

115TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 2095

To amend the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 to prohibit discrimination in the payment of wages on account of sex, race, or national origin, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

APRIL 14, 2017

Ms. NORTON (for herself, Mr. POCAN, Mr. RYAN of Ohio, Mrs. DAVIS of California, and Mr. PALLONE) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Education and the Workforce

A BILL

To amend the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 to prohibit discrimination in the payment of wages on account of sex, race, or national origin, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 (a) SHORT TITLE.—This Act may be cited as the 5 “Fair Pay Act of 2017”.

6 (b) REFERENCE.—Except as provided in section 8, 7 whenever in this Act an amendment or repeal is expressed 8 in terms of an amendment to, or repeal of, a section or 9 other provision, the reference shall be considered to be

1 made to a section or other provision of the Fair Labor
2 Standards Act of 1938 (29 U.S.C. 201 et seq.).

3 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

4 Congress finds the following:

5 (1) Wage rate differentials exist between equiv-
6 alent jobs segregated by sex, race, and national ori-
7 gin in Government employment and in industries en-8 gaged in commerce or in the production of goods for 9 commerce.

10 (2) Discrimination in hiring and promotion has 11 played a role in maintaining a segregated work 12 force.

13 (3) Many women and people of color work in 14 occupations dominated by individuals of their same 15 sex, race, and national origin.

16 (A) While a wage rate differential exists in 17 nearly every occupational field, traditionally 18 male jobs tend to pay better than traditionally 19 female jobs which require equal skill, effort, and 20 responsibility, and which are performed under 21 similar working conditions.

22 (B) Traditionally male jobs that are low-
23 wage require less skill, education, and certifi-24 cations than traditionally female jobs that are

1 low-wage, despite their generally receiving high-2 er pay.

3 (4) In 2015, a woman in the United States
4 working in a full-time, year-round job earned 80 5 cents for every dollar earned by a man working in 6 a full-time, year-round job.

7 (A) The wage gap is larger when the data 8 is disaggregated by race. Among women who 9 hold full-time, year-round jobs in the United 10 States, African-American women were paid on 11 average, only 63 percent of what White men 12 were paid in 2015, while Native Hawaiian and 13 Other Pacific Islander women were paid 60 per-14 cent, American Indian and Alaska Native
15 women were paid 58 percent, and Hispanic and 16 Latina women were paid only 54 percent.

17 (B) The gender pay gap persists across 18 educational levels. As a result, women who com-
19 plete college degrees are less able to pay off 20 their student loans promptly, leaving them pay-21 ing more and for a longer time than men. In 22 2012, among students who graduated in 2007–
23 2008, women working full time had paid off 33
24 percent of their student loan debt on average,

1 while men working full time had paid off 44
2 percent of their debt.

3 (C) In the United States, mothers are pri-
4 mary or sole breadwinners in nearly 40 percent 5 of families. Yet the wage gap for mothers is 6 larger than for women overall. According to 7 2013 data, mothers employed full time, year 8 round are paid 71 cents for every dollar paid to 9 fathers. It is worse for single mothers with full-10 time, year-round jobs, who are paid just 58
11 cents for every dollar paid to fathers.

12 (D) A conservative estimate is that women
13 employed in the United States lose a combined 14 total of nearly $500 billion every year due to 15 the wage gap. These women, their families, 16 businesses and the economy suffer as a result.
17 Lost wages mean families have less money to 18 save for the future or to spend on basic goods 19 and services—spending that helps drive the 20 economy.

21 (E) Statistical analysis shows that 62 per-22 cent of the wage gap can be attributed to occu-23 pational and industry differences; differences in 24 experience and education; and factors such as 25 race, region and unionization. That leaves 38

1 percent of the gap unaccounted for, leading re-
2 searchers to conclude that factors such as dis-3 crimination and unconscious bias continue to 4 affect women’s wages.

5 (5) The existence of such wage rate differen-6 tials—

7 (A) depresses wages and living standards
8 for employees necessary for their health and ef-9 ficiency;

10 (B) prevents the maximum utilization of 11 the available labor resources;

12 (C) tends to cause labor disputes, thereby
13 burdening, affecting, and obstructing com-
14 merce;

15 (D) burdens commerce and the free flow of 16 goods in commerce;

17 (E) constitutes an unfair method of com-18 petition; and

19 (F) contributes to poor living conditions,
20 poor nutrition, and fewer opportunities for fam-
21 ilies with children under 18 where the mother 22 is the sole or primary breadwinner.

23 (6) Section 6(d) of the Fair Labor Standards
24 Act of 1938 prohibits discrimination in compensa-
25 tion for “equal work” on the basis of sex.

