha'i woman was exhumed four days after her burial and abandoned in a desert area outside the town of Jaban.";

Whereas the Baha'i International Community has documented more than 26,000 items of anti-Baha'i hate propaganda in Iran's official and semi official media since January 2014;

Whereas the Government of Iran is a party to the International Covenants on Human Rights and is in violation of its obligations under such covenants;

Whereas section 105 of the Comprehensive Iran Sanctions, Accountability, and Divestment Act of 2010 (22 U.S.C. 8514) authorizes the President to impose sanctions on individuals “responsible for or complicit in, or responsible for ordering, controlling, or otherwise directing, the commission of serious human rights abuses against citizens of Iran or their family members on or after June 12, 2009”; and

Whereas the Iran Threat Reduction and Syria Human Rights Act of 2012 (Public Law 112–158) amends and expands the authorities established under the Comprehensive Iran Sanctions, Accountability, and Divestment Act of 2010 (Public Law 111–195) to sanction Iranian human rights abusers: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

2 (1) condemns the Government of Iran’s state-
3 sponsored persecution of its Baha’i minority and its
4 continued violation of the International Covenants
5 on Human Rights;

6 (2) calls on the Government of Iran—

7 (A) to immediately release all imprisoned
8 or detained Baha’is, together with all other
9 prisoners held solely on account of their reli-
10 gion;

11 (B) to end its state-sponsored campaign of 12 hate propaganda against the Baha’is; and

13 (C) to reverse state-imposed policies deny-
14 ing equal opportunities to higher education,
15 earning a livelihood, due process under the law,
16 and the free exercise of religious practices;

1 (3) calls on the President and the Secretary of
2 State, in cooperation with responsible nations, to im-
3 mediately condemn the Government of Iran's contin-
4 ued violation of human rights and demand the im-
5 mediate release of prisoners held solely on account
6 of their religion; and

7 (4) urges the President and the Secretary of
8 State to utilize available authorities to impose sanc-
9 tions on officials of the Government of Iran and 10 other individuals directly responsible for serious
11 human rights abuses, including abuses against the 12 Baha'i community of Iran.
