

1 Brianne K. Nadeau

2
3 Councilmember Brianne K. Nadeau

Trayon White

Councilmember Trayon White, Sr.

4
5
6
7
8 A BILL
9
10

11
12 IN THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
13
14
15

16 To amend the Rental Housing Act of 1985 to clarify the definitions of rent surcharge and various 17 definitions associated with hardship petitions, to limit the exemption for newly-18 constructed rental units to those built in the prior 15 years, to limit the exemption for 19 small housing providers to housing providers who own three or fewer rental units, to 20 amend references to rent adjustments to rent surcharges, to eliminate any rent adjustment 21 based on a rental unit vacancy, to clarify that a proposed capital improvement must be 22 depreciable under Internal Revenue Service standards, to clarify that the cost of a 23 proposed capital improvement must be recoverable over the useful life of the proposed 24 improvement under Internal Revenue Service standards, to change the formula for a 25 hardship petition to ensure a housing provider recovers a minimum profit rate based on 26 the current yield rate for 10-year U.S. Treasury notes, to change hardship rent
27 adjustments to rent surcharges reviewable after a three-year period, to cap hardship rent
28 surcharges at 5% per year, to add required qualifications for auditors of hardship
29 petitions, to eliminate any rent adjustment based on a voluntary agreement, to change
30 substantial rehabilitation rent adjustments to rent surcharges, to clarify that a proposed 31 substantial rehabilitation must be depreciable under Internal Revenue Service standards,
32 to clarify that the cost of a proposed substantial rehabilitation must be recoverable over 33 the useful life of the proposed improvement under Internal Revenue Service standards, to 34 clarify the ability to enforce orders approving petitions or voluntary agreements through 35 the petition process, to require that a housing provider seeking a rent surcharge or rent
36 adjustment by petition must establish compliance with District housing regulations, to 37 require that a housing provider seeking a rent surcharge or rent adjustment by petition
38 must have established and maintained a replacement reserve account for at least 3 years, 39 and to require a housing provider seeking a rent surcharge or rent adjustment by petition
40 to provide accounting and other records as part of the petition review process.
41

BE IT ENACTED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, That this act may be cited as the "Rent Stabilization Program Reform and Expansion Amendment Act of 2020".

Sec. 2. The Rental Housing Act of 1985, effective July 17, 1985 (D.C. Law 6-10; D.C. Official Code §§ 42-3502.01 et seq.)), is amended as follows:

(a) Section 103 (D.C. Official Code § 42-3501.03) is amended as follows:

(1) Paragraphs (1), (8A), (13A), (22), and (33A) are redesignated paragraphs (1B), (8B), (12B), (13B), (23), and (33B), respectively.

(2) Paragraphs (20), (23), (29C), and (38) are amended to read as follows:

"(20) "Maximum possible rental income" means the sum of the rents charged plus all unexpired rent surcharges and all unexpired but unimplemented rent adjustments and rent surcharges for all rental units in the housing accommodation, whether occupied or not, computed over a base period of 12 consecutive months within the 15 months preceding the date of any hardship petition filed under this chapter."

"(23) "Miscellaneous income" means any income, other than rents charged plus unexpired and implemented rent surcharges, which a housing provider earns because of his or her interest in a housing accommodation, including, but not limited to, fees, commissions, income from vending machines, income from laundry facilities, and income from parking and recreational facilities."

"(29C) "Rent surcharge" means a temporary charge added to the rent charged for a rental unit pursuant to a capital improvement, hardship, or substantial rehabilitation petition that is not included as part of the rent charged."

“(38) “Vacancy loss” means the amount of rent charged plus unexpired and implemented rent surcharges not collectable due to vacant rental units in a housing accommodation. No amount shall be included in vacancy loss for rental units occupied by a housing provider or his or her employees or otherwise not offered for rent.”.

(3) New paragraphs (1A), (8A), (13A), (24A), and (33A) are added to read as follows:

“(1A) “American Society for Testing and Materials International” or “ASTM” means the organization that develops test methods, specifications, classifications, guides, and practices in support of voluntary standards for the metal, construction, petroleum, consumer products, and other industries or a successor or similar organization that provides comparable services.

“(8A) “Depreciation” means the allocation of the cost of a tangible asset over its useful life.

“(13A) “Guaranteed profit margin” means the percent equal to the average daily yield curve rate on a 10-year United States Treasury note for the month of January of each current year, as published by the United States Treasury Department and as annually computed by the Rental Housing Commission pursuant to section 202(a)(3).

“(24A) “Property condition assessment” means a due diligence commercial property inspection that evaluates the condition of a property based on ASTM’s E2018 guidelines or other comparable standards as updated or developed by ASTM.

“(33A) “Replacement reserve” means an account established and maintained to provide funding for the extraordinary maintenance, repair, or replacement of capital items in a housing accommodation.”

86 (b) Section 202(a)(3) (D.C. Official Code § 42-3502.02(a)(3) is amended as follows:

87 (1) Subparagraph (C) is amended by striking the word “unit” and inserting the 88 phrase “rental unit” in its place and by striking the word “and”.

89 (2) Subparagraph (D) is amended by adding the phrase “; and” at the end of the 90 subparagraph.

91 (3) A new subparagraph (E) is added to read as follows:

92 “(E) The annual guaranteed profit margin applicable to rent surcharges authorized by a 93 hardship petition pursuant to section 212.”.

