Revised Code to enact the Mental Health 5 amended and sections 3113.26, 3113.261, 3113.27, 3113.28, 9

(4) "Protection order issued by a court of another state"	21
has the same meaning as in section 2919.27 of the Revised Code.	22
(5) "Petitioner" means a person who files a petition under	23
this section and includes a person on whose behalf a petition	24
under this section is filed.	25
(6) "Respondent" means a person who is under eighteen	26 years of age and against whom a petition is filed under this	27
section.	28
(7) "Sexually oriented offense" has the same meaning as in	29
section 2950.01 of the Revised Code.	30
(8) "Electronic monitoring" has the same meaning as in	31
section 2929.01 of the Revised Code.	32
(9) "Companion animal" has the same meaning as in section	33
959.131 of the Revised Code.	34
(B) The court has jurisdiction over all proceedings under	35
this section.	36
(C) (1) Any of the following persons may seek relief under	37
this section by filing a petition with the court:	38
(a) Any person on behalf of that person;	39
(b) Any parent or adult family or household member on	40 behalf of any other family or household member;	41
(c) Any person who is determined by the court in its	42 discretion as an appropriate person to seek relief under this	43 section on behalf of any child.	44
(2) The petition shall contain or state all of the	45

following: 46

(a) An allegation that the respondent engaged in a 47 violation of section 2903.11, 2903.12, 2903.13, 2903.21, 48 2903.211, 2903.22, or 2911.211 of the Revised Code, committed a 49 sexually oriented offense, or engaged in a violation of any 50 municipal ordinance that is substantially equivalent to any of 51 those offenses against the person to be protected by the 52 protection order, including a description of the nature and 53 extent of the violation; 54

(b) If the petitioner seeks relief in the form of 55 electronic monitoring of the respondent, an allegation that at 56
any time preceding the filing of the petition the respondent 57 engaged in conduct that would cause a reasonable person to 58 believe that the health, welfare, or safety of the person to be 59
that conduct, and an allegation that the respondent presents a 61

(c) A request for relief under this section. 63

(3) The court in its discretion may determine whether or 64 not to give notice that a petition has been filed under division 65 (C) (1) of this section on behalf of a child to any of the 66
following: 67

(a) A parent of the child if the petition was filed by any 68 person other than a parent of the child; 69

(b) Any person who is determined by the court to be an 70 appropriate person to receive notice of the filing of the 71 petition. 72

(D) (1) If a person who files a petition pursuant to this 73 section requests an ex parte order, the court shall hold an ex 74

parte hearing as soon as possible after the petition is filed, 75
but not later than the next day after the court is in session 76 after the petition is filed. The court, for good cause shown at 77
the ex parte hearing, may enter any temporary orders, with or 78
protection of the person to be protected by the order. Immediate 80 and present danger to the person to be protected by the 81
protection order constitutes good cause for purposes of this 82
section. Immediate and present danger includes, but is not 83
the person to be protected by the protection order with bodily 85 harm or in which the respondent previously has been convicted 86 of, pleaded guilty to, or been adjudicated a delinquent child 87 for committing a violation of section 2903.11, 2903.12, 2903.13, 88 2903.21, 2903.211, 2903.22, or 2911.211 of the Revised Code, a 89 sexually oriented offense, or a violation of any municipal 90 ordinance that is substantially equivalent to any of those 91 offenses against the person to be protected by the protection 92
order. 93

(2) (a) If the court, after an ex parte hearing, issues a 94 protection order described in division (E) of this section, the 95
court shall schedule a full hearing for a date that is within 96
full hearing. The court also shall give notice of the full 99 hearing to the parent, guardian, or legal custodian of the 100 respondent. The court shall hold the full hearing on the date 101 scheduled under this division unless the court grants a 102
continuance of the hearing in accordance with this division. 103

hearing to a reasonable time determined by the court: 106

(i) Prior to the date scheduled for the full hearing under 107
this division, the respondent has not been served with the 108
hearing. 110

(ii) The parties consent to the continuance. 111

counsel. 113

(iv) The continuance is needed for other good cause. 114

(b) An ex parte order issued under this section does not 115
upon the respondent before the date set for the full hearing 117
under division (D) (2) (a) of this section or because the court 118
grants a continuance under that division. 119

(3) If a person who files a petition pursuant to this 120
section does not request an ex parte order, or if a person 121
parte order after an ex parte hearing, the court shall proceed 123

(E) (1) (a) After an ex parte or full hearing, the court may 126
to be protected by the protection order. The court may include 129 within a protection order issued under this section a term 130 requiring that the respondent not remove, damage, hide, harm, or 131 dispose of any companion animal owned or possessed by the person 132 to be protected by the order, and may include within the order a 133 term authorizing the person to be protected by the order to 134 remove a companion animal owned by the person to be protected by 135 the order from the possession of the respondent. 136

(b) After a full hearing, if the court considering a 137 petition that includes an allegation of the type described in 138 division (C)(2)(b) of this section or the court, upon its own 139 motion, finds upon clear and convincing evidence that the 140
petitioner reasonably believed that the respondent's conduct at 141
any time preceding the filing of the petition endangered the 142
that the respondent presents a continuing danger to the person 144 to be protected and if division (N) of this section does not 145 prohibit the issuance of an order that the respondent be 146 electronically monitored, the court may order that the 147 respondent be electronically monitored for a period of time and 148 under the terms and conditions that the court determines are 149 appropriate. Electronic monitoring shall be in addition to any 150 other relief granted to the petitioner. 151

section shall be valid until a date certain but not later than 153
the date the respondent attains nineteen years of age. 154

(b) Any protection order issued pursuant to this section 155
issued. 157

(3) A court may not issue a protection order that requires 158
court may require a respondent to do or to refrain from doing 160
under division (E)(1) of this section unless all of the 161
following apply: 162

(a) The respondent files a separate petition for a 163

protection order in accordance with this section. 164

(b) The petitioner is served with notice of the 165
court holds a hearing with respect to the respondent's petition, 167
or the petitioner waives the right to receive this notice. 168

(c) If the petitioner has requested an ex parte order 169
pursuant to division (D) of this section, the court does not 170 delay any hearing required by that division beyond the time 171
with a hearing on the petition filed by the respondent. 173

(d) After a full hearing at which the respondent presents 174
evidence in support of the request for a protection order and 175
the petitioner is afforded an opportunity to defend against that 176
a violation of section 2903.11, 2903.12, 2903.13, 2903.21, 178 2903.211, 2903.22, or 2911.211 of the Revised Code, a sexually 179 oriented offense, or a violation of any municipal ordinance that 180 is substantially equivalent to any of those offenses against the 181 person to be protected by the protection order issued pursuant 182 to division (E) (3) of this section, or has violated a protection 183 order issued pursuant to this section or section 2903.213 of the 184 Revised Code relative to the person to be protected by the 185 protection order issued pursuant to division (E) (3) of this 186
section. 187

(4) No protection order issued pursuant to this section 188 shall in any manner affect title to any real property. 189

(5) (a) A protection order issued under this section shall 190 clearly state that the person to be protected by the order 191

in the order. 193

(b) Division (E) (5) (a) of this section does not limit any 194 discretion of a court to determine that a respondent alleged to 195 have violated section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, violated a 196 municipal ordinance substantially equivalent to that section, or 197 committed contempt of court, which allegation is based on an 198 alleged violation of a protection order issued under this 199 section, did not commit the violation or was not in contempt of 200
court. 201

(6) Any protection order issued pursuant to this section 202 shall include a provision that the court will automatically seal 203 all of the records of the proceeding in which the order is 204 issued on the date the respondent attains the age of nineteen 205 years unless the petitioner provides the court with evidence 206 that the respondent has not complied with all of the terms of 207 the protection order. The protection order shall specify the 208 date when the respondent attains the age of nineteen years. 209

(F) (1) The court shall cause the delivery of a copy of any 210
agencies that have jurisdiction to enforce the order. If the 213 protection order will be valid subsequent to the date on which 214 the respondent attains eighteen years of age, the order shall be 215
into the protection order database of the national crime 217
information center (NCIC) maintained by the federal bureau of 218 investigation. The court shall direct that a copy of the order 219 be delivered to the respondent and the parent, guardian, or 220 legal custodian of the respondent on the same day that the order 221 is entered. If the court terminates or cancels the order, the 222

cancellation to the same persons and entities that were 224 delivered a copy of the order. 225

(2) Upon the issuance of a protection order under this 226
section, the court shall provide the parties to the order with 227

"NOTICE 229

As a result of this order, it may be unlawful for you to 230 possess or purchase a firearm, including a rifle, pistol, or 231
revolver, or ammunition pursuant to federal law under 18 U.S.C. 232 922(g) (8) for the duration of this order. If you have any 233 questions whether this law makes it illegal for you to possess 234
attorney." 236

(3) All law enforcement agencies shall establish and 237
maintain an index for the protection orders delivered to the 238 agencies pursuant to division (F) (1) of this section. With 239 respect to each order delivered, each agency shall note on the 240 index the date and time that it received the order. Each 241 protection order received by a law enforcement agency pursuant 242 to this section that will be valid subsequent to the date on 243 which the respondent attains eighteen years of age shall be 244
system created by section 5503.10 of the Revised Code, and known 246 as LEADS, within twenty-four hours after receipt. Upon the 247
all steps necessary to ensure that the order is removed from 249

crime information center (NCIC) maintained by the federal bureau 253
of investigation. 254

(4) Regardless of whether the petitioner has registered 255
the protection order in the county in which the officer's agency 256
has jurisdiction pursuant to division (M) of this section, any 257
officer of a law enforcement agency shall enforce a protection 258 order issued pursuant to this section by any court in this state 259
removing the respondent from the premises, if appropriate. 261

(G) (1) Any proceeding under this section shall be 262
conducted in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure, 263
section with or without bond. An order issued under this 265
order, or that refuses to grant a protection order, is a final, 267
appealable order. The remedies and procedures provided in this 268 section are in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other 269 available civil or criminal remedies or any other available 270 remedies under Chapter 2151. or 2152. of the Revised Code. 271

(2) If as provided in division (G) (1) of this section an 272
order issued under this section, other than an ex parte order, 273 refuses to grant a protection order, the court, on its own 274
be sealed after either of the following occurs: 277

(a) No party has exercised the right to appeal pursuant to 278
Rule 4 of the Rules of Appellate Procedure. 279

(b) All appellate rights have been exhausted. 280

(H) The filing of proceedings under this section does not 281

excuse a person from filing any report or giving any notice 282
law. 284

(I) Any law enforcement agency that investigates an 285 alleged violation of section 2903.11, 2903.12, 2903.13, 2903.21, 286 2903.211, 2903.22, or 2911.211 of the Revised Code, an alleged 287 commission of a sexually oriented offense, or an alleged 288 violation of a municipal ordinance that is substantially 289 equivalent to any of those offenses shall provide information to 290 the victim and the family or household members of the victim 291 regarding the relief available under this section. 292

(J) (1) Subject to division (J) (2) of this section and 293
regardless of whether a protection order is issued or a consent 294
connection with the filing of a petition pursuant to this 298
section, in connection with the filing, issuance, registration, 299
a protection order, consent agreement, or witness subpoena or 301 for obtaining a certified copy of a protection order or consent 302

(2) Regardless of whether a protection order is issued or 304
a consent agreement is approved pursuant to this section, the 305 court may assess costs against the respondent in connection with 306
the filing, issuance, registration, modification, enforcement, 307 dismissal, withdrawal, or service of a protection order, consent 308 agreement, or witness subpoena or for obtaining a certified copy 309
of a protection order or consent agreement. 310

(K) (1) A person who violates a protection order issued 311

under this section is subject to the following sanctions: 312

(a) A delinquent child proceeding or a criminal 313 prosecution for a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised 314 Code, if the violation of the protection order constitutes a 315 violation of that section; 316

(b) Punishment for contempt of court. 317

(2) The punishment of a person for contempt of court for 318 violation of a protection order issued under this section does 319 not bar criminal prosecution of the person or a delinquent child 320 proceeding concerning the person for a violation of section 321 2919.27 of the Revised Code. However, a person punished for 322 contempt of court is entitled to credit for the punishment 323 imposed upon conviction of or adjudication as a delinquent child 324 for a violation of that section, and a person convicted of or 325 adjudicated a delinquent child for a violation of that section 326 shall not subsequently be punished for contempt of court arising 327 out of the same activity. 328

(L) In all stages of a proceeding under this section, a 329
petitioner may be accompanied by a victim advocate. 330

(M) (1) A petitioner who obtains a protection order under 331
this section may provide notice of the issuance or approval of 332 the order to the judicial and law enforcement officials in any 333 county other than the county in which the order is issued by 334
registering that order in the other county pursuant to division 335
(M) (2) of this section and filing a copy of the registered order 336 with a law enforcement agency in the other county in accordance 337 with that division. A person who obtains a protection order 338 issued by a court of another state may provide notice of the 339
issuance of the order to the judicial and law enforcement 340

and filing a copy of the registered order with a law enforcement 343

(2) A petitioner may register a protection order issued 345 pursuant to this section in a county other than the county in 346 which the court that issued the order is located in the 347 following manner: 348

(a) The petitioner shall obtain a certified copy of the 349 order from the clerk of the court that issued the order and 350 present that certified copy to the clerk of the court of common 351 pleas or the clerk of a municipal court or county court in the 352 county in which the order is to be registered. 353

(b) Upon accepting the certified copy of the order for 354
registration, the clerk of the court of common pleas, municipal 355
registration on the order and give the petitioner a copy of the 357 order that bears that proof of registration. 358

(3) The clerk of each court of common pleas, municipal 359
copies of protection orders that have been issued by courts in 361 other counties pursuant to this section and that have been 362 registered with the clerk. 363

(N) If the court orders electronic monitoring of the 364
respondent under this section, the court shall direct the 365

year from the fund and the rules promulgated by the attorney 373 general under section 2903.214 of the Revised Code, the cost of 374 the installation and monitoring of the electronic monitoring 375 device may be paid out of funds from the reparations fund 376 created pursuant to section 2743.191 of the Revised Code. The 377 total amount paid from the reparations fund created pursuant to 378 section 2743.191 of the Revised Code for electronic monitoring 379 under this section and sections 2903.214 and 2919.27 of the 380 Revised Code shall not exceed three hundred thousand dollars per 381 year. When the total amount paid from the reparations fund in 382 any year for electronic monitoring under those sections equals 383 or exceeds three hundred thousand dollars, the court shall not 384 order pursuant to this section that an indigent respondent be 385 electronically monitored. 386

(O) The court, in its discretion, may determine if the 387 respondent is entitled to court-appointed counsel in a 388 proceeding under this section. 389

