8 WHEREAS, Kentucky's exports to Taiwan increased 62.6 percent between 2020 9 and 2021, and Kentucky's imports from Taiwan increased 49.2 percent between 2020 and 10 2021, making Taiwan Kentucky's eighteenth highest export country and thirteenth 11 highest import country; and

12 WHEREAS, the year 2024 marks the landmark 45th anniversary of the enactment 13 of the Taiwan Relations Act, which has facilitated an even closer partnership between the 14 United States and Taiwan in security, business, education, culture, and people-to-people 15 exchanges; and

16 WHEREAS, in 2023, Taiwan welcomed the largest number of United States 17 official delegations to date; and

18 WHEREAS, Kentucky became a bellwether of education after the launch of the 19 "U.S.–Taiwan Education Initiative" in 2020, by signing the higher education and K-12
20 cooperation memoranda of understanding with Taiwan in 2021, facilitating more 21 Mandarin and English language exchanges between students and teachers; and

22 WHEREAS, under this memorandum of understanding, and thanks to the 23 cooperation between the Kentucky Department of Education and the Asia Institute Crane
24 House, Taiwan welcomed nine English teachers to host a three-week English summer

3 WHEREAS, Taiwan has been experiencing continuous threats from their 4 authoritarian neighbor, China, which has encroached on Taiwan's security by launching
5 multiple missiles and dispatching numerous aircraft and vessels into Taiwan's air defense
6 identification zone and across the Taiwan Strait median line. China has also disseminated 7 disinformation, launched cyberattacks, and repeatedly excluded Taiwan from the 9 United Nations system meetings, mechanisms, conventions, and activities; and

14 China's provocation; the "National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2023," 15 which facilitates a defense modernization program for Taiwan to deter China's 16 aggression; and the signing of the "Taiwan-U.S. Memorandum of Understanding on 17 Development and Humanitarian Assistance Cooperation," which highlights that Taiwan 18 is a significant stakeholder globally; and

19 WHEREAS, in June 2023, the United States and Taiwan signed the first agreement

25 NOW, THEREFORE,

26 Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of 27 Kentucky:

1           ➔Section 1. The Senate encourages the members of this body to join the Taiwan
2 Caucus in urging the Commonwealth of Kentucky to establish a trade office in Taiwan,
3 as North Carolina, South Carolina, Arizona, Virginia, West Virginia, and Pennsylvania
4 have recently done. The establishment of a trade office in Taiwan will attract more
5 investments in Taiwan and the Commonwealth and enable the Commonwealth's officials 6 and General Assembly members to conduct more frequent exchanges with their 7 Taiwanese counterparts.

8           ➔Section 2. The Senate supports the "US-Taiwan Initiative on 21st-Century 9 Trade" and the negotiations on the Bilateral Trade Agreement as Taiwanese companies 10 are looking for diverse and free markets in the United States instead of China, and further 11 supports Taiwan's meaningful participation in international organizations and 12 mechanisms such as the World Health Organization, United Nations Framework
13 Convention on Climate Change, International Civil Aviation Organization, International 14 Criminal Police Organization, Comprehensive and Progressive Agreement for Trans-
15 Pacific Partnership, and Indo-Pacific Economic Framework for Prosperity.

16           ➔Section 3. The Clerk of the Senate is directed to transmit a copy of this 17 Resolution to Governor Andy Beshear, Secretary of State Michael G. Adams, the 18 Kentucky Congressional Delegation, and Mr. Elliot Wang, Director-General of the Taipei
19 Economic and Cultural Office in Atlanta, Georgia.