1 (7) Artificial barriers to the elimination of dis-
2 crimination in compensation based upon sex, race, 3 and national origin continue to exist more than five 4 decades after the passage of section 6(d) of the Fair 5 Labor Standards Act of 1938, the Equal Pay Act of 6 1963, and the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (42 U.S.C.
7 2000a et seq.). Elimination of such barriers would 8 have positive effects.

9 (A) Problems in the economy created by 10 discrimination through wage rate differentials
11 would be reduced. In 2012, the U.S. economy 12 would have produced additional income of 13 $447.6 billion if women received equal pay; this 14 represents 2.9 percent of 2012 gross domestic 15 product.

16 (B) Fewer working women and people of 17 color would earn low wages, thereby reducing 18 dependence on public assistance. The total in-19 crease in women's earnings with pay equity rep-20 resents more than 14 times what the Federal 21 and State governments spent in fiscal year
22 2012 on Temporary Assistance to Needy Fami-
23 lies.

24 (C) Working family members earning a
25 fair rate of pay would encourage stable families

1 and reduce poverty. The poverty rate for all 2 working women would be cut in half, falling to 3 3.9 percent from 8.1 percent. The very high 4 poverty rate for working single mothers would 5 fall by nearly half, from 28.7 percent to 15.0 6 percent, and two-thirds would receive a pay in-7 crease.

8 SEC. 3. EQUAL PAY FOR EQUIVALENT JOBS.

9 (a) AMENDMENT.—Section 6 (29 U.S.C. 206) is 10 amended by adding at the end the following:

11 “(h)(1)(A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B), 12 no employer having employees subject to any provision of 13 this section shall discriminate, within any establishment 14 in which such employees are employed, between employees 15 on the basis of sex, race, or national origin by paying 16 wages to employees in such establishment in a job that 17 is dominated by employees of a particular sex, race, or 18 national origin at a rate less than the rate at which the 19 employer pays wages to employees in such establishment 20 in another job that is dominated by employees of the oppo-
21 site sex or of a different race or national origin, respec-
22 tively, for work on equivalent jobs, nor shall such employer
23 between such employees on the basis of sex, race, or na-24 tional origin in any other terms, conditions, privileges, or 25 benefits of employment.

1 “(B) Nothing in subparagraph (A) shall prohibit the 2 payment of different wage rates to employees where such 3 payment is made pursuant to—

4 “(i) a seniority system;

5 “(ii) a merit system;

6 “(iii) a system that measures earnings by quan-7 tity or quality of production; or

8 “(iv) a differential based on a bona fide factor 9 other than sex, race, or national origin, such as edu-10 cation, training, or experience, except that this 11 clause shall apply only if—

12 “(I) the employer demonstrates that—

13 “(aa) such factor—

14 “(AA) is job-related with respect
15 to the position in question; or

16 “(BB) furthers a legitimate busi-
17 ness purpose, except that this item
18 shall not apply if the employee dem-
19 onstrates that an alternative employ-
20 ment practice exists that would serve 21 the same business purpose without 22 producing such differential and that 23 the employer has refused to adopt 24 such alternative practice; and

1 “(bb) such factor was actually applied 2 and used reasonably in light of the as-3 serted justification; and

4 “(II) upon the employer succeeding under 5 subclause (I), the employee fails to demonstrate 6 that the differential produced by the reliance of 7 the employer on such factor is itself the result 8 of discrimination on the basis of sex, race, or 9 national origin by the employer.

10 “(C) The Equal Employment Opportunity Commis-
11 sion shall issue guidelines specifying criteria for deter-
12 mining whether a job is dominated by employees of a par-
13 ticular sex, race, or national origin for purposes of sub-14 paragraph (B)(iv). Such guidelines shall not include a list 15 of such jobs.

16 “(D) An employer who is paying a wage rate differen-
17 tial in violation of subparagraph (A) shall not, in order
18 to comply with the provisions of such subparagraph, re-19 duce the wage rate of any employee.

20 “(2) No labor organization or its agents representing 21 employees of an employer having employees subject to any 22 provision of this section shall cause or attempt to cause 23 such an employer to discriminate against an employee in 24 violation of paragraph (1)(A).

1 “(3) For purposes of administration and enforcement
2 of this subsection, any amounts owing to any employee
3 that have been withheld in violation of paragraph (1)(A)
4 shall be deemed to be unpaid minimum wages or unpaid 5 overtime compensation under this section or section 7.

6 “(4) In this subsection:

7 “(A) The term ‘labor organization’ means any 8 organization of any kind, or any agency or employee 9 representation committee or plan, in which employ-10 ees participate and that exists for the purpose, in 11 whole or in part, of dealing with employers con-12 cerning grievances, labor disputes, wages, rates of 13 pay, hours of employment, or conditions of work.

