55 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

56
57 Section 1. Effective July 1, 2020, section 731.1065,
58 Florida Statutes, is created to read:

59 731.1065 Precious metals.—

60 (1) For the purposes of the code, precious metals in any 61 tangible form, such as bullion or coins kept and acquired for 62 their historical, artistic, collectable, or investment value
63 apart from their normal use as legal tender for payment, are 64 tangible personal property.

65 (2) This section is intended to clarify existing law and
66 applies retroactively to all written instruments executed
67 before, on, or after July 1, 2020, as well as all proceedings
68 pending or commenced before, on, or after July 1, 2020, in which 69 the disposition of precious metals in any tangible form has not 70 been finally determined.

71 Section 2. Subsection (32) of section 731.201, Florida
72 Statutes, is amended to read:

73 731.201 General definitions.—Subject to additional 74 definitions in subsequent chapters that are applicable to 75 specific chapters or parts, and unless the context otherwise

requires, in this code, in s. 409.9101, and in chapters 736, 738, 739, and 744, the term:

(32) "Property" means both real and personal property or any interest in it and anything that may be the subject of ownership, including causes of action of the estate and causes of action the decedent had at the time of death.

Section 3. Effective upon this act becoming a law, subsection (2) of section 731.301, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

731.301 Notice.—

(2) In a probate proceeding, formal notice is sufficient to acquire in rem jurisdiction over the person receiving formal notice to the extent of the person's interest in the estate or in the decedent's protected homestead. Formal notice is not sufficient to invoke the court's personal jurisdiction over the person receiving formal notice.

Section 4. The amendment made by this act to s. 731.301, Florida Statutes, applies to all proceedings pending on or before, or commenced after, the date this act becomes a law.

Section 5. Paragraph (e) of subsection (2) of section 733.212, Florida Statutes, is amended, and paragraph (f) is added to that subsection, to read:

733.212 Notice of administration; filing of objections.—

(2) The notice shall state:

(e) That, unless an extension is granted pursuant to s.

101 732.2135(2), an election to take an elective share must be filed
102 on or before the earlier of the date that is 6 months after the 103 date of service of a copy of the notice of administration on the 104 surviving spouse, or an attorney in fact or a guardian of the 105 property of the surviving spouse, or the date that is 2 years
106 after the date of the decedent's death.

107 (f) That, under certain circumstances and by failing to 108 contest the will, the recipient of the notice of administration
109 may be waiving his or her right to contest the validity of a 110 trust or other writing incorporated by reference into a will.

111 Section 6. Subsection (1) of section 733.607, Florida
112 Statutes, is amended to read:

113 733.607 Possession of estate.—

114 (1) Except as otherwise provided by a decedent's will,
115 every personal representative has a right to, and shall take 116 possession or control of, the decedent's property, except the 117 protected homestead, but any real property or tangible personal
118 property may be left with, or surrendered to, the person
119 presumptively entitled to it unless possession of the property
120 by the personal representative will be necessary for purposes of 121 administration. The request by a personal representative for 122 delivery of any property possessed by a beneficiary is 123 conclusive evidence that the possession of the property by the 124 personal representative is necessary for the purposes of 125 administration, in any action against the beneficiary for possession of it. The personal representative shall take all steps reasonably necessary for the management, protection, and preservation of the estate until distribution and has the exclusive right to ~~may~~ maintain an action to recover possession of property or to determine the title to it. The personal representative does not have a duty to maintain a cause of action that has been abandoned, assigned, distributed, or otherwise adjudicated by court order.

Section 7. Effective July 1, 2020, section 733.610, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

733.610 Sale, encumbrance, or transaction involving conflict of interest.—Any sale or encumbrance to the personal representative or the personal representative's spouse, agent, or attorney, or any corporation, other entity, or trust in which the personal representative, or the personal representative's spouse, agent, or attorney, has a substantial beneficial or ownership interest, or any transaction that is affected by a conflict of interest on the part of the personal representative, is voidable by any interested person except one who has consented after fair disclosure, unless:

(1) The will or a contract entered into by the decedent expressly authorized the transaction; or

(2) The transaction is approved by the court after notice to interested persons.