94 (c) Section 205(a)(2) (D.C. Official Code § 42-3502.05(a)(2)) is amended to read as
95 follows:

96 “(2) Any rental unit in any newly constructed housing accommodation for which the 97 building permit was issued any time after the 15-year period that ended on or before January 1 of 98 the current year, or any newly created rental unit, added to an existing structure or housing
99 accommodation and covered by a certificate of occupancy for housing use issued any time after 100 the 15-year period that ended on or before January 1 of the current year; provided, however, that 101 this exemption shall not apply to any housing accommodation, the construction of which 102 required the demolition of an housing accommodation subject to this chapter, unless the number 103 of newly constructed rental units exceeds the number of demolished rental units;”.

104 (d) Section 205(a)(3) (D.C. Official Code § 42-3502.05(a)(3)) is amended to read as 105 follows:

“(3) Except as provided by subsection (a-1), any rental unit in any housing accommodation of 3 or fewer rental units, including any aggregate of 3 rental units whether within the same structure or not, provided:

“(A) The housing accommodation is owned by not more than 4 natural persons;

“(B) None of the housing providers has an interest, either directly or indirectly, in any other rental unit in the District of Columbia;

“(C) The housing provider of the housing accommodation files with the Rent Administrator a claim of exemption statement which consists of an oath or affirmation by the housing provider of the valid claim to the exemption. The claim of exemption statement shall also contain the signatures of each person having an interest, direct or indirect, in the housing accommodation. Any change in the ownership of the exempted housing accommodation or change in the housing provider’s interest in any other housing accommodation which would invalidate the exemption claim must be reported in writing to the Rent Administrator within 30 days of the change;

“(D) The limitation of the exemption to a housing accommodation owned by natural persons shall not apply to a housing accommodation owned or controlled by a decedent’s estate or testamentary trust if the housing accommodation was, at the time of the decedent’s death, already exempt under the terms of clauses (3)(A)(i) and (ii) of this subsection; and

“(E) For purposes of determining the eligibility of a condominium rental unit for the exemption provided by this subparagraph, § 42-3404.13(a)(3), or § 42-4016(a)(3) [expired], a housing accommodation shall be the aggregate of the condominium rental units and any other rental units owned by the natural person(s) claiming the exemption.”.

(e) Section 205(g-1) (D.C. Official Code § 42-3502.05(g-1)) is amended by adding a new subparagraph (3) to read as follows:

“(3) With regard to any rental unit or housing accommodation that was previously exempt from the Rent Stabilization Program under section 205(a)(2) or 205(a)(3) but is later subject to that program under section 205(a)(2) or 205(a)(3), as amended, the housing provider shall file a registration statement and the Rent Stabilization Program shall apply to all rental units affected by the expiration or termination of that exemption within 120 days of the date of such expiration or termination. The registration statement shall contain, at a minimum, the information required under section 205(f)(3).”.

(f) Section 206 (D.C. Official Code § 42-3502.06) is amended as follows:

(1) A new subsection (a-1) is added to read as follows:

“(a-1) For any petition approved pursuant to sections 210, 211, 212, or 214, a housing provider shall not preserve for future implementation all or any portion of an authorized rent charged increase or rent surcharge, except to the extent that section 208(g) prohibits the immediate implementation of the authorized rent charged increase or rent surcharge.”

(g) Section 208(g) (D.C. Official Code § 42-3502.08(g)) is amended to read as follows:

“(g)(1) The amount of rent charged for any rental unit subject to the Rent Stabilization Program shall not be increased by a rent adjustment, and a new rent surcharge shall not be imposed, until a full 12 months have elapsed since any prior increase in the rent charged or prior imposition of a rent surcharge; provided, that the amount of a rent adjustment or a rent surcharge shall not exceed the amount of any single rent adjustment or rent surcharge pursuant to any one section of the Rent Stabilization Program;

“(2) If the housing provider does not implement a rent adjustment or a rent surcharge in full within 30 days of first becoming eligible to do so, the housing provider shall forfeit in its entirety any portion of the authorized rent adjustment or rent surcharge that has not been implemented by that date except as otherwise provided pursuant to section 212.”.

(h) Section 208(h) (D.C. Official Code § 42-3502.08(h)) is amended to read as follows:

“(h) Unless the adjustment in the amount of rent charged is implemented pursuant to section 211, an adjustment in the amount of rent charged:

“(1) Shall not exceed the current rent charged for the unit, plus the adjustment of general applicability, taken as a percentage of the current allowable amount of rent charged; provided, that the total adjustment shall not exceed 5%;

“(2) Shall be pursuant to section 224 if the rental unit is occupied by an elderly tenant or tenant with a disability; and

“(3) Shall not exceed the lesser of 5% or the adjustment of general applicability if the rental unit is leased or co-leased by a home and community-based services waiver provider.”.

(i) Section 210 (D.C. Official Code § 42-3502.10) is amended as follows:

(1) Subsections (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e) are amended to read as follows:

“(a) On a petition by a housing provider, if, upon a determination by the Rent Administrator that a capital improvement is in the interest of the affected tenants, then the Rent Administrator may approve a rent surcharge to cover the cost of the capital improvement for one or more rental units or the entire housing accommodation, contingent upon completion of the capital improvement.”.

