BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That sections 2151.34, 2903.213, 2903.214, 22 2919.26, 2923.11, 2923.13, 2923.18, 2923.20, 2923.23, 3113.31, 23 and 3113.99 be amended and sections 3113.26, 3113.27, 3113.28, 24 3113.29, and 3113.30 of the Revised Code be enacted to read as 25 follows: 26

Sec. 2151.34. (A) As used in this section: 27

this section and includes a person on whose behalf a petition 39 under this section is filed. 40

(6) "Respondent" means a person who is under eighteen 41 years of age and against whom a petition is filed under this 42
section. 43

(7) "Sexually oriented offense" has the same meaning as in 44
section 2950.01 of the Revised Code. 45

(8) "Electronic monitoring" has the same meaning as in 46

(9) "Companion animal" has the same meaning as in section 48

959.131 of the Revised Code. 49

(10) "Expunge" has the same meaning as in section 2151.355 50
of the Revised Code. 51

(B) The court has jurisdiction over all proceedings under 52
this section. 53

(C) (1) Any of the following persons may seek relief under 54 this section by filing a petition with the court: 55

(a) Any person on behalf of that person; 56

(b) Any parent or adult family or household member on 57 behalf of any other family or household member; 58

(c) Any person who is determined by the court in its 59 discretion as an appropriate person to seek relief under this 60 section on behalf of any child. 61

(2) The petition shall contain or state all of the 62
following: 63

(a) An allegation that the respondent engaged in a 64 violation of section 2903.11, 2903.12, 2903.13, 2903.21, 65 2903.211, 2903.22, or 2911.211 of the Revised Code, committed a 66 sexually oriented offense, or engaged in a violation of any 67 municipal ordinance that is substantially equivalent to any of 68 those offenses against the person to be protected by the 69 protection order, including a description of the nature and 70 extent of the violation; 71

(b) If the petitioner seeks relief in the form of 72 electronic monitoring of the respondent, an allegation that at 73
any time preceding the filing of the petition the respondent 74 engaged in conduct that would cause a reasonable person to 75 believe that the health, welfare, or safety of the person to be 76

that conduct, and an allegation that the respondent presents a 78
continuing danger to the person to be protected; 79

(c) A request for relief under this section. 80

(3) The court in its discretion may determine whether or 81 not to give notice that a petition has been filed under division 82 (C) (1) of this section on behalf of a child to any of the 83
following: 84

(a) A parent of the child if the petition was filed by any 85 person other than a parent of the child; 86

(b) Any person who is determined by the court to be an 87 appropriate person to receive notice of the filing of the 88 petition. 89

(D) (1) If a person who files a petition pursuant to this 90 section requests an ex parte order, the court shall hold an ex 91
parte hearing as soon as possible after the petition is filed, 92 but not later than the next day after the court is in session 93 after the petition is filed. The court, for good cause shown at 94 the ex parte hearing, may enter any temporary orders, with or 95
protection of the person to be protected by the order. Immediate 97 and present danger to the person to be protected by the 98
protection order constitutes good cause for purposes of this 99 section. Immediate and present danger includes, but is not 100 limited to, situations in which the respondent has threatened 101
the person to be protected by the protection order with bodily 102 harm or in which the respondent previously has been convicted 103 of, pleaded guilty to, or been adjudicated a delinquent child 104 for committing a violation of section 2903.11, 2903.12, 2903.13, 105

sexually oriented offense, or a violation of any municipal 107 ordinance that is substantially equivalent to any of those 108 offenses against the person to be protected by the protection 109 order. 110

(2) (a) If the court, after an ex parte hearing, issues a 111 protection order described in division (E) of this section, the 112 court shall schedule a full hearing for a date that is within 113
ten court days after the ex parte hearing. The court shall give 114
the respondent notice of, and an opportunity to be heard at, the 115 full hearing. The court also shall give notice of the full 116 hearing to the parent, guardian, or legal custodian of the 117 respondent. The court shall hold the full hearing on the date 118 scheduled under this division unless the court grants a 119
continuance of the hearing in accordance with this division. 120
Under any of the following circumstances or for any of the 121
following reasons, the court may grant a continuance of the full 122 hearing to a reasonable time determined by the court: 123

(i) Prior to the date scheduled for the full hearing under 124
hearing. 127

(ii) The parties consent to the continuance. 128

(iii) The continuance is needed to allow a party to obtain 129
counsel. 130

(iv) The continuance is needed for other good cause. 131

(b) An ex parte order issued under this section does not 132
upon the respondent before the date set for the full hearing 134

under division (D) (2) (a) of this section or because the court 135
grants a continuance under that division. 136

(3) If a person who files a petition pursuant to this 137 section does not request an ex parte order, or if a person 138
parte order after an ex parte hearing, the court shall proceed 140
matter. 142

(E) (1) (a) After an ex parte or full hearing, the court may 143 issue any protection order, with or without bond, that contains 144
terms designed to ensure the safety and protection of the person 145 to be protected by the protection order. The court may include 146 within a protection order issued under this section a term 147 requiring that the respondent not remove, damage, hide, harm, or 148 dispose of any companion animal owned or possessed by the person 149 to be protected by the order, and may include within the order a 150 term authorizing the person to be protected by the order to 151 remove a companion animal owned by the person to be protected by 152 the order from the possession of the respondent. 153

(b) After a full hearing, if the court considering a 154 petition that includes an allegation of the type described in 155 division (C) (2) (b) of this section or the court, upon its own 156 motion, finds upon clear and convincing evidence that the 157
any time preceding the filing of the petition endangered the 159
health, welfare, or safety of the person to be protected and 160
that the respondent presents a continuing danger to the person 161 to be protected and if division (N) of this section does not 162 prohibit the issuance of an order that the respondent be 163 electronically monitored, the court may order that the 164 respondent be electronically monitored for a period of time and 165 under the terms and conditions that the court determines are 166 appropriate. Electronic monitoring shall be in addition to any 167 other relief granted to the petitioner. 168

(2) (a) Any protection order issued pursuant to this 169 section shall be valid until a date certain but not later than 170
the date the respondent attains nineteen years of age. 171

(b) Any protection order issued pursuant to this section 172 may be renewed in the same manner as the original order was 173
issued. 174

(3) A court may not issue a protection order that requires 175
a petitioner to do or to refrain from doing an act that the 176
under division (E) (1) of this section unless all of the 178
following apply: 179

(a) The respondent files a separate petition for a 180
protection order in accordance with this section. 181

(b) The petitioner is served with notice of the 182
respondent's petition at least forty-eight hours before the 183
court holds a hearing with respect to the respondent's petition, 184 or the petitioner waives the right to receive this notice. 185

(c) If the petitioner has requested an ex parte order 186
pursuant to division (D) of this section, the court does not 187 delay any hearing required by that division beyond the time 188
with a hearing on the petition filed by the respondent. 190

(d) After a full hearing at which the respondent presents 191
evidence in support of the request for a protection order and 192
the petitioner is afforded an opportunity to defend against that 193

a violation of section 2903.11, 2903.12, 2903.13, 2903.21, 195 2903.211, 2903.22, or 2911.211 of the Revised Code, a sexually 196 oriented offense, or a violation of any municipal ordinance that 197 is substantially equivalent to any of those offenses against the 198 person to be protected by the protection order issued pursuant 199 to division (E) (3) of this section, or has violated a protection 200 order issued pursuant to this section or section 2903.213 of the 201 Revised Code relative to the person to be protected by the 202 protection order issued pursuant to division (E) (3) of this 203
section. 204

(4) No protection order issued pursuant to this section 205 shall in any manner affect title to any real property. 206

(5) (a) A protection order issued under this section shall 207 clearly state that the person to be protected by the order 208 cannot waive or nullify by invitation or consent any requirement 209 in the order. 210

(b) Division (E) (5) (a) of this section does not limit any 211 discretion of a court to determine that a respondent alleged to 212 have violated section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, violated a 213 municipal ordinance substantially equivalent to that section, or 214 committed contempt of court, which allegation is based on an 215 alleged violation of a protection order issued under this 216 section, did not commit the violation or was not in contempt of 217 court. 218

(6) Any protection order issued pursuant to this section 219 shall include a provision that the court will automatically seal 220 all of the records of the proceeding in which the order is 221 issued on the date the respondent attains the age of nineteen 222 years unless the petitioner provides the court with evidence 223 that the respondent has not complied with all of the terms of 224

the protection order. The protection order shall specify the 225 date when the respondent attains the age of nineteen years. 226

(F)(1) The court shall cause the delivery of a copy of any 227 protection order that is issued under this section to the 228
petitioner, to the respondent, and to all law enforcement 229 agencies that have jurisdiction to enforce the order. If the 230 protection order will be valid subsequent to the date on which 231 the respondent attains eighteen years of age, the order shall be 232
into the protection order database of the national crime 234
information center (NCIC) maintained by the federal bureau of 235 investigation. The court shall direct that a copy of the order 236 be delivered to the respondent and the parent, guardian, or 237 legal custodian of the respondent on the same day that the order 238 is entered. 239

(2) Upon the issuance of a protection order under this 240
section, the court shall provide the parties to the order with 241
the following notice orally or by form: 242

"NOTICE 243

As a result of this order, it may be unlawful for you to 244 possess or purchase a firearm, including a rifle, pistol, or 245 revolver, or ammunition pursuant to federal law under 18 U.S.C. 246 922(g)(8). If you have any questions whether this law makes it 247 illegal for you to possess or purchase a firearm or ammunition, 248
you should consult an attorney." 249

(3) All law enforcement agencies shall establish and 250 maintain an index for the protection orders delivered to the 251 agencies pursuant to division (F)(1) of this section. With 252

respect to each order delivered, each agency shall note on the 253 index the date and time that it received the order. Each 254 protection order received by a law enforcement agency pursuant 255 to this section that will be valid subsequent to the date on 256 which the respondent attains eighteen years of age shall be 257 entered into the law enforcement automated data system created 258
by section 5503.10 of the Revised Code, and known as LEADS, 259

(4) Regardless of whether the petitioner has registered 261
the protection order in the county in which the officer's agency 262
has jurisdiction pursuant to division (M) of this section, any 263
order issued pursuant to this section by any court in this state 265
removing the respondent from the premises, if appropriate. 267

(G) (1) Any proceeding under this section shall be 268 conducted in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure, 269
except that a protection order may be obtained under this 270 section with or without bond. An order issued under this 271
appealable order. The remedies and procedures provided in this 274 section are in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other 275 available civil or criminal remedies or any other available 276 remedies under Chapter 2151. or 2152. of the Revised Code. 277

(2) If as provided in division (G) (1) of this section an 278 order issued under this section, other than an ex parte order, 279 refuses to grant a protection order, the court, on its own 280 motion, shall order that the ex parte order issued under this 281 section and all of the records pertaining to that ex parte order 282

be expunged after either of the following occurs: 283

(a) The period of the notice of appeal from the order that 284
refuses to grant a protection order has expired. 285

(b) The order that refuses to grant the protection order 286
that order is taken affirms the order. 288