Section 8. Subsection (20) of section 733.612, Florida

Statutes, is amended to read:

733.612 Transactions authorized for the personal representative; exceptions.—Except as otherwise provided by the will or court order, and subject to the priorities stated in s. 733.805, without court order, a personal representative, acting reasonably for the benefit of the interested persons, may properly:

(20) Prosecute or defend claims or proceedings in any jurisdiction for the protection of the estate, of the decedent's property, and of the personal representative.

Section 9. Subsection (6) of section 733.617, Florida Statutes, is amended, and subsection (8) is added to that section, to read:

733.617 Compensation of personal representative.—

(6) Except as otherwise provided in this section, if the personal representative is a member of The Florida Bar and has rendered legal services in connection with the administration of the estate, then in addition to a fee as personal representative, there also shall be allowed a fee for the legal services rendered.

(8)(a) An attorney serving as a personal representative, or a person related to the attorney, is not entitled to compensation for serving as a personal representative if the attorney prepared or supervised the execution of the will that nominated the attorney or person related to the attorney as

176 personal representative, unless the attorney or person nominated
177 is related to the testator, or the attorney makes the following
178 disclosures to the testator before the will is executed:

179 1. Subject to certain statutory limitations, most family
180 members, regardless of their residence, and any other persons
181 who are residents of Florida, including friends and corporate
182 fiduciaries, are eligible to serve as a personal representative;

183 2. Any person, including an attorney, who serves as a
184 personal representative is entitled to receive reasonable 185 compensation for serving as a personal representative; and

186 3. Compensation payable to the personal representative is 187 in addition to any attorney fees payable to the attorney or the 188 attorney's firm for legal services rendered to the personal
189 representative.

190 (b)1. The testator must execute a written statement
191 acknowledging that the disclosures required under paragraph (a)
192 were made prior to the execution of the will. The written 193 statement must be in a separate writing from the will but may be 194 annexed to the will. The written statement may be executed
195 before or after the execution of the will in which the attorney
196 or related person is nominated as the personal representative.

197 2. The written statement must be in substantially the
198 following form:

199
200 I, ...(Name)..., declare that:

I have designated my attorney, an attorney employed in the same law firm as my attorney, or a person related to my attorney as a nominated personal representative in my will or codicil dated ...(insert date)....

Before executing the will or codicil, I was informed that:

1. Subject to certain statutory limitations, most family members, regardless of their residence, and any other individuals who are residents of Florida, including friends and corporate fiduciaries, are eligible to serve as a personal representative.

2. Any person, including an attorney, who serves as a personal representative is entitled to receive reasonable compensation for serving as a personal representative.

3. Compensation payable to the personal representative is in addition to any attorney fees payable to the attorney or the attorney's firm for legal services rendered to the personal representative.

...(Signature)...

...(Testator)...

...(Insert date)...

(c) For purposes of this subsection:

226 1. An attorney is deemed to have prepared or supervised
227 the execution of a will if the preparation or supervision of the 228 execution of the will was performed by an employee or attorney
229 employed by the same firm as the attorney at the time the will 230 was executed.

231 2. A person is "related" to an individual if, at the time
232 the attorney prepared or supervised the execution of the will,
233 the person is:

234 a. A spouse of the individual;

235 b. A lineal ascendant or descendant of the individual;

236 c. A sibling of the individual;

237 d. A relative of the individual or of the individual's
238 spouse with whom the attorney maintains a close, familial
239 relationship;

240 e. A spouse of a person described in sub-subparagraphs b.-
241 d.;

242 f. A person who cohabitates with the individual; or

243 g. An employee or attorney employed by the same firm as 244 the attorney at the time the will is executed.

245 3. An attorney or a person related to the attorney is 246 deemed to have been nominated in the will when the will 247 nominates the attorney or the person related to the attorney as 248 personal representative, co-personal representative, successor,
249 or alternate personal representative in the event another person
250 nominated is unable to or unwilling to serve, or provides the attorney or any person related to the attorney with the power to nominate the personal representative and the attorney or person related to the attorney was nominated using that power.

(d) Other than compensation payable to the personal representative, this subsection does not limit any rights or remedies that any interested person may have at law or in equity.

(e) The failure to obtain an acknowledgment from the testator under this subsection does not disqualify a personal representative from serving and does not affect the validity of a will.

(f) This subsection applies to all nominations made pursuant to a will:

1. Executed by a resident of this state on or after October 1, 2020; or

2. Republished by a resident of this state on or after October 1, 2020, if the republished will nominates the attorney who prepared or supervised the execution of the instrument that republished the will, or a person related to such attorney, as personal representative.