“(b) The Rent Administrator shall only approve a rent surcharge if:

“ (1) The cost of the capital improvement is established to the satisfaction of the Rent Administrator;

“ (2) Only items that are depreciable under the General Depreciation System for residential rental property established pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C.) are included in the capital improvement;

“ (3) The cost of the capital improvement is recovered over the projected useful life of the improvement as provided by the General Depreciation System for residential rental property established pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code 26 U.S.C.;

“ (4) The cost of the capital improvement is recovered over the projected useful life of the type of property with the longest projected useful life in any case where the capital improvement includes types of property with different projected useful lives under the General Depreciation System for residential rental property established pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C.); and

“ (5) The housing provider secured the required governmental permits and approvals prior to commencing any construction work associated with the proposed capital improvement, secured final approval of the capital improvement petition, and perfected the rent surcharge before imposing a rent surcharge.”.

“ (c) The Rent Administrator shall determine a rent surcharge pursuant to a capital improvement petition by:

“ (1) Dividing the gross cost of the capital improvement, including interest costs and service charges directly associated with a loan to finance the capital improvement but only to the extent the loan is used to pay for the capital improvement and the interest costs and service charges are calculated as provided in section 216(p), by the number of months included in the recovery period for the projected useful life of the improvement as provided by the General Depreciation System for residential rental property established pursuant to 26 U.S.C. but not to exceed 96 months for a building-wide capital improvement or 64 months for a capital improvement that is limited to 1 or more rental units;

“(2) In the case of a building-wide capital improvement, calculating the monthly rent surcharge per rental unit by dividing the amount calculated pursuant to paragraph (1) by the number of rental units in the housing accommodation but the rent surcharge may not exceed 20% of the current rent charged for any affected tenant.

“(3) In the case of a capital improvement limited to 1 or more rental units in a housing accommodation, calculating the monthly rent surcharge per affected rental unit by dividing the amount calculated pursuant to paragraph (1) by the number of rental units in the housing accommodation affected by the capital improvement but the rent surcharge may not exceed 15% of the current rent charged for any affected tenant.”.

“(d) In determining whether to approve a capital improvement petition, the Rent Administrator shall examine the plans, contracts, specifications, permit applications, and projected costs for the capital improvement.

“(1) The housing provider or its designated agent shall retain the plans, contracts, specifications, permit applications, and projected costs for the capital improvements for the period in which the rent surcharge is in effect.

214 “(2) Any affected tenant may inspect the plans, contracts, specifications, permit
215 applications, and projected costs at the housing accommodation at a mutually convenient time 216 during the period in which the rent surcharge is in effect.”.

217 “(e)(1) The Rent Administrator shall dismiss a capital improvement petition or transfer
218 the case to the District of Columbia Office of Administrative Hearings for an adjudicatory 219 hearing within 60 days of receipt of a completed capital improvement petition.

220 “(2) The housing provider may start the capital improvement if the Rent Administrator
221 fails to transfer the case or the District of Columbia Office of Administrative Hearings has not 222 issued a final decision on a capital improvement petition within 180 days of receipt of a
223 completed capital improvement petition by the Rent Administrator, but the housing provider may 224 not impose a rent surcharge until a final decision is issued and the rent surcharge is perfected.”.

225 (2) A new subsection (e-1) is added to read as follows:

226 “(e-1) A rent surcharge imposed on a tenant pursuant to an approved capital improvement
227 petition shall be temporary and shall not be included in or calculated as part of the rent charged;

228 “(1) The housing provider shall not continue to impose a capital improvement 229 rent surcharge after the recovery period established pursuant to subsection (c)(1) or (h)(1) or 230 after its termination under this subsection unless otherwise provided in this subsection;

231 “(2) If prior to expiration of the applicable recovery period, the housing provider
232 has recovered all costs of the capital improvement, then the housing provider shall cease to 233 charge the rent surcharge to the tenant;

234 “(3) If after expiration of the applicable recovery period, the housing provider has 235 not recovered all costs of the capital improvement, then the housing provider may petition the 236 Rent Administrator for an extension of the rent surcharge;

237 “(4) The rent surcharge shall not continue after expiration of the recovery period
238 unless the Rent Administrator approves an extension of the recovery period;

239 “(5) The housing provider:

240 “(A) Shall be deemed to have recovered all costs within the approved cost 241 recovery period or where applicable the shorter cost recovery period; and 242 “(B) Shall not continue to impose the rent surcharge or request an 243 extension of the cost recovery period, if the housing provider:

244 “(i) Due to selective implementation of the approved rent
245 surcharge, has not recovered all costs of the capital improvement within the cost recovery period 246 established pursuant to subsection (c) or (h); or

247 “(ii) Would have recovered all such costs within a shorter cost
248 recovery period if the housing provider had fully implemented the rent surcharges on all eligible 249 rental units; and

250 “(6) Any combination of two or more unexpired capital improvement rent 251 surcharges that are in effect at the same time shall not exceed 20% of the current rent charged to 252 an affected tenant.

253 (3) Subsections (g), (h), and (i) are amended to read as follows:

254 “(g)(1) The housing provider may make capital improvements to the housing 255 accommodation before filing a capital improvement petition if the capital improvement is 256 immediately necessary to maintain and protect the health or safety of the tenants.

257 “(2) The housing provider may petition the Rent Administrator under this 258 subsection for approval of a rent surcharge if the petition is filed with the Rent Administrator 259 within 10 calendar days of completion of the capital improvement.”.

