Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 35A-3-703 is enacted to read:

35A-3-703. Continuation of high school education.

(1) As used in this section, "local education agency" means a school district or charter school.

(2) Subject to appropriations from the Legislature, the department may partner with one or more local education agencies to provide an education program to assist refugees in:

(a) obtaining a high school diploma or its equivalent; and

(b) career pathway planning.

(3) The education program may only assist refugees who:

(a) have not obtained a high school diploma or its equivalent;

(b) are no longer eligible for traditional high school; and

(c) are 18 years of age or older and 23 years of age or younger.

(4) The department shall administer and coordinate the provision of the education program described in this section, including determining eligibility for the program:

(a) with input from any office or advisory committee involved with the provision of refugee services within the department;

(b) with input from any partnering local education agency; and

(c) in accordance with any state and federal requirements related to the provision of services to refugees.

(5) The department may make rules in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, to provide for the administration and coordination of the education program described in this section.

(6) The department shall include in its annual report described in Section 35A-1-109 the following information:

(a) the name of each local education agency that the department is partnering with to provide an education program described in this section;

(b) the number of refugee students being served by the education program described in this section;

(c) the number of refugee students who have obtained a high school diploma or its equivalent as a result of the education program described in this section; and

(d) recommendations to the Legislature regarding what is working well and what improvements could be made to the education program described in this section.

Section 2. Appropriation.

The following sums of money are appropriated for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 2020, and ending June 30, 2021. These are additions to amounts previously appropriated for fiscal year 2021. Under the terms and conditions of Title 63J, Chapter 1, Budgetary Procedures Act, the Legislature appropriates the following sums of money from the funds or accounts indicated for the use and support of the government of the state of Utah.