Sec. 2903.213. (A) Except when the complaint involves a 390 person who is a family or household member as defined in section 391 2919.25 of the Revised Code, upon the filing of a complaint that 392 alleges a violation of section 2903.11, 2903.12, 2903.13, 393
violation of a municipal ordinance substantially similar to 395 section 2903.13, 2903.21, 2903.211, 2903.22, or 2911.211 of the 396 Revised Code, or the commission of a sexually oriented offense, 397
member of an alleged victim may file a motion that requests the 399 issuance of a protection order as a pretrial condition of 400 release of the alleged offender, in addition to any bail set 401 under Criminal Rule 46. The motion shall be filed with the clerk 402 of the court that has jurisdiction of the case at any time after 403 the filing of the complaint. If the complaint involves a person 404 who is a family or household member, the complainant, the 405 alleged victim, or the family or household member may file a 406 motion for a temporary protection order pursuant to section 407

(B) A motion for a protection order under this section 409 shall be prepared on a form that is provided by the clerk of the 410

"Motion for Protection Order 412 session after the filing of the motion, the court shall conduct 444 a hearing to determine whether to issue the order. The person 445 who requested the order shall appear before the court and 446 provide the court with the information that it requests 447 concerning the basis of the motion. If the court finds that the 448 safety and protection of the complainant or the alleged victim 449 may be impaired by the continued presence of the alleged 450 offender, the court may issue a protection order under this 451 section, as a pretrial condition of release, that contains terms 452 designed to ensure the safety and protection of the complainant 453 or the alleged victim, including a requirement that the alleged 454 offender refrain from entering the residence, school, business, 455 or place of employment of the complainant or the alleged victim. 456

The court may include within a protection order issued under 457
this section a term requiring that the alleged offender not 458 remove, damage, hide, harm, or dispose of any companion animal 459 owned or possessed by the complainant or the alleged victim, and 460 may include within the order a term authorizing the complainant 461 or the alleged victim to remove a companion animal owned by the 462 complainant or the alleged victim from the possession of the 463 alleged offender. 464

(2) (a) If the court issues a protection order under this 465
of employment of the complainant or the alleged victim, the 468 order shall clearly state that the order cannot be waived or 469 nullified by an invitation to the alleged offender from the 470 complainant, the alleged victim, or a family or household member 471 to enter the residence, school, business, or place of employment 472 or by the alleged offender's entry into one of those places 473 otherwise upon the consent of the complainant, the alleged 474 victim, or a family or household member. 475

(b) Division (C) (2) (a) of this section does not limit any 476
charged with a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, 478 with a violation of a municipal ordinance substantially 479
charge is based on an alleged violation of a protection order 481
not in contempt of court. 483

(D) (1) Except when the complaint involves a person who is 484 a family or household member as defined in section 2919.25 of 485 the Revised Code, upon the filing of a complaint that alleges a 486 violation specified in division (A) of this section, the court, 487 upon its own motion, may issue a protection order under this 488 section as a pretrial condition of release of the alleged 489 offender if it finds that the safety and protection of the 490 complainant or the alleged victim may be impaired by the 491

(2) If the court issues a protection order under this 493 section as an ex parte order, it shall conduct, as soon as 494 possible after the issuance of the order but not later than the 495 next day that the court is in session after its issuance, a 496 hearing to determine whether the order should remain in effect, 497 be modified, or be revoked. The hearing shall be conducted under 498
the standards set forth in division (C) of this section. 499

(3) If a municipal court or a county court issues a 500
issuance of the order, the alleged offender who is the subject 502 of the order is bound over to the court of common pleas for 503 prosecution of a felony arising out of the same activities as 504 those that were the basis of the complaint upon which the order 505 is based, notwithstanding the fact that the order was issued by 506 a municipal court or county court, the order shall remain in 507 effect, as though it were an order of the court of common pleas, 508 while the charges against the alleged offender are pending in 509 the court of common pleas, for the period of time described in 510 division (E)(2) of this section, and the court of common pleas 511 has exclusive jurisdiction to modify the order issued by the 512 municipal court or county court. This division applies when the 513 alleged offender is bound over to the court of common pleas as a 514 result of the person waiving a preliminary hearing on the felony 515 charge, as a result of the municipal court or county court 516 having determined at a preliminary hearing that there is 517 probable cause to believe that the felony has been committed and 518 that the alleged offender committed it, as a result of the 519 alleged offender having been indicted for the felony, or in any 520 other manner. 521

(E) A protection order that is issued as a pretrial 522 condition of release under this section: 523

(1) Is in addition to, but shall not be construed as a 524
part of, any bail set under Criminal Rule 46; 525

(2) Is effective only until the disposition, by the court 526 that issued the order or, in the circumstances described in 527 division (D) (3) of this section, by the court of common pleas to 528 which the alleged offender is bound over for prosecution, of the 529 criminal proceeding arising out of the complaint upon which the 530 order is based or until the issuance under section 2903.214 of 531 the Revised Code of a protection order arising out of the same 532 activities as those that were the basis of the complaint filed 533 under this section; 534

(3) Shall not be construed as a finding that the alleged 535 offender committed the alleged offense and shall not be 536 introduced as evidence of the commission of the offense at the 537 trial of the alleged offender on the complaint upon which the 538
order is based. 539

(F) A person who meets the criteria for bail under 540
Criminal Rule 46 and who, if required to do so pursuant to that 541 rule, executes or posts bond or deposits cash or securities as 542 bail, shall not be held in custody pending a hearing before the 543 court on a motion requesting a protection order under this 544
section. 545

(G) (1) A copy of a protection order that is issued under 546 this section shall be issued by the court to the complainant, to 547 the alleged victim, to the person who requested the order, to 548 the defendant, and to all law enforcement agencies that have 549 jurisdiction to enforce the order. The protection order shall be 550

investigation. The court shall direct that a copy of the order 554 be delivered to the defendant on the same day that the order is 555 entered. If a municipal court or a county court issues a 556
issuance of the order, the defendant who is the subject of the 558 order is bound over to the court of common pleas for prosecution 559 as described in division (D) (3) of this section, the municipal 560 court or county court shall direct that a copy of the order be 561 delivered to the court of common pleas to which the defendant is 562 bound over. If the court that issued the order, or the court of 563 common pleas if the defendant is bound over to that court for 564 prosecution, terminates or cancels the order, the court shall 565 cause the delivery of notice of the termination or cancellation 566 to the same persons and entities that were issued or delivered a 567 copy of the order. 568

(2) All law enforcement agencies shall establish and 569
maintain an index for the protection orders delivered to the 570 agencies pursuant to division (G) (1) of this section. With 571
index the date and time of the agency's receipt of the order. 573
Each protection order received by a law enforcement agency 574 pursuant to this section shall be entered by the agency into the 575 law enforcement automated data system created by section 5503.10 576 of the Revised Code, and known as LEADS, within twenty-four 577 hours after receipt. Upon the termination or cancellation of the 578 order, the agency shall take all steps necessary to ensure that 579

the order is removed from LEADS within twenty-four hours after 580 receipt of notice of the termination or cancellation and that it 581
database of the national crime information center (NCIC) 583
maintained by the federal bureau of investigation. 584

has jurisdiction, any officer of a law enforcement agency shall 587 enforce a protection order issued pursuant to this section in 588 accordance with the provisions of the order. 589

(H) Upon a violation of a protection order issued pursuant 590 to this section, the court may issue another protection order 591 under this section, as a pretrial condition of release, that 592 modifies the terms of the order that was violated. 593

(I) (1) Subject to division (I) (2) of this section and 594
regardless of whether a protection order is issued or a consent 595
in connection with the filing, issuance, registration, 600
for obtaining certified copies of a protection order or consent 603

(2) Regardless of whether a protection order is issued or 605
a consent agreement is approved pursuant to this section, if the 606 defendant is convicted the court may assess costs against the 607

defendant in connection with the filing, issuance, registration, 608
for obtaining a certified copy of a protection order or consent 611

(J) As used in this section: 613

(1) "Sexually oriented offense" has the same meaning as in 614
section 2950.01 of the Revised Code. 615

(2) "Companion animal" has the same meaning as in section 616

Sec. 2903.214. (A) As used in this section: 618

(1) "Court" means the court of common pleas of the county 619 in which the person to be protected by the protection order 620 resides. 621

(2) "Victim advocate" means a person who provides support 622
and assistance for a person who files a petition under this 623
section. 624

(3) "Family or household member" has the same meaning as 625 in section 3113.31 of the Revised Code. 626

has the same meaning as in section 2919.27 of the Revised Code. 628

(5) "Sexually oriented offense" has the same meaning as in 629
section 2950.01 of the Revised Code. 630

(6) "Electronic monitoring" has the same meaning as in 631
section 2929.01 of the Revised Code. 632

(7) "Companion animal" has the same meaning as in section 633
959.131 of the Revised Code. 634

(B) The court has jurisdiction over all proceedings under 635
this section. 636

(C) A person may seek relief under this section for the 637 person, or any parent or adult household member may seek relief 638 under this section on behalf of any other family or household 639 member, by filing a petition with the court. The petition shall 640 contain or state all of the following: 641

(1) An allegation that the respondent is eighteen years of 642 age or older and engaged in a violation of section 2903.211 of 643 the Revised Code against the person to be protected by the 644 protection order or committed a sexually oriented offense 645 against the person to be protected by the protection order, 646 including a description of the nature and extent of the 647 violation; 648

(2) If the petitioner seeks relief in the form of 649 electronic monitoring of the respondent, an allegation that at 650
any time preceding the filing of the petition the respondent 651
that conduct, and an allegation that the respondent presents a 655

(3) A request for relief under this section. 657

section requests an ex parte order, the court shall hold an ex 659
but not later than the next day that the court is in session 661

limited to, situations in which the respondent has threatened 669
the person to be protected by the protection order with bodily 670 harm or in which the respondent previously has been convicted of 671 or pleaded guilty to a violation of section 2903.211 of the 672 Revised Code or a sexually oriented offense against the person 673 to be protected by the protection order. 674

(2) (a) If the court, after an ex parte hearing, issues a 675
full hearing. The court shall hold the full hearing on the date 680 scheduled under this division unless the court grants a 681
hearing to a reasonable time determined by the court: 685

this division, the respondent has not been served with the 687

(ii) The parties consent to the continuance. 690

(iv) The continuance is needed for other good cause. 693

(b) An ex parte order issued under this section does not 694

(3) If a person who files a petition pursuant to this 699
parte order after an ex parte hearing, the court shall proceed 702

issue any protection order, with or without bond, that contains 706
to be protected by the protection order, including, but not 708 limited to, a requirement that the respondent refrain from 709 entering the residence, school, business, or place of employment 710 of the petitioner or family or household member. If the court 711 includes a requirement that the respondent refrain from entering 712 the residence, school, business, or place of employment of the 713 petitioner or family or household member in the order, it also 714 shall include in the order provisions of the type described in 715 division (E)(5) of this section. The court may include within a 716 protection order issued under this section a term requiring that 717 the respondent not remove, damage, hide, harm, or dispose of any 718 companion animal owned or possessed by the person to be 719 protected by the order, and may include within the order a term 720 authorizing the person to be protected by the order to remove a 721 companion animal owned by the person to be protected by the 722 order from the possession of the respondent. 723

(b) After a full hearing, if the court considering a 724
petition that includes an allegation of the type described in 725 division (C) (2) of this section, or the court upon its own 726
to be protected, the court may order that the respondent be 732 electronically monitored for a period of time and under the 733 terms and conditions that the court determines are appropriate. 734 Electronic monitoring shall be in addition to any other relief 735 granted to the petitioner. 736

five years from the date of its issuance. 739

(b) Any protection order issued pursuant to this section 740
issued. 742

(3) A court may not issue a protection order that requires 743
following apply: 747

(a) The respondent files a separate petition for a 748
protection order in accordance with this section. 749

or the petitioner waives the right to receive this notice. 753

delay any hearing required by that division beyond the time 756
with a hearing on the petition filed by the respondent. 758

(d) After a full hearing at which the respondent presents 759
evidence in support of the request for a protection order and 760
the petitioner is afforded an opportunity to defend against that 761
a violation of section 2903.211 of the Revised Code against the 763
to division (E) (3) of this section, has committed a sexually 765 oriented offense against the person to be protected by the 766 protection order issued pursuant to division (E) (3) of this 767 section, or has violated a protection order issued pursuant to 768 section 2903.213 of the Revised Code relative to the person to 769 be protected by the protection order issued pursuant to division 770
(E) (3) of this section. 771

(4) No protection order issued pursuant to this section 772
shall in any manner affect title to any real property. 773

(5) (a) If the court issues a protection order under this 774
of employment of the petitioner or a family or household member, 777 the order shall clearly state that the order cannot be waived or 778 nullified by an invitation to the alleged offender from the 779 complainant to enter the residence, school, business, or place 780 of employment or by the alleged offender's entry into one of 781

(b) Division (E) (5) (a) of this section does not limit any 784
charged with a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, 786
with a violation of a municipal ordinance substantially 787
charge is based on an alleged violation of a protection order 789
not in contempt of court. 791

(F) (1) The court shall cause the delivery of a copy of any 792 protection order that is issued under this section to the 793
agencies that have jurisdiction to enforce the order. The 795 protection order shall be in a form that ensures that the 796 protection order is accepted into the protection order database 797 of the national crime information center (NCIC) maintained by 798 the federal bureau of investigation. The court shall direct that 799 a copy of the order be delivered to the respondent on the same 800 day that the order is entered. If the court terminates or 801 cancels the order, the court shall cause the delivery of notice 802 of the termination or cancellation to the same persons and 803 entities that were delivered a copy of the order. 804

As a result of this order, it may be unlawful for you to 809

questions whether this law makes it illegal for you to possess 813
attorney." 815

(3) All law enforcement agencies shall establish and 816
maintain an index for the protection orders delivered to the 817
to this section shall be entered by the agency into the law 822 enforcement automated data system created by section 5503.10 of 823
the Revised Code, and known as LEADS, within twenty-four hours 824 after receipt. Upon the termination or cancellation of the 825 order, the agency shall take all steps necessary to ensure that 826
the order is removed from LEADS within twenty-four hours after 827
maintained by the federal bureau of investigation. 831

has jurisdiction pursuant to division (M) of this section, any 834
order issued pursuant to this section by any court in this state 836
removing the respondent from the premises, if appropriate. 838

available civil or criminal remedies. 847

(2) If as provided in division (G)(1) of this section an 848
order issued under this section, other than an ex parte order, 849
be sealed after either of the following occurs: 853

(a) No party has exercised the right to appeal pursuant to 854

(b) All appellate rights have been exhausted. 856

(H) The filing of proceedings under this section does not 857
excuse a person from filing any report or giving any notice 858
law. 860