260 “(h) A housing provider may impose a rent surcharge to recover the cost of any capital
261 improvement that is required by a federal or District statute or regulation and that takes effect
262 after October 30, 1980, not including any building energy performance standards established by, 263 or pursuant to, section 301 of the CleanEnergy DC Omnibus Amendment Act of 2018 (D.C.
264 Official Code § 8-1772.21).

265 “(1) The cost of the rent surcharge provided by this subsection shall be recovered
266 over the projected useful life of the improvement as provided in subsection (b);

267 “(2) The rent surcharge shall be imposed on rental units within the housing 268 accommodation on an equal basis based on the extent to which each rental unit benefits from the 269 improvement;

270 “(3) A housing provider may, following perfection of the rent surcharge, impose
271 the rent surcharge under this subsection by filing with the Division a certificate of calculation for 272 a mandated capital improvement increase that establishes that:

273 “(A) The improvement is required by a federal or District statute or 274 regulation that takes effect after October 30, 1980, and is not required by any building energy
275 performance standards established by, or pursuant to, section 301 of the CleanEnergy DC
276 Omnibus Amendment Act of 2018 (D.C. Official Code § 8-1772.21);

277 “(B) The cost of the improvement and the benefit to each rental unit; and

278 “(C) The housing provider has secured the required governmental permits

279 and approvals.

280 “(i) No construction work associated with a capital improvement petition shall commence
281 prior to securing the required governmental permits and approvals and no rent surcharge 282 pursuant to a capital improvement petition shall be imposed prior to securing approval of the 283 petition and perfecting the rent surcharge.”.

284 (2) New subsection (j) is added to read as follows:

285 “(j) A housing provider that attempts to collect or collects a capital improvement rent 286 surcharge without the prior approval of a petition pursuant to this section or after expiration of 287 the recovery period specified in the approval or an approved extension, shall be deemed to have 288 acted in bad faith and shall be subject to a penalty pursuant to section 901(a) and to civil fines 289 pursuant to section 901(f).”.

290 (j) Section 212 (D.C. Official Code § 42-3502.12) is amended as follows:

291 (1) Subsections (a) and (b) are amended to read as follows:

292 “(a) On a petition by a housing provider, if upon a determination by the Rent
293 Administrator that the petition demonstrates that the housing accommodation has a profit margin
294 that is less than the guaranteed profit margin, then the Rent Administrator may approve a rent
295 surcharge that in the aggregate would produce a profit margin of not more than the guaranteed 296 profit margin”.

297 “(b) The following calculations shall be used to determine the rent surcharge:

298 “(1) Calculate adjusted gross income as follows:

299 “(A) First calculate gross income by adding together maximum possible
300 rental income and miscellaneous income;

301 “(B) Then subtract from gross income actual vacancy losses not to exceed 302 6% of the maximum possible rental income.

303 “(2) Calculate expenses by adding together the following:

304 “(A) Operating expenses; provided, that the following items shall not be 305 included as operating expenses:

306 “(i) Membership fees in organizations established to influence
307 legislation and regulations;

308 “(ii) Contributions to lobbying efforts;

309 “(iii) Contributions for legal fees in the prosecution of class action 310 cases;

311 “(iv) Political contributions to candidates for office;

312 “(v) Mortgage principal payments;

313 “(vi) Maintenance expenses for which the housing provider has 314 been reimbursed by any security deposit, insurance settlement, judgment for damages, agreed
315 upon payments, or any other method;

316 “(vii) Attorney’s fees charged for services that are not ordinary,
317 reasonable, necessary, and related to the normal operation and management of the housing 318 accommodation, including attorney’s fees charged for services connected with counseling or 319 litigation related to actions brought by the District government due to the repeated failure of a 320 housing provider to comply with applicable housing regulations; and

321 “(viii) Any expenses for which the tenant has lawfully paid
322 directly;

323 “(B) Actual management fees; provided, that the fees do not exceed 6% of 324 the maximum possible rental income of the housing accommodation;

325 “(C) Property taxes;

326 “(D) Depreciation expenses; provided, that depreciaton expenses may 327 only be included to the extent reflected in decreased real property tax assessments; and 328 “(E) Interest payments;

329 “(3) Calculate whether the housing accommodation has a profit or deficit by 330 subtracting expenses from adjusted gross income; and

331 “(4) Then calculate the profit margin by dividing the profit or deficit by adjusted 332 gross income.”.

333 (2) New subsections (b-1), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), and (i) are added to read as 334 follows:

335 “(b-1)(1) If for a housing accommodation, the profit margin of the housing
336 accommodation is less than the guaranteed profit margin, the Rent Administrator shall determine 337 the monthly rent surcharge for each rental unit as follows:

338 “(A) Calculate the amount of future adjusted gross income needed to 339 achieve the guaranteed profit margin by subtracting the guaranteed profit margin from 100
340 percent and then dividing expenses by the result;

341 “(B) Then calculate the amount of additional adjusted gross income 342 needed to achieve the guaranteed profit margin by subtracting the adjusted gross income from 343 the quotient calculated pursuant to subparagraph (A) of this paragraph;

344 “(C) Then calculate the rent surcharge for each rental unit by dividing the

345 amount of additional adjusted gross income calculated pursuant to subparagraph (B) of this 346 paragraph by the adjusted gross income.

