A BILL

To direct the Architect of the Capitol to replace the bust of Roger Brooke Taney in the Old Supreme Court Chamber of the United States Capitol with a bust of Thurgood Marshall to be obtained by the Joint Committee on the Library and to remove certain statues from areas of the United States Capitol which are accessible to the public, to remove all statues of individuals who voluntarily served the Confederate States of America from display in the United States Capitol, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. REPLACEMENT OF BUST OF ROGER BROOKE

4 TANEY WITH BUST OF THURGOOD MAR-
5 SHALL.

6 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

7 (1) While sitting in the United States Capitol,
8 the Supreme Court issued the infamous Dred Scott
9 v. Sandford decision on March 6, 1857. Written by 10 Chief Justice Roger Brooke Taney, whose bust sits
11 inside the entrance to the Old Supreme Court
12 Chamber in the United States Capitol, this opinion
13 declared that African Americans were not citizens of 14 the United States and could not sue in Federal 15 courts. This decision further declared that Congress 16 did not have the authority to prohibit slavery in the 17 territories.

18 (2) Chief Justice Roger Brooke Taney's author-19 ship of Dred Scott v. Sandford, the effects of which 20 would only be overturned years later by the ratifica-
21 tion of the 13th, 14th, and 15th Amendments to the 22 Constitution of the United States, renders a bust of 23 his likeness unsuitable for the honor of display to 24 the many visitors to the United States Capitol.

1           (3) As Frederick Douglass said of this decision
2           in May 1857, “This infamous decision of the Slave-
3           holding wing of the Supreme Court maintains that 4           slaves are within the contemplation of the Constitu-
5           tion of the United States, property; that slaves are 6           property in the same sense that horses, sheep, and 7           swine are property; that the old doctrine that slavery 8           is a creature of local law is false; that the right of 9           the slaveholder to his slave does not depend upon
10          the local law, but is secured wherever the Constitu-
11          tion of the United States extends; that Congress has 12          no right to prohibit slavery anywhere; that slavery
13          may go in safety anywhere under the star-spangled 14          banner; that colored persons of African descent have 15          no rights that white men are bound to respect; that 16          colored men of African descent are not and cannot 17          be citizens of the United States.”.

18          (4) While the removal of Chief Justice Roger 19          Brooke Taney’s bust from the United States Capitol
20          does not relieve the Congress of the historical 21          wrongs it committed to protect the institution of 22          slavery, it expresses Congress’s recognition of one of 23          the most notorious wrongs to have ever taken place
24          in one of its rooms, that of Chief Justice Roger 25          Brooke Taney’s Dred Scott v. Sandford decision.
