A BILL

- To prohibit discrimination on the basis of religion, sex (including sexual orientation and gender identity), and marital status in the administration and provision of child welfare services, to improve safety, well-being, and permanency for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer or questioning foster youth, and for other purposes.
 - 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
 - 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the "Every Child Deserves3 a Family Act".

4 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.

5 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

6 (1) Every child or youth unable to live with 7 their family of origin is entitled to a supportive and 8 affirming foster care placement. Federal law re-9 quires, and child welfare experts recommend, that 10 children and youth be placed with a family or in the 11 most family-like setting available.

12 (2) Thousands of children and youth lack a sta-13 ble, safe, and loving temporary or permanent home 14 and have been placed in a congregate care setting, 15 which is associated with more placements, poorer 16 educational outcomes, and greater risk of further 17 trauma. More homes are needed to accommodate the 18 growing number of children and youth involved with 19 child welfare services.

(3) In 2017, there were an estimated 443,000 children and youth in the United States foster care system, and 123,000 were eligible and waiting to be adopted. Tragically, approximately 20,000 "aged out" of the child welfare system without a forever family, placing them at higher risk of negative outcomes including poverty, homelessness, incarcer ation, and early parenthood.

3 (4) Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (42) 4 U.S.C. 2000d et seq.) protects people from discrimi-5 nation based on race, color, or national origin in 6 programs, activities, and services administered or 7 performed by child welfare agencies. Eliminating dis-8 crimination in child welfare based on religion, sex 9 (including sexual orientation and gender identity), 10 and marital status would increase the number and 11 diversity of foster and adoptive homes able to meet 12 the individual needs of children and youth removed 13 from their homes.

14 (5) Lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and 15 queer or questioning (referred to in this Act as 16 "LGBTQ") youth are overrepresented in the foster
17 care system by at least a factor of 2, comprising at 18 least 22 to 30 percent of children and youth in fos19 ter care.

20 (A) While some LGBTQ youth enter foster
21 care for similar reasons as non-LGBTQ youth,
22 the 2 most common reasons for LGBTQ youth
23 are high rates of physical abuse and conflict
24 with parents.

3

1	(B) LGBTQ foster youth report twice the
2	rate of poor treatment while in care experienced
3	by foster youth who do not identify as LGBTQ
4	and are more likely to experience discrimina-
5	tion, harassment, and violence in the child wel-
6	fare system than their LGBTQ peers not in the
7	child welfare system.
8	(C) Because of high levels of bias, LGBTQ
9	foster youth have a higher average number of
10	placements and higher likelihood of living in a
11	group home than their non-LGBTQ peers, neg-
12	atively affecting mental health outcomes and
13	long-term prospects.
14	(D) Approximately 60 percent of homeless
15	LGBTQ youth were previously in foster care,
16	and many reported that living on the streets
17	felt safer than living in a group or foster home.
18	(6) "Conversion therapy" is a form of discrimi-
19	nation that harms LGBTQ people. It undermines an
20	individual's sense of self-worth, increases suicide ide-
21	ation and substance abuse, exacerbates family con-
22	flict, and contributes to second-class status. No sci-
23	entifically valid evidence supports this discredited
24	practice, which is prohibited by many States and
25	foreign nations. Approximately 350,000 LGBTQ adults were subjected to so-called "conversion ther apy" as adolescents, and an estimated 20,000

 LGBTQ youth ages 13 to 17 will be subjected to it by a licensed health care professional before age 18.

5 (7) Many youth, especially LGBTQ youth, in-6 volved with child welfare services identify with a 7 cross-section of marginalized communities. Youth of 8 color are overrepresented in the foster care system, 9 and the majority of LGBTQ foster youth are youth 10 of color. Children and youth with multiple margina-11 lized identities often experience more stress and 12 trauma than other youth, compounding the negative 13 effects of discrimination and increasing the likeli-14 hood of negative outcomes.

15 (8) Prospective parents who experience the 16 heartbreak and dignitary harm of discrimination 17 based on religion, sex (including sexual orientation 18 and gender identity), or marital status may not be 19 able or willing to apply at another agency, resulting 20 in fewer available homes, and knowing that discrimi-21 nation exists may deter them from even attempting 22 to foster or adopt.

(9) Professional organizations that serve chil-dren in the fields of medicine, psychology, law, and

1	child welfare oppose discrimination against prospec-
2	tive parents in adoption and foster care.
3	(10) Religious organizations play a critical role
4	in providing child welfare services. Most welcome all
5	children, youth, and families and affirm a diversity
6	of religions and faiths. State assessments, planning,
7	and counseling should connect children and youth
8	for whom spirituality and religion are important
9	with affirming, faith-based resources consistent with
10	the faith of the child or youth.
11	(11) Child welfare agencies that refuse to serve
12	same-sex couples and LGBTQ individuals reduce the
13	pool of qualified and available homes for children
14	and youth who need placement on a temporary or
15	permanent basis.
16	(A) Same-sex couples are 7 times more
17	likely to foster and adopt than their different-
18	sex counterparts.
19	(B) Same-sex couples raising adopted chil-
20	dren tend to be older than, just as educated as,
21	and have access to the same economic resources
22	as other adoptive parents.
23	(C) Research shows that sexual orientation
24	is a nondeterminative factor in parental success
25	and that children with same-sex parents have the same advantages and expectations for health, social, and psychological development as children whose parents are different-sex.

4 (D) Discrimination against qualified pro-5 spective foster and adoptive parents for non-6 merit related reasons denies religious minority, 7 LGBTQ, and unmarried relatives the oppor-8 tunity to become foster and adoptive parents 9 for their own kin in care, including grand-10 children.

11 (12) LGBTQ families of origin are at risk for discrimination in child welfare referrals, investiga-12 13 tions, removals, reunification, kinship placements, 14 and other case management services. A study of low-15 income African-American mothers showed that those 16 who identified as lesbian or bisexual were 4 times 17 more likely than their non-LGBTQ counterparts to 18 lose custody of their children in child welfare pro-19 ceedings. LGBTQ-positive services are necessary to 20 shield families and protect parents' rights to reunifi-21 cation.

(13) Single people are more likely than couples to experience challenges in adopting due to biases that persist against single-parent adoption. In 2017, 28 percent of adoptions from foster care were com-

7

1

pleted by unmarried single people, including adoptions from almost 2,000 single men and over 14,800 single women. Studies show that the outcomes for children adopted and raised by single parents are just as good as, if not better than, outcomes for children adopted by couples.

7 (14) More nationwide data about the experi-8 ences of LGBTQ children and youth involved with 9 child welfare services is needed to understand fully 10 the extent and impact of discrimination and ensure 11 accountability. States must report and researchers 12 must collect this sensitive data in an ethical, affirm-13 ing, and non-intrusive manner, with appropriate 14 safeguards to protect respondents.

15 (b) PURPOSE.—The purposes of this Act are—

16 (1) to prohibit discrimination on the basis of re17 ligion, sex (including sexual orientation and gender
18 identity), and marital status in the administration
19 and provision of child welfare services that receive 20 Federal funds; and

(2) to improve safety, well-being, and permanency for LGBTQ children and youth involved with child welfare services.

and customs.
