- 2. Contracting with the Office of the Attorney General; or
- 3. If the Attorney General is unable to represent the agency, or official due to a conflict of interest, or the Office of the Attorney General is unable or lacks the personnel or expertise to provide the specific representation required by such agency or official, contracting with a private attorney or attorneys pursuant to this section.
- When entering into a contract for legal representation by В. one or more private attorneys, an agency or official of the executive branch shall select an attorney or attorneys from a list of attorneys maintained by the Attorney General. An agency may contract for legal representation with one or more attorneys who are not on the list only when there is no attorney on the list capable of providing the specific representation and only with the approval of the Attorney General. The list shall include any attorney who desires to furnish services to an agency or official of the executive branch and who has filed a schedule of fees for services with and on a form approved by the Attorney General. The list of attorneys desiring to furnish services and schedule of fees for each attorney shall be maintained and available to the public. An agency or official may agree to deviate from the schedule of fees only with the approval of the Attorney General.

- C. Before entering into a contract for legal representation by one or more private attorneys, an agency or official of the executive branch shall furnish a copy of the proposed contract to the Attorney General and, if not fully described in the contract, notify the Attorney General of the following:
- 1. The nature and scope of the representation including, but not limited to, a description of any pending or anticipated litigation or of the transaction requiring representation;
- 2. The reason or reasons for not obtaining the representation from an attorney employed by the agency or official, if an attorney is employed by the agency or official;
- 3. The reason or reasons for not obtaining the representation from the Attorney General by contract;
- 4. The anticipated cost of the representation including the following:
 - a. the basis for or method of calculation of the fee including, when applicable, the hourly rate for each attorney, paralegal, legal assistant, or other person who will perform services under the contract, and
 - b. the basis for and method of calculation of any expenses which will be reimbursed by the agency or official under the contract; and
 - 5. An estimate of the anticipated duration of the contract.

1 D. Before entering into a contract for legal representation by 2 one or more private attorneys where the agency has reason to believe 3 that the case, transaction or matter will equal or exceed Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) or after employment when it becomes 5 apparent that the case, transaction or matter will equal or exceeds 6 Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00), an agency or official of the 7 executive branch shall obtain the approval of the Attorney General 8 when the total cost, including fees and expenses, of all contracts 9 relating to the same case, transaction, or matter will equal or 10 exceed Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00). Any amendment, 11 modification, or extension of a contract which, had it been a part 12 of the original contract would have required approval by the 13 Attorney General, shall also require approval by the Attorney 14 General.

E. When an agency or official of the executive branch enters into a contract for professional legal services pursuant to this section, the agency shall also comply with the applicable provisions of Section 85.41 of Title 74 of the Oklahoma Statutes this title.

- F. The provisions of this section shall not apply to the Oklahoma Indigent Defense System created pursuant to Section 1355 et seq. of Title 22 of the Oklahoma Statutes.
- G. No agency or official of the executive branch shall enter into a contingency-fee contract with a private attorney unless and until the Attorney General approves the contract, and in so doing makes a determination that contingency-fee representation is both cost-effective and in the public interest. The determination may include, but not be limited to, consideration of the following factors:

- 1. Whether there exists sufficient and appropriate legal and financial resources within the Office of the Attorney General to handle the matter;
- 2. The time and labor required; the novelty, complexity and difficulty of the questions involved; and the skill requisite to perform the attorney services properly;
- 3. The geographic area where the attorney services are to be provided; and
- 4. The amount of experience desired for the particular kind of attorney services to be provided and the nature of the experience of the private attorney with similar issues or cases.
- H. If the contract is approved, the Attorney General shall make a written statement, excluding any information that is privileged or part of the deliberative process, stating that contingency-fee representation is both cost-effective and in the public interest, and include a brief description of the contract and the circumstances necessitating the contract.
- I. Any private attorney under contract to provide services to the agency or official of the executive branch on a contingency-fee basis described in subsection G of this section shall, from the inception of the contract until at least five (5) years after the contract expires or is terminated, maintain detailed records including documentation of all expenses, disbursements, charges, credits, underlying receipts and invoices and other financial transactions that concern the provision of the attorney services and shall make the records available for the Attorney General upon request.

- J. The following requirements shall be met for contingency-fee attorney services described in subsection G of this section entered into by the agency or official of the executive branch and overseen by the Attorney General:
- 1. Pursuant to Section 18 of this title, the Attorney General or designated government attorney shall retain the right to appear in any action and when so appearing in any such cause or proceeding the Attorney General may, if the Attorney General deems it advisable and in the best interest of the state, take and assume control of the prosecution or defense of the state's interest therein and thus shall retain complete control over the course and conduct of the case;
- 2. The Attorney General shall retain veto power over any decisions made by outside counsel;
- 3. Any defendant that is the subject of the litigation shall retain the right to contact the designated government attorney directly, without having to confer with contingency-fee counsel;

1 2

- 4. A government attorney with supervisory authority for the case, as designated by the Attorney General, shall retain the right to participate in all settlement conferences; and
- 5. Decisions regarding settlement of the case shall be reserved exclusively to the discretion of the Attorney General.
- K. Any contingency-fee contract described in subsection G of this section entered into by an agency or official of the executive branch shall contain a contingency-fee schedule that shall not exceed the following maximum payment to the contracting private attorney:
- 1. Twenty-five percent (25%) of any net recovery of up to Ten Million Dollars ($10,000,000.00);
- 2. Twenty percent (20%) of any portion of the net recovery between Ten Million Dollars ($10,000,000.00) and Fifteen Million Dollars ($15,000,000.00);
- 3. Fifteen percent (15%) of any portion of the net recovery between Fifteen Million Dollars ($15,000,000.00) and Twenty Million Dollars ($20,000,000.00);
- 4. Ten percent (10%) of any portion of the net recovery between

 Twenty Million Dollars ($20,000,000.00) and Twenty-five Million Dollars ($25,000,000.00); and

- 5. Five percent (5%) of any portion of the net recovery exceeding Twenty-five Million Dollars ($25,000,000.00).

In no event shall the aggregate contingency fee exceed Fifty Million Dollars ($50,000,000.00), exclusive of reasonable costs and expenses advanced and irrespective of the number of lawsuits filed or the number of private attorneys retained to achieve the recovery.

As used in this subsection, "net recovery" means the amount remaining after the total amount received has been reduced by the reasonable cost and expenses advanced. It shall include all damage awards, or settlement amounts agreed upon, but shall not include any penalties or fines awarded or included as part of the settlement.

- L. Records regarding contingency-fee contracts described in subsection G of this section shall be available to the public pursuant to the Oklahoma Open Records Act.
- M. The Attorney General shall, on or before February 1 of each year, make a written report on legal representation obtained pursuant to paragraphs 2 and 3 of subsection A of this section. The report shall include a brief description of each contract, the circumstances necessitating each contract, and the amount paid or to be paid under each contract. The report shall be filed with the Governor, the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Chair of the Appropriations and Budget Committee of the House of Representatives, and the Chair of the Appropriations Committee of the Senate.
