8 (a) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

9 (1) PRESIDING JUDGE.—The term “presiding
10 judge” means the judge presiding over a proceeding

1 in an appellate court of the United States. In pro-
2 ceedings in which more than one judge participates,
3 the presiding judge shall be the senior active judge
4 so participating or, in the case of a circuit court of

6 pating, except that—

7 (A) in en banc sittings of any United
8 States circuit court of appeals, the presiding
9 judge shall be the chief judge of the circuit

2 unless—

3 (A) the presiding judge determines in writ-
4 ing, on the motion of any party to the pro-
5 ceeding or sua sponte, that allowing such 6 photographing, recording, broadcasting, tele-
7 vising, or streaming would violate the due proc-
8 ess rights of a party to the proceeding or is oth-
9 erwise not in the interests of justice; and

10 (B) the determination under paragraph (1)
11 is published at least 72 hours before the pro-
12 ceeding begins.

13 (2) INTERLOCUTORY APPEALS BARRED.—The 14 determination of a presiding judge under paragraph
15 (1)(A) may not be challenged through an interlocu-
16 tory appeal.

17 (3) GUIDELINES.—The Judicial Conference of 18 the United States may promulgate guidelines with 19 respect to the management and administration of 20 photographing, recording, broadcasting, televising,
21 or streaming described under paragraph (1).

22 (4) PROCEDURES.—In the interests of justice
23 and fairness, the presiding judge of each appellate
24 court of the United States may promulgate rules
25 and disciplinary measures for the courtroom use of

2       quisition or distribution of any of the images or 3       sounds obtained in the courtroom. The presiding
4       judge may also require written acknowledgment of

6       entity before being allowed to acquire any images or 7       sounds from the courtroom.

8       (c) EFFECTIVE DATE.—This Act shall apply with re-9       spect to any proceeding in an appellate court of the United 10      States that begins on or after the end of the 14-day period
11      beginning on the date of the enactment of this Act.
