1 SEC. 3. FINDINGS.

2 Congress finds that—

3 (1) in 2017 and 2018, the State of California, 4 the State of Montana, and other Western States ex-
 5 perience some of the deadliest and most destructive 6 wildfires in the last 100 years, devastating Federal,
 7 State, and private land, destroying tens of thousands 8 of homes, killing dozens of people, and burning large 9 areas of land in the wildland-urban interface (as de-10 fined in section 101 of the Healthy Forests Restora-11 tion Act of 2003 (16 U.S.C. 6511));

12 (2) fire suppression practices over several dec-13 ades, inadequate levels of forest management, and

1 climate change have increased the risk of wildfires, 2 and, according to the Fourth National Climate As-3 sessment by the United States Global Change Re-
4 search Program, the cumulative number of acres
5 burned in the period from 1984 to 2015 was twice 6 the number of acres that would have burned in the 7 absence of climate change;

8 (3) increased development in the wildland-urban 9 interface near overgrown forest landscapes has in-10 creased the number of people living in areas that are 11 at risk of wildfire;

12 (4) despite legislation enacted over the last 20 13 years to facilitate hazardous fuels reduction, certain 14 statutory, regulatory, and administrative require-15 ments, including studies, publication periods, season-
16 specific surveys, and objection processes, and litiga-
17 tion can significantly impede rapid implementation 18 of hazardous fuels reduction projects necessary to 19 protect lives and property;

20 (5) increasing the pace and scale of science-
21 based, publicly developed forest management activi-
22 ties that reduce hazardous fuels, including through 23 mechanical thinning and controlled burning, can re-
24 duce the size and scope of wildfires, as well as pro-
25 tect watersheds, improve fish and wildlife habitat,

1 expand recreational opportunities, protect air qual-
2 ity, and increase the sequestration of carbon on Na-
3 tional Forest System and Bureau of Land Manage-4 ment land;

5 (6) in 2019, 11,800,000 acres of National For-6 est System land in the State of California and 7 6,300,000 acres of National Forest System land in 8 the State of Montana were at high or very high wild-9 fire hazard potential, of which 3,100,000 acres and 10 1,600,000 acres, respectively, were within proximity 11 to populated areas; and

12 (7) the Governor of the State of California has 13 proclaimed a “State of Emergency” due to a vast 14 tree die-off throughout the State that has increased 15 the risk of wildfires and has created extremely dan-16 gerous fire conditions.

17 SEC. 4. DEFINITIONS.

18 In this Act:

19 (1) FEDERAL LAND.—The term “Federal land”
20 means—

21 (A) land of the National Forest System (as

2 the area, would have a reduced risk, as deter-
3 mined by the Secretary concerned—

4 (i) of wildfire endangering a nearby
5 at-risk community (as defined in section 6 101 of the Healthy Forests Restoration
7 Act of 2003 (16 U.S.C. 6511));

8 (ii) of wildfire damaging a municipal 9 watershed or infrastructure that serves an 10 at-risk community described in clause (i); 11 or

12 (iii) of the transmission of a high in-13 tensity wildfire from the applicable
14 wildland-urban interface or forest land-15 scape to a nearby community; and

16 (C) to the extent practicable, is conducive 17 to the development and implementation of 19 health that are carried out through a collabo-20 rative process.

21 (3) FOREST LANDSCAPE PROJECT.—The term
22 “forest landscape project” means a project carried

11 risk to communities or watersheds;

12 (B) mechanical thinning (including res-13 toration thinning) of a forest landscape to 14 clear—

15 (i) surface fuels, such as slash;

16 (ii) ladder fuels, such as small and 17 medium diameter trees and shrubs; or

4 (b) ESTABLISHMENT.—

5 (1) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 90 days after 6 the date of enactment of this Act, in accordance 7 with paragraph (2), the Secretary of Agriculture, in 8 consultation with the Secretary of the Interior, shall 9 select 3 forest landscapes on which to conduct forest 10 landscape projects—

11 (A) to reduce the risk of wildfire in the 12 forest landscape;

13 (B) to restore ecological health to the for-14 est landscape; or

15 (C) to adapt the forest landscape to the in-16 creased risk of wildfire due to climate change.

17 (2) PROCESS.—

18 (A) PROPOSALS.—The Governor of a State
19 may submit to the Secretary of Agriculture a 20 proposal for a forest landscape project to be 21 carried out in that State.