347 “(2) If the monthly rent surcharge calculated pursuant to paragraph (1) of this 348 subsection exceeds 5% of the current rent charged, then the housing provider:

349 “(A) Shall only implement the rent surcharge in annual increments of no 350 more than 5% of the current rent charged; and

351 “(B) Shall not implement annual increments of the rent surcharge once the 352 rent surcharge is fully implemented, subject to subsection (g).

353 “(d) The Rent Administrator shall consider and review the hardship petition and 354 supporting documents and, no sooner than within 60 days following the filing of a completed
355 petition, shall issue and serve on the housing provider and all affected tenants an audit report
356 with recommendations regarding accepting or denying expenditures and other financial claims
357 and recommendations for the final disposition of the hardship petition. The audit report of the 358 Rent Administrator shall:

359 “(1) Contain specific findings of fact and conclusions of law regarding the 360 calculation of the amount of the rent surcharge, if any, to be recommended; and 361 “(2) Include specific findings of facts and conclusions of law with respect to 362 whether the hardship petition meets the following standards:

363 “(A) The maximum possible rental income matches the rents charged
364 specified in filings with the Rent Administrator and includes all increases of general applicability
365 within the 3-year period prior to the filing of the petition, whether or not the housing provider
366 implemented them;

367 “(B) The total expenses, actual gross income, and gross income claimed 368 by the housing provider fall within a 12-month period within the past 15 months, as selected by 369 the housing provider preceding the filing of a petition pursuant to this section, and conform to 370 the accounting method, either cash or accrual, regularly used by the housing provider;

371 “(C) Capital expenses are only included if recovered in accordance with 372 the General Depreciation System for residential rental property established pursuant to the 373 Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C.); and

374 “(D) Extraordinary expenses shall not be included unless they are 375 recovered under the General Depreciation System for residential rental property established
376 pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C.); and

377 “(E) Mortgage interest payments associated with a mortgage secured
378 within the 3-year period prior to the filing of the petition are not included.

379 “(e) At the same time as the Rent Administrator serves the audit report with 380 recommendations on the housing provider and the affected tenants, the Rent Administrator shall 381 notify the housing provider and affected tenants that:

382 “(1) Each party has 30 days in which to file with the Rent Administrator and serve 383 written exceptions and objections to the audit report and its recommendations on all other 384 parties;

385 “(2) In the absence of timely filed exceptions or objections, the audit report and 386 recommendations shall become a final order 45 days after it is issued; and 387 “(3) If exceptions or objections are filed by an affected tenant or other party, the 388 Rent Administrator shall transfer the case to the District of Columbia Office of Administrative

389 Hearings for adjudication of the exceptions or objections no later than 45 days after issuing the 390 audit report with recommendations, but no sooner than 10 days after the deadline established 391 pursuant to paragraph (1) for the submission of exceptions and objections.

392 “(f) Except for any conditional adjustment authorized under section 212(c), a housing
393 provider shall not implement a rent surcharge or any other rent adjustment pursuant to a hardship 394 petition until:

395 “(1) A final order is issued;

396 “(2) No appeal is pending; and 397 “(3) The time for appeal has expired.

398 “(g)(1) Rent surcharges authorized pursuant to this section are temporary surcharges and 399 shall remain in effect for no more than three years following final approval of the hardship
400 petition.

401 “(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), the Rent Administrator may authorize an 402 extension if the housing provider shows that it has not recovered the rent surcharge authorized by 403 subsection (b-1); provided that the housing provider has implemented the rent surcharge in the 404 same percentage terms each year for each rental unit.

405 “(h) The Rent Administrator shall ensure that an auditor employed to perform audits of 406 hardship petitions, including any contracted auditor, shall:

407 “(1) Be a certified public account;

408 “(2) Have expertise in rental housing; and

409 “(3) Have the experience and skills necessary to evaluate the auditing standards
410 set forth in section 212(d).

411 “(i) A housing provider that attempts to collect or collects a hardship increase without the 412 prior approval of a petition pursuant to this section shall be deemed to have acted in bad faith and 413 to be liable to the affected tenants for treble damages pursuant to section 901(a) and subject to 414 civil fines pursuant to section 901(f).”.

415 (l) Section 213 (D.C. Official Code § 42-3502.13) is repealed.

416 (m) Section 214 (D.C. Official Code § 42-3502.14) is amended as follows:

417 (1) Subsection (a) is amended to read as follows:

418 “(a) On a petition by a housing provider, if, upon a determination by the Rent
419 Administrator that a substantial rehabilitation is in the interest of the affected tenants, then,
420 contingent upon completion of the substantial rehabilitation, the Rent Administrator may 421 approve a rent surcharge to cover the cost of the substantial rehabilitation, contingent on 422 completion of the substantial rehabilitation.”.