(I) Any law enforcement agency that investigates an 861 alleged violation of section 2903.211 of the Revised Code or an 862 alleged commission of a sexually oriented offense shall provide 863 information to the victim and the family or household members of 864 the victim regarding the relief available under this section and 865
section 2903.213 of the Revised Code. 866

regardless of whether a protection order is issued or a consent 868

section, in connection with the filing, issuance, registration, 873
for obtaining a certified copy of a protection order or consent 876

(2) Regardless of whether a protection order is issued or 878
a consent agreement is approved pursuant to this section, the 879
the filing, issuance, registration, modification, enforcement, 881
of a protection order or consent agreement. 884

under this section is subject to the following sanctions: 886

(a) Criminal prosecution for a violation of section 887 2919.27 of the Revised Code, if the violation of the protection 888 order constitutes a violation of that section; 889

(b) Punishment for contempt of court. 890

violation of a protection order issued under this section does 892 not bar criminal prosecution of the person for a violation of 893 section 2919.27 of the Revised Code. However, a person punished 894 for contempt of court is entitled to credit for the punishment 895 imposed upon conviction of a violation of that section, and a 896 person convicted of a violation of that section shall not 897 subsequently be punished for contempt of court arising out of 898

the same activity. 899

(L) In all stages of a proceeding under this section, a 900

this section or a protection order under section 2903.213 of the 903 Revised Code may provide notice of the issuance or approval of 904
the order to the judicial and law enforcement officials in any 905
registering that order in the other county pursuant to division 907 (M) (2) of this section and filing a copy of the registered order 908
with a law enforcement agency in the other county in accordance 909
and filing a copy of the registered order with a law enforcement 915
agency in that county. 916

pursuant to this section or section 2903.213 of the Revised Code 918 in a county other than the county in which the court that issued 919 the order is located in the following manner: 920

(a) The petitioner shall obtain a certified copy of the 921
pleas or the clerk of a municipal court or county court in the 924
county in which the order is to be registered. 925

(b) Upon accepting the certified copy of the order for 926

registration on the order and give the petitioner a copy of the 929
order that bears that proof of registration. 930

(3) The clerk of each court of common pleas, municipal 931
other counties pursuant to this section or section 2903.213 of 934 the Revised Code and that have been registered with the clerk. 935

(N) (1) If the court orders electronic monitoring of the 936
respondent under this section, the court shall direct the 937
general under division (N) (2) of this section, the cost of the 946 installation and monitoring of the electronic monitoring device 947 may be paid out of funds from the reparations fund created 948 pursuant to section 2743.191 of the Revised Code. The total 949 amount of costs for the installation and monitoring of 950 electronic monitoring devices paid pursuant to this division and 951 sections 2151.34 and 2919.27 of the Revised Code from the 952 reparations fund shall not exceed three hundred thousand dollars 953 per year. 954

(2) The attorney general may promulgate rules pursuant to 955 section 111.15 of the Revised Code to govern payments made from 956 the reparations fund pursuant to this division and sections 957

reasonable limits on the total cost paid pursuant to this 959 division and sections 2151.34 and 2919.27 of the Revised Code 960 per respondent, the amount of the three hundred thousand dollars 961 allocated to each county, and how invoices may be submitted by a 962 county, court, or other entity. 963

Sec. 2919.26. (A) (1) Upon the filing of a complaint that 964 alleges a violation of section 2909.06, 2909.07, 2911.12, or 965 2911.211 of the Revised Code if the alleged victim of the 966 violation was a family or household member at the time of the 967 violation, a violation of a municipal ordinance that is 968 substantially similar to any of those sections if the alleged 969 victim of the violation was a family or household member at the 970 time of the violation, any offense of violence if the alleged 971 victim of the offense was a family or household member at the 972 time of the commission of the offense, or any sexually oriented 973 offense if the alleged victim of the offense was a family or 974 household member at the time of the commission of the offense, 975
member of an alleged victim may file, or, if in an emergency the 977 alleged victim is unable to file, a person who made an arrest 978 for the alleged violation or offense under section 2935.03 of 979 the Revised Code may file on behalf of the alleged victim, a 980 motion that requests the issuance of a temporary protection 981 order as a pretrial condition of release of the alleged 982 offender, in addition to any bail set under Criminal Rule 46. 983
The motion shall be filed with the clerk of the court that has 984 jurisdiction of the case at any time after the filing of the 985 complaint. 986

(2) For purposes of section 2930.09 of the Revised Code, 987 all stages of a proceeding arising out of a complaint alleging 988

the commission of a violation, offense of violence, or sexually 989 oriented offense described in division (A)(1) of this section, 990 including all proceedings on a motion for a temporary protection 991 order, are critical stages of the case, and a victim may be 992 accompanied by a victim advocate or another person to provide 993 support to the victim as provided in that section. 994

(B) The motion shall be prepared on a form that is 995 provided by the clerk of the court, which form shall be 996

State of Ohio 1001

v. No. 1002

..... 1003

Name of Defendant 1004

A complaint, a copy of which has been attached to this 1005 motion, has been filed in this court charging the named 1006 defendant with (name of the specified 1007 violation, the offense of violence, or sexually oriented offense 1008 charged) in circumstances in which the victim was a family or 1009 household member in violation of (section of the Revised Code 1010 designating the specified violation, offense of violence, or 1011 sexually oriented offense charged), or charging the named 1012 defendant with a violation of a municipal ordinance that is 1013 substantially similar to (section of 1014 the Revised Code designating the specified violation, offense of 1015 violence, or sexually oriented offense charged) involving a 1016

I understand that I must appear before the court, at a 1018 time set by the court within twenty-four hours after the filing 1019
unable to appear because of hospitalization or a medical 1021 condition resulting from the offense alleged in the complaint, a 1022 person who can provide information about my need for a temporary 1023 protection order must appear before the court in lieu of my 1024 appearing in court. I understand that any temporary protection 1025 order granted pursuant to this motion is a pretrial condition of 1026 release and is effective only until the disposition of the 1027 criminal proceeding arising out of the attached complaint, or 1028 the issuance of a civil protection order or the approval of a 1029 consent agreement, arising out of the same activities as those 1030 that were the basis of the complaint, under section 3113.31 of 1031

the alleged victim) 1036

..... 1037

Address of person (or office address of the arresting officer who filed 1038 the motion on behalf of the alleged victim)" 1039

(C) (1) As soon as possible after the filing of a motion 1040 that requests the issuance of a temporary protection order, but 1041 not later than twenty-four hours after the filing of the motion, 1042 the court shall conduct a hearing to determine whether to issue 1043 the order. The person who requested the order shall appear 1044 before the court and provide the court with the information that 1045 it requests concerning the basis of the motion. If the person 1046 who requested the order is unable to appear and if the court 1047 finds that the failure to appear is because of the person's 1048 hospitalization or medical condition resulting from the offense 1049 alleged in the complaint, another person who is able to provide 1050 the court with the information it requests may appear in lieu of 1051 the person who requested the order. If the court finds that the 1052 safety and protection of the complainant, alleged victim, or any 1053 other family or household member of the alleged victim may be 1054 impaired by the continued presence of the alleged offender, the 1055 court may issue a temporary protection order, as a pretrial 1056 condition of release, that contains terms designed to ensure the 1057 safety and protection of the complainant, alleged victim, or the 1058 family or household member, including a requirement that the 1059 alleged offender refrain from entering the residence, school, 1060 business, or place of employment of the complainant, alleged 1061 victim, or the family or household member. The court may include 1062

within a protection order issued under this section a term 1063
requiring that the alleged offender not remove, damage, hide, 1064 harm, or dispose of any companion animal owned or possessed by 1065 the complainant, alleged victim, or any other family or 1066 household member of the alleged victim, and may include within 1067 the order a term authorizing the complainant, alleged victim, or 1068 other family or household member of the alleged victim to remove 1069 a companion animal owned by the complainant, alleged victim, or 1070 other family or household member from the possession of the 1071 alleged offender. 1072

(2) (a) If the court issues a temporary protection order 1073 that includes a requirement that the alleged offender refrain 1074 from entering the residence, school, business, or place of 1075 employment of the complainant, the alleged victim, or the family 1076 or household member, the order shall state clearly that the 1077 order cannot be waived or nullified by an invitation to the 1078 alleged offender from the complainant, alleged victim, or family 1079 or household member to enter the residence, school, business, or 1080 place of employment or by the alleged offender's entry into one 1081 of those places otherwise upon the consent of the complainant, 1082 alleged victim, or family or household member. 1083

(b) Division (C) (2) (a) of this section does not limit any 1084
charged with a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, 1086
with a violation of a municipal ordinance substantially 1087
charge is based on an alleged violation of a temporary 1089 protection order issued under this section, did not commit the 1090

(D) (1) Upon the filing of a complaint that alleges a 1092 violation of section 2909.06, 2909.07, 2911.12, or 2911.211 of 1093 the Revised Code if the alleged victim of the violation was a 1094 family or household member at the time of the violation, a 1095 violation of a municipal ordinance that is substantially similar 1096 to any of those sections if the alleged victim of the violation 1097 was a family or household member at the time of the violation, 1098 any offense of violence if the alleged victim of the offense was 1099 a family or household member at the time of the commission of 1100 the offense, or any sexually oriented offense if the alleged 1101 victim of the offense was a family or household member at the 1102 time of the commission of the offense, the court, upon its own 1103 motion, may issue a temporary protection order as a pretrial 1104 condition of release if it finds that the safety and protection 1105 of the complainant, alleged victim, or other family or household 1106 member of the alleged offender may be impaired by the continued 1107 presence of the alleged offender. 1108

(2) If the court issues a temporary protection order under 1109 this section as an ex parte order, it shall conduct, as soon as 1110 possible after the issuance of the order, a hearing in the 1111 presence of the alleged offender not later than the next day on 1112 which the court is scheduled to conduct business after the day 1113 on which the alleged offender was arrested or at the time of the 1114 appearance of the alleged offender pursuant to summons to 1115 determine whether the order should remain in effect, be 1116 modified, or be revoked. The hearing shall be conducted under 1117

(3) An order issued under this section shall contain only 1119 those terms authorized in orders issued under division (C) of 1120
this section. 1121

(4) If a municipal court or a county court issues a 1122 temporary protection order under this section and if, subsequent 1123 to the issuance of the order, the alleged offender who is the 1124 subject of the order is bound over to the court of common pleas 1125 for prosecution of a felony arising out of the same activities 1126 as those that were the basis of the complaint upon which the 1127 order is based, notwithstanding the fact that the order was 1128 issued by a municipal court or county court, the order shall 1129 remain in effect, as though it were an order of the court of 1130 common pleas, while the charges against the alleged offender are 1131 pending in the court of common pleas, for the period of time 1132 described in division (E) (2) of this section, and the court of 1133 common pleas has exclusive jurisdiction to modify the order 1134 issued by the municipal court or county court. This division 1135 applies when the alleged offender is bound over to the court of 1136 common pleas as a result of the person waiving a preliminary 1137 hearing on the felony charge, as a result of the municipal court 1138 or county court having determined at a preliminary hearing that 1139 there is probable cause to believe that the felony has been 1140 committed and that the alleged offender committed it, as a 1141 result of the alleged offender having been indicted for the 1142 felony, or in any other manner. 1143

(E) A temporary protection order that is issued as a 1144 pretrial condition of release under this section: 1145

(2) Is effective only until the occurrence of either of 1148 the following: 1149

(a) The disposition, by the court that issued the order 1150 or, in the circumstances described in division (D) (4) of this 1151 section, by the court of common pleas to which the alleged 1152 offender is bound over for prosecution, of the criminal 1153 proceeding arising out of the complaint upon which the order is 1154 based; 1155

(b) The issuance of a protection order or the approval of 1156 a consent agreement, arising out of the same activities as those 1157 that were the basis of the complaint upon which the order is 1158 based, under section 3113.31 of the Revised Code. 1159

offender committed the alleged offense, and shall not be 1161
introduced as evidence of the commission of the offense at the 1162

(F) A person who meets the criteria for bail under 1165
Criminal Rule 46 and who, if required to do so pursuant to that 1166

court on a motion requesting a temporary protection order. 1169

(G) (1) A copy of any temporary protection order that is 1170 issued under this section shall be issued by the court to the 1171 complainant, to the alleged victim, to the person who requested 1172 the order, to the defendant, and to all law enforcement agencies 1173 that have jurisdiction to enforce the order. The protection 1174 order shall be in a form that ensures that the protection order 1175 is accepted into the protection order database of the national 1176 crime information center (NCIC) maintained by the federal bureau 1177 of investigation. The court shall direct that a copy of the 1178 order be delivered to the defendant on the same day that the 1179 order is entered. If a municipal court or a county court issues 1180 a temporary protection order under this section and if, 1181 subsequent to the issuance of the order, the defendant who is 1182 the subject of the order is bound over to the court of common 1183 pleas for prosecution as described in division (D) (4) of this 1184 section, the municipal court or county court shall direct that a 1185 copy of the order be delivered to the court of common pleas to 1186 which the defendant is bound over. If the court that issued the 1187 order, or the court of common pleas if the defendant is bound 1188 over to that court for prosecution, terminates or cancels the 1189 order, the court shall cause the delivery of notice of the 1190 termination or cancellation to the same persons and entities 1191
that were issued or delivered a copy of the order. 1192

As a result of this protection order, it may be unlawful 1197 for you to possess or purchase a firearm, including a rifle, 1198 pistol, or revolver, or ammunition pursuant to federal law under 1199 18 U.S.C. 922(g) (8) for the duration of this order. If you have 1200 any questions whether this law makes it illegal for you to 1201 possess or purchase a firearm or ammunition, you should consult 1202 an attorney." 1203

(3) All law enforcement agencies shall establish and 1204
maintain an index for the temporary protection orders delivered 1205 to the agencies pursuant to division (G) (1) of this section. 1206 With respect to each order delivered, each agency shall note on 1207 the index, the date and time of the receipt of the order by the 1208 agency. Each protection order received by a law enforcement 1209 agency pursuant to this section shall be entered by the agency 1210 into the law enforcement automated data system created by 1211 section 5503.10 of the Revised Code, and known as LEADS, within 1212 twenty-four hours after receipt. Upon the termination or 1213 cancellation of the order, the agency shall take all steps 1214 necessary to ensure that the order is removed from LEADS within 1215 twenty-four hours after receipt of notice of the termination or 1216 cancellation and that it is terminated, cleared, or canceled in 1217 the protection order database of the national crime information 1218 center (NCIC) maintained by the federal bureau of investigation. 1219

(4) A complainant, alleged victim, or other person who 1220 obtains a temporary protection order under this section may 1221 provide notice of the issuance of the temporary protection order 1222 to the judicial and law enforcement officials in any county 1223 other than the county in which the order is issued by 1224 registering that order in the other county in accordance with 1225 division (N) of section 3113.31 of the Revised Code and filing a 1226 copy of the registered protection order with a law enforcement 1227 agency in the other county in accordance with that division. 1228

