18 (a) DEFINITION.—Section 214(g)(9) of the Immigra-

21 “(D) For purposes of section 101(a)(15)(H)(ii)(b), 22 the term ‘other temporary service or labor’ means that an 23 employer’s need for labor will last not more than 1 year 24 and is a seasonal, peak load, or intermittent need, unless 25 it is a one-time occurrence lasting not longer than 3 years.
 26 For purposes of the preceding sentence, a ‘seasonal’ need

1 for labor is a need for labor that lasts not longer than

3 (b) ADMISSION OF TEMPORARY H-2B WORKERS.—
4 Chapter 2 of title II of the Immigration and Nationality

7 “§ 218A. Admission of temporary H-2B workers

8 “(a) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

17 under section 207, is granted asylum under sec-
18 tion 208, or is an immigrant otherwise author-
19 ized by this Act to be employed.

20 “(3) The term ‘displace’ means to lay off a 21 worker from a job that is essentially equivalent to 22 the job for which an H-2B worker is sought. A job
23 shall not be considered to be ‘essentially equivalent’
24 to another job unless the job—

1           “(A) involves essentially the same respon-
2           sibilities as such other job;

3           “(B) was held by a United States worker 4           with substantially equivalent qualifications and

8           “(4) The term ‘layoff’—

9           “(A) means to cause a worker’s loss of em-

13          tirement, or the expiration of a grant or con-
14          tract (other than a temporary employment con-
15          tract entered into in order to evade a condition 16          described in subsection (b)(2)(G)); and 17          “(B) does not include any situation in 18          which the worker is offered, as an alternative to 19          such loss of employment, a similar employment

20          opportunity with the same employer at equiva-21          lent or higher compensation and benefits than 22          the position from which the employee was dis-
23          charged, regardless of whether or not the em-
24          ployee accepts the offer.

1           “(5) The term ‘full time’ means 30 or more
2           hours per week, except that where a State or an es-
3           tablished practice in an industry has developed a 4           definition of full-time employment for any occupa-
5           tion that is less than 30 hours per week, that defini-
6           tion shall have precedence.

7           “(6) The term ‘prevailing wage’ means—

8                   “(A) if the job opportunity is covered by a 9                   collective bargaining agreement that was nego-

11                  the employer, the wage rate set forth in the col-
12                  lective bargaining agreement;

13                   “(B) if the H-2B worker is a professional 14                   athlete whose job opportunity is covered by pro-

16                   wage set forth in section 212(p)(2); and 17                   “(C) if subparagraphs (A) and (B) do not 18                   apply, at the employer’s option—

19                           “(i) the wage rate provided by the De-20                           partment of Homeland Security that re-
21                           flects the mean wage of workers similarly 22                           employed at the skill level in the area of 23                           employment based on Bureau of Labor
24                           Statistics data; or

1 “(ii) the wage rate indicated by a
2 wage survey prepared by an entity other 3 than the Federal Government where—

4 “(I) the survey data was collected
5 within 24 months;

6 “(II) the survey was published
7 within the prior 24 months;

8 “(III) the employer’s job descrip-
9 tion adequately matches the job de-
10 scription in the survey;

11 “(IV) the survey reflects the area
12 of intended employment, if there are 13 substantially comparable jobs in the 14 area of intended employment;

16 tries that employ workers in the occu-
17 pation;

18 “(VI) the wage determination re-
19 flects the mean wage of workers simi-
20 larly employed (and, at the employer’s 21 discretion, at the same skill level) in 22 the area of intended employment; and

23 “(VII) the survey identifies a sta-
24 tistically valid methodology that was 25 used to collect the data.

16 “(C) The area of employment and work-

6       time.

7           “(B) The work period, reason for tem-

9       quested have been truly and accurately stated
10      in the petition.

11          “(C) The employer is offering terms and 12      working conditions normal to U.S. workers
13      similarly employed in the area of intended em-

15          “(D) The employer will provide to each H-16      2B worker covered by the petition, prior to the 17      submission of the H-2B worker’s visa applica-

25      which the H-2B workers are sought.

1           “(F) The employer will provide or reim-

9                   for transportation from the United States
10                  consulate that issued their visa, or, if al-

13 strike or locked out in the course of a labor dis-
14 pute.

15 “(I) The employer shall pay the H–2B
16 workers, and any United States worker hired in

18 “(K) The employer—

19 “(i) has not collected and will not col-20 lect any job placement fee, payment for 21 any activity related to preparing or filing

3 the job is to begin), except that nothing in 4 this clause shall require the employer to 5 file an interstate job order under section

23 “(iv) has offered or will offer the job
24 for which the H-2B worker(s) are sought,
25 unless the employer has a lawful, job-re-

2                   United States worker who—

3                               “(I) applies;

4                               “(II) is qualified for the job; and 5                               “(III) will be available at the 6                               time and place of need.

7                               “(B) TERMINATION.—The requirement to 12                   ployer may file a petition during the period that be-13                   gins on the 90th day, and ends on the 51st day, be-

18                               “(A) shall approve the petition if the Sec-19                   retary determines that the employer—

20                               “(i) has established that the need for 21                   the nonagricultural services or labor to be 22                   performed is temporary in nature and that 23                   the number of worker positions being re-
24                   quested is justified and represents bona 25                   fide job opportunities;

1 “(ii) made the attestations required in 2 subsection (b); and

3 “(iii) has complied with all other re-
4 quirements of this section; and

5 “(B) shall submit notice to the petitioner 6 of approval or nonapproval not later than the 7 later of 45 days prior to the first date the em-

11 2B worker.

12 “(3) EXPEDITED ADMINISTRATIVE APPEALS.—
13 The Secretary of Homeland Security shall promul-

24 days after the work period ends. An H-2B worker is not

1 authorized to be employed except during the work period
2 set forth in the petition.

3 “(e) LIMITATION ON AN H-2B WORKER’S STAY IN 4 STATUS.—An H-2B worker who has spent 3 years in the 5 United States under section 101(a)(15)(H) and (L) may 6 not seek extension of stay, change status, or be readmitted
7 to the United States pursuant to these provisions of such 8 section unless the alien has resided and been physically
9 present outside the United States for the immediately pre-
10 ceding 3 months. This limitation shall not apply to aliens 11 who did not reside continually in the United States and 12 whose employment in the United States was seasonal or 13 intermittent or was for an aggregate of 6 months or less 14 per year.

15 “(f) HOUSING.—An employer is not required to pro-16 vide housing or a housing allowance to an H-2B worker.”.