14 “(B) The term ‘equivalent jobs’ means jobs that 15 may be dissimilar, but whose requirements are 16 equivalent, when viewed as a composite of skills, ef-17 fort, responsibility, and working conditions.”.

18 (b) CONFORMING AMENDMENT.—Section 13(a) (29 19 U.S.C. 213(a)) is amended in the matter before paragraph 20 (1) by striking “section 6(d)” and inserting “sections 6 21 (d) and (h)”.

3 cause such individual has opposed any act or prac-4 tice made unlawful by section 6(h) or because such 5 individual made a charge, testified, assisted, or par-
6 ticipated in any manner in an investigation, pro-7 ceeding, or hearing to enforce section 6(h); or 8 “(7) to discharge or in any other manner dis-9 criminate against, coerce, intimidate, threaten, or 10 interfere with any employee or any other person be-11 cause the employee inquired about, disclosed, com-

12 pared, or otherwise discussed the employee’s wages 13 or the wages of any other employee, or because the 14 employee exercised, enjoyed, aided, or encouraged 15 any other person to exercise or enjoy any right 16 granted or protected by section 6(h).”.

17 SEC. 5. REMEDIES.

18 (a) ENHANCED PENALTIES.—Section 16(b) (29 19 U.S.C. 216(b)) is amended—

20 (1) by inserting after the first sentence the fol-21 lowing: “Any employer who violates subsection (d) or 22 (h) of section 6 shall additionally be liable for such 23 compensatory or punitive damages as may be appro-
24 priate, except that the United States shall not be lia-25 ble for punitive damages.”;

22 tional compensatory or punitive damages,” be-23 fore “and the agreement”; and 25 serve records that document and support the method, sys-

2 in establishing, adjusting, and determining the wage rates
3 paid to the employees of the employer. Every employer 4 subject to section 6(h) shall preserve such records for such 5 periods of time, and shall make such reports from the 6 records to the Equal Employment Opportunity Commis-
7 sion, as shall be prescribed by the Equal Employment Op-
8 portunity Commission by regulation or order as necessary 9 or appropriate for the enforcement of the provisions of sec-
10 tion 6(h) or any regulation promulgated pursuant to sec-11 tion 6(h).”.

12 (b) SMALL BUSINESS EXEMPTIONS.—Section 11(c) 13 (as amended by subsection (a)) is further amended by 14 adding at the end the following:

15 “(3) Every employer subject to section 6(h) that has 16 25 or more employees on any date during the first or sec-

15 contain the name of any individual employee.”.

16 (d) USE; INSPECTIONS; EXAMINATION; REGULA-

18 through (c)) is further amended by adding at the end the 19 following:

20 “(5) The Equal Employment Opportunity Commis-

22 Employment Opportunity Commission obtains pursuant to 23 the provisions of paragraph (3). The Equal Employment

11 “(7) The Equal Employment Opportunity Commis-
12 sion shall by regulation provide for the furnishing of copies
13 of reports submitted to the Equal Employment Oppor-
14 tunity Commission pursuant to paragraph (3) to any per-15 son upon payment of a charge based upon the cost of the

17 “(8) The Equal Employment Opportunity Commis-
18 sion shall issue rules and regulations prescribing the form 19 and content of reports required to be submitted under 20 paragraph (3) and such other reasonable rules and regula-
21 tions as the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission
22 may find necessary to prevent the circumvention or eva-
23 sion of such reporting requirements. In exercising the au-
24 thority of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commis-
25 sion under paragraph (3), the Equal Employment Oppor-

1 tunity Commission may prescribe by general rule sim-
2 plified reports for employers for whom the Equal Employ-3 ment Opportunity Commission finds that because of the 4 size of the employers a detailed report would be unduly 5 burdensome.”.

15 rate discrimination between employees performing work in 16 equivalent jobs on the basis of sex, race, or national origin.
17 Such studies, information, and technical assistance shall 18 be based on and include reference to the objectives of such 19 section to eliminate such discrimination. In order to 20 achieve the objectives of such section, the Equal Employ-21 ment Opportunity Commission shall carry on a continuing 22 program of research, education, and technical assistance 23 including—

24 “(A) conducting and promoting research with 25 the intent of developing means to expeditiously cor-

1 rect the wage rate differentials described in section 2 6(h);

3 “(B) publishing and otherwise making available
4 to employers, labor organizations, professional asso-

13 and other interested persons on means of achieving 14 and maintaining compliance with the provisions of 15 section 6(h).

16 “(5) The report submitted biennially by the Secretary 17 to Congress under paragraph (1) shall include a separate 18 evaluation and appraisal regarding the implementation of 19 section 6(h).”.