(5) Any officer of a law enforcement agency shall enforce 1229 a temporary protection order issued by any court in this state 1230
removing the defendant from the premises, regardless of whether 1232 the order is registered in the county in which the officer's 1233 agency has jurisdiction as authorized by division (G) (4) of this 1234
section. 1235

(H) Upon a violation of a temporary protection order, the 1236 court may issue another temporary protection order, as a 1237 pretrial condition of release, that modifies the terms of the 1238 order that was violated. 1239

(I) (1) As used in divisions (I) (1) and (2) of this 1240 section, "defendant" means a person who is alleged in a 1241 complaint to have committed a violation, offense of violence, or 1242 sexually oriented offense of the type described in division (A) 1243 of this section. 1244

(2) If a complaint is filed that alleges that a person 1245 committed a violation, offense of violence, or sexually oriented 1246 offense of the type described in division (A) of this section, 1247 the court may not issue a temporary protection order under this 1248 section that requires the complainant, the alleged victim, or 1249 another family or household member of the defendant to do or 1250 refrain from doing an act that the court may require the 1251 defendant to do or refrain from doing under a temporary 1252 protection order unless both of the following apply: 1253

(a) The defendant has filed a separate complaint that 1254 alleges that the complainant, alleged victim, or other family or 1255 household member in question who would be required under the 1256 order to do or refrain from doing the act committed a violation 1257 or offense of violence of the type described in division (A) of 1258

this section. 1259

(b) The court determines that both the complainant, 1260 alleged victim, or other family or household member in question 1261 who would be required under the order to do or refrain from 1262 doing the act and the defendant acted primarily as aggressors, 1263 that neither the complainant, alleged victim, or other family or 1264 household member in question who would be required under the 1265 order to do or refrain from doing the act nor the defendant 1266 acted primarily in self-defense, and, in accordance with the 1267 standards and criteria of this section as applied in relation to 1268 the separate complaint filed by the defendant, that it should 1269 issue the order to require the complainant, alleged victim, or 1270 other family or household member in question to do or refrain 1271 from doing the act. 1272

(J) (1) Subject to division (J) (2) of this section and 1273
regardless of whether a protection order is issued or a consent 1274 agreement is approved by a court of another county or a court of 1275 another state, no court or unit of state or local government 1276

a protection order, consent agreement, or witness subpoena or 1281
for obtaining a certified copy of a protection order or consent 1282
agreement. 1283

(2) Regardless of whether a protection order is issued or 1284
a consent agreement is approved pursuant to this section, if the 1285

a protection order, consent agreement, or witness subpoena or 1289
for obtaining a certified copy of a protection order or consent 1290
agreement. 1291

cause to believe that another person presents a significant risk 1503 of a type described in division (A) (2) (a) of section 3113.27 of 1504 the Revised Code. If a person presents information of that 1505 nature to a law enforcement officer with respect to another 1506 person, or if a law enforcement officer otherwise has reasonable 1507 cause to believe that a person presents a significant risk of a 1508 type described in division (A) (2) (a) of section 3113.27 of the 1509 Revised Code, the officer may interview the subject person. 1510

(2) Upon completion of an interview described in division 1511
(B) (1) of this section, the officer shall do one of the 1512
following: 1513

(a) If the officer has reason to believe that the person 1514

(1) of section 3113.27 of the Revised Code requesting that the 1522 court issue a potential risk protection order temporarily 1523 enjoining the person, who would be the respondent under the 1524 order, from having in the person's possession, custody, or 1525

(b) If the officer does not have reason to believe that 1527

if allowed to remain at liberty pending examination, but the 1530 officer has reasonable cause to believe that the person has 1531 possession, custody, or control of one or more deadly weapons 1532 and that it might be appropriate for the person to be subjected 1533 to a potential risk protection order, the officer's reasonable 1534 cause to believe those facts constitutes a public safety 1535 emergency. 1536

Because of the public safety emergency described in this 1537 division, the officer immediately shall contact a mental health 1538 professional, consult with the mental health professional, and 1539 have the mental health professional interview the person and 1540 conduct a preliminary evaluation of the person. The mental 1541 health professional shall conduct the interview and preliminary 1542 evaluation at the same location at which the officer interviewed 1543 the person or, if that is not possible, at a mental health 1544 facility, a detention facility, or another suitable location. 1545
The officer shall remain with the person from the conclusion of 1546 the officer's interview with the person until the conclusion of 1547 the mental health professional's interview with, and preliminary 1548 evaluation of, the person. 1549

division, notwithstanding any other provision of the Revised 1551 Code or the Criminal Rules to the contrary, the person may be 1552 confined at a mental health facility, a detention facility, or 1553 another suitable location until the mental health professional 1554 makes a decision based on the professional's interview with, and 1555 evaluation of, the person. The mental health professional shall 1556 make a decision based on the professional's interview with, and 1557 evaluation of, the person not later than twenty-four hours after 1558 being contacted by the law enforcement officer, and no person 1559 shall be confined under authority of this division for more than 1560 twenty-four hours. 1561

Upon the mental health professional's making a decision 1562
under this division, one of the following applies: 1563

(i) If the mental health professional and officer have 1564 reason to believe that the person is a mentally ill person 1565 subject to court order and represents a substantial risk of 1566
physical harm to self or others if allowed to remain at liberty 1567 pending examination, the officer may take the person into 1568 custody and transport the person to a hospital or general 1569 hospital pursuant to division (A) (3) of section 5122.10 of the 1570 Revised Code for the purposes described in that division and the 1571 officer may file a petition under division (A) (1) of section 1572 3113.27 of the Revised Code requesting that the court issue a 1573 potential risk protection order temporarily enjoining the 1574 person, who would be the respondent under the order, from having 1575 in the person's possession, custody, or control any deadly 1576 weapon;

1577

(ii) If the mental health professional and officer do not have reason to believe that the person is a mentally ill person subject to court order and represents a substantial risk of
pending examination, the person shall be released and the officer shall take no further action based on the officer's belief before the officer's interview that it might be appropriate for the person to be subjected to a potential risk protection order. This division does not affect the authority of a law enforcement officer to file a petition for a potential risk protection order under authority of division (A) of this section.

interview that it might be appropriate for the person to be

The probate court has jurisdiction over all proceedings under 1608 this section and sections 3113.28 and 3113.29 of the Revised 1609 Code, unless the reference to a court expressly refers to a 1610 court other than a probate court. 1611

(2) A petition filed under division (A)(1) of this section 1612 shall do all of the following: 1613

(a) Allege facts showing that the respondent presents a 1614 significant risk in the near future of committing suicide, 1615 committing another form of serious self-harm less than death, or 1616 causing physical injury to another person; 1617

(b) Identify the number, types, and locations of any 1618 deadly weapons the petitioner believes to be in the respondent's 1619 possession, custody, or control at the time the petition is 1620 filed; 1621

(c) Include the respondent's residence address at the time 1622 the petition is filed as well as any other information the 1623 petitioner has concerning the whereabouts of the respondent, so 1624 made under division (A)(6) of this section; 1626

(d) Identify whether there is a current protection order 1627 or restraining order governing the respondent under section 1628 2151.34, 2903.213, 2903.214, 2919.26, or 3113.31 of the Revised 1629
Code or under any other applicable statute; 1630

(e) If, at the time of the filing of the petition, the 1631 respondent is in custody under division (A) of section 5122.10 1632 of the Revised Code for an examination as a person who is 1633 believed to be a mentally ill person subject to court order and 1634 to represent a substantial risk of physical harm to self or 1635 others if allowed to remain at liberty pending examination, or 1636 is under confinement or disposition after the examination that 1637 is subsequent to that custody as described in division (E) or 1638 (F) of that section, state the fact of the custody or the 1639 confinement or disposition and the date on which the person was 1640 taken into custody, identify the location of the custody, and 1641 include a request that the hearing on the petition be expedited. 1642

(3) A petition for a potential risk protection order filed 1643 under division (A) (1) of this section shall be supported by a 1644 written affidavit signed by the petitioner under oath, an oral 1645 statement given by the petitioner under oath, or any other 1646 admissible evidence the petitioner may choose to produce that 1647 sets forth the facts alleged in the petition that give rise to a 1648 reasonable belief on the part of the petitioner that the 1649 respondent presents a significant risk of the type described in 1650 the petition. The petitioner also shall include with the 1651 petition an affidavit under oath that the petitioner has 1652 conducted an independent investigation of the circumstances 1653 giving rise to the filing of the petition and that there is good 1654 cause for the filing of the petition. 1655

(4) In any proceeding before the court in which the 1656
petitioner is seeking a potential risk protection order or an 1657 extension of an existing potential risk protection order, the 1658 petitioner has the burden of proof. 1659

(5) In any proceeding before the court in which the 1660
petitioner is seeking a potential risk protection order, the 1661 Rules of Civil Procedure and the Rules of Evidence shall apply. 1662

(6) Upon the filing of a petition for a potential risk 1663 protection order under division (A) (1) of this section, the 1664 court shall set a date for a hearing on the petition that is not 1665 later than three calendar days after the day on which the 1666 petition is filed. If the petition includes a request that the 1667 hearing be expedited, as described in division (A) (2) (e) of this 1668 section, the court shall hold the hearing at the earliest 1669 possible time, but not later than three calendar days after the 1670 day on which the petition is filed. On the same business day the 1671 petitioner files the petition, the court shall direct a law 1672 enforcement officer to serve on the respondent a copy of the 1673 petition and a notice of the hearing. The notice of the hearing 1674 shall notify the respondent of the date, time, and location of 1675 the hearing, of the respondent's opportunity to be heard to 1676 contest the issuance of a potential risk protection order, and 1677 of the opportunity for a family or household member of the 1678 respondent or business partner or associate of the respondent to 1679 be heard to request an exemption from the order of a motor 1680 vehicle or equipment needed by the family or household member, 1681 partner, or associate. On motion of the petitioner or 1682 respondent, or on its own motion, the court may grant a 1683 continuance of the hearing for any of the circumstances or 1684 reasons identified in divisions (A) (6) (a) to (e) of this section 1685 and, upon granting a continuance, the court shall notify the 1686 petitioner and respondent of the new date, time, and location of 1687 the hearing. Under any of the following circumstances or for any 1688 of the following reasons, the court may grant a continuance of 1689 the hearing to a reasonable time determined by the court: 1690

(a) Prior to the date scheduled for the hearing under this 1691 division, the respondent has not been served with the petition 1692 filed under this section and the notice of the hearing. 1693

(b) The petitioner and the respondent consent to the 1694 continuance. 1695

(c) The continuance is to allow either the petitioner or 1696 the respondent to obtain counsel. 1697

(d) The continuance is needed for other good cause. 1698

(e) At the time of the filing of the petition, the 1699 respondent is in custody as described in division (A) (2) (e) of 1700
this section. 1701

(7) If, at the time scheduled for the hearing under 1702 division (A) (6) of this section, the respondent is in custody or 1703 under confinement or disposition as described in division (A) (2) 1704 (e) of this section, the respondent shall be temporarily 1705 released from the custody or the confinement or disposition for 1706 the purpose of attending the hearing. If, on completion of the 1707 hearing, the period of the custody of the respondent for the 1708 examination or of the confinement or disposition as described in 1709 division (A) (2) (e) of this section has not ended and the 1710 respondent has not been discharged from that custody, 1711 confinement, or disposition, the respondent shall return to the 1712 hospital or other facility from which the respondent was 1713 temporarily released to attend the hearing. The court may direct 1714 that a law enforcement officer transport the respondent to and 1715 from the hearing. 1716

(B) (1) (a) At the hearing for a potential risk protection 1717 order provided under division (A) (6) of this section, the 1718 petitioner must prove, by proof beyond a reasonable doubt, that 1719 the respondent presents a significant risk of committing 1720 suicide, committing another form of serious self-harm less than 1721 death, or causing physical injury to another person in the near 1722 future to such an extent that the respondent should be 1723 immediately and temporarily enjoined from having in the 1724 respondent's possession, custody, or control any deadly weapon. 1725

If the court at the hearing finds that the petitioner has so 1726 proved, the court may issue a potential risk protection order. 1727 Absent such a finding, the court shall not issue a potential 1728 risk protection order. 1729

(b) At the hearing for a potential risk protection order 1730 provided under division (A)(6) of this section, any family or 1731 household member of the respondent or business partner or 1732 associate of the respondent may request an exemption from the 1733 order of a motor vehicle or equipment that is needed by the 1734 family or household member, partner, or associate and present 1735 evidence as to the need for the motor vehicle or equipment. If 1736 the court at the hearing finds that the family or household 1737 member, partner, or associate has proved that the family or 1738 household member, partner, or associate needs the motor vehicle 1739 or equipment, except as otherwise provided in this division, the 1740 court may exempt the motor vehicle or equipment from the order. 1741
If the court exempts any motor vehicle or equipment from the 1742 order under authority of this division, the motor vehicle or 1743 equipment is not subject to retrieval under section 3113.28 of 1744 the Revised Code, the retrieval provisions of that section do 1745 not apply with respect to that motor vehicle or equipment, the 1746 respondent shall not possess or maintain the motor vehicle or 1747 equipment while the order is in effect, and the motor vehicle or 1748 equipment shall be possessed or used while the order is in 1749 effect only by the family or household member, partner, or 1750 associate. The limitations on the respondent's possession, 1751 maintenance, or use of the motor vehicle or equipment do not 1752 apply after the expiration or termination of the order. 1753

A court shall not exempt any motor vehicle or equipment 1754 from a potential risk protection order under authority of this 1755 division if the petitioner or a prosecutor proves to the court 1756 that the motor vehicle or equipment is needed as evidence in any 1757 pending or contemplated criminal action or proceeding. 1758

(2) In determining whether to issue a potential risk 1759 protection order under this section, the court shall consider 1760 all of the factors listed in division (C) of this section. 1761

(3) If the court at the hearing provided under division 1762
(A) (6) of this section finds, by proof beyond a reasonable 1763 doubt, that a potential risk protection order should be issued 1764 and issues the order, the order shall include all of the 1765
following: 1766

(a) A statement of the evidence presented and the court's 1767 findings supporting issuance of the order; 1768

(b) The date the order was issued; 1769

(c) The duration of the order, which shall be one hundred 1770 eighty days after the date on which the order is issued, and a 1771 notice that the duration of the order may be extended upon 1772 request of the petitioner if the court makes certain findings; 1773

(d) A notice to the respondent that, beginning ninety days 1774 after the order is issued, the respondent may file a petition 1775 with the court pursuant to section 3113.29 of the Revised Code 1776 for a hearing under that section to terminate the order and 1777 reclaim possession of the respondent's deadly weapons; 1778