423 (2) New subsections (a-1) and (a-2) are added to read as follows:

424 “(a-1) The Rent Administrator shall approve the rent surcharge only if:

425 “(1) The cost of the substantial rehabilitation is established to the satisfaction of 426 the Rent Administrator;

427 “(2) Only items that are depreciable under the General Depreciation System for 428 residential rental property established pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C.) are 429 included in the substantial rehabilitation;

430 “(3) The cost of the substantial rehabilitation is recovered over the projected
431 useful life of the substantial rehabilitation as provided by the General Depreciation System for 432 residential rental property established pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code 26 U.S.C.;

433 “(4) The cost of the substantial rehabilitation is recovered over the projected 434 useful life of the type of property with the longest projected useful life in any case where the 435 substantial rehabilitation includes types of property with different projected useful lives under 436 the General Depreciation System for residential rental property established pursuant to the 437 Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C.);

438 “(5) The housing provider secured the required governmental permits and 439 approvals and final approval of the substantial rehabilitation petition prior to commencing any 440 construction work associated with the proposed substantial rehabilitation, and perfected the rent
441 surcharge before imposing a rent surcharge.”;

442 “(6) The rent surcharge pursuant to a substantial rehabilitation petition is no 443 greater than 125% of the rent charged for any affected rental unit prior to implementation of the 444 rent surcharge;

445 “(7) The total expenditure on the substantial rehabilitation equals or exceeds 50%
446 of the greater of the assessed value of the property for tax purposes or the value established by a 447 professional appraisal of the property by a licensed appraiser provided by the housing provider or 448 one or more tenants at any time prior to a hearing on the petition for substantial rehabilitation; 449 and.

450 “(8) The substantial rehabilitation satisfies the sustainability requirements of 451 subsection (e).

452 “(a-2) The Rent Administrator shall determine a rent surcharge pursuant to a substantial 453 rehabilitation petition by:

454 “(1) Dividing the gross cost of the substantial rehabilitation, including interest
455 costs and service charges directly associated with a loan to finance the substantial rehabilitation
456 but only to the extent the loan is used to pay for the substantial rehabilitation and the interest
457 costs and service charges are calculated as provided in section 216(p), by the number of months 458 included in the recovery period for the projected useful life of the substantial rehabilitation as 459 provided by the General Depreciation System for residential rental property established pursuant 460 to 26 U.S.C. and by subsection (a-1)(4) to establish the monthly gross cost of the substantial 461 rehabilitation; and

462 “(2) Calculating the monthly rent surcharge for the substantial rehabilitation for 463 each rental unit by multiplying the rent charged for the rental unit on the date the petition was 464 filed by the percentage calculated pursuant to paragraph (1).”.

465 (3) Subsection (b) is amended to read as follows:

466 “(b) The plans, contracts, specifications, projected costs, and permit applications, whether 467 or not filed, for the substantial rehabilitation:

468 “(1) Shall be made available to the Rent Administrator by the housing provider of 469 the affected rental unit or units or housing accommodation;

470 “(2) Shall be examined by the Rent Administrator to determine whether to 471 approve the substantial rehabilitation petition;

472 “(3) Shall be retained by the housing provider or its designated agent for the 473 period in which the rent surcharge is in effect; and

474 “(4) Shall be made available for inspection to any affected tenant at the housing 475 accommodation at a mutually convenient time.”.

476 (4) Subsection (c)(2) is amended to read as follows:

477 “(c)(2) In making an affirmative finding that the substantial rehabilitation of a housing
478 accommodation is in the interest of the tenants, the Rent Administrator shall consider the 479 following factors:

480 “(A) Whether the rehabilitation will have an adverse impact on the tenants
481 in terms of rent increases, inconvenience, or relocation;

482 “(B) Whether the rehabilitation can safely and reasonably be accomplished
483 while the affected rental units are occupied;

484 “(C) Whether alternatives to temporary relocation exist, including 485 relocating tenants during the construction process to other rental units in the housing
486 accommodation or in a complex or set of buildings of which the housing accommodation is a 487 part;

488 “(D) Whether the existing conditions of the housing accommodation, 489 including any violations of the housing regulations, endanger the health, welfare, and safety of 490 the tenants, and whether the housing provider can correct those conditions by improved 491 maintenance, repair, replacement, or more limited improvements; and 492 “(E) Whether the plans, specifications, and costs are the minimum 493 necessary to correct the conditions of the housing accommodation as shown by the testimony of 494 the affected tenants, District of Columbia housing inspectors, licensed engineers, architects and 495 contractors, or other qualified experts.”.

496 (5) New subsections (e) and (f) are added to read as follows:

497 “(e)(1) A rent surcharge imposed on a tenant pursuant to an approved substantial 498 rehabilitation shall be temporary and shall not be included in, or calculated as part of, the rent 499 charged.

500 “(2) The housing provider shall not continue to impose the substantial
501 rehabilitation rent surcharge after the recovery period established pursuant to subsection (a-2)(1)
502 or after its termination under this subsection unless otherwise provided in this subsection;

503 “(3) If, prior to expiration of the applicable recovery period, the housing provider
504 has recovered all costs of the substantial rehabilitation, then the housing provider shall cease to 505 charge the rent surcharge;

506 “(4) If, after expiration of the applicable recovery period, the housing provider has 507 not recovered all costs of the substantial rehabilitation, then the housing provider may petition
508 the Rent Administrator for an extension of the rent surcharge;

509 “(5) The rent surcharge shall not continue after expiration of the recovery period
510 unless the Rent Administrator approves an extension of the recovery period.”; and 511 “(6) If the housing provider has not recovered all costs of the substantial 512 rehabilitation within the cost recovery period established pursuant to subsection (a-1) due to 513 selective or partial implementation of the approved rent surcharges or would have recovered all

514 such costs within a shorter cost recovery period if it had fully implemented the rent surcharges
515 on all eligible rental units, the housing provider shall be deemed to have recovered all costs
516 within the approved cost recovery period or, where applicable, the shorter cost recovery period
517 and shall not continue to impose the rent surcharge or request an extension of the cost recovery 518 period; and

519 “(7)(A) No substantial rehabilitation rent surcharge shall exceed 125% of the 520 current rent charged to an affected tenant prior.