(H) The filing of proceedings under this section does not 289
law. 292

(I) Any law enforcement agency that investigates an 293 alleged violation of section 2903.11, 2903.12, 2903.13, 2903.21, 294 2903.211, 2903.22, or 2911.211 of the Revised Code, an alleged 295 commission of a sexually oriented offense, or an alleged 296 violation of a municipal ordinance that is substantially 297 equivalent to any of those offenses shall provide information to 298 the victim and the family or household members of the victim 299 regarding the relief available under this section. 300

(J) (1) Subject to division (J) (2) of this section and 301
regardless of whether a protection order is issued or a consent 302
section, in connection with the filing, issuance, registration, 307
a protection order, consent agreement, or witness subpoena or 309
for obtaining a certified copy of a protection order or consent 310
agreement. 311

(2) Regardless of whether a protection order is issued or 312
a consent agreement is approved pursuant to this section, the 313 court may assess costs against the respondent in connection with 314
the filing, issuance, registration, modification, enforcement, 315 dismissal, withdrawal, or service of a protection order, consent 316 agreement, or witness subpoena or for obtaining a certified copy 317
of a protection order or consent agreement. 318

(K) (1) A person who violates a protection order issued 319
under this section is subject to the following sanctions: 320

(a) A delinquent child proceeding or a criminal 321 prosecution for a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised 322 Code, if the violation of the protection order constitutes a 323 violation of that section; 324

(b) Punishment for contempt of court. 325

(2) The punishment of a person for contempt of court for 326 violation of a protection order issued under this section does 327 not bar criminal prosecution of the person or a delinquent child 328 proceeding concerning the person for a violation of section 329 2919.27 of the Revised Code. However, a person punished for 330 contempt of court is entitled to credit for the punishment 331 imposed upon conviction of or adjudication as a delinquent child 332 for a violation of that section, and a person convicted of or 333 adjudicated a delinquent child for a violation of that section 334 shall not subsequently be punished for contempt of court arising 335 out of the same activity. 336

(L) In all stages of a proceeding under this section, a 337
petitioner may be accompanied by a victim advocate. 338

(M) (1) A petitioner who obtains a protection order under 339
this section may provide notice of the issuance or approval of 340

county other than the county in which the order is issued by 342 registering that order in the other county pursuant to division 343
(M) (2) of this section and filing a copy of the registered order 344 with a law enforcement agency in the other county in accordance 345
issued by a court of another state may provide notice of the 347
issuance of the order to the judicial and law enforcement 348
in that county pursuant to section 2919.272 of the Revised Code 350
and filing a copy of the registered order with a law enforcement 351 agency in that county. 352

(2) A petitioner may register a protection order issued 353 pursuant to this section in a county other than the county in 354 which the court that issued the order is located in the 355 following manner: 356

(a) The petitioner shall obtain a certified copy of the 357 order from the clerk of the court that issued the order and 358
present that certified copy to the clerk of the court of common 359
pleas or the clerk of a municipal court or county court in the 360 county in which the order is to be registered. 361

(b) Upon accepting the certified copy of the order for 362
registration, the clerk of the court of common pleas, municipal 363 court, or county court shall place an endorsement of 364
registration on the order and give the petitioner a copy of the 365 order that bears that proof of registration. 366

(3) The clerk of each court of common pleas, municipal 367
court, or county court shall maintain a registry of certified 368
copies of protection orders that have been issued by courts in 369 other counties pursuant to this section and that have been 370

registered with the clerk. 371

(N) If the court orders electronic monitoring of the 372
respondent under this section, the court shall direct the 373 sheriff's office or any other appropriate law enforcement agency 374
respondent. Unless the court determines that the respondent is 376 indigent, the court shall order the respondent to pay the cost 377
of the installation and monitoring of the electronic monitoring 378 device. If the court determines that the respondent is indigent 379
year from the fund and the rules promulgated by the attorney 381 general under section 2903.214 of the Revised Code, the cost of 382 the installation and monitoring of the electronic monitoring 383 device may be paid out of funds from the reparations fund 384 created pursuant to section 2743.191 of the Revised Code. The 385 total amount paid from the reparations fund created pursuant to 386 section 2743.191 of the Revised Code for electronic monitoring 387 under this section and sections 2903.214 and 2919.27 of the 388 Revised Code shall not exceed three hundred thousand dollars per 389 year. When the total amount paid from the reparations fund in 390 any year for electronic monitoring under those sections equals 391 or exceeds three hundred thousand dollars, the court shall not 392 order pursuant to this section that an indigent respondent be 393 electronically monitored. 394

(O) The court, in its discretion, may determine if the 395 respondent is entitled to court-appointed counsel in a 396 proceeding under this section. 397

Sec. 2903.213. (A) Except when the complaint involves a 398 person who is a family or household member as defined in section 399 2919.25 of the Revised Code, upon the filing of a complaint that 400 alleges a violation of section 2903.11, 2903.12, 2903.13, 401

violation of a municipal ordinance substantially similar to 403 section 2903.13, 2903.21, 2903.211, 2903.22, or 2911.211 of the 404 Revised Code, or the commission of a sexually oriented offense, 405
member of an alleged victim may file a motion that requests the 407 issuance of a protection order as a pretrial condition of 408 release of the alleged offender, in addition to any bail set 409 under Criminal Rule 46. The motion shall be filed with the clerk 410 of the court that has jurisdiction of the case at any time after 411 the filing of the complaint. If the complaint involves a person 412 who is a family or household member, the complainant, the 413 alleged victim, or the family or household member may file a 414 motion for a temporary protection order pursuant to section 415

(B) A motion for a protection order under this section 417 shall be prepared on a form that is provided by the clerk of the 418 court, and the form shall be substantially as follows: 419

"Motion for Protection Order 420 only until the disposition of the criminal proceeding arising 446 out of the attached complaint or until the issuance under 447 section 2903.214 of the Revised Code of a protection order 448 arising out of the same activities as those that were the basis 449 of the attached complaint. 450

that requests the issuance of a protection order under this 456 section, but not later than the next day that the court is in 457 session after the filing of the motion, the court shall conduct 458 a hearing to determine whether to issue the order. The person 459 who requested the order shall appear before the court and 460 provide the court with the information that it requests 461 concerning the basis of the motion. If the court finds that the 462 safety and protection of the complainant or the alleged victim 463 may be impaired by the continued presence of the alleged 464 offender, the court may issue a protection order under this 465 section, as a pretrial condition of release, that contains terms 466 designed to ensure the safety and protection of the complainant 467 or the alleged victim, including a requirement that the alleged 468 offender refrain from entering the residence, school, business, 469 or place of employment of the complainant or the alleged victim. 470

The court may include within a protection order issued under 471 this section a term requiring that the alleged offender not 472 remove, damage, hide, harm, or dispose of any companion animal 473 owned or possessed by the complainant or the alleged victim, and 474 may include within the order a term authorizing the complainant 475 or the alleged victim to remove a companion animal owned by the 476 complainant or the alleged victim from the possession of the 477 alleged offender. 478

(2) (a) If the court issues a protection order under this 479 section that includes a requirement that the alleged offender 480
of employment of the complainant or the alleged victim, the 482 order shall clearly state that the order cannot be waived or 483 nullified by an invitation to the alleged offender from the 484 complainant, the alleged victim, or a family or household member 485 to enter the residence, school, business, or place of employment 486 or by the alleged offender's entry into one of those places 487 otherwise upon the consent of the complainant, the alleged 488 victim, or a family or household member. 489

(b) Division (C) (2) (a) of this section does not limit any 490 discretion of a court to determine that an alleged offender 491 charged with a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, 492 with a violation of a municipal ordinance substantially 493
charge is based on an alleged violation of a protection order 495
not in contempt of court. 497

(D) (1) Except when the complaint involves a person who is 498 a family or household member as defined in section 2919.25 of 499 the Revised Code, upon the filing of a complaint that alleges a 500 violation specified in division (A) of this section, the court, 501 upon its own motion, may issue a protection order under this 502 section as a pretrial condition of release of the alleged 503 offender if it finds that the safety and protection of the 504 complainant or the alleged victim may be impaired by the 505 continued presence of the alleged offender. 506

(2) (a) If the court issues a protection order under this 507 section as an ex parte order, it shall conduct, as soon as 508 possible after the issuance of the order but not later than the 509 next day that the court is in session after its issuance, a 510 hearing to determine whether the order should remain in effect, 511 be modified, or be revoked. The hearing shall be conducted under 512
the standards set forth in division (C) of this section. 513

(b) If at a hearing conducted under division (D) (2) (a) of 514
this section the court determines that the ex parte order that 515
the court issued should be revoked, the court, on its own 516 motion, shall order that the ex parte order that is revoked and 517

expunged. 519

(3) If a municipal court or a county court issues a 520 protection order under this section and if, subsequent to the 521 issuance of the order, the alleged offender who is the subject 522 of the order is bound over to the court of common pleas for 523 prosecution of a felony arising out of the same activities as 524 those that were the basis of the complaint upon which the order 525 is based, notwithstanding the fact that the order was issued by 526 a municipal court or county court, the order shall remain in 527 effect, as though it were an order of the court of common pleas, 528 while the charges against the alleged offender are pending in 529 the court of common pleas, for the period of time described in 530 division (E) (2) of this section, and the court of common pleas 531 has exclusive jurisdiction to modify the order issued by the 532 municipal court or county court. This division applies when the 533 alleged offender is bound over to the court of common pleas as a 534 result of the person waiving a preliminary hearing on the felony 535 charge, as a result of the municipal court or county court 536 having determined at a preliminary hearing that there is 537 probable cause to believe that the felony has been committed and 538 that the alleged offender committed it, as a result of the 539 alleged offender having been indicted for the felony, or in any 540 other manner. 541

(E) A protection order that is issued as a pretrial 542 condition of release under this section: 543

(1) Is in addition to, but shall not be construed as a 544
part of, any bail set under Criminal Rule 46; 545

(2) Is effective only until the disposition, by the court 546 that issued the order or, in the circumstances described in 547 division (D) (3) of this section, by the court of common pleas to 548 which the alleged offender is bound over for prosecution, of the 549 criminal proceeding arising out of the complaint upon which the 550 order is based or until the issuance under section 2903.214 of 551 the Revised Code of a protection order arising out of the same 552 activities as those that were the basis of the complaint filed 553 under this section; 554

(3) Shall not be construed as a finding that the alleged 555 offender committed the alleged offense and shall not be 556 introduced as evidence of the commission of the offense at the 557 trial of the alleged offender on the complaint upon which the 558
order is based. 559

(F) A person who meets the criteria for bail under 560
Criminal Rule 46 and who, if required to do so pursuant to that 561 rule, executes or posts bond or deposits cash or securities as 562 bail, shall not be held in custody pending a hearing before the 563 court on a motion requesting a protection order under this 564
section. 565