(e) A notice that the order can be appealed to the court 1779 of appeals; 1780

(f) A notice that the issuance of a potential risk 1781 protection order under division (B) of this section, or the 1782 extension of such an order under section 3113.29 of the Revised 1783 Code, shall make it unlawful for the respondent to possess, 1784 purchase, acquire, or obtain any deadly weapon that is within 1785 the scope of the prohibition set forth in section 2923.13 of the 1786 Revised Code while the potential risk protection order or the 1787 extension is in effect; 1788

(g) If the court has exempted a motor vehicle or equipment 1789 from the order, a specific description of that motor vehicle or 1790 equipment, a statement that that motor vehicle or equipment is 1791 not subject to retrieval under section 3113.28 of the Revised 1792 Code, and a statement informing the respondent and law 1793 enforcement officers that the retrieval provisions of section 1794 3113.28 of the Revised Code do not apply with respect to that 1795 motor vehicle or equipment. 1796

(4) If the court issues a potential risk protection order 1797 under division (B) of this section, the court shall immediately 1798 direct a law enforcement officer to serve the order on the 1799 respondent as soon as possible, either at the residence address 1800 of the respondent as set forth in the petition or at any other 1801 location that either the petitioner or the law enforcement 1802 officer has reason to believe the respondent can be found and 1803 served. If, at that time, the respondent is in custody or under 1804 confinement or disposition as described in division (A) (2) (e) of 1805 this section, the law enforcement officer shall serve the order 1806 on the respondent at the hospital or other facility in which the 1807 respondent is in custody or under confinement or disposition. 1808
After the law enforcement officer serves the order on the 1809 respondent, the officer shall file with the court notice of 1810 service on the respondent. The notice of service shall state the 1811 date and time the respondent was served and the location at 1812 which the respondent was served. 1813

(5) A potential risk protection order issued under 1814 division (B) of this section shall inform the respondent that 1815 the court will issue a warrant under division (B) of section 1816 3113.28 of the Revised Code commanding a law enforcement officer 1817 in the county in which the respondent resides, or in a county in 1818 which the respondent engaged in an activity or made statements 1819 that were the basis of the law enforcement officer determining 1820 that the petition for the order should be filed, to enter the 1821 respondent's residence or any other property owned, leased, 1822 controlled, or inhabited by the respondent to search for and 1823 retrieve all nonexempt deadly weapons in the respondent's 1824 possession, custody, or control. A court that otherwise is 1825 required to issue a warrant as described in this paragraph may 1826 decide to not issue the warrant or to delay the issuance of the 1827 warrant, in the circumstances specified in division (B) (2) or 1828

(3) of section 3113.28 of the Revised Code. 1829

(C) (1) In determining whether to issue a potential risk 1830 protection order, the court shall consider all of the following: 1831

(a) Recent threats or acts of violence by the respondent 1832 directed toward any person; 1833

(b) Recent acts of the respondent's cruelty to animals; 1834

(c) The respondent's reckless use, display, or brandishing 1835 of any deadly weapon; 1836

(d) A history of suicide threats or attempts by the 1837 respondent or other attempts by the respondent to engage in any 1838 form of self-harm; 1839

(e) A history of the use, attempted use, or threatened use 1840 of physical force or violence by the respondent against another 1841 person; 1842

(f) The respondent's illegal use of controlled substances 1843

or abuse of alcohol; 1844

(g) A prior confinement of the respondent under section 1845 5122.10 or 5122.11 of the Revised Code that resulted in the 1846 respondent being found to be a mentally ill person subject to 1847 court order; 1848

(h) Any other factors that are relevant to an evaluation 1849 of whether the respondent presents a significant risk in the 1850 near future of committing suicide, committing another form of 1851 self-harm less than death, or causing physical injury to another 1852
person. 1853

(2) As used in division (C) (1) of this section: 1854

(a) "Recent" means at any time within the six-month period 1855 immediately prior to the filing of the petition requesting the 1856 issuance of a potential risk protection order with respect to 1857 which the hearing pertains. 1858

(b) "A history of" a specified type of activity or conduct 1859 means that the specified activity or conduct has occurred 1860 multiple times within the six-month period immediately prior to 1861 the filing of the petition requesting the issuance of a 1862 potential risk protection order with respect to which the 1863 hearing pertains. 1864

(D) Any evidence presented in a petition for a potential 1865 risk protection order under division (A) (1) of this section or 1866 in any hearing on such a petition that the respondent has been 1867 diagnosed with any mental illness or any other mental health 1868 condition is not sufficient by itself for the court to issue a 1869 potential risk protection order. For the potential risk 1870 protection order to be issued, the court must find that one or 1871 more of the factors listed in division (C) of this section 1872 applies, in addition to any mental illness or any other mental 1873 health condition from which the respondent may suffer. 1874

(E) (1) A copy of a potential risk protection order issued 1875 under division (B) of this section shall be issued to the 1876
petitioner, to the respondent, and to all law enforcement 1877
agencies that have jurisdiction to enforce the order. If the 1878 court that issued the order terminates or cancels the order, or 1879 if the order automatically terminates as a matter of law, the 1880 court shall cause the delivery of notice of the termination or 1881 cancellation to the same persons and entities that were issued a 1882 copy of the order. If the respondent appeals the order or an 1883 extension of the order to the court of appeals and the court of 1884 appeals overturns the decision of the probate court to issue or 1885 extend the order, the court of appeals shall cause the delivery 1886 of notice of its decision to the same persons and entities that 1887 were issued a copy of the order or of the extension of the 1888
order. 1889

(2) Any potential risk protection order issued under 1890 division (B) of this section shall be in a form that ensures 1891 that the order is accepted into the protection order database of 1892 the national crime information center (NCIC) maintained by the 1893 federal bureau of investigation. 1894

(3) Each law enforcement agency provided a copy of a 1895 potential risk protection order pursuant to division (E) (1) of 1896 this section shall ensure the order is entered into the law 1897 enforcement automated data system created by section 5503.10 of 1898
the Revised Code and known as LEADS within twenty-four hours of 1899 receipt. Upon the termination or cancellation of the order, or 1900 upon a decision of a court of appeals that overturns the 1901 decision of the probate court to issue or extend the order, the 1902 agency shall take all steps necessary to ensure that the order 1903 is removed from LEADS within twenty-four hours after receipt of 1904 notice of the termination, cancellation, or overturning of the 1905 order or extension and that the order is terminated, cleared, or 1906 canceled in the database of the national crime information 1907 center (NCIC) maintained by the federal bureau of investigation 1908 into which the order has been entered, as described in division 1909

(E) (2) of this section. 1910

Sec. 3113.28. (A) (1) If a court issues a potential risk 1911 protection order under section 3113.27 of the Revised Code , 1912 except as otherwise described in division (A) (2) of this 1913 section, the court that issued the order immediately shall issue 1914 a warrant to a law enforcement officer commanding the officer to 1915 search for and retrieve all non-exempt deadly weapons in the 1916 possession or control of the respondent. The law enforcement 1917 officer who served the warrant, not later than forty-eight hours 1918 after the warrant was served, shall file a return with the court 1919 that states that the warrant was served and that sets forth the 1920 time and date on which the warrant was served, the name and 1921 address of the respondent named in the warrant, and the serial 1922 number, make, and model or any other relevant description of 1923
each deadly weapon retrieved by the law enforcement officer. 1924

This division applies even if, when the order is issued, 1925 the respondent is in custody or under confinement or disposition 1926 as described in division (A) (2) (e) of section 3113.27 of the 1927 Revised Code. 1928

(2) If a court that otherwise is required to issue a 1929 warrant under division (A) (1) of this section determines that 1930 the respondent is in custody or that the respondent's deadly 1931 weapons already have been surrendered to and are in the 1932 possession of a law enforcement agency, the court may decide to 1933 delay the issuance of the warrant pending the respondent's 1934 release or the return of the deadly weapons to the respondent. 1935

(B)(1) Any law enforcement agency that has taken 1936 possession of a respondent's nonexempt deadly weapons pursuant 1937 to a potential risk protection order issued under section 1938 3113.27 of the Revised Code by a retrieval by a law enforcement 1939 officer under division (A) of this section, shall not mark, 1940 damage, deface, or destroy the deadly weapons while they are in 1941 the agency's possession. The agency shall maintain the integrity 1942 and identity of the deadly weapons in such a manner that, if the 1943 deadly weapons subsequently are to be returned to the 1944 respondent, they can be identified and returned to the 1945 respondent in the same condition they were in when they were 1946 retrieved. The agency shall not relinquish control of the deadly 1947 weapons other than pursuant to a provision of section 3113.29 of 1948 the Revised Code, pursuant to a sale as specified in division 1949
(F) of that section, or pursuant to a court order. 1950

(2) Any law enforcement agency that has taken possession 1951 of a respondent's nonexempt deadly weapons pursuant to a 1952 potential risk protection order issued under section 3113.27 of 1953 the Revised Code by a retrieval by a law enforcement officer 1954 under division (A) of this section, may transfer the 1955 respondent's deadly weapons for storage by the state highway 1956 patrol for the duration of the order. The state highway patrol 1957 shall issue the law enforcement agency that originally took 1958 possession of the respondent's deadly weapons a proof of 1959 transfer that includes the name and address of the respondent 1960 from whom the deadly weapons were received and the serial 1961
each transferred deadly weapon. The state highway patrol shall 1963 notify the court, the petitioner, and the respondent that the 1964 state highway patrol then is in possession of the respondent's 1965 deadly weapons. 1966

(3) A law enforcement agency that has taken possession of 1967 a respondent's nonexempt deadly weapons as described in division 1968 (B) (1) or (2) of this section, or the state highway patrol that 1969 has custody of a respondent's nonexempt deadly weapons as 1970 described in division (B) (2) of this section, shall make a 1971 record of the deadly weapons for purposes of sections 3113.26 to 1972 3113.30 of the Revised Code. Notwithstanding section 149.43 of 1973 the Revised Code, the record is confidential, is not a public 1974 record, and shall be used only for purposes of sections 3113.26 1975 to 3113.30 of the Revised Code. No person shall disseminate the 1976 record or any information on it, other than as required for 1977 purposes of sections 3113.26 to 3113.30 of the Revised Code or 1978 as required to do so pursuant to a court order. The agency or 1979 state highway patrol shall not submit the record or any 1980 information on it to any government entity for purposes of a 1981 centralized database and no government entity shall establish or 1982 maintain any centralized database including the record or any 1983 information on it. 1984

Sec. 3113.29. (A) A potential risk protection order issued 1985 by a court under section 3113.27 of the Revised Code shall be 1986 for a period of one hundred eighty days beginning on the date of 1987 issuance of the order, subject to termination as described in 1988 division (B) of this section. The initial one-hundred-eighty-day 1989 period may be extended for an additional period under division 1990 (D) of this section, and an order extended under that division 1991 may be further extended under that division. 1992

(B) (1) With respect to a potential risk protection order 1993 issued by a court under section 3113.27 of the Revised Code, 1994 beginning ninety days after the date of issuance of the order, 1995 the respondent may file a petition with the court that issued 1996 the order requesting a hearing to terminate the order and 1997 reclaim possession of the respondent's deadly weapons. If the 1998 order has been extended for an additional period under division 1999 (D) of this section, the respondent may file a motion of the 2000 type described in this division at any time after the extension. 2001

(2) Upon receipt of a petition described in division (B) 2002
(1) of this section, the court shall schedule a hearing on the 2003 petition and notify the petitioner and the respondent of the 2004 date, time, and location of the hearing. 2005

(3) In a hearing on a petition described in division (B) 2006
(1) of this section, the respondent has the burden of proving by 2007 a preponderance of the evidence that the respondent no longer 2008 presents a significant risk in the near future of committing 2009
suicide, committing another form of serious self-harm less than 2010
death, or causing physical injury to another person to such an 2011
extent that the respondent should be enjoined from having in the 2012
respondent's possession, custody, or control any deadly weapon. 2013
At any such hearing, the petitioner may present evidence to 2014 rebut the respondent's evidence or assertion that the respondent 2015 presently does not present such a risk. 2016

(4) Upon the completion of the hearing on a respondent's 2017 petition under division (B)(1) of this section and consideration 2018 of the record, the court shall do one of the following: 2019

(a) If the court finds that the respondent no longer 2020
presents a significant risk in the near future of committing 2021
suicide, committing another form of serious self-harm less than 2022

extent that the respondent should be enjoined from having in the 2024
the court shall grant the respondent's petition, terminate the 2026 potential risk protection order, and order the law enforcement 2027 agency having custody of the deadly weapons to return them to 2028 the respondent upon the respondent's request as soon as 2029 possible, but not later than the end of the next business day 2030 after, the day on which the respondent makes the request. Upon 2031 receipt of the order, the law enforcement agency shall return 2032 the deadly weapons to the respondent upon the respondent's 2033 request. The agency shall return the deadly weapons to the 2034 respondent as soon as possible after, but not later than the end 2035 of the next business day after the day on which, the respondent 2036 makes the request. 2037

(b) If the court finds that the respondent continues to 2038 present a significant risk in the near future of committing 2039
suicide, committing another form of serious self-harm less than 2040
the court shall deny the respondent's petition and the potential 2044 risk protection order shall remain in effect for the remainder 2045 of the duration of the one-hundred-eighty-day period. In such a 2046 case, the respondent may not file a subsequent petition to 2047 reclaim the deadly weapons at any time during the remainder of 2048 the duration of the one-hundred-eighty-day period. 2049

(C) If a potential risk protection order has been issued 2050 by a court under section 3113.27 of the Revised Code and if the 2051 court has not terminated the order and ordered that the 2052 respondent's deadly weapons be returned to the respondent after 2053 a hearing under division (B) of this section, unless the order 2054 is extended for an additional period of not longer than one 2055 hundred eighty days under division (D) of this section, at the 2056 conclusion of the one-hundred-eighty-day period the order 2057 automatically terminates and the law enforcement agency having 2058 possession of the respondent's deadly weapons shall return them 2059 to the respondent upon the respondent's request. The agency 2060 shall return the deadly weapons to the respondent as soon as 2061 possible after, but not later than the end of the next business 2062 day after the day on which, the respondent makes the request. 2063

(D) (1) If a potential risk protection order has been 2064 issued by the court under section 3113.27 of the Revised Code 2065 and if the court has not terminated that original order and 2066 ordered that the respondent's deadly weapons be returned to the 2067 respondent after a hearing under division (B) of this section 2068 and the order has not automatically terminated by operation of 2069 law as described in division (C) of this section, at any time 2070 prior to the day that is one hundred sixty-five days after the 2071 date on which the order was issued, the petitioner may file a 2072 motion with the court that issued the order to extend the order 2073 for an additional period of not longer than one hundred eighty 2074 days. 2075

