Presented by Representative MCINTYRE of Lowell.
Cosponsored by Senator CYRWAY of Kennebec.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Sec. 1. 17-A MRSA §1811, sub-§5-A is enacted to read:

5-A. Custody to Department of Corrections. If a person is denied bail under subsection 5, cannot make bail set under subsection 5 or has other matters pending before the court for which the person is incarcerated and bail has not yet been set, the person must be remanded to the custody of the Department of Corrections until the person's pending court proceedings or final disposition on the matters for which the person is incarcerated has occurred.

SUMMARY

This bill requires that, if a person who is charged with a probation violation is denied bail at the person's initial appearance for the violation, cannot make bail or has other matters for which the person is incarcerated and bail has not yet been set, the person must be remanded to the custody of the Department of Corrections until the person's pending court proceedings or final disposition on the matters for which the person is incarcerated has occurred.