(G) (1) A copy of a protection order that is issued under 566 this section shall be issued by the court to the complainant, to 567 the alleged victim, to the person who requested the order, to 568 the defendant, and to all law enforcement agencies that have 569 jurisdiction to enforce the order. The protection order shall be 570
in a form that ensures that the protection order is accepted 571
be delivered to the defendant on the same day that the order is 575 entered. If a municipal court or a county court issues a 576
issuance of the order, the defendant who is the subject of the 578 order is bound over to the court of common pleas for prosecution 579 as described in division (D) (3) of this section, the municipal 580 court or county court shall direct that a copy of the order be 581 delivered to the court of common pleas to which the defendant is 582 bound over. 583

(2) All law enforcement agencies shall establish and 584
maintain an index for the protection orders delivered to the 585 agencies pursuant to division (G) (1) of this section. With 586
index the date and time of the agency's receipt of the order. 588 Each protection order received by a law enforcement agency 589 pursuant to this section shall be entered into the law 590 enforcement automated data system created by section 5503.10 of 591
after receipt. 593

(3) Regardless of whether the petitioner has registered 594
has jurisdiction, any officer of a law enforcement agency shall 596 enforce a protection order issued pursuant to this section in 597 accordance with the provisions of the order. 598

(H) Upon a violation of a protection order issued pursuant 599 to this section, the court may issue another protection order 600 under this section, as a pretrial condition of release, that 601 modifies the terms of the order that was violated. 602

(I) (1) Subject to division (I) (2) of this section and 603
regardless of whether a protection order is issued or a consent 604
shall charge the movant any fee, cost, deposit, or money in 607 connection with the filing of a motion pursuant to this section, 608 in connection with the filing, issuance, registration, 609

for obtaining certified copies of a protection order or consent 612
agreement. 613

(2) Regardless of whether a protection order is issued or 614
a consent agreement is approved pursuant to this section, if the 615 defendant is convicted the court may assess costs against the 616 defendant in connection with the filing, issuance, registration, 617
for obtaining a certified copy of a protection order or consent 620

section 2950.01 of the Revised Code. 624

(2) "Companion animal" has the same meaning as in section 625
959.131 of the Revised Code. 626

(3) "Expunge" means to destroy, delete, and erase a 627 record, as appropriate for the record's physical or electronic 628 form or characteristic, so that the record is permanently 629
irretrievable. 630

Sec. 2903.214. (A) As used in this section: 631

(1) "Court" means the court of common pleas of the county 632 in which the person to be protected by the protection order 633 resides. 634

(2) "Victim advocate" means a person who provides support 635
and assistance for a person who files a petition under this 636

section. 637

(3) "Family or household member" has the same meaning as 638 in section 3113.31 of the Revised Code. 639

(4) "Protection order issued by a court of another state" 640 has the same meaning as in section 2919.27 of the Revised Code. 641

(5) "Sexually oriented offense" has the same meaning as in 642
section 2950.01 of the Revised Code. 643

(6) "Electronic monitoring" has the same meaning as in 644
section 2929.01 of the Revised Code. 645

(7) "Companion animal" has the same meaning as in section 646
959.131 of the Revised Code. 647

(8) "Expunge" has the same meaning as in section 2903.213 648

(B) The court has jurisdiction over all proceedings under 650
this section. 651

(C) A person may seek relief under this section for the 652 person, or any parent or adult household member may seek relief 653 under this section on behalf of any other family or household 654 member, by filing a petition with the court. The petition shall 655 contain or state all of the following: 656

(1) An allegation that the respondent is eighteen years of 657 age or older and engaged in a violation of section 2903.211 of 658 the Revised Code against the person to be protected by the 659 protection order or committed a sexually oriented offense 660 against the person to be protected by the protection order, 661 including a description of the nature and extent of the 662 violation; 663

(2) If the petitioner seeks relief in the form of 664 electronic monitoring of the respondent, an allegation that at 665
believe that the health, welfare, or safety of the person to be 668

(3) A request for relief under this section. 672

(D) (1) If a person who files a petition pursuant to this 673
section requests an ex parte order, the court shall hold an ex 674
parte hearing as soon as possible after the petition is filed, 675
but not later than the next day that the court is in session 676 after the petition is filed. The court, for good cause shown at 677
and present danger to the person to be protected by the 681
limited to, situations in which the respondent has threatened 684
the person to be protected by the protection order with bodily 685 harm or in which the respondent previously has been convicted of 686 or pleaded guilty to a violation of section 2903.211 of the 687 Revised Code or a sexually oriented offense against the person 688 to be protected by the protection order. 689

(2) (a) If the court, after an ex parte hearing, issues a 690

full hearing. The court shall hold the full hearing on the date 695 scheduled under this division unless the court grants a 696
continuance of the hearing in accordance with this division. 697
hearing to a reasonable time determined by the court: 700

(i) Prior to the date scheduled for the full hearing under 701
this division, the respondent has not been served with the 702
hearing. 704

(ii) The parties consent to the continuance. 705

(iii) The continuance is needed to allow a party to obtain 706

(iv) The continuance is needed for other good cause. 708

(b) An ex parte order issued under this section does not 709
grants a continuance under that division. 713

parte order after an ex parte hearing, the court shall proceed 717
matter. 719

(E) (1) (a) After an ex parte or full hearing, the court may 720

to be protected by the protection order, including, but not 723 limited to, a requirement that the respondent refrain from 724 entering the residence, school, business, or place of employment 725 of the petitioner or family or household member. If the court 726 includes a requirement that the respondent refrain from entering 727 the residence, school, business, or place of employment of the 728 petitioner or family or household member in the order, it also 729 shall include in the order provisions of the type described in 730 division (E) (5) of this section. The court may include within a 731 protection order issued under this section a term requiring that 732 the respondent not remove, damage, hide, harm, or dispose of any 733 companion animal owned or possessed by the person to be 734 protected by the order, and may include within the order a term 735 authorizing the person to be protected by the order to remove a 736 companion animal owned by the person to be protected by the 737 order from the possession of the respondent. 738

(b) After a full hearing, if the court considering a 739
petition that includes an allegation of the type described in 740 division (C) (2) of this section, or the court upon its own 741 motion, finds upon clear and convincing evidence that the 742
petitioner reasonably believed that the respondent's conduct at 743
any time preceding the filing of the petition endangered the 744
that the respondent presents a continuing danger to the person 746 to be protected, the court may order that the respondent be 747 electronically monitored for a period of time and under the 748 terms and conditions that the court determines are appropriate. 749 Electronic monitoring shall be in addition to any other relief 750 granted to the petitioner. 751

(2) (a) Any protection order issued pursuant to this 752

five years from the date of its issuance. 754

(b) Any protection order issued pursuant to this section 755
issued. 757

(3) A court may not issue a protection order that requires 758
under division (E) (1) of this section unless all of the 761
following apply: 762

(a) The respondent files a separate petition for a 763
protection order in accordance with this section. 764

(b) The petitioner is served with notice of the 765
court holds a hearing with respect to the respondent's petition, 767
or the petitioner waives the right to receive this notice. 768

(c) If the petitioner has requested an ex parte order 769
pursuant to division (D) of this section, the court does not 770
delay any hearing required by that division beyond the time 771
with a hearing on the petition filed by the respondent. 773

(d) After a full hearing at which the respondent presents 774
evidence in support of the request for a protection order and 775
the petitioner is afforded an opportunity to defend against that 776
a violation of section 2903.211 of the Revised Code against the 778 person to be protected by the protection order issued pursuant 779 to division (E) (3) of this section, has committed a sexually 780 oriented offense against the person to be protected by the 781

section, or has violated a protection order issued pursuant to 783 section 2903.213 of the Revised Code relative to the person to 784 be protected by the protection order issued pursuant to division 785
(E) (3) of this section. 786

(4) No protection order issued pursuant to this section 787
shall in any manner affect title to any real property. 788

(5) (a) If the court issues a protection order under this 789
section that includes a requirement that the alleged offender 790
of employment of the petitioner or a family or household member, 792 the order shall clearly state that the order cannot be waived or 793 nullified by an invitation to the alleged offender from the 794 complainant to enter the residence, school, business, or place 795 of employment or by the alleged offender's entry into one of 796

(b) Division (E) (5) (a) of this section does not limit any 799
charged with a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, 801
with a violation of a municipal ordinance substantially 802
charge is based on an alleged violation of a protection order 804
not in contempt of court. 806

(F) (1) The court shall cause the delivery of a copy of any 807 protection order that is issued under this section to the 808
agencies that have jurisdiction to enforce the order. The 810 protection order shall be in a form that ensures that the 811 protection order is accepted into the protection order database 812 of the national crime information center (NCIC) maintained by 813 the federal bureau of investigation. The court shall direct that 814 a copy of the order be delivered to the respondent on the same 815 day that the order is entered. 816

(2) Upon the issuance of a protection order under this 817
section, the court shall provide the parties to the order with 818

As a result of this order, it may be unlawful for you to 821
922(g) (8). If you have any questions whether this law makes it 824

(3) All law enforcement agencies shall establish and 827
maintain an index for the protection orders delivered to the 828
protection order received by a law enforcement agency pursuant 832 to this section shall be entered into the law enforcement 833 automated data system created by section 5503.10 of the Revised 834 Code, and known as LEADS, within twenty-four hours after 835 receipt. 836

(4) Regardless of whether the petitioner has registered 837
has jurisdiction pursuant to division (M) of this section, any 839
order issued pursuant to this section by any court in this state 841

removing the respondent from the premises, if appropriate. 843

(G) (1) Any proceeding under this section shall be 844
except that a protection order may be obtained under this 846
appealable order. The remedies and procedures provided in this 850
available civil or criminal remedies. 852

(2) If as provided in division (G) (1) of this section an 853
order issued under this section, other than an ex parte order, 854
be expunged after either of the following occurs: 858

(a) The period of the notice of appeal from the order that 859
refuses to grant a protection order has expired. 860

that order is taken affirms the order. 863

(H) The filing of proceedings under this section does not 864
law. 867

(I) Any law enforcement agency that investigates an 868 alleged violation of section 2903.211 of the Revised Code or an 869 alleged commission of a sexually oriented offense shall provide 870 information to the victim and the family or household members of 871 the victim regarding the relief available under this section and 872

section 2903.213 of the Revised Code. 873

(J) (1) Subject to division (J) (2) of this section and 874
regardless of whether a protection order is issued or a consent 875
section, in connection with the filing, issuance, registration, 880
for obtaining a certified copy of a protection order or consent 883
agreement. 884

(2) Regardless of whether a protection order is issued or 885
a consent agreement is approved pursuant to this section, the 886
the filing, issuance, registration, modification, enforcement, 888
dismissal, withdrawal, or service of a protection order, consent 889
agreement, or witness subpoena or for obtaining a certified copy 890
of a protection order or consent agreement. 891

under this section is subject to the following sanctions: 893

(a) Criminal prosecution for a violation of section 894 2919.27 of the Revised Code, if the violation of the protection 895 order constitutes a violation of that section; 896

(b) Punishment for contempt of court. 897

violation of a protection order issued under this section does 899

not bar criminal prosecution of the person for a violation of 900 section 2919.27 of the Revised Code. However, a person punished 901 for contempt of court is entitled to credit for the punishment 902 imposed upon conviction of a violation of that section, and a 903 person convicted of a violation of that section shall not 904 subsequently be punished for contempt of court arising out of 905 the same activity. 906