22 (B) SELECTION.—The Secretary of Agri-
23 culture, in consultation with the Secretary of 24 the Interior, shall select forest landscape

1 projects to be conducted from among proposals
2 submitted under subparagraph (A) based on—

3 (i) the strength of the proposal and 4 the strategy for the conduct of the forest
5 landscape project;

6 (ii) the strength of the ecological case 7 of the proposal and the proposed ecological 8 restoration strategies of the forest land-
9 scape project;

10 (iii) the strength of the collaborative 11 process through which the proposal was 12 developed and the forest landscape project 13 will be carried out and the likelihood of 14 successful collaboration throughout imple-
15 mentation of the forest landscape project;

16 (iv) whether the proposed forest land-
17 scape project is likely to achieve reductions 18 in long-term wildfire management costs;

19 (v) whether the proposed forest land-
20 scape project would reduce the relative
21 costs of carrying out ecological restoration 22 treatments;

23 (vi) whether the proposed forest land-
24 scape project would provide energy as a re-

1 sult of the use of woody biomass and 2 small-diameter trees; and

3 (vii) whether an appropriate level of 4 non-Federal investment would be leveraged
5 in carrying out the proposed forest land-
6 scape project.

7 (C) CONSULTATION.—In selecting pro-
8 posals under subparagraph (B), the Secretary
9 of Agriculture, in consultation with the Sec-10 retary of the Interior, shall consult with the 11 Governors of the States that submitted pro-
12 posals under subparagraph (A).

13 (3) APPLICABILITY.—The selection of a forest
14 landscape under this subsection shall not be subject
15 to the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969
16 (42 U.S.C. 4321 et seq.) or any other applicable law.

17 (c) MANAGEMENT ACTIVITIES.—In carrying out a 18 management activity under a forest landscape project, the 19 Secretary concerned—

20 (1) shall maximize the retention of old-growth
21 stands and large trees, as appropriate for the forest
22 type, to the extent that the trees promote stands
23 that are resilient to wildfire and increased average 24 temperature;

1 (2) shall consider the best available scientific 2 information to maintain or restore the ecological in-3 tegrity of the forest landscape; and 4 (3) shall not establish a permanent road.

5 (d) ENVIRONMENTAL ANALYSIS.—

6 (1) APPLICATION TO CERTAIN ENVIRONMENTAL 7 ASSESSMENTS AND ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT STATE-8 MENTS.—This subsection shall apply in any case in

8 is inconsistent with the applicable land and re-9 source management plan.

10 (2) CONSIDERATION OF ALTERNATIVES.—In an 11 environmental assessment or environmental impact
12 statement described in paragraph (1), the Secretary 13 concerned shall study, develop, and describe only the

22 (6) JUDICIAL REVIEW IN UNITED STATES DIS-
23 TRICT COURTS.—

24 (A) VENUE.—Notwithstanding section
25 1391 of title 28, United States Code, or other

7 a district in which the Federal land to be 8 treated under the forest landscape project 9 is located; or

10 (ii) the United States district court

15 scribed in subparagraph (A), Congress encour-
16 ages a court of competent jurisdiction to expe-17 dite, to the maximum extent practicable, the 18 proceedings in the action with the goal of ren-
19 dering a final determination on jurisdiction,
20 and, if jurisdiction exists, a final determination 21 on the merits, as soon as practicable after the 22 date on which a complaint or appeal is filed to 23 initiate the action.

17 (iii) REQUIREMENT FOR INJUNC-
18 TION.—A court shall not enjoin an agency
19 action under a forest landscape project de-
20 scribed in subparagraph (A) if the court 21 determines that the plaintiff is unable to 22 demonstrate that the claim of the plaintiff
23 is likely to succeed on the merits.

24 (iv) BALANCING OF SHORT- AND 25 LONG-TERM EFFECTS.—As part of weigh-

1 ing the equities while considering any re-2 quest for an injunction that applies to an 3 agency action under a forest landscape
4 project described in subparagraph (A), the 5 court reviewing the project shall balance
6 the impact to the ecosystem likely affected 7 by the project of—

8 (I) the short- and long-term ef-
9 fects of undertaking the agency ac-10 tion; against

11 (II) the short- and long-term ef-
12 fects of not undertaking the agency
13 action.