If a potential risk protection order has been issued by 2076
the court under section 3113.27 of the Revised Code, if the 2077 order has been extended under this division, and if the court 2078 has not terminated the extended potential risk protection order 2079 and ordered that the respondent's deadly weapons be returned to 2080 the respondent after a hearing under division (B) of this 2081 section and the order has not automatically terminated by 2082 operation of law as described in division (C) of this section, 2083 at any time prior to the day that is fifteen days before the 2084 date of termination of the extended order, the petitioner may 2085 file a motion with the court that issued the order to extend the 2086 order for an additional period of not longer than one hundred 2087 eighty days. 2088

Upon the filing of a motion as described in this division, 2089 the court shall schedule a hearing for a date and time that is 2090 prior to the expiration of the one-hundred-eighty-day period in 2091 the original potential risk protection order or prior to the 2092 expiration of the date of termination of the extended order, 2093 whichever is applicable. The court shall notify the petitioner 2094 and the respondent of the date, time, and location of the 2095
hearing. 2096

(2) At the hearing on a motion filed under division (D)(1) 2097 of this section, the petitioner must prove, by proof beyond a 2098 reasonable doubt, that the respondent continues to present a 2099 significant risk of committing suicide, committing another form 2100 of serious self-harm less than death, or causing physical injury 2101 to another person in the near future to such an extent that the 2102 respondent should remain temporarily enjoined from having in the 2103

(3) In determining at a hearing on a motion filed under 2105 division (D)(1) of this section whether to extend a potential 2106 risk protection order, whether an initial order or a previously 2107 extended order, the court shall consider all of the factors 2108 listed in division (C) of section 3113.27 of the Revised Code. 2109

(4) Upon the completion of a hearing on the petitioner's 2110 motion filed under division (D)(1) of this section and 2111 consideration of the record, the court shall do one of the 2112
following: 2113

(a) If the court finds that the petitioner has not proven 2114

by proof beyond a reasonable doubt that the respondent continues 2115 to present a significant risk in the near future of committing 2116 suicide, committing another form of serious self-harm less than 2117
extent that the respondent should be enjoined from having 2119
shall deny the petitioner's motion. If the court denies the 2121 petitioner's motion, the potential risk protection order shall 2122 expire at the end of the specified one-hundred-eighty-day period 2123 if the order is an initial order or on the date of termination 2124 of the extension if the order is an extended order, whichever is 2125 applicable, and the law enforcement agency having custody of the 2126 deadly weapons shall return them to the respondent upon the 2127 respondent's request after the expiration of the applicable 2128 specified period. The agency shall return the deadly weapons to 2129 the respondent as soon as possible after, but not later than the 2130 end of the next business day after the day on which, the 2131 respondent makes the request. 2132

(b) If the court finds that the petitioner has proven by 2133 proof beyond a reasonable doubt that the respondent continues to 2134
suicide, committing another form of serious self-harm less than 2136
shall grant the petitioner's motion and the court shall extend 2140 the current potential risk protection order for an additional 2141 period of not longer than one hundred eighty days immediately 2142 following the expiration of the specified one-hundred-eighty-day 2143 period if the order is an initial order or the date of 2144 termination of the extension if the order is an extended order, 2145 whichever is applicable.

(5) Whether the court grants or denies the petitioner's motion under division (D) (1) of this section to extend the potential risk protection order, the court shall make a written statement of the evidence presented and the court's findings supporting the grant or denial of the motion and provide the same to the petitioner and the respondent.

2152

(6) If the court grants the petitioner's motion under division (D) (1) of this section to extend the potential risk protection order for an additional period of not longer than one hundred eighty days, the court shall do all of the following:

2156

(a) Notify the law enforcement agency that then possesses the respondent's deadly weapons that the court has extended the
eighty days and of the duration of the extension;

(b) Notify the respondent that, at any time after the extension, the respondent may file a petition to terminate the order and reclaim the respondent's deadly weapons under the procedure set forth in division (B) of this section or that the respondent may appeal the extension of the order to the court of appeals.

2166

(E) A law enforcement agency having custody of any deadly weapons that were retrieved from a respondent who was subject to a potential risk protection order issued under section 3113.27 of the Revised Code shall safely keep the deadly weapons until further order of the court that issued the order.

(F) (1) A respondent who is subject to a potential risk protection order issued under section 3113.27 of the Revised Code and whose deadly weapons are in the possession of a law enforcement agency may request the court to order the law 2175 enforcement agency to sell one or more of those deadly weapons 2176 that lawfully may be sold, with the sale to be at auction, and 2177 to return the proceeds to the individual. The auction shall be 2178 under division (A) (2) of section 2981.12 of the Revised Code as 2179

if the deadly weapons were unclaimed or forfeited deadly weapons 2180 in the custody of the agency. The request shall specify each 2181 deadly weapon the respondent wishes to be sold. 2182

(2) If the respondent requests a sale of one or more 2183 deadly weapons under division (F) (1) of this section, the court 2184 shall order the law enforcement agency having custody of the 2185 specified deadly weapons to sell the specified deadly weapons at 2186 auction, unless the specified deadly weapons have or had serial 2187 numbers and the serial numbers have been obliterated. The 2188 auction shall be under division (A) (2) of section 2981.12 of the 2189 Revised Code as if the specified deadly weapons were unclaimed 2190 or forfeited deadly weapons in the custody of the agency. 2191

(3) If a court issues an order under division (F) (2) of 2192 this section, the court's order must require that all deadly 2193 weapons that are subject to the order be sold not more than 2194 three months after receipt of the order, and that the proceeds 2195 of the sale be distributed as follows: 2196

(a) The law enforcement agency may retain not more than 2197
three per cent of the sale price to pay the costs of the sale, 2198 including administrative costs and the auctioneer's fee and, if 2199 the agency retains any of the sale price under authority of this 2200 provision, the remainder of the proceeds of the sale shall be 2201 returned to the individual who owns the deadly weapon that is 2202
sold. 2203

(b) If the law enforcement agency does not retain any of 2204

the sale price under authority of division (F) (3) (a) of this 2205 section, the entire amount of the proceeds shall be returned to 2206 the respondent or individual who owns the deadly weapon that is 2207
sold. 2208

Sec. 3113.30. (A) No person shall file a petition for a 2209 potential risk protection order under section 3113.27 of the 2210 Revised Code alleging that a respondent presents a significant 2211 risk in the near future of committing suicide, committing 2212 another form of serious self-harm less than death, or causing 2213 physical injury to another person to such an extent that the 2214 respondent should be temporarily enjoined from having in the 2215
if the person knows the allegation is false. 2217

(B) An individual injured in person or property by a 2218 violation of division (A) of this section has, and may recover 2219 full damages in, a civil action under section 2307.60 of the 2220 Revised Code. A civil action described in this division is in 2221 addition to, and does not preclude, any possible criminal 2222
section for the violation. 2224

Sec. 3113.31. (A) As used in this section: 2225

(b) The occurrence of one or more of the acts identified 2238 in divisions (A)(1)(a)(i) to (iv) of this section against a 2239
relationship. 2241

(2) "Court" means the domestic relations division of the 2242 court of common pleas in counties that have a domestic relations 2243 division and the court of common pleas in counties that do not 2244 have a domestic relations division, or the juvenile division of 2245 the court of common pleas of the county in which the person to 2246 be protected by a protection order issued or a consent agreement 2247 approved under this section resides if the respondent is less 2248 than eighteen years of age. 2249

(3) "Family or household member" means any of the 2250
following: 2251

(a) Any of the following who is residing with or has 2252
resided with the respondent: 2253

(i) A spouse, a person living as a spouse, or a former 2254 spouse of the respondent; 2255

(ii) A parent, a foster parent, or a child of the 2256 respondent, or another person related by consanguinity or 2257 affinity to the respondent; 2258

(iii) A parent or a child of a spouse, person living as a 2259

(b) The natural parent of any child of whom the respondent 2263 is the other natural parent or is the putative other natural 2264 parent. 2265

(4) "Person living as a spouse" means a person who is 2266 living or has lived with the respondent in a common law marital 2267 relationship, who otherwise is cohabiting with the respondent, 2268 or who otherwise has cohabited with the respondent within five 2269 years prior to the date of the alleged occurrence of the act in 2270 question. 2271

and assistance for a person who files a petition under this 2273
section. 2274

(6) "Sexually oriented offense" has the same meaning as in 2275
section 2950.01 of the Revised Code. 2276

(7) "Companion animal" has the same meaning as in section 2277
959.131 of the Revised Code. 2278

(8) "Dating relationship" means a relationship between 2279 individuals who have, or have had, a relationship of a romantic 2280 or intimate nature. "Dating relationship" does not include a 2281 casual acquaintanceship or ordinary fraternization in a business 2282 or social context. 2283

relationship" means an adult who, at the time of the conduct in 2285 question, is in a dating relationship with the respondent who 2286 also is an adult or who, within the twelve months preceding the 2287 conduct in question, has had a dating relationship with the 2288 respondent who also is an adult. 2289

(B) The court has jurisdiction over all proceedings under 2290
this section. The petitioner's right to relief under this 2291 section is not affected by the petitioner's leaving the 2292 residence or household to avoid further domestic violence. 2293

(C) A person may seek relief under this section on the 2294 person's own behalf, or any parent or adult household member may 2295 seek relief under this section on behalf of any other family or 2296 household member, by filing a petition with the court. The 2297 petition shall contain or state: 2298

(1) An allegation that the respondent engaged in domestic 2299 violence against a family or household member of the respondent 2300 or against a person with whom the respondent is or was in a 2301 dating relationship, including a description of the nature and 2302 extent of the domestic violence; 2303

(2) The relationship of the respondent to the petitioner, 2304 and to the victim if other than the petitioner; 2305 relationship existed between the person to be protected and the 2309 respondent; 2310

(4) A request for relief under this section. 2311

(D) (1) If a person who files a petition pursuant to this 2312
section requests an ex parte order, the court shall hold an ex 2313 parte hearing on the same day that the petition is filed. The 2314 court, for good cause shown at the ex parte hearing, may enter 2315 any temporary orders, with or without bond, including, but not 2316 limited to, an order described in division (E) (1) (a), (b), or 2317
(c) of this section, that the court finds necessary to protect 2318 the family or household member or the person with whom the 2319 respondent is or was in a dating relationship from domestic 2320 violence. Immediate and present danger of domestic violence to 2321 the family or household member or to the person with whom the 2322 respondent is or was in a dating relationship constitutes good 2323 cause for purposes of this section. Immediate and present danger 2324 includes, but is not limited to, situations in which the 2325 respondent has threatened the family or household member or 2326 person with whom the respondent is or was in a dating 2327 relationship with bodily harm, in which the respondent has 2328 threatened the family or household member or person with whom 2329 the respondent is or was in a dating relationship with a 2330 sexually oriented offense, or in which the respondent previously 2331 has been convicted of, pleaded guilty to, or been adjudicated a 2332 delinquent child for an offense that constitutes domestic 2333 violence against the family or household member or person with 2334 whom the respondent is or was in a dating relationship. 2335

(2) (a) If the court, after an ex parte hearing, issues an 2336 order described in division (E) (1) (b) or (c) of this section, 2337
the court shall schedule a full hearing for a date that is 2338 within seven court days after the ex parte hearing. If any other 2339 type of protection order that is authorized under division (E) 2340 of this section is issued by the court after an ex parte 2341 hearing, the court shall schedule a full hearing for a date that 2342 is within ten court days after the ex parte hearing. The court 2343 shall give the respondent notice of, and an opportunity to be 2344 heard at, the full hearing. The court shall hold the full 2345 hearing on the date scheduled under this division unless the 2346 court grants a continuance of the hearing in accordance with 2347 this division. Under any of the following circumstances or for 2348 any of the following reasons, the court may grant a continuance 2349 of the full hearing to a reasonable time determined by the 2350

court: 2351

(i) Prior to the date scheduled for the full hearing under 2352
this division, the respondent has not been served with the 2353
petition filed pursuant to this section and notice of the full 2354
hearing. 2355

(ii) The parties consent to the continuance. 2356

counsel. 2358

(iv) The continuance is needed for other good cause. 2359

(b) An ex parte order issued under this section does not 2360

(3) If a person who files a petition pursuant to this 2365
section does not request an ex parte order, or if a person 2366
parte order after an ex parte hearing, the court shall proceed 2368
matter. 2370

(E) (1) After an ex parte or full hearing, the court may 2371 grant any protection order, with or without bond, or approve any 2372 consent agreement to bring about a cessation of domestic 2373 violence against the family or household members or persons with 2374 whom the respondent is or was in a dating relationship. The 2375 order or agreement may: 2376

(a) Direct the respondent to refrain from abusing or from 2377 committing sexually oriented offenses against the family or 2378 household members or persons with whom the respondent is or was 2379 in a dating relationship; 2380

(b) With respect to a petition involving family or 2381 household members, grant possession of the residence or 2382 household to the petitioner or other family or household member, 2383 to the exclusion of the respondent, by evicting the respondent, 2384 when the residence or household is owned or leased solely by the 2385 petitioner or other family or household member, or by ordering 2386 the respondent to vacate the premises, when the residence or 2387 household is jointly owned or leased by the respondent, and the 2388 petitioner or other family or household member; 2389

(c) With respect to a petition involving family or 2390 household members, when the respondent has a duty to support the 2391 petitioner or other family or household member living in the 2392 residence or household and the respondent is the sole owner or 2393 lessee of the residence or household, grant possession of the 2394 residence or household to the petitioner or other family or 2395 household member, to the exclusion of the respondent, by 2396 ordering the respondent to vacate the premises, or, in the case 2397 of a consent agreement, allow the respondent to provide 2398 suitable, alternative housing; 2399

(d) With respect to a petition involving family or 2400 household members, temporarily allocate parental rights and 2401 responsibilities for the care of, or establish temporary 2402 parenting time rights with regard to, minor children, if no 2403 other court has determined, or is determining, the allocation of 2404 parental rights and responsibilities for the minor children or 2405 parenting time rights; 2406

(e) With respect to a petition involving family or 2407 household members, require the respondent to maintain support, 2408 if the respondent customarily provides for or contributes to the 2409 support of the family or household member, or if the respondent 2410 has a duty to support the petitioner or family or household 2411 member; 2412

(f) Require the respondent, petitioner, victim of domestic 2413 violence, or any combination of those persons, to seek 2414 counseling; 2415

(g) Require the respondent to refrain from entering the 2416 residence, school, business, or place of employment of the 2417 petitioner or, with respect to a petition involving family or 2418 household members, a family or household member; 2419

(h) Grant other relief that the court considers equitable 2420 and fair, including, but not limited to, ordering the respondent 2421 to permit the use of a motor vehicle by the petitioner or, with 2422 respect to a petition involving family or household members, 2423 other family or household members and the apportionment of 2424 household and family personal property; 2425

(i) Require that the respondent not remove, damage, hide, 2426
the petitioner; 2428