(L) In all stages of a proceeding under this section, a 907

this section or a protection order under section 2903.213 of the 910 Revised Code may provide notice of the issuance or approval of 911
county other than the county in which the order is issued by 913
registering that order in the other county pursuant to division 914
(M) (2) of this section and filing a copy of the registered order 915
with a law enforcement agency in the other county in accordance 916
officials in any county of this state by registering the order 920
and filing a copy of the registered order with a law enforcement 922
agency in that county. 923

(2) A petitioner may register a protection order issued 924
pursuant to this section or section 2903.213 of the Revised Code 925 in a county other than the county in which the court that issued 926 the order is located in the following manner: 927

(a) The petitioner shall obtain a certified copy of the 928

pleas or the clerk of a municipal court or county court in the 931
county in which the order is to be registered. 932

(b) Upon accepting the certified copy of the order for 933
registration on the order and give the petitioner a copy of the 936
order that bears that proof of registration. 937

(3) The clerk of each court of common pleas, municipal 938
other counties pursuant to this section or section 2903.213 of 941 the Revised Code and that have been registered with the clerk. 942

(N) (1) If the court orders electronic monitoring of the 943
respondent under this section, the court shall direct the 944
of the installation and monitoring of the electronic monitoring 949
general under division (N) (2) of this section, the cost of the 953 installation and monitoring of the electronic monitoring device 954 may be paid out of funds from the reparations fund created 955 pursuant to section 2743.191 of the Revised Code. The total 956 amount of costs for the installation and monitoring of 957 electronic monitoring devices paid pursuant to this division and 958 sections 2151.34 and 2919.27 of the Revised Code from the 959 reparations fund shall not exceed three hundred thousand dollars 960 per year. 961

(2) The attorney general may promulgate rules pursuant to 962 section 111.15 of the Revised Code to govern payments made from 963 the reparations fund pursuant to this division and sections 964 2151.34 and 2919.27 of the Revised Code. The rules may include 965 reasonable limits on the total cost paid pursuant to this 966 division and sections 2151.34 and 2919.27 of the Revised Code 967 per respondent, the amount of the three hundred thousand dollars 968 allocated to each county, and how invoices may be submitted by a 969 county, court, or other entity. 970

Sec. 2919.26. (A) (1) Upon the filing of a complaint that 971 alleges a violation of section 2909.06, 2909.07, 2911.12, or 972 2911.211 of the Revised Code if the alleged victim of the 973 violation was a family or household member at the time of the 974 violation, a violation of a municipal ordinance that is 975 substantially similar to any of those sections if the alleged 976 victim of the violation was a family or household member at the 977 time of the violation, any offense of violence if the alleged 978 victim of the offense was a family or household member at the 979 time of the commission of the offense, or any sexually oriented 980 offense if the alleged victim of the offense was a family or 981 household member at the time of the commission of the offense, 982
member of an alleged victim may file, or, if in an emergency the 984 alleged victim is unable to file, a person who made an arrest 985 for the alleged violation or offense under section 2935.03 of 986 the Revised Code may file on behalf of the alleged victim, a 987 motion that requests the issuance of a temporary protection 988 order as a pretrial condition of release of the alleged 989 offender, in addition to any bail set under Criminal Rule 46. 990

The motion shall be filed with the clerk of the court that has 991 jurisdiction of the case at any time after the filing of the 992 complaint. 993

(2) For purposes of section 2930.09 of the Revised Code, 994 all stages of a proceeding arising out of a complaint alleging 995 the commission of a violation, offense of violence, or sexually 996 oriented offense described in division (A)(1) of this section, 997 including all proceedings on a motion for a temporary protection 998 order, are critical stages of the case, and a victim may be 999 accompanied by a victim advocate or another person to provide 1000 support to the victim as provided in that section. 1001

(B) The motion shall be prepared on a form that is 1002 provided by the clerk of the court, which form shall be 1003 substantially as follows: 1004

protection order containing terms designed to ensure the safety 1013 and protection of the complainant, alleged victim, and other 1014 family or household members, in relation to the named defendant, 1015 pursuant to its authority to issue such an order under section 1016

A complaint, a copy of which has been attached to this 1018 motion, has been filed in this court charging the named 1019 defendant with (name of the specified 1020 violation, the offense of violence, or sexually oriented offense 1021 charged) in circumstances in which the victim was a family or 1022 household member in violation of (section of the Revised Code 1023 designating the specified violation, offense of violence, or 1024 sexually oriented offense charged), or charging the named 1025 defendant with a violation of a municipal ordinance that is 1026 substantially similar to (section of 1027 the Revised Code designating the specified violation, offense of 1028 violence, or sexually oriented offense charged) involving a 1029

I understand that I must appear before the court, at a 1031 time set by the court within twenty-four hours after the filing 1032
unable to appear because of hospitalization or a medical 1034 condition resulting from the offense alleged in the complaint, a 1035 person who can provide information about my need for a temporary 1036 protection order must appear before the court in lieu of my 1037 appearing in court. I understand that any temporary protection 1038 order granted pursuant to this motion is a pretrial condition of 1039 release and is effective only until the disposition of the 1040 criminal proceeding arising out of the attached complaint, or 1041 the issuance of a civil protection order or the approval of a 1042 consent agreement, arising out of the same activities as those 1043 that were the basis of the complaint, under section 3113.31 of 1044 the Revised Code. 1045

Signature of person 1047

(or signature of the arresting officer who filed the 1048 motion on behalf of the alleged victim) 1049
..... 1050
Address of person (or office address of the arresting 1051 officer who filed the motion on behalf of the alleged victim)" 1052
(C) (1) As soon as possible after the filing of a motion 1053 that requests the issuance of a temporary protection order, but 1054 not later than twenty-four hours after the filing of the motion, 1055 the court shall conduct a hearing to determine whether to issue 1056 the order. The person who requested the order shall appear 1057 before the court and provide the court with the information that 1058 it requests concerning the basis of the motion. If the person 1059 who requested the order is unable to appear and if the court 1060 finds that the failure to appear is because of the person's 1061 hospitalization or medical condition resulting from the offense 1062 alleged in the complaint, another person who is able to provide 1063 the court with the information it requests may appear in lieu of 1064 the person who requested the order. If the court finds that the 1065 safety and protection of the complainant, alleged victim, or any 1066 other family or household member of the alleged victim may be 1067 impaired by the continued presence of the alleged offender, the 1068 court may issue a temporary protection order, as a pretrial 1069 condition of release, that contains terms designed to ensure the 1070 safety and protection of the complainant, alleged victim, or the 1071 family or household member, including a requirement that the 1072 alleged offender refrain from entering the residence, school, 1073 business, or place of employment of the complainant, alleged 1074 victim, or the family or household member. The court may include 1075 within a protection order issued under this section a term 1076 requiring that the alleged offender not remove, damage, hide, 1077 harm, or dispose of any companion animal owned or possessed by 1078

the complainant, alleged victim, or any other family or 1079 household member of the alleged victim, and may include within 1080 the order a term authorizing the complainant, alleged victim, or 1081 other family or household member of the alleged victim to remove 1082 a companion animal owned by the complainant, alleged victim, or 1083 other family or household member from the possession of the 1084
alleged offender. 1085

(2) (a) If the court issues a temporary protection order 1086 that includes a requirement that the alleged offender refrain 1087 from entering the residence, school, business, or place of 1088 employment of the complainant, the alleged victim, or the family 1089 or household member, the order shall state clearly that the 1090 order cannot be waived or nullified by an invitation to the 1091 alleged offender from the complainant, alleged victim, or family 1092 or household member to enter the residence, school, business, or 1093 place of employment or by the alleged offender's entry into one 1094 of those places otherwise upon the consent of the complainant, 1095 alleged victim, or family or household member. 1096

charged with a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, 1099
with a violation of a municipal ordinance substantially 1100
charge is based on an alleged violation of a temporary 1102 protection order issued under this section, did not commit the 1103 violation or was not in contempt of court. 1104

(D) (1) Upon the filing of a complaint that alleges a 1105 violation of section 2909.06, 2909.07, 2911.12, or 2911.211 of 1106 the Revised Code if the alleged victim of the violation was a 1107 family or household member at the time of the violation, a 1108 violation of a municipal ordinance that is substantially similar 1109 to any of those sections if the alleged victim of the violation 1110 was a family or household member at the time of the violation, 1111 any offense of violence if the alleged victim of the offense was 1112 a family or household member at the time of the commission of 1113 the offense, or any sexually oriented offense if the alleged 1114 victim of the offense was a family or household member at the 1115 time of the commission of the offense, the court, upon its own 1116 motion, may issue a temporary protection order as a pretrial 1117 condition of release if it finds that the safety and protection 1118 of the complainant, alleged victim, or other family or household 1119 member of the alleged offender may be impaired by the continued 1120 presence of the alleged offender. 1121

(2) (a) If the court issues a temporary protection order 1122
under this section as an ex parte order, it shall conduct, as 1123 soon as possible after the issuance of the order, a hearing in 1124 the presence of the alleged offender not later than the next day 1125 on which the court is scheduled to conduct business after the 1126 day on which the alleged offender was arrested or at the time of 1127 the appearance of the alleged offender pursuant to summons to 1128 determine whether the order should remain in effect, be 1129 modified, or be revoked. The hearing shall be conducted under 1130

(b) If at a hearing conducted under division (D) (2) (a) of 1132
the court issued should be revoked, the court, on its own 1134
motion, shall order that the ex parte order that is revoked and 1135
expunged. 1137

(3) An order issued under this section shall contain only 1138 those terms authorized in orders issued under division (C) of 1139
this section. 1140

(4) If a municipal court or a county court issues a 1141 temporary protection order under this section and if, subsequent 1142 to the issuance of the order, the alleged offender who is the 1143 subject of the order is bound over to the court of common pleas 1144 for prosecution of a felony arising out of the same activities 1145 as those that were the basis of the complaint upon which the 1146 order is based, notwithstanding the fact that the order was 1147 issued by a municipal court or county court, the order shall 1148 remain in effect, as though it were an order of the court of 1149 common pleas, while the charges against the alleged offender are 1150 pending in the court of common pleas, for the period of time 1151 described in division (E) (2) of this section, and the court of 1152 common pleas has exclusive jurisdiction to modify the order 1153 issued by the municipal court or county court. This division 1154 applies when the alleged offender is bound over to the court of 1155 common pleas as a result of the person waiving a preliminary 1156 hearing on the felony charge, as a result of the municipal court 1157 or county court having determined at a preliminary hearing that 1158 there is probable cause to believe that the felony has been 1159 committed and that the alleged offender committed it, as a 1160 result of the alleged offender having been indicted for the 1161 felony, or in any other manner. 1162

(E) A temporary protection order that is issued as a 1163 pretrial condition of release under this section: 1164

(2) Is effective only until the occurrence of either of 1167

the following: 1168

(a) The disposition, by the court that issued the order 1169 or, in the circumstances described in division (D) (4) of this 1170 section, by the court of common pleas to which the alleged 1171 offender is bound over for prosecution, of the criminal 1172 proceeding arising out of the complaint upon which the order is 1173 based; 1174