Section 10. Subsection (4) is added to section 736.0708, Florida Statutes, to read:

736.0708 Compensation of trustee.—

(4) (a) An attorney serving as a trustee, or a person related to such attorney, is not entitled to compensation for

276 serving as a trustee if the attorney prepared or supervised the 277 execution of the trust instrument that appointed the attorney or 278 person related to the attorney as trustee, unless the attorney
279 or person appointed is related to the settlor or the attorney
280 makes the following disclosures to the settlor before the trust
281 instrument is executed:

282 1. Unless specifically disqualified by the terms of the
283 trust instrument, any person, regardless of state of residence
284 and including a family member, friend, or corporate fiduciary,
285 is eligible to serve as a trustee;

286 2. Any person, including an attorney, who serves as a
287 trustee is entitled to receive reasonable compensation for 288 serving as trustee; and

289 3. Compensation payable to the trustee is in addition to
290 any attorney fees payable to the attorney or the attorney's firm
291 for legal services rendered to the trustee.

292 (b)1. The settlor must execute a written statement
293 acknowledging that the disclosures required under paragraph (a)
294 were made prior to the execution of the trust instrument. The 295 written statement must be in a separate writing from the trust
296 instrument but may be annexed to the trust instrument. The 297 written statement may be executed before or after the execution
298 of the trust in which the attorney or related person is 299 appointed as the trustee.

300 2. The written statement must be in substantially the

301 following form:

302
303 I, ...(Name)..., declare that:

304
305 I have designated my attorney, an attorney employed in the 306 same law firm as my attorney, or a person related to my attorney
307 as a trustee in my trust instrument dated ...(insert date)....

308
309 Before executing the trust, I was informed that:

310 1. Unless specifically disqualified by the terms of the
311 trust instrument, any person, regardless of state of residence
312 and including family members, friends, and corporate 313 fiduciaries, is eligible to serve as a trustee.

314 2. Any person, including an attorney, who serves as a
315 trustee is entitled to receive reasonable compensation for 316 serving as trustee.

317 3. Compensation payable to the trustee is in addition to
318 any attorney fees payable to the attorney or the attorney's firm
319 for legal services rendered to the trustee.

322 ...(Settlor)...

323 ...(Insert Date)...

324
325 (c) For purposes of this subsection:

326 1. An attorney is deemed to have prepared, or supervised
327 the execution of, a trust instrument if the preparation, or 328 supervision of the execution, of the trust instrument was 329 performed by an employee or attorney employed by the same firm
330 as the attorney at the time the trust instrument was executed.

331 2. A person is "related" to an individual if, at the time
332 the attorney prepared or supervised the execution of the trust
333 instrument, the person is:

334 a. A spouse of the individual;

335 b. A lineal ascendant or descendant of the individual;

336 c. A sibling of the individual;

337 d. A relative of the individual or of the individual's
338 spouse with whom the attorney maintains a close, familial
339 relationship;

340 e. A spouse of a person described in sub-subparagraphs b.-
341 d.;

342 f. A person who cohabitates with the individual; or

343 g. An employee or attorney employed by the same firm as 344 the attorney at the time the trust instrument is executed.

345 3. An attorney or a person related to the attorney is 346 deemed appointed in the trust instrument when the trust
347 instrument appoints the attorney or the person related to the 348 attorney as trustee, co-trustee, successor, or alternate trustee
349 in the event another person nominated is unable to or unwilling 350 to serve, or provides the attorney or any person related to the attorney with the power to appoint the trustee and the attorney or person related to the attorney was appointed using that power.

(d) Other than compensation payable to the trustee, this subsection does not limit any rights or remedies that any interested person may have at law or equity.

(e) The failure to obtain an acknowledgment from the settlor under this subsection does not disqualify a trustee from serving and does not affect the validity of a trust instrument.

(f) This subsection applies to all appointments made pursuant to a trust agreement:

1. Executed by a resident of this state on or after October 1, 2020; or

2. Amended by a resident of this state on or after October 1, 2020, if the trust agreement nominates the attorney who prepared or supervised the execution of the amendment or a person related to such attorney as trustee.

Section 11. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this act and except for this section, which shall take effect upon this act becoming a law, this act shall take effect October 1, 2020.
