8 SYNOPSIS: Under existing law, the state imposes an ad
9 valorem tax at a rate established by statute on the 10 assessed value of taxable property, which value
11 varies as a percentage of actual value depending 12 upon the particular property. In addition,
13 counties, municipalities, and certain other local 14 taxing authorities impose various additional ad
15 valorem taxes. Certain types of property and 16 certain entities are exempt from state, county, or 17 local ad valorem taxes. Existing law also allows 18 the state to impose sales and use taxes upon 19 certain persons, firms, or corporations. The amount 20 of the taxes ranges from one and one-half to four 21 percent of the gross proceeds of the sale or 22 consumption of various types of tangible personal 23 property. The state also imposes a sales tax on the 24 operation of places of amusement or entertainment.
25 Counties and municipalities impose various 26 additional sales and use taxes.

1 This bill would exempt all property owned
2 and used by Long Ranch, a domestic nonprofit
3 corporation, from any state, county, and local ad
4 valorem taxes, and would exempt Long Ranch from 5 state, county, and municipal sales and use taxes.