(b) The issuance of a protection order or the approval of 1175 a consent agreement, arising out of the same activities as those 1176 that were the basis of the complaint upon which the order is 1177 based, under section 3113.31 of the Revised Code. 1178

offender committed the alleged offense, and shall not be 1180
introduced as evidence of the commission of the offense at the 1181
trial of the alleged offender on the complaint upon which the 1182
order is based. 1183

(F) A person who meets the criteria for bail under 1184
Criminal Rule 46 and who, if required to do so pursuant to that 1185
rule, executes or posts bond or deposits cash or securities as 1186 bail, shall not be held in custody pending a hearing before the 1187 court on a motion requesting a temporary protection order. 1188

(G) (1) A copy of any temporary protection order that is 1189 issued under this section shall be issued by the court to the 1190 complainant, to the alleged victim, to the person who requested 1191 the order, to the defendant, and to all law enforcement agencies 1192 that have jurisdiction to enforce the order. The protection 1193 order shall be in a form that ensures that the protection order 1194 is accepted into the protection order database of the national 1195 crime information center (NCIC) maintained by the federal bureau 1196 of investigation. The court shall direct that a copy of the 1197 order be delivered to the defendant on the same day that the 1198 order is entered. If a municipal court or a county court issues 1199 a temporary protection order under this section and if, 1200 subsequent to the issuance of the order, the defendant who is 1201 the subject of the order is bound over to the court of common 1202 pleas for prosecution as described in division (D)(4) of this 1203 section, the municipal court or county court shall direct that a 1204 copy of the order be delivered to the court of common pleas to 1205 which the defendant is bound over. 1206

(2) Upon the issuance of a protection order under this 1207
section, the court shall provide the parties to the order with 1208

"NOTICE 1210

As a result of this protection order, it may be unlawful 1211 for you to possess or purchase a firearm, including a rifle, 1212 pistol, or revolver, or ammunition pursuant to federal law under 1213 18 U.S.C. 922(g)(8). If you have any questions whether this law 1214 makes it illegal for you to possess or purchase a firearm or 1215 ammunition, you should consult an attorney." 1216

(3) All law enforcement agencies shall establish and 1217 maintain an index for the temporary protection orders delivered 1218 to the agencies pursuant to division (G)(1) of this section. 1219 With respect to each order delivered, each agency shall note on 1220 the index, the date and time of the receipt of the order by the 1221 agency. Each protection order received by a law enforcement 1222 agency pursuant to this section shall be entered into the law 1223 enforcement automated data system created by section 5503.10 of 1224
after receipt. 1226

(4) A complainant, alleged victim, or other person who 1227 obtains a temporary protection order under this section may 1228 provide notice of the issuance of the temporary protection order 1229 to the judicial and law enforcement officials in any county 1230 other than the county in which the order is issued by 1231 registering that order in the other county in accordance with 1232 division (N) of section 3113.31 of the Revised Code and filing a 1233 copy of the registered protection order with a law enforcement 1234 agency in the other county in accordance with that division. 1235

(5) Any officer of a law enforcement agency shall enforce 1236 a temporary protection order issued by any court in this state 1237
removing the defendant from the premises, regardless of whether 1239 the order is registered in the county in which the officer's 1240 agency has jurisdiction as authorized by division (G) (4) of this 1241
section. 1242

(H) Upon a violation of a temporary protection order, the 1243 court may issue another temporary protection order, as a 1244 pretrial condition of release, that modifies the terms of the 1245 order that was violated. 1246

(2) If a complaint is filed that alleges that a person 1252 committed a violation, offense of violence, or sexually oriented 1253 offense of the type described in division (A) of this section, 1254 the court may not issue a temporary protection order under this 1255 section that requires the complainant, the alleged victim, or 1256 another family or household member of the defendant to do or 1257 refrain from doing an act that the court may require the 1258 defendant to do or refrain from doing under a temporary 1259 protection order unless both of the following apply: 1260

(a) The defendant has filed a separate complaint that 1261 alleges that the complainant, alleged victim, or other family or 1262 household member in question who would be required under the 1263 order to do or refrain from doing the act committed a violation 1264 or offense of violence of the type described in division (A) of 1265
this section. 1266

(b) The court determines that both the complainant, 1267 alleged victim, or other family or household member in question 1268 doing the act and the defendant acted primarily as aggressors, 1270 that neither the complainant, alleged victim, or other family or 1271 household member in question who would be required under the 1272

order to do or refrain from doing the act nor the defendant 1273 acted primarily in self-defense, and, in accordance with the 1274 standards and criteria of this section as applied in relation to 1275 the separate complaint filed by the defendant, that it should 1276 issue the order to require the complainant, alleged victim, or 1277 other family or household member in question to do or refrain 1278 from doing the act. 1279

(J) (1) Subject to division (J) (2) of this section and 1280

for obtaining a certified copy of a protection order or consent 1289
agreement. 1290

(2) Regardless of whether a protection order is issued or 1291
a consent agreement is approved pursuant to this section, if the 1292
defendant is convicted the court may assess costs against the 1293
defendant in connection with the filing, issuance, registration, 1294

temporarily enjoining the respondent from having in the 1798
or any firearm. 1800

(2) A petition filed under division (A) (1) of this section 1801 shall do all of the following: 1802

(a) Allege facts showing that the respondent presents a 1803 significant risk in the near future of committing suicide, 1804 committing another form of serious self-harm less than death, or 1805 causing physical injury to another person; 1806

(b) Identify the number, types, and locations of any 1807 deadly weapons or firearms the petitioner believes to be in the 1808 respondent's possession, custody, or control at the time the 1809 petition is filed; 1810

(c) Include the respondent's residence address at the time 1811 the petition is filed as well as any other information the 1812 petitioner has concerning the whereabouts of the respondent, so 1813 that service of the petition on the respondent promptly can be 1814 made under division (A) (6) of this section; 1815

(d) Identify whether there is a current protection order 1816 or restraining order governing the respondent under section 1817
2151.34, 2903.213, 2903.214, 2919.26, or 3113.31 of the Revised 1818
Code or under any other applicable statute. 1819

(3) A petition for an extreme risk protection order filed 1820 under division (A) (1) of this section shall be supported by a 1821 written affidavit signed by the petitioner under oath, an oral 1822 statement given by the petitioner under oath, or any other 1823 admissible evidence the petitioner may choose to produce that 1824 sets forth the facts alleged in the petition that give rise to a 1825 reasonable belief on the part of the petitioner that the 1826 respondent presents a significant risk of the type described in 1827 the petition. If the petitioner is a law enforcement officer, 1828 the law enforcement officer also shall include in the affidavit 1829 under oath that the officer has conducted an independent 1830 investigation of the circumstances giving rise to the filing of 1831 the petition and that there is good cause for the filing of the 1832
petition. 1833

(4) In any proceeding before the court in which the 1834 petitioner is seeking an extreme risk protection order or an 1835 extension of an existing extreme risk protection order, the 1836 petitioner has the burden of proof. 1837

(5) In any proceeding before the court in which the 1838
petitioner is seeking an extreme risk protection order, the 1839 Rules of Civil Procedure and the Rules of Evidence shall apply. 1840

(6) Upon the filing of a petition for an extreme risk 1841 protection order under division (A)(1) of this section, the 1842 court shall set a date for a hearing on the petition that is not 1843 later than three calendar days after the day on which the 1844 petition is filed. On the same business day the petitioner files 1845 the petition, the court shall direct a law enforcement officer 1846 to serve on the respondent a copy of the petition and a notice 1847 of the hearing. The notice of the hearing shall notify the 1848 respondent of the date, time, and location of the hearing and of 1849 the respondent's opportunity to be heard to contest the issuance 1850 of an extreme risk protection order. On motion of the petitioner 1851 or respondent, or on its own motion, the court may grant a 1852 continuance of the hearing for any of the circumstances or 1853 reasons identified in divisions (A)(6)(a) to (d) of this section 1854 and, upon granting a continuance, the court shall notify the 1855 petitioner and respondent of the new date, time, and location of 1856 the hearing. Under any of the following circumstances or for any 1857 of the following reasons, the court may grant a continuance of 1858 the hearing to a reasonable time determined by the court: 1859

(a) Prior to the date scheduled for the hearing under this 1860 division, the respondent has not been served with the petition 1861 filed under this section and the notice of the hearing. 1862

(b) The petitioner and the respondent consent to the 1863 continuance. 1864

(c) The continuance is to allow either the petitioner or 1865 the respondent to obtain counsel. 1866

(d) The continuance is needed for other good cause. 1867

(B) (1) At the hearing for an extreme risk protection order 1868 provided under division (A) (6) of this section, the petitioner 1869 must prove, by clear and convincing evidence, that the 1870 respondent presents a significant risk of committing suicide, 1871 committing another form of serious self-harm less than death, or 1872 causing physical injury to another person in the near future to 1873 such an extent that the respondent should be immediately and 1874 temporarily enjoined from having in the respondent's possession, 1875 custody, or control any deadly weapon or any firearm. If the 1876 court at the hearing finds that the petitioner has so proved, 1877 the court may issue an extreme risk protection order. Absent 1878 such a finding, the court shall not issue an extreme risk 1879 protection order. 1880

(2) In determining whether to issue an extreme risk 1881 protection order under this section, the court shall consider 1882 all of the factors listed in division (D) of this section. 1883

(3) If the court at the hearing provided under division 1884
(A) (6) of this section finds, by clear and convincing evidence, 1885 that an extreme risk protection order should be issued and 1886 issues the order, the order shall include all of the following: 1887

(a) A statement of the evidence presented and the court's 1888 findings supporting issuance of the order; 1889

(b) The date the order was issued; 1890

(c) The duration of the order, which shall be not longer 1891 than one hundred eighty days after the date on which a copy of 1892 the proof of a voluntary transfer or an affidavit is filed with 1893

a court under division (A) (2) of section 3113.28 of the Revised 1894
that section; 1896

(d) A notice to the respondent that, beginning ninety days 1897 after a copy of the proof of a voluntary transfer is filed with 1898
a court under division (A) (2) of section 3113.28 of the Revised 1899
that section, the respondent may file a petition with the court 1901 pursuant to section 3113.29 of the Revised Code for a hearing 1902 under that section to reclaim possession of the respondent's 1903 deadly weapons or firearms; 1904

(e) A notice that the order can be appealed to the court 1905 of appeals; 1906

(f) A notice that the issuance of an extreme risk 1907 protection order under division (B) of this section shall make 1908 it unlawful for the respondent to possess, purchase, acquire, or 1909 obtain a deadly weapon or firearm, including ammunition, while 1910
the extreme risk protection order is in effect. 1911

(4) If the court issues an extreme risk protection order 1912 under division (B) of this section, the court shall immediately 1913 direct a law enforcement officer to serve the order on the 1914 respondent as soon as possible, either at the residence address 1915 of the respondent as set forth in the petition or at any other 1916 location that either the petitioner or the law enforcement 1917 officer has reason to believe the respondent can be found and 1918 served. After the law enforcement officer serves the order on 1919 the respondent, the officer shall file with the court notice of 1920 service on the respondent. The notice of service shall state the 1921 date and time the respondent was served and the location at 1922 which the respondent was served. 1923