521 “(B) Any other rent surcharge that is in effect at the time of the 522 implementation of the substantial rehabilitation rent surcharge shall be invalidated to the extent 523 that any such rent surcharge or combination of rent surcharges, in combination with the 524 substantial rehabilitation rent surcharge, exceeds 125% of the current rent charged to an affected
525 tenant.

526 “(C) After a substantial rehabilitation rent surcharge has been 527 implemented and as long as the rent surcharge is in effect, the housing provider may not impose 528 any other rent surcharge to the extent that any such rent surcharge, in combination with the 529 substantial rehabilitation rent surcharge, exceeds 125% of the current rent charged to an affected
530 tenant.

531 “(f) A housing provider that commences a substantial rehabilitation or attempts to collect
532 or collects a substantial rehabilitation rent surcharge without the prior approval of a petition 533 pursuant to this section or after expiration of the recovery period specified in the approval or an 534 approved extension shall be deemed to have acted in bad faith and to be liable to the affected 535 tenants for treble damages pursuant to section 901(a) and subject to civil fines pursuant to 536 section 901(f).”.

537 (n) Section 215 (D.C. Official Code § 42-3502.15) is repealed.

538 (o) Section 216 (D.C. Official Code § 42-3502.16) is amended as follows:

539 (1) Subsection (a) is amended to read as follows:

540 “(a) The Rent Administrator shall, upon a petition filed by the housing provider or a 541 tenant, consider rent adjustments allowed by section 206, 208, or 211, rent surcharges allowed by 542 sections 210, 212, and 214, and any other challenge under the Rent Stabilization Program to a 543 rent charged, rent adjustment, or rent surcharge or enforcement of an order approving any such 544 petition.

545 “(1) The petition shall be filed with the Rent Administrator on a form provided by 546 the Rent Administrator requiring the information that the Rent Administrator or the Rental 547 Housing Commission may require.

548 “(2) The party filing the petition with the Rent Administrator shall serve the 549 petition by first-class mail at the same time as it is filed with the Rent Administrator on the 550 affected housing provider and tenants and shall provide notice to all tenants and other parties on 551 a form provided by the Rent Administrator of the right to submit objections to the Rent
552 Administrator within 30 days of receipt of the petition.

553 “(3) The Rent Administrator shall issue an order approving or denying, in whole
554 or in part, each petition within 120 days after the completed petition is filed with the Rent
555 Administrator except as may be otherwise provided by the Rent Stabilization Program.

556 “(4) The time for issuing an order may be extended only by written agreement 557 between the housing provider and the affected tenant or tenants upon a finding of good cause by 558 the Rent Administrator.”.

559 (2) New subsections (n), (o), and (p) are added to read as follows:

560 “(n)(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Rent Stabilization Program, the Rent
561 Administrator shall not accept for filing any petition for a rent adjustment pursuant to section 562 211 or a rent surcharge pursuant to section 210, 212, or 214 unless:

563 “(A) The housing provider presents proof that, no more than 30 days prior 564 to the date of filing the petition, all rental units and the common areas of the housing 565 accommodation were inspected for housing code violations as required by section 208(b)(2), or 566 re-inspected as necessary to certify the abatement of any such violation; and

567 “(B) The housing provider has abated all substantial violations in the time 568 set forth in the notice of violation and prior to filing the petition.”.

569 “(2) Paragraph (1) of this subsection shall not apply to a rental unit if the tenant
570 denied access to the rental unit for the inspection.

571 “(3) The failure of a housing provider to comply with this subsection shall be an 572 independent basis for dismissal of any petition filed pursuant to section 210, 211, 212, or 214.

573 “(4) Nothing herein relieves or purports to relieve a housing provider from 574 complying with the requirements of D.C.M.R. Title 14.

575 “(o) Whenever the cost of a loan is part of any petition filed pursuant to section 210, 212,
576 or 214, the recoverable interest costs and service charges shall be limited to the amount that 577 would be charged in an arm’s length transaction for a similar contemporaneous transaction in the 578 District of Columbia and shall be reduced over time as necessary to take into account any future
579 reduction in interest payments or service charges.

580 “(p) The Rent Administrator may require the housing provider to obtain an independent 581 audit of the books and records of the housing provider and the proposal included in its petition application and shall require the housing provider to produce any and all documents necessary to determine the accuracy and lawfulness of any rent surcharge proposed pursuant to a petition filed under section 210, 212, or 214 or any rent adjustment proposed pursuant to section 211.

“(q)(1) The Rent Administrator shall serve a copy of any petition filed pursuant to section 210, 211, 212, or 214 on the Office of Tenant Advocate and on each agency included on a list of agencies designated by the Rent Administrator and updated from time to time that provide organizing, technical assistance, and legal services to tenants.

“(2) The Rent Administrator shall publish or cause to be published all petitions in the electronic database established pursuant to section 203a.

“(r)(1) If an adjudicative hearing of any type is required to resolve a contested case in a proceeding arising from a petition filed pursuant to section 210, 211, 212, 214, or 216 the District of Columbia Office of Administrative Hearings (“OAH”) shall have jurisdiction to hold such a hearing and make a final disposition of the case by order as provided in § 2-1831.03(b-1); provided, that OAH shall:

“(A) Be subject to all requirements of the Act applicable to the petition or the voluntary agreement; and

“(B) Act in strict accordance with the authority provided by the Act to the Rent Administrator in resolving the case.

