A BILL

To require the Secretary of the Treasury to mint commemorative coins in recognition of the 100th anniversary of The American Legion.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as “The American Legion
5 100th Anniversary Commemorative Coin Act”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 The Congress finds that—

1           (1) on March 15, 1919, The American Legion
2           was founded in Paris, France, by members of the 3           American Expeditionary Force occupying Europe
4           after World War I and concerned about the welfare
5           of their comrades and communities upon their re-
6           turn to the United States;

7           (2) on September 16, 1919, Congress chartered
8           The American Legion, which quickly grew to become 9           the largest veterans service organization in the 10          United States;

11          (3) The American Legion conferences in Wash-
12          ington, DC, in 1923 and 1924 crafted the first 13          United States Flag Code, which was adopted in 14          schools, States, cities and counties prior to being en-
15          acted in 1942, establishing the proper use, display,
16          and respect for the colors of the United States;

17          (4) during World War II, The American Legion
18          developed and presented to Congress its case for 19          vastly improved support for medically discharged,
20          disabled veterans, which ultimately became the Serv-
21          icemen's Readjustment Act of 1944 (58 Stat. 284; 22          chapter 268), better known as the G.I. Bill of 23          Rights, and was drafted by former American Legion
24          National Commander Harry W. Colmery in Wash-
25          ington's Mayflower Hotel;

1           (5) through the leadership and advocacy of The 2       American Legion, the G.I. Bill was enacted in June
3       1944, which led to monumental changes in United 4       States society, including the democratization of high-
5       er education, home ownership for average people in 6       the United States, better VA hospitals, business and 7       farm loans for veterans, and the ability to appeal
8       conditions of military discharge;

9           (6) defying those who argued the G.I. Bill
10      would break the Treasury, according to various re-
11      searchers, the G.I. Bill provided a tremendous re-
12      turn on investment of $7 to the United States econ-
13      omy for every $1 spent on the program, triggering
14      a half-century of prosperity in the United States;

15          (7) after Hurricane Hugo in 1989, The Amer-
16      ican Legion established the National Emergency
17      Fund to provide immediate cash relief for veterans
18      who have been affected by natural disasters;

19          (8) American Legion National Emergency Fund
20      grants after Hurricanes Katrina and Rita in 2005,
21      for instance, exceeded $1,700,000;

22          (9) The American Legion fought to see the Vet-
23      erans Administration elevated to Cabinet-level status
24      as the Department of Veterans Affairs, ensuring 25      support for veterans would be set at the highest level

1 of the Federal Government, as a priority issue for 2 the President;

3 (10) after a decades-long struggle to improve
4 the adjudication process for veterans disputing
5 claims decisions, The American Legion helped shape
6 and introduce the Veterans Reassurance Act to cre-
7 ate a venue for judicial review of veterans' appeals;

8 (11) building on these efforts, legislation was 9 passed in 1988 to create the United States Court of 10 Veterans Appeals, today known as the United States
11 Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims;

12 (12) The American Legion created the Amer-
13 ican Legacy Scholarship Fund for children of mili-
14 tary members killed on active duty on or after Sep-
15 tember 11, 2001;

16 (13) in 2016, The American Legion's National 17 Executive Committee amended the original scholar-
18 ship criteria to include children of veterans with 50
19 percent or greater VA disability ratings;

20 (14) President George W. Bush signed into law
21 the Post-9/11 Veterans Educational Assistance Act
22 (title V of the Supplemental Appropriations Act, 23 2008; 122 Stat. 2357), a next-generation G.I. Bill 24 strongly supported by The American Legion and the 25 most comprehensive educational benefits package

1 since the original G.I. Bill of Rights was enacted in 2 1944;

3 (15) in August 2018, The American Legion will 4 begin its centennial recognition at the 100th Na-
5 tional Convention in Minneapolis, Minnesota, the 6 site of the first American Legion National Conven-
7 tion; and

8 (16) in March 2019, the organization will cele-
9 brate its 100th birthday in Paris, France, and Sep-10 tember 16, 2019, will mark the 100th anniversary of 11 The American Legion’s Federal charter.