(5) An extreme risk protection order issued under division 1924
(B) of this section shall order the respondent, within twenty- 1925 four hours of being served with a copy of the order, to transfer 1926 all deadly weapons and all firearms in the respondent's 1927 possession, custody, or control, in accordance with division (A) 1928 of section 3113.28 of the Revised Code. The order also shall 1929 inform the respondent that, if the respondent does not transfer 1930 the deadly weapons and firearms in accordance with that 1931 provision, the court will issue a warrant as described in this 1932 division for seizure of the deadly weapons and firearms. 1933

If the respondent does not transfer all deadly weapons and 1934 all firearms under the respondent's possession, custody, or 1935 control within twenty-four hours in accordance with division (A) 1936 of section 3113.28 of the Revised Code, the court shall issue a 1937 warrant under division (B) of that section commanding a law 1938 enforcement officer in the county in which the respondent 1939 resides to enter the respondent's residence or any other 1940 property owned, leased, or controlled by the respondent to 1941 search for and seize all deadly weapons and firearms in the 1942
respondent's possession, custody, or control. 1943

(C) (1) If a petitioner who files a petition for an extreme 1944 risk protection order under division (A) (1) of this section has 1945 a good faith belief that the respondent presents a significant 1946 and imminent risk of committing suicide, committing another form 1947 of serious self-harm less than death, or causing physical injury 1948 to another person, the petitioner may seek an ex parte extreme 1949 risk protection order. If the petitioner chooses to seek an ex 1950 parte extreme risk protection order, the petition shall state 1951 that the relief sought is an ex parte order. A petition for an 1952 ex parte extreme risk protection order and the accompanying 1953 affidavit shall do all of the following: 1954

(a) Comply with the requirements set forth in divisions 1955
(A) (2) and (3) of this section; 1956

(b) Allege and contain evidence of specific statements or 1957 actions by the respondent, or any other information about the 1958 respondent, that created in the petitioner a reasonable belief 1959 that the respondent may act imminently. 1960

(2) If a petitioner who files a petition under division 1961
(A) (1) of this section requests an ex parte extreme risk 1962 protection order, the court shall hold an ex parte hearing on 1963 the same day the petition is filed or on the next calendar day 1964 immediately following the filing of the petition. The ex parte 1965 hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the Rules of Civil 1966 Procedure and the Rules of Evidence. The court shall either 1967 grant or deny the request for an ex parte extreme risk 1968 protection order the same day that the ex parte hearing is held. 1969

(3) At an ex parte hearing for an extreme risk protection 1970 order conducted under division (C) (2) of this section, the 1971 petitioner must prove, by clear and convincing evidence, that 1972 the respondent presents a significant and imminent risk of 1973 committing suicide, committing another form of serious self-harm 1974 less than death, or causing physical injury to another person to 1975 such an extent that the respondent should be immediately and 1976
temporarily enjoined from having in the respondent's possession, 1977 custody, or control any deadly weapon or any firearm. If the 1978 court finds that the petitioner has so proved, the court may 1979 issue an ex parte extreme risk protection order. Absent such a 1980 finding, the court shall not issue an ex parte extreme risk 1981
protection order. 1982

If the court issues an ex parte extreme risk protection 1983 order, or if the petitioner requests an ex parte order but the 1984 court does not issue the ex parte order, the court shall 1985 schedule a full hearing as provided in division (A) (6) of this 1986 section, to be held not later than seventy-two hours after the 1987 ex parte order is issued or the date on which the hearing is 1988 held and the ex parte order is not issued, whichever is 1989 applicable. The full hearing may be continued for any of the 1990 reasons set forth in divisions (A) (6) (a) to (d) of this section 1991 and, if the hearing is continued, the court shall notify the 1992 petitioner and respondent of the date, time, and location of the 1993 new hearing. 1994

(4) In determining whether to issue an ex parte extreme 1995 risk protection order under this section, the court shall 1996 consider all of the factors listed in division (D) of this 1997
section. 1998

(5) If the court at a hearing conducted under division (C) 1999
(2) of this section finds, by clear and convincing evidence, 2000 that an ex parte extreme risk protection order should be issued 2001 and issues the order, the order shall include all of the 2002
following: 2003

(a) A statement of the evidence presented and the court's 2004
findings supporting issuance of the order; 2005

(b) The date and time the order was issued; 2006

(c) The duration of the ex parte order, which shall be not 2007 longer than seventy-two hours from the date on which, and time 2008 at which, the order was issued or until the date and time the 2009 full hearing scheduled under division (C) (3) of this section is 2010 held, whichever period is longer; 2011

(d) Notice of the date, time, and location of the full 2012 hearing scheduled under division (C) (3) of this section and of 2013

of the extreme risk protection order; 2015

(e) Notice that the issuance of an ex parte extreme risk 2016 protection order under division (C) of this section shall make 2017
it unlawful for the respondent to possess, purchase, acquire, or 2018
obtain a deadly weapon or firearm, including ammunition, while 2019
the ex parte extreme risk protection order is in effect. 2020

(6) If the court issues an ex parte extreme risk 2021 protection order under division (C) of this section, the court 2022
shall do all of the following: 2023

(a) Immediately direct a law enforcement officer to serve 2024 the order, a copy of the petition, and the notice of the full 2025 hearing provided in division (A) (6) of this section on the 2026
respondent as soon as possible, either at the residence address 2027
of the respondent as set forth in the petition or at any other 2028 location either the petitioner or the law enforcement officer 2029 has reason to believe the respondent can be found and served. 2030 After the law enforcement officer serves the order, petition, 2031 and notice of the full hearing on the respondent, the officer 2032 shall file with the court notice of service on the respondent. 2033
The notice of service shall state the date and time the 2034 respondent was served and the location at which the respondent 2035 was served. 2036

(b) Issue a warrant under division (B) of section 3113.28 2037 of the Revised Code commanding a law enforcement officer in the 2038 county in which the respondent resides to enter the respondent's 2039 residence or any other property owned, leased, or controlled by 2040 the respondent to search for and seize all deadly weapons and 2041 firearms in the respondent's possession, custody, or control. 2042

(D) In determining whether to issue an extreme risk 2043 protection order, whether following an ex parte hearing or a 2044 full hearing, the court shall consider all of the following: 2045

(1) Recent threats or acts of violence by the respondent 2046
directed toward the petitioner; 2047

(2) Recent threats or acts of violence by the respondent 2048
directed toward any other person; 2049

(3) Recent acts of the respondent's cruelty to animals; 2050

(4) The respondent's reckless use, display, or brandishing 2051 of a deadly weapon or a firearm; 2052

(5) A history of suicide threats or attempts by the 2053 respondent or other attempts by the respondent to engage in any 2054 form of self-harm; 2055

(6) A history of the use, attempted use, or threatened use 2056 of physical force or violence by the respondent against another 2057 person; 2058

(7) The respondent's illegal use of controlled substances 2059 or abuse of alcohol; 2060

(8) A prior involuntary confinement of the respondent 2061 under section 5122.10 of the Revised Code as a person who is 2062 mentally ill subject to court order and represents a substantial 2063 risk of physical harm to self or others if allowed to remain at 2064 liberty pending examination; 2065

(9) Any other factors that are relevant to an evaluation 2066 of whether the respondent presents a significant risk, whether 2067 imminently or in the near future, of committing suicide, 2068 committing another form of self-harm less than death, or causing 2069 physical injury to another person. 2070

(E) Any evidence presented in a petition for an extreme risk protection order under division (A) (1) of this section or in any hearing on such a petition that the respondent has been diagnosed with any mental illness or any other mental health condition is not sufficient by itself for the court to issue an extreme risk protection order, whether ex parte or after a full hearing. For the extreme risk protection order to be issued, the court must find that one or more of the factors listed in division (D) of this section applies, in addition to any mental illness or any other mental health condition from which the respondent may suffer.

(F) (1) A copy of an extreme risk protection order or ex parte extreme risk protection order issued pursuant to division (B) or (C) of this section shall be issued to the petitioner, to the respondent, and to all law enforcement agencies that have jurisdiction to enforce the order.

(2) Any order issued under division (B) or (C) of this section shall be in a form that ensures the order is accepted into the protection order database of the National Crime Information Center (NCIC) maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

(3) Law enforcement agencies provided a copy of an order pursuant to division (F) (1) of this section shall ensure the order is entered into the law enforcement automated data system created by section 5503.10 of the Revised Code and known as LEADS within twenty-four hours of receipt.

Sec. 3113.28. (A) Any person who is a respondent subject to an extreme risk protection order issued under section 3113.27 of the Revised Code after a full hearing and who has been served with the order may voluntarily transfer all deadly weapons and firearms in the respondent's possession, custody, or control as 2101 described in this division. To voluntarily transfer the deadly 2102 weapons or firearms, the respondent shall comply with the 2103

following: 2104

(1) Within twenty-four hours after being served with the 2105 extreme risk protection order, the respondent shall transfer all 2106 deadly weapons and firearms in the respondent's possession, 2107 custody, or control to a law enforcement agency. The respondent 2108 shall provide a copy of the order to the law enforcement agency 2109 at the time of transfer. The law enforcement agency shall issue 2110 a proof of transfer to the respondent. The proof of transfer 2111 shall include the name of the respondent, the date of transfer, 2112 and the serial number, make, and model or any other relevant 2113 description of each transferred deadly weapon and firearm. 2114

(2) Within forty-eight hours after being served with the 2115 extreme risk protection order, the respondent shall do one of 2116
the following: 2117

(a) File a copy of the proof of transfer with the court 2118 that issued the order and an affidavit stating that all deadly 2119 weapons and firearms in the respondent's possession, custody, or 2120 control at the time the respondent was served with the order 2121 have been transferred in accordance with this division and that 2122 the respondent currently has no deadly weapons or firearms in 2123 the respondent's possession, custody, or control; 2124

(b) File an affidavit with the court that issued the order 2125 stating that at the time the respondent was served with the 2126 order, the respondent had no deadly weapons or firearms in the 2127 respondent's possession, custody, or control, and that the 2128 respondent currently has no deadly weapons or firearms in the 2129 respondent's possession, custody, or control. 2130

(B) If a respondent who is subject to an extreme risk 2131
protection order issued under section 3113.27 of the Revised 2132
Code following a full hearing does not voluntarily transfer all 2133 deadly weapons and firearms in compliance with division (A) of 2134 this section, or if a respondent is subject to an ex parte 2135 extreme risk protection order issued under section 3113.27 of 2136
the Revised Code, the court that issued the order shall issue a 2137 warrant to a law enforcement officer commanding the officer to 2138
possession or control of the respondent. The law enforcement 2140 officer who served the warrant, not later than forty-eight hours 2141 after the warrant was served, shall file a return with the court 2142 that states that the warrant was served and that sets forth the 2143 time and date on which the warrant was served, the name and 2144 address of the respondent named in the warrant, and the serial 2145 number, make, and model or any other relevant description of 2146 each deadly weapon and firearm seized by the law enforcement 2147 officer. 2148