“(2) The 120-day period for OAH to issue an order under section 216(a)(3) shall not start to run until the case is transferred to OAH for adjudication.

“(s) The Attorney General for the District of Columbia may intervene in a proceeding before the Rent Administrator or OAH involving a petition filed pursuant to section 210, 211, 604 212, 214, or 216.”.

605 (p) A new section 225 is added to read as follows:

606 “Section 225. Replacement reserve accounts.

607 “(a) The Rent Administrator or, where applicable, the District of Columbia Office of 608 Administrative Hearings shall disapprove any petition or voluntary agreement filed pursuant to 609 section 210, 211, 212, or 214 (other than a petition for a reduction in the rent charged filed by a 610 tenant pursuant to section 211) if the housing provider has not established and maintained a
611 replacement reserve account as required by this section for at least 3 years or, if the housing
612 provider has owned the housing accommodation for less than 3 years, has not established a 613 replacement reserve account that contains an amount at least equal to the amount that would 614 have been in the account if it had been in place for the past 3 years.

615 “(b) To be eligible for approval of any petition, a housing provider shall annually deposit 616 $250 per unit, adjusted each year as provided in subsection (c) or such higher amount as may be 617 required by the Mayor pursuant to subsection (d) in a replacement reserve account.

618 “(c) The per-unit deposit required by subsection (b) shall be adjusted annually, beginning
619 on the February 1 following the effective date of this Act, by an amount equal to the change
620 during the previous calendar year, ending each December 31, in the Washington, D.C., Standard
621 Metropolitan Statistical Area Consumer Price Index for Urban Wage Earners and Clerical
622 Workers (CPI-W).

623 “(d) Notwithstanding subsections (b) and (c), the housing provider for each housing
624 accommodation subject to the Rent Stabilization Program shall build up its replacement reserve

625 account to, and maintain it at, a level determined by the Mayor to be sufficient to meet projected 626 maintenance requirements for the housing accommodation.

627 “(1) The Mayor shall determine the level sufficient to meet maintenance
628 requirements for each housing accommodation subject to the Rent Stabilization Program based 629 upon a property condition assessment conducted by a licensed property condition assessment
630 consultant according to the then-current ASTM standard for property conditions assessments or 631 other substantially comparable or more stringent standards established by a similar or successor
632 organization. The property condition assessment shall assess property conditions for all relevant 633 property elements, including:

634 “(A) Building site, including topography, drainage, retaining walls,
635 paving, curbing, and lighting;

636 “(B) Building envelope, including windows and walls;

637 “(C) Structural, including foundation and framing;

638 “(D) Interior elements, including stairways, hallways, and common areas;

639 “(E) Roofing systems;

640 “(F) Mechanical, including heating, ventilation, and air conditioning;

641 “(G) Plumbing;

642 “(H) Electrical;

643 “(I) Vertical transport, including elevators and escalators;

644 “(J) Life safety, ADA, code compliance, and air quality, including fire 645 codes, accessibility, water intrusion, and mold; and

646 “(K) Infrared thermography for energy loss, air leakage, roofing and 647 building envelope moisture intrusion.

648 “(2) If the replacement reserve account reaches the level required by this 649 subsection, the Mayor may approve a reduction in the rate of deposit to the reserve account.

650 “(e) The replacement reserve account shall only be used for repairs to, or replacement of,
651 items that have a useful life of more than 7 years pursuant to the IRS depreciation rules for 652 residential rental property.

653 “(f) All earnings on funds in the reserve account, including interest, shall be added to the 654 replacement reserve account.”.

655 (q) A new section 226 is added to read as follows:

656 “Section 226. Rent increases for other rental units.

657 “(a) The amount of rent for any rental unit not subject to the Rent Stabilization Program 658 shall not be increased until:

659 “(1) A full 12 months have elapsed since any prior increase in the rent; and

660 “(2) The housing provider has served the tenant with a written notice of rent
661 increase at least 45 days prior to implementation of the rent increase that includes, at a minimum,
662 the following information:

663 “(A) the current rent,

664 “(B) the increased rent,

665 “(C) the effective date of the rent increase, and 666 “(D) the justification for the rent increase.

667 “(b) If the residential lease or rental agreement between the housing provider and the 668 tenant requires that the tenant provide more than a 30-day notice to the housing provider of the

669 tenant's intention to vacate the premises, then the housing provider must serve the tenant with a 670 written notice of any rent increase that is at least 15 days more than that time period.

671 “(c) The notice of rent increase shall also include a summary of tenant rights under this 672 chapter and a list of sources of technical assistance as published in the District of Columbia
673 Register by the Mayor.”.

674 Sec. 3. Fiscal impact statement.

675 The Council adopts the fiscal impact statement in the committee report as the fiscal 676 impact statement required by section 4a of the General Legislative Procedures Act of 1975,
677 approved October 16, 2006 (120 Stat. 2038; D.C. Official Code § 1-301.47a).

678 Sec. 4. Effective date.

679 This act shall take effect following approval by the Mayor (or in the event of veto by the 680 Mayor, action by the Council to override the veto), a 30-day period of congressional review as 681 provided in section 602(c)(1) of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act, approved December
682 24, 1973 (87 Stat. 813; D.C. Official Code § 1-206.02(c)(1)), and publication in the District of 683 Columbia Register.