(j) Authorize the petitioner to remove a companion animal 2429 owned by the petitioner from the possession of the respondent; 2430

(k) Require a wireless service transfer in accordance with 2431 sections 3113.45 to 3113.459 of the Revised Code. 2432

(2) If a protection order has been issued pursuant to this 2433 section in a prior action involving the respondent and the 2434
household members, one or more of the family or household 2436 members or victims, the court may include in a protection order 2437 that it issues a prohibition against the respondent returning to 2438 the residence or household. If it includes a prohibition against 2439 the respondent returning to the residence or household in the 2440 order, it also shall include in the order provisions of the type 2441 described in division (E) (7) of this section. This division does 2442 not preclude the court from including in a protection order or 2443 consent agreement, in circumstances other than those described 2444 in this division, a requirement that the respondent be evicted 2445 from or vacate the residence or household or refrain from 2446

of the petitioner or, with respect to a petition involving 2448 family or household members, a family or household member, and, 2449 if the court includes any requirement of that type in an order 2450 or agreement, the court also shall include in the order 2451 provisions of the type described in division (E) (7) of this 2452
section. 2453

(3) (a) Any protection order issued or consent agreement 2454 approved under this section shall be valid until a date certain, 2455 but not later than five years from the date of its issuance or 2456 approval, or not later than the date a respondent who is less 2457 than eighteen years of age attains nineteen years of age, unless 2458 modified or terminated as provided in division (E) (8) of this 2459
section. 2460

(b) With respect to an order involving family or household 2461 members, subject to the limitation on the duration of an order 2462 or agreement set forth in division (E) (3) (a) of this section, 2463 any order under division (E) (1) (d) of this section shall 2464 terminate on the date that a court in an action for divorce, 2465 dissolution of marriage, or legal separation brought by the 2466 petitioner or respondent issues an order allocating parental 2467 rights and responsibilities for the care of children or on the 2468 date that a juvenile court in an action brought by the 2469

petitioner or respondent issues an order awarding legal custody 2470 of minor children. Subject to the limitation on the duration of 2471 an order or agreement set forth in division (E)(3)(a) of this 2472 section, any order under division (E)(1)(e) of this section 2473 shall terminate on the date that a court in an action for 2474 divorce, dissolution of marriage, or legal separation brought by 2475 the petitioner or respondent issues a support order or on the 2476 date that a juvenile court in an action brought by the 2477
petitioner or respondent issues a support order. 2478

(c) Any protection order issued or consent agreement 2479 approved pursuant to this section may be renewed in the same 2480 manner as the original order or agreement was issued or 2481 approved. 2482

under division (E)(1)(a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (g), or (h) of 2486 this section unless all of the following apply: 2487

(a) The respondent files a separate petition for a 2488
protection order in accordance with this section. 2489

(b) The petitioner is served notice of the respondent's 2490 petition at least forty-eight hours before the court holds a 2491 hearing with respect to the respondent's petition, or the 2492 petitioner waives the right to receive this notice. 2493

(c) If the petitioner has requested an ex parte order 2494
delay any hearing required by that division beyond the time 2496

with a hearing on the petition filed by the respondent. 2498

(d) After a full hearing at which the respondent presents 2499
evidence in support of the request for a protection order and 2500
the petitioner is afforded an opportunity to defend against that 2501
an act of domestic violence or has violated a temporary 2503 protection order issued pursuant to section 2919.26 of the 2504 Revised Code, that both the petitioner and the respondent acted 2505 primarily as aggressors, and that neither the petitioner nor the 2506 respondent acted primarily in self-defense. 2507

(5) No protection order issued or consent agreement 2508 approved under this section shall in any manner affect title to 2509 any real property. 2510

(6) (a) With respect to an order involving family or 2511 household members, if a petitioner, or the child of a 2512 petitioner, who obtains a protection order or consent agreement 2513 pursuant to division (E) (1) of this section or a temporary 2514 protection order pursuant to section 2919.26 of the Revised Code 2515 and is the subject of a parenting time order issued pursuant to 2516 section 3109.051 or 3109.12 of the Revised Code or a visitation 2517 or companionship order issued pursuant to section 3109.051, 2518 3109.11, or 3109.12 of the Revised Code or division (E) (1) (d) of 2519
this section granting parenting time rights to the respondent, 2520 the court may require the public children services agency of the 2521 county in which the court is located to provide supervision of 2522 the respondent's exercise of parenting time or visitation or 2523 companionship rights with respect to the child for a period not 2524 to exceed nine months, if the court makes the following findings 2525 of fact: 2526

(i) The child is in danger from the respondent; 2527

(ii) No other person or agency is available to provide the 2528 supervision. 2529

(b) A court that requires an agency to provide supervision 2530 pursuant to division (E) (6) (a) of this section shall order the 2531 respondent to reimburse the agency for the cost of providing the 2532 supervision, if it determines that the respondent has sufficient 2533 income or resources to pay that cost. 2534

(7) (a) If a protection order issued or consent agreement 2535 approved under this section includes a requirement that the 2536 respondent be evicted from or vacate the residence or household 2537 or refrain from entering the residence, school, business, or 2538 place of employment of the petitioner or, with respect to a 2539 petition involving family or household members, a family or 2540 household member, the order or agreement shall state clearly 2541 that the order or agreement cannot be waived or nullified by an 2542 invitation to the respondent from the petitioner or other family 2543 or household member to enter the residence, school, business, or 2544 place of employment or by the respondent's entry into one of 2545
other family or household member. 2547

(b) Division (E) (7) (a) of this section does not limit any 2548 discretion of a court to determine that a respondent charged 2549 with a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, with a 2550 violation of a municipal ordinance substantially equivalent to 2551 that section, or with contempt of court, which charge is based 2552 on an alleged violation of a protection order issued or consent 2553 agreement approved under this section, did not commit the 2554 violation or was not in contempt of court. 2555

(8) (a) The court may modify or terminate as provided in 2556 division (E) (8) of this section a protection order or consent 2557 agreement that was issued after a full hearing under this 2558 section. The court that issued the protection order or approved 2559 the consent agreement shall hear a motion for modification or 2560 termination of the protection order or consent agreement 2561
pursuant to division (E) (8) of this section. 2562

(b) Either the petitioner or the respondent of the 2563 original protection order or consent agreement may bring a 2564 motion for modification or termination of a protection order or 2565 consent agreement that was issued or approved after a full 2566 hearing. The court shall require notice of the motion to be made 2567 as provided by the Rules of Civil Procedure. If the petitioner 2568 for the original protection order or consent agreement has 2569 requested that the petitioner's address be kept confidential, 2570 the court shall not disclose the address to the respondent of 2571 the original protection order or consent agreement or any other 2572 person, except as otherwise required by law. The moving party 2573 has the burden of proof to show, by a preponderance of the 2574 evidence, that modification or termination of the protection 2575 order or consent agreement is appropriate because either the 2576 protection order or consent agreement is no longer needed or 2577 because the terms of the original protection order or consent 2578 agreement are no longer appropriate. 2579

(c) In considering whether to modify or terminate a 2580 protection order or consent agreement issued or approved under 2581 this section, the court shall consider all relevant factors, 2582 including, but not limited to, the following: 2583

(i) Whether the petitioner consents to modification or 2584 termination of the protection order or consent agreement; 2585

(ii) Whether the petitioner fears the respondent;	2586
(iii) The current nature of the relationship between the petitioner and the respondent;	2587 2588
(iv) The circumstances of the petitioner and respondent, including the relative proximity of the petitioner's and respondent's workplaces and residences and whether the petitioner and respondent have minor children together;	2589 2590 2591 2592
(v) Whether the respondent has complied with the terms and conditions of the original protection order or consent agreement;	2593 2594 2595
(vi) Whether the respondent has a continuing involvement with illegal drugs or alcohol;	2596 2597
(vii) Whether the respondent has been convicted of, pleaded guilty to, or been adjudicated a delinquent child for an offense of violence since the issuance of the protection order or approval of the consent agreement;	2598 2599 2600 2601
(viii) Whether any other protection orders, consent agreements, restraining orders, or no contact orders have been issued against the respondent pursuant to this section, section 2919.26 of the Revised Code, any other provision of state law, or the law of any other state;	2602 2603 2604 2605 2606
(ix) Whether the respondent has participated in any domestic violence treatment, intervention program, or other counseling addressing domestic violence and whether the respondent has completed the treatment, program, or counseling;	2607 2608 2609 2610
(x) The time that has elapsed since the protection order was issued or since the consent agreement was approved;	2611 2612
(xi) The age and health of the respondent;	2613

(xii) When the last incident of abuse, threat of harm, or commission of a sexually oriented offense occurred or other relevant information concerning the safety and protection of the petitioner or other protected parties.

(d) If a protection order or consent agreement is modified or terminated as provided in division (E) (8) of this section, the court shall issue copies of the modified or terminated order or agreement as provided in division (F) of this section. A petitioner may also provide notice of the modification or termination to the judicial and law enforcement officials in any county other than the county in which the order or agreement is modified or terminated as provided in division (N) of this section.

(e) If the respondent moves for modification or termination of a protection order or consent agreement pursuant to this section and the court denies the motion, the court may assess costs against the respondent for the filing of the motion.

(9) Any protection order issued or any consent agreement approved pursuant to this section shall include a provision that the court will automatically seal all of the records of the proceeding in which the order is issued or agreement approved on the date the respondent attains the age of nineteen years unless the petitioner provides the court with evidence that the respondent has not complied with all of the terms of the protection order or consent agreement. The protection order or consent agreement shall specify the date when the respondent attains the age of nineteen years.

(F) (1) A copy of any protection order, or consent agreement, that is issued, approved, modified, or terminated under this section shall be issued by the court to the petitioner, to the respondent, and to all law enforcement agencies that have jurisdiction to enforce the order or agreement. The protection order or consent agreement shall be in a form that ensures that the protection order or consent agreement is accepted into the protection order database of the national crime information center (NCIC) maintained by the federal bureau of investigation. The court shall direct that a copy of an order be delivered to the respondent on the same day that the order is entered. If the court terminates or cancels the order, the court shall cause the delivery of notice of the

that were issued or delivered a copy of the order.

(2) Upon the issuance of a protection order or the approval of a consent agreement under this section, the court shall provide the parties to the order or agreement with the following notice orally or by form:

As a result of this order or consent agreement, it may be unlawful for you to possess or purchase a firearm, including a rifle, pistol, or revolver, or ammunition pursuant to federal law under 18 U.S.C. 922(g)(8) for the duration of this order or consent agreement. If you have any questions whether this law makes it illegal for you to possess or purchase a firearm or ammunition, you should consult an attorney."

(3) All law enforcement agencies shall establish and maintain an index for the protection orders and the approved consent agreements delivered to the agencies pursuant to division (F)(1) of this section. With respect to each order and consent agreement delivered, each agency shall note on the index the date and time that it received the order or consent 2674 agreement. Each protection order and consent agreement received 2675 by a law enforcement agency pursuant to this section shall be 2676

system created by section 5503.10 of the Revised Code, and known 2678
all steps necessary to ensure that the order is removed from 2681
or canceled in the protection order database of the national 2684
crime information center (NCIC) maintained by the federal bureau 2685
of investigation. 2686

the order or agreement in the county in which the officer's 2688 agency has jurisdiction pursuant to division (N) of this 2689 section, any officer of a law enforcement agency shall enforce a 2690 protection order issued or consent agreement approved by any 2691 court in this state in accordance with the provisions of the 2692
premises, if appropriate. 2694

except that an order under this section may be obtained with or 2697 without bond. An order issued under this section, other than an 2698 ex parte order, that grants a protection order or approves a 2699 consent agreement, that refuses to grant a protection order or 2700 approve a consent agreement that modifies or terminates a 2701 protection order or consent agreement, or that refuses to modify 2702 or terminate a protection order or consent agreement, is a 2703 final, appealable order. The remedies and procedures provided in 2704

this section are in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other 2705
available civil or criminal remedies. 2706

(2) If as provided in division (G)(1) of this section an 2707
order issued under this section, other than an ex parte order, 2708
refuses to grant a protection order, the court, on its own 2709
section and all of the records pertaining to that ex parte order 2711
be sealed after either of the following occurs: 2712

(a) No party has exercised the right to appeal pursuant to 2713

(b) All appellate rights have been exhausted. 2715

(H) The filing of proceedings under this section does not 2716
required by section 2151.421 of the Revised Code or by any other 2718
law. When a petition under this section alleges domestic 2719 violence against minor children, the court shall report the 2720 fact, or cause reports to be made, to a county, township, or 2721 municipal peace officer under section 2151.421 of the Revised 2722
Code. 2723

(I) Any law enforcement agency that investigates a 2724 domestic dispute shall provide information to the family or 2725 household members involved, or the persons in the dating 2726 relationship who are involved, whichever is applicable regarding 2727 the relief available under this section and, for family or 2728 household members, section 2919.26 of the Revised Code. 2729

(J)(1) Subject to divisions (E)(8)(e) and (J)(2) of this 2730 section and regardless of whether a protection order is issued 2731 or a consent agreement is approved by a court of another county 2732 or a court of another state, no court or unit of state or local 2733 government shall charge the petitioner any fee, cost, deposit, 2734 or money in connection with the filing of a petition pursuant to 2735 this section or in connection with the filing, issuance, 2736 registration, modification, enforcement, dismissal, withdrawal, 2737 or service of a protection order, consent agreement, or witness 2738 subpoena or for obtaining a certified copy of a protection order 2739 or consent agreement. 2740

(2) Regardless of whether a protection order is issued or 2741
a consent agreement is approved pursuant to this section, the 2742
court may assess costs against the respondent in connection with 2743
the filing, issuance, registration, modification, enforcement, 2744
dismissal, withdrawal, or service of a protection order, consent 2745
agreement, or witness subpoena or for obtaining a certified copy 2746
of a protection order or consent agreement. 2747

(K) (1) The court shall comply with Chapters 3119., 3121., 2748 3123., and 3125. of the Revised Code when it makes or modifies 2749
an order for child support under this section. 2750

(2) If any person required to pay child support under an 2751 order made under this section on or after April 15, 1985, or 2752 modified under this section on or after December 31, 1986, is 2753 found in contempt of court for failure to make support payments 2754 under the order, the court that makes the finding, in addition 2755 to any other penalty or remedy imposed, shall assess all court 2756 costs arising out of the contempt proceeding against the person 2757 and require the person to pay any reasonable attorney's fees of 2758 any adverse party, as determined by the court, that arose in 2759 relation to the act of contempt. 2760

(L) (1) A person who violates a protection order issued or 2761 a consent agreement approved under this section is subject to 2762
the following sanctions: 2763

(a) Criminal prosecution or a delinquent child proceeding 2764 for a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, if the 2765 violation of the protection order or consent agreement 2766 constitutes a violation of that section; 2767