(C) If a court issued an ex parte extreme risk protection 2149 order under section 3113.27 of the Revised Code and the 2150 respondent's deadly weapons or firearms were seized pursuant to 2151 division (B) of this section and if, at the full hearing held 2152 under division (A) (6) of section 3113.27 of the Revised Code 2153 subsequent to the issuance of the ex parte order, the court 2154 denies the petitioner's request to issue an extreme risk 2155 protection order under division (B) of that section, the law 2156 enforcement agency having possession of the respondent's deadly 2157 weapons or firearms under the ex parte order promptly shall 2158 return them to the respondent upon the respondent's request. 2159

(D) Any law enforcement agency that has taken possession 2160 of a respondent's deadly weapons or firearms pursuant to an 2161

protection order issued under section 3113.27 of the Revised 2163
Code, whether by a voluntary transfer by the respondent pursuant 2164 to division (A) of this section or by a seizure by a law 2165 enforcement officer pursuant to division (B) of this section, 2166 may transfer the respondent's deadly weapons or firearms for 2167 storage by the state highway patrol for the duration of the 2168 order. The state highway patrol shall issue the law enforcement 2169 agency that originally took possession of the respondent's 2170 deadly weapons or firearms a proof of transfer that includes the 2171 name and address of the respondent from whom the deadly weapons 2172 or firearms were received and the serial number, make, and model 2173 or any other relevant description of each transferred deadly 2174 weapon and firearm. The state highway patrol shall notify the 2175 court, the petitioner, and the respondent that the state highway 2176 patrol then is in possession of the respondent's deadly weapons 2177 or firearms. 2178

Sec. 3113.29. (A) An extreme risk protection order issued 2179 by a court after a full hearing pursuant to division (A) (6) of 2180 section 3113.27 of the Revised Code shall be for a period of not 2181 longer than one hundred eighty days beginning after a copy of 2182
the proof of a voluntary transfer or an affidavit is filed with 2183
a court under division (A) (2) of section 3113.28 of the Revised 2184
that section. 2186

(B) (1) With respect to an extreme risk protection order 2187 issued by a court after a full hearing pursuant to division (A) 2188
(6) of section 3113.27 of the Revised Code, beginning ninety 2189 days after a copy of the proof of a voluntary transfer or an 2190 affidavit is filed with a court under division (A) (2) of section 2191 3113.28 or a return is filed with a court under division (B) of 2192

that issued the order requesting a hearing to reclaim possession 2194 of the respondent's deadly weapons or firearms. 2195

(2) Upon receipt of a petition described in division (B) 2196
(1) of this section, the court shall schedule a hearing on the 2197 petition and notify the petitioner and the respondent of the 2198 date, time, and location of the hearing. 2199

(3) In a hearing on a petition described in division (B) 2200
(1) of this section, the respondent has the burden of proving by 2201 a preponderance of the evidence that the respondent no longer 2202 presents a significant risk, whether imminent or in the near 2203
future, of committing suicide, committing another form of 2204 serious self-harm less than death, or causing physical injury to 2205
another person to such an extent that the respondent should be 2206 enjoined from having in the respondent's possession, custody, or 2207 control any deadly weapon or any firearm. At any such hearing, 2208 the petitioner may present evidence to rebut the respondent's 2209 evidence or assertion that the respondent presently does not 2210 present such a risk. 2211

(4) Upon the completion of the hearing on a respondent's 2212 petition under division (B)(1) of this section and consideration 2213 of the record, the court shall do one of the following: 2214

(a) If the court finds that the respondent no longer 2215
presents a significant risk, whether imminent or in the near 2216
future, of committing suicide, committing another form of 2217
serious self-harm less than death, or causing physical injury to 2218
another person to such an extent that the respondent should be 2219
enjoined from having in the respondent's possession, custody, or 2220 control any deadly weapon or any firearm, the court shall grant 2221 the respondent's petition, terminate the extreme risk protection 2222 order, and order the law enforcement agency having custody of 2223 the deadly weapons or firearms to promptly return them to the 2224 respondent upon the respondent's request. Upon receipt of the 2225 order, the law enforcement agency promptly shall return the 2226 deadly weapons or firearms to the respondent upon the 2227

respondent's request. 2228

(b) If the court finds that the respondent continues to 2229 present a significant risk, whether imminent or in the near 2230
future, of committing suicide, committing another form of 2231
serious self-harm less than death, or causing physical injury to 2232
another person to such an extent that the respondent should be 2233
enjoined from having in the respondent's possession, custody, or 2234
control any deadly weapon or any firearm, the court shall deny 2235
the respondent's petition and the extreme risk protection order 2236 shall remain in effect for the remainder of the duration of the 2237 one-hundred-eighty-day period. In such a case, the respondent 2238 may not file a subsequent petition to reclaim the deadly weapons 2239 or firearms at any time during the remainder of the duration of 2240 the one-hundred-eighty-day period. 2241

(C) If an extreme risk protection order has been issued by 2242 a court after a full hearing pursuant to division (A) (6) of 2243
section 3113.27 of the Revised Code for a one-hundred-eighty-day 2244 period and if the court has not ordered that the respondent's 2245 deadly weapons or firearms be returned to the respondent after a 2246 hearing under division (B) of this section, unless the order is 2247 extended for an additional one-hundred-eighty-day period under 2248 division (D) of this section, at the conclusion of the one- 2249 hundred-eighty-day period the order terminates and the law 2250
weapons and firearms promptly shall return them to the 2252 respondent upon the respondent's request. 2253

(D) (1) If an extreme risk protection order has been issued 2254 by the court after a full hearing pursuant to division (A) (6) of 2255
section 3113.27 of the Revised Code for a one-hundred-eighty-day 2256
period and if the court has not ordered that the respondent's 2257
hearing under division (B) of this section, at any time prior to 2259 the day that is one hundred sixty-five days after the order was 2260 issued, the petitioner may file a motion with the court that 2261 issued the order to extend the order for an additional one- 2262 hundred-eighty-day period. Upon the filing of such a motion, the 2263 court shall schedule a hearing for a date and time that is prior 2264 to the expiration of the one-hundred-eighty-day period in the 2265 original extreme risk protection order. The court shall notify 2266 the petitioner and the respondent of the date, time, and 2267 location of the hearing. 2268

(2) At the hearing on a motion filed under division (D) (1) 2269 of this section, the petitioner must prove, by clear and 2270 convincing evidence, that the respondent continues to present a 2271 significant risk of committing suicide, committing another form 2272 of serious self-harm less than death, or causing physical injury 2273 to another person in the near future to such an extent that the 2274 respondent should remain temporarily enjoined from having in the 2275
or any firearm. 2277

(3) In determining at a hearing on a motion filed under 2278 division (D) (1) of this section whether to extend an extreme 2279 risk protection order, the court shall consider all of the 2280 factors listed in division (D) of section 3113.27 of the Revised 2281
Code. 2282

(4) Upon the completion of a hearing on the petitioner's 2283 motion filed under division (D)(1) of this section and 2284 consideration of the record, the court shall do one of the 2285

following: 2286

(a) If the court finds that the petitioner has not proven 2287 by clear and convincing evidence that the respondent continues 2288 to present a significant risk, whether imminent or in the near 2289 future, of committing suicide, committing another form of 2290
another person to such an extent that the respondent should be 2292
enjoined from having possession, custody, or control of any 2293
deadly weapon or any firearm, the court shall deny the 2294 petitioner's motion. If the court denies the petitioner's 2295 motion, the initial extreme risk protection order shall expire 2296 at the end of the current one-hundred-eighty-day period and the 2297 law enforcement agency having custody of the deadly weapons or 2298 firearms promptly shall return them to the respondent upon the 2299 respondent's request after the expiration of the one-hundred- 2300 eighty-day period. 2301

(b) If the court finds that the petitioner has proven by 2302 clear and convincing evidence that the respondent continues to 2303
future, of committing suicide, committing another form of 2305
serious self-harm less than death, or causing physical injury to 2306
another person to such an extent that the respondent should be 2307
enjoined from having possession, custody, or control of any 2308 deadly weapon or any firearm, the court shall grant the 2309 petitioner's motion and the court shall extend the current 2310 extreme risk protection order for an additional one-hundred- 2311 eighty-day period immediately following the expiration of the 2312 current one-hundred-eighty-day period. 2313

(5) Whether the court grants or denies the petitioner's 2314 motion under division (D)(1) of this section to extend the 2315 extreme risk protection order, the court shall make a written 2316 statement of the evidence presented and the court's findings 2317 supporting the grant or denial of the motion and provide the 2318 same to the petitioner and the respondent. 2319

(6) If the court grants the petitioner's motion under 2320 division (D)(1) of this section to extend the extreme risk 2321 protection order for an additional one hundred eighty days, the 2322 court shall do all of the following: 2323

(a) Notify the law enforcement agency that then possesses 2324 the respondent's deadly weapons or firearms that the court has 2325 extended the order for an additional one hundred eighty days; 2326

(b) Notify the respondent that the respondent may file a 2327 petition to reclaim the respondent's deadly weapons or firearms 2328 under the procedure set forth in division (B) of this section or 2329 that the respondent may appeal the one-hundred-eighty-day 2330 extension of the order to the court of appeals. 2331

(E) A law enforcement agency having custody of any deadly 2332 weapons or firearms that were voluntarily transferred by, or 2333 that were seized from, a respondent who was subject to an 2334
protection order issued under section 3113.27 of the Revised 2336 Code shall safely keep the deadly weapons and firearms until 2337 further order of the court that issued the order. 2338

(F)(1) A respondent who is subject to an extreme risk 2339 protection order or ex parte extreme risk protection order 2340 issued under section 3113.27 of the Revised Code and whose 2341 deadly weapons or firearms are in the possession of a law 2342 enforcement agency may request the court to order the law 2343 enforcement agency to sell one or more of the weapons or 2344 firearms that lawfully may be sold, with the sale to be at 2345 auction under division (A) (2) of section 2981.12 of the Revised 2346 Code as if the weapons or firearms were unclaimed or forfeited 2347 firearms in the custody of the agency, and to return the 2348 proceeds to the individual. The request shall specify each 2349 weapon or firearm the respondent wishes to be sold. 2350

(2) If the respondent requests a sale of one or more 2351 deadly weapons or firearms under division (F) (1) of this 2352 section, the court shall order the law enforcement agency having 2353 custody of the specified weapons or firearms to sell the 2354 specified weapons or firearms at auction under division (A) (2) 2355 of section 2981.12 of the Revised Code as if the specified 2356 weapons or firearms were unclaimed or forfeited weapons or 2357 firearms in the custody of the agency, unless the serial numbers 2358 of the specified weapons or firearms have been obliterated. 2359

(3) If a court issues an order under division (F) (2) of 2360 this section, the court's order must require that all deadly 2361 weapons or firearms that are subject to the order be sold not 2362 more than three months after receipt of the order, and that the 2363 proceeds of the sale be distributed as follows: 2364