(b) Punishment for contempt of court. 2768

violation of a protection order issued or a consent agreement 2770 approved under this section does not bar criminal prosecution of 2771 the person or a delinquent child proceeding concerning the 2772 person for a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code. 2773
However, a person punished for contempt of court is entitled to 2774 credit for the punishment imposed upon conviction of or 2775 adjudication as a delinquent child for a violation of that 2776 section, and a person convicted of or adjudicated a delinquent 2777 child for a violation of that section shall not subsequently be 2778 punished for contempt of court arising out of the same activity. 2779

(M) In all stages of a proceeding under this section, a 2780
petitioner may be accompanied by a victim advocate. 2781

(N) (1) A petitioner who obtains a protection order or 2782 consent agreement under this section or a temporary protection 2783 order under section 2919.26 of the Revised Code may provide 2784 notice of the issuance or approval of the order or agreement to 2785 the judicial and law enforcement officials in any county other 2786 than the county in which the order is issued or the agreement is 2787 approved by registering that order or agreement in the other 2788 county pursuant to division (N) (2) of this section and filing a 2789 copy of the registered order or registered agreement with a law 2790 enforcement agency in the other county in accordance with that 2791 division. A person who obtains a protection order issued by a 2792 court of another state may provide notice of the issuance of the 2793 order to the judicial and law enforcement officials in any 2794 county of this state by registering the order in that county 2795 pursuant to section 2919.272 of the Revised Code and filing a 2796 copy of the registered order with a law enforcement agency in 2797 that county. 2798

(2) A petitioner may register a temporary protection 2799 order, protection order, or consent agreement in a county other 2800 than the county in which the court that issued the order or 2801 approved the agreement is located in the following manner: 2802

(a) The petitioner shall obtain a certified copy of the 2803 order or agreement from the clerk of the court that issued the 2804 order or approved the agreement and present that certified copy 2805 to the clerk of the court of common pleas or the clerk of a 2806 municipal court or county court in the county in which the order 2807 or agreement is to be registered. 2808

(b) Upon accepting the certified copy of the order or 2809 agreement for registration, the clerk of the court of common 2810 pleas, municipal court, or county court shall place an 2811 endorsement of registration on the order or agreement and give 2812 the petitioner a copy of the order or agreement that bears that 2813 proof of registration. 2814

(3) The clerk of each court of common pleas, the clerk of 2815 each municipal court, and the clerk of each county court shall 2816 maintain a registry of certified copies of temporary protection 2817 orders, protection orders, or consent agreements that have been 2818 issued or approved by courts in other counties and that have 2819 been registered with the clerk. 2820

(O) Nothing in this section prohibits the domestic 2821 relations division of a court of common pleas in counties that 2822 have a domestic relations division or a court of common pleas in 2823 counties that do not have a domestic relations division from 2824 designating a minor child as a protected party on a protection 2825 order or consent agreement. 2826

Sec. 3113.99. (A) Whoever violates section 3113.06 of the 2827
Revised Code is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree. If 2828 the offender previously has been convicted of or pleaded guilty 2829 to a violation of section 3113.06 of the Revised Code or if the 2830 court finds that the offender has failed to pay the cost of 2831 child maintenance under section 3113.06 of the Revised Code for 2832 a total accumulated period of twenty-six weeks out of one 2833 hundred four consecutive weeks, whether or not the twenty-six 2834 weeks were consecutive, a violation of section 3113.06 of the 2835 Revised Code is a felony of the fifth degree. 2836

(B) Whoever violates division (A) of section 3113.30 of 2837
the Revised Code is guilty of a felony of the fifth degree. 2838

Sec. 5122.10. (A) (1) Any of the following who has reason 2839 to believe that a person is a mentally ill person subject to 2840 court order and represents a substantial risk of physical harm 2841 to self or others if allowed to remain at liberty pending 2842 examination may take the person into custody and may immediately 2843 transport the person to a hospital or, notwithstanding section 2844 5119.33 of the Revised Code, to a general hospital not licensed 2845 by the department of mental health and addiction services where 2846 the person may be held for the period prescribed in divisions 2847
(A) to (E) of this section: 2848

(a) A psychiatrist; 2849

(b) A licensed physician; 2850

(c) A licensed clinical psychologist; 2851

(d) A clinical nurse specialist who is certified as a 2852 psychiatric-mental health CNS by the American nurses 2853
credentialing center; 2854

(e) A certified nurse practitioner who is certified as a 2855 psychiatric-mental health NP by the American nurses 2856
credentialing center; 2857

(f) A health officer; 2858

(g) A parole officer; 2859

(h) A police officer; 2860

(i) A sheriff. 2861

(2) If the chief of the adult parole authority or a parole 2862 or probation officer with the approval of the chief of the 2863 authority has reason to believe that a parolee, an offender 2864 under a community control sanction or post-release control 2865 sanction, or an offender under transitional control is a 2866 mentally ill person subject to court order and represents a 2867 substantial risk of physical harm to self or others if allowed 2868 to remain at liberty pending examination, the chief or officer 2869 may take the parolee or offender into custody and may 2870 immediately transport the parolee or offender to a hospital or, 2871 notwithstanding section 5119.33 of the Revised Code, to a 2872 general hospital not licensed by the department of mental health 2873 and addiction services where the parolee or offender may be held 2874 for the period prescribed in divisions (A) to (E) of this 2875
section. 2876

(3) In the circumstances described in division (B) (2) (a) 2877 or (B) (2) (b) (i) of section 3113.261 of the Revised Code, upon 2878
the filing under section 3113.27 of the Revised Code of the 2879 petition requesting the issuance of a potential risk protection 2880 order with respect to the person, a law enforcement officer may 2881 take a person into custody and may immediately transport the 2882 person to a hospital or, notwithstanding section 5119.33 of the 2883 Revised Code, to a general hospital not licensed by the 2884 department of mental health and addiction services where the 2885 person may be held for the period prescribed in division (F) of 2886 this section. Division (A)(3) of this section is separate from 2887 and independent of, and does not limit or affect the operation 2888 of, divisions (A)(1) and (2) of this section. The filing of the 2889 petition under section 3113.27 of the Revised Code requesting 2890

the issuance of a potential risk protection order with respect 2891 to the person and the taking of the person into custody and 2892 transport of the person to a facility under this section is a 2893 public safety emergency. 2894

If a person, parolee, or offender is taken into custody 2895 under division (A)(1) or (2) of this section, divisions (A)(3) 2896 and (F) of this section do not limit or affect the authority of 2897 a law enforcement officer to file a petition with a court under 2898 section 3113.27 of the Revised Code requesting the issuance of a 2899 potential risk protection order to apply with respect to the 2900 person under authority of division (A) of section 3113.261 of 2901
the Revised Code. 2902

(B) A written statement shall be given to the hospital by 2903 the individual authorized under division (A)(1) or (2) of this 2904 section to transport the person. The statement shall specify the 2905 circumstances under which such person was taken into custody and 2906 the reasons for the belief that the person is a mentally ill 2907 person subject to court order and represents a substantial risk 2908 of physical harm to self or others if allowed to remain at 2909 liberty pending examination. This statement shall be made 2910 available to the respondent or the respondent's attorney upon 2911 request of either. 2912

(C) Every reasonable and appropriate effort shall be made 2913 to take persons into custody under division (A) of this section 2914 in the least conspicuous manner possible. A person taking the 2915 respondent into custody pursuant to division (A) of this section 2916 shall explain to the respondent: the name and professional 2917 designation and affiliation of the person taking the respondent 2918 into custody; that the custody-taking is not a criminal arrest; 2919 and that the person is being taken for examination by mental 2920 health professionals at a specified mental health facility 2921 identified by name. If the person is taken into custody under 2922 division (A) (3) of this section, the law enforcement officer who 2923 takes the person into custody shall inform the person that an 2924 officer has petitioned a court under section 3113.27 of the 2925 Revised Code requesting the issuance of a potential risk 2926 protection order to apply with respect to the person. 2927

(D) If a person taken into custody under division (A) of 2928 this section is transported to a general hospital, the general 2929 hospital may admit the person, or provide care and treatment for 2930 the person, or both, notwithstanding section 5119.33 of the 2931 Revised Code, but by the end of twenty-four hours after arrival 2932 at the general hospital, the person shall be transferred to a 2933 hospital as defined in section 5122.01 of the Revised Code. 2934

(E) A person transported or transferred to a hospital or 2935 community mental health services provider under divisions (A) to 2936 (D) of this section shall be examined by the staff of the 2937 hospital or services provider within twenty-four hours after 2938 arrival at the hospital or services provider. If to conduct the 2939 examination requires that the person remain overnight, the 2940 hospital or services provider shall admit the person in an 2941 unclassified status until making a disposition under this 2942 section. After the examination, if the chief clinical officer of 2943 the hospital or services provider believes that the person is 2944 not a mentally ill person subject to court order, subject to 2945 divisions (F) (2) and (3) of this section, the chief clinical 2946 officer shall release or discharge the person immediately unless 2947 a court has issued a temporary order of detention applicable to 2948 the person under section 5122.11 of the Revised Code. After the 2949 examination, if the chief clinical officer believes that the 2950 person is a mentally ill person subject to court order, the 2951 chief clinical officer may detain the person for not more than 2952 three court days following the day of the examination, subject 2953 to extension under divisions (F) (2) and (3) of this section, and 2954 during such period admit the person as a voluntary patient under 2955 section 5122.02 of the Revised Code or file an affidavit under 2956 section 5122.11 of the Revised Code. If neither action is taken 2957 and a court has not otherwise issued a temporary order of 2958 detention applicable to the person under section 5122.11 of the 2959 Revised Code, subject to divisions (F) (2) and (3) of this 2960 section, the chief clinical officer shall discharge the person 2961 at the end of the three-day period unless the person has been 2962 sentenced to the department of rehabilitation and correction and 2963 has not been released from the person's sentence, in which case 2964 the person shall be returned to that department. 2965

(F) (1) When a person is taken into custody as described in 2966 division (A) (3) of this section for transport or transfer to a 2967 hospital, except as otherwise provided in this division, the law 2968 enforcement officer who takes the person into custody shall not 2969 take custody or possession of any deadly weapons present when 2970 the person is taken into custody. This division does not limit 2971 or restrict a law enforcement officer who takes a person into 2972 custody as described in this division from taking custody or 2973 possession of any deadly weapons as otherwise permitted by law. 2974

(2) If a person is taken into custody as described in 2975 division (A) (3) of this section for transport or transfer to a 2976 hospital and if, after the examination of the person under 2977 division (E) of this section, the chief clinical officer of the 2978 hospital or services provider believes that the person is not a 2979 mentally ill person subject to court order, one of the following 2980 applies: 2981

(a) If a court has issued a temporary order of detention 2982 applicable to the person under section 5122.11 of the Revised 2983 Code that provides for a longer period of detention, the person 2984 shall be detained in accordance with the order, provided that, 2985 because of the public safety emergency, except as otherwise 2986 provided in this division, the person shall remain confined 2987 pending the hearing under section 3113.27 of the Revised Code on 2988
the petition requesting the issuance of a potential risk 2989 protection order with respect to the person. In no case shall 2990 the person be confined due to the pendency of the petition for 2991 more than seventy-two hours after the petition is filed. 2992

(b) If the person is not detained as described in division 2993
(F) (2) (a) of this section, because of the public safety 2994 emergency, the person shall remain confined pending the hearing 2995
under section 3113.27 of the Revised Code on the petition 2996 requesting the issuance of a potential risk protection order 2997
person be confined due to the pendency of the petition for more 2999

(3) If a person is taken into custody under division (A) 3001
(3) of this section for transport or transfer to a hospital and 3002

if, after the examination of the person under division (E) of 3003 this section, the chief clinical officer of the hospital or 3004 services provider believes that the person is a mentally ill 3005 person subject to court order and detains the person following 3006
the examination under authority of division (E) of this section, 3007 one of the following applies: 3008

(a) If the chief clinical officer admits the person as a 3009 voluntary patient under section 5122.02 of the Revised Code or 3010 files an affidavit under section 5122.11 of the Revised Code or 3011
if a court has issued a temporary order of detention applicable 3012 to the person under section 5122.11 of the Revised Code, the 3013 person shall be detained in accordance with the provisions of 3014 the applicable section or order, provided that, because of the 3015 public safety emergency, except as otherwise specified in this 3016 division, the person shall remain confined pending the hearing 3017
requesting the issuance of a potential risk protection order 3019 with respect to the person. In no case shall the person be 3020 confined due to the pendency of the petition for more than 3021 seventy-two hours after the petition is filed. 3022

(b) If the chief clinical officer does not admit the 3023 person as a voluntary patient or file an affidavit and a court 3024 has not issued a temporary order of detention, as described in 3025 division (F) (3) (a) of this section, because of the public safety 3026
emergency, the person shall remain confined pending the hearing 3027
requesting the issuance of a potential risk protection order 3029
with respect to the person, provided that in no case shall the 3030
person be confined due to the pendency of the petition for more 3031
than seventy-two hours after the petition is filed. 3032

(4) If a person is taken into custody as described in 3033 division (A) (1), (2), or (3) of this section for transport or 3034 transfer to a hospital, and if the person was taken into such 3035 custody after the issuance of a potential risk protection order 3036 that applies to the person but before the person's deadly 3037 weapons were retrieved under the order or the person was taken 3038 into such custody before the issuance of a potential risk 3039 protection order that applies to the person and such an order 3040 was issued while the person was in that custody or under any 3041 other disposition of a type described in division (E) of this 3042 section that is subsequent and related to that custody, division 3043
(A) (1) of section 3113.28 of the Revised Code applies with 3044 respect to the person. 3045

(5) As used in divisions (F) (1) to (5) of this section: 3046

(a) "Deadly weapon" has the same meaning as in section 3047
2923.11 of the Revised Code. 3048

(b) "Potential risk protection order" means an order 3049 issued under section 3113.27 of the Revised Code. 3050

Section 2. That existing sections 2151.34, 2903.213, 3051
2903.214, 2919.26, 2923.13, 2923.14, 3113.31, 3113.99, and 3052
5122.10 of the Revised Code are hereby repealed. 3053

Section 3. Section 2923.13 of the Revised Code is 3054 presented in this act as a composite of the section as amended 3055 by both H.B. 234 and S.B. 43 of the 130th General Assembly. The 3056 General Assembly, applying the principle stated in division (B) 3057 of section 1.52 of the Revised Code that amendments are to be 3058 harmonized if reasonably capable of simultaneous operation, 3059 finds that the composite is the resulting version of the section 3060 in effect prior to the effective date of the section as 3061 presented in this act. 3062

Section 4. This act shall be known as the Mental Health 3063 Awareness and Community Violence Protection Act. 3064