(a) The law enforcement agency may retain not more than 2365 three per cent of the sale price to pay the costs of the sale, 2366 including administrative costs and the auctioneer's fee and, if 2367 the agency retains any of the sale price under authority of this 2368 provision, the remainder of the proceeds of the sale shall be 2369 returned to the individual who owns the weapon or the firearm. 2370

(b) If the law enforcement agency does not retain any of 2371 the sale price under authority of division (F) (3) (a) of this 2372 section, the entire amount of the proceeds shall be returned to 2373 the respondent or individual who owns the weapon or firearm that 2374 is sold. 2375

Sec. 3113.30. (A) No person shall file a petition for an 2376 extreme risk protection order or an ex parte extreme risk 2377 protection order under section 3113.27 of the Revised Code 2378 alleging that respondent presents a significant risk, whether 2379 imminent or in the near future, of committing suicide, 2380 committing another form of serious self-harm less than death, or 2381 causing physical injury to another person to such an extent that 2382 the respondent should be temporarily enjoined from having in the 2383
or any firearm if the person knows the allegation is false. 2385

(B) An individual injured in person or property by a 2386 violation of division (A) of this section has, and may recover 2387 full damages in, a civil action under section 2307.60 of the 2388 Revised Code. A civil action described in this division is in 2389 addition to, and does not preclude, any possible criminal 2390 prosecution of the person who violates division (A) of this 2391 section for the violation. 2392

Sec. 3113.31. (A) As used in this section: 2393

(1) "Domestic violence" means the occurrence of one or 2394 more of the following acts against a family or household member: 2395 injury; 2397

(b) Placing another person by the threat of force in fear 2398 of imminent serious physical harm or committing a violation of 2399 section 2903.211 or 2911.211 of the Revised Code; 2400

(c) Committing any act with respect to a child that would 2401

(d) Committing a sexually oriented offense. 2404

(2) "Court" means the domestic relations division of the 2405 court of common pleas in counties that have a domestic relations 2406 division and the court of common pleas in counties that do not 2407 have a domestic relations division, or the juvenile division of 2408 the court of common pleas of the county in which the person to 2409 be protected by a protection order issued or a consent agreement 2410 approved under this section resides if the respondent is less 2411 than eighteen years of age. 2412

(3) "Family or household member" means any of the 2413
following: 2414

(a) Any of the following who is residing with or has 2415 resided with the respondent: 2416

(i) A spouse, a person living as a spouse, or a former 2417 spouse of the respondent; 2418

(ii) A parent, a foster parent, or a child of the 2419 respondent, or another person related by consanguinity or 2420 affinity to the respondent; 2421

(iii) A parent or a child of a spouse, person living as a 2422 spouse, or former spouse of the respondent, or another person 2423

(b) The natural parent of any child of whom the respondent 2426 is the other natural parent or is the putative other natural 2427 parent. 2428

(4) "Person living as a spouse" means a person who is 2429 living or has lived with the respondent in a common law marital 2430 relationship, who otherwise is cohabiting with the respondent, 2431 or who otherwise has cohabited with the respondent within five 2432 years prior to the date of the alleged occurrence of the act in 2433 question. 2434

(5) "Victim advocate" means a person who provides support 2435
and assistance for a person who files a petition under this 2436

section 2950.01 of the Revised Code. 2439

(7) "Companion animal" has the same meaning as in section 2440
959.131 of the Revised Code. 2441

(8) "Expunge" has the same meaning as in section 2903.213 2442

(B) The court has jurisdiction over all proceedings under 2444
this section. The petitioner's right to relief under this 2445 section is not affected by the petitioner's leaving the 2446 residence or household to avoid further domestic violence. 2447

(C) A person may seek relief under this section on the 2448 person's own behalf, or any parent or adult household member may 2449 seek relief under this section on behalf of any other family or 2450 household member, by filing a petition with the court. The 2451 petition shall contain or state: 2452

(1) An allegation that the respondent engaged in domestic 2453 violence against a family or household member of the respondent, 2454 including a description of the nature and extent of the domestic 2455 violence; 2456

(2) The relationship of the respondent to the petitioner, 2457 and to the victim if other than the petitioner; 2458

(3) A request for relief under this section. 2459

(D) (1) If a person who files a petition pursuant to this 2460
section requests an ex parte order, the court shall hold an ex 2461 parte hearing on the same day that the petition is filed. The 2462 court, for good cause shown at the ex parte hearing, may enter 2463 any temporary orders, with or without bond, including, but not 2464 limited to, an order described in division (E) (1) (a), (b), or 2465 (c) of this section, that the court finds necessary to protect 2466 the family or household member from domestic violence. Immediate 2467 and present danger of domestic violence to the family or 2468 household member constitutes good cause for purposes of this 2469
section. Immediate and present danger includes, but is not 2470
limited to, situations in which the respondent has threatened 2471
the family or household member with bodily harm, in which the 2472 respondent has threatened the family or household member with a 2473 sexually oriented offense, or in which the respondent previously 2474 has been convicted of, pleaded guilty to, or been adjudicated a 2475 delinquent child for an offense that constitutes domestic 2476 violence against the family or household member. 2477

(2) (a) If the court, after an ex parte hearing, issues an 2478 order described in division (E) (1) (b) or (c) of this section, 2479
the court shall schedule a full hearing for a date that is 2480 within seven court days after the ex parte hearing. If any other 2481 type of protection order that is authorized under division (E) 2482 of this section is issued by the court after an ex parte 2483 hearing, the court shall schedule a full hearing for a date that 2484 is within ten court days after the ex parte hearing. The court 2485 shall give the respondent notice of, and an opportunity to be 2486 heard at, the full hearing. The court shall hold the full 2487 hearing on the date scheduled under this division unless the 2488 court grants a continuance of the hearing in accordance with 2489 this division. Under any of the following circumstances or for 2490 any of the following reasons, the court may grant a continuance 2491 of the full hearing to a reasonable time determined by the 2492

court: 2493

(i) Prior to the date scheduled for the full hearing under 2494
this division, the respondent has not been served with the 2495
hearing. 2497

(ii) The parties consent to the continuance. 2498

counsel. 2500

(iv) The continuance is needed for other good cause. 2501

(b) An ex parte order issued under this section does not 2502
expire because of a failure to serve notice of the full hearing 2503
grants a continuance under that division. 2506

(3) If a person who files a petition pursuant to this 2507
section does not request an ex parte order, or if a person 2508
parte order after an ex parte hearing, the court shall proceed 2510
matter. 2512

(E)(1) After an ex parte or full hearing, the court may 2513 grant any protection order, with or without bond, or approve any 2514 consent agreement to bring about a cessation of domestic 2515 violence against the family or household members. The order or 2516 agreement may: 2517

(a) Direct the respondent to refrain from abusing or from 2518 committing sexually oriented offenses against the family or 2519 household members; 2520

(b) Grant possession of the residence or household to the 2521 petitioner or other family or household member, to the exclusion 2522 of the respondent, by evicting the respondent, when the 2523 residence or household is owned or leased solely by the 2524 petitioner or other family or household member, or by ordering 2525 the respondent to vacate the premises, when the residence or 2526 household is jointly owned or leased by the respondent, and the 2527 petitioner or other family or household member; 2528

(c) When the respondent has a duty to support the 2529 petitioner or other family or household member living in the 2530 residence or household and the respondent is the sole owner or 2531 lessee of the residence or household, grant possession of the 2532 residence or household to the petitioner or other family or 2533 household member, to the exclusion of the respondent, by 2534 ordering the respondent to vacate the premises, or, in the case 2535 of a consent agreement, allow the respondent to provide 2536 suitable, alternative housing; 2537

(d) Temporarily allocate parental rights and 2538 responsibilities for the care of, or establish temporary 2539 parenting time rights with regard to, minor children, if no 2540 other court has determined, or is determining, the allocation of 2541 parental rights and responsibilities for the minor children or 2542 parenting time rights; 2543

(e) Require the respondent to maintain support, if the 2544 respondent customarily provides for or contributes to the 2545 support of the family or household member, or if the respondent 2546 has a duty to support the petitioner or family or household 2547 member; 2548

(f) Require the respondent, petitioner, victim of domestic 2549 violence, or any combination of those persons, to seek 2550 counseling; 2551

(g) Require the respondent to refrain from entering the 2552 residence, school, business, or place of employment of the 2553 petitioner or family or household member; 2554

(h) Grant other relief that the court considers equitable 2555 and fair, including, but not limited to, ordering the respondent 2556 to permit the use of a motor vehicle by the petitioner or other 2557 family or household member and the apportionment of household 2558 and family personal property; 2559

(i) Require that the respondent not remove, damage, hide, 2560
harm, or dispose of any companion animal owned or possessed by 2561
the petitioner; 2562

(j) Authorize the petitioner to remove a companion animal 2563 owned by the petitioner from the possession of the respondent; 2564

(k) Require a wireless service transfer in accordance with 2565 sections 3113.45 to 3113.459 of the Revised Code. 2566

(2) If a protection order has been issued pursuant to this 2567 section in a prior action involving the respondent and the 2568 petitioner or one or more of the family or household members or 2569 victims, the court may include in a protection order that it 2570 issues a prohibition against the respondent returning to the 2571 residence or household. If it includes a prohibition against the 2572 respondent returning to the residence or household in the order, 2573 it also shall include in the order provisions of the type 2574 described in division (E) (7) of this section. This division does 2575 not preclude the court from including in a protection order or 2576 consent agreement, in circumstances other than those described 2577 in this division, a requirement that the respondent be evicted 2578 from or vacate the residence or household or refrain from 2579 entering the residence, school, business, or place of employment 2580 of the petitioner or a family or household member, and, if the 2581 court includes any requirement of that type in an order or 2582 agreement, the court also shall include in the order provisions 2583 of the type described in division (E) (7) of this section. 2584

(3) (a) Any protection order issued or consent agreement 2585 approved under this section shall be valid until a date certain, 2586 but not later than five years from the date of its issuance or 2587 approval, or not later than the date a respondent who is less 2588 than eighteen years of age attains nineteen years of age, unless 2589 modified or terminated as provided in division (E) (8) of this 2590
section. 2591

(b) Subject to the limitation on the duration of an order 2592 or agreement set forth in division (E) (3) (a) of this section, 2593 any order under division (E) (1) (d) of this section shall 2594 terminate on the date that a court in an action for divorce, 2595 dissolution of marriage, or legal separation brought by the 2596 petitioner or respondent issues an order allocating parental 2597 rights and responsibilities for the care of children or on the 2598
date that a juvenile court in an action brought by the 2599
petitioner or respondent issues an order awarding legal custody 2600 of minor children. Subject to the limitation on the duration of 2601 an order or agreement set forth in division (E) (3) (a) of this 2602 section, any order under division (E) (1) (e) of this section 2603 shall terminate on the date that a court in an action for 2604 divorce, dissolution of marriage, or legal separation brought by 2605

the petitioner or respondent issues a support order or on the 2606
date that a juvenile court in an action brought by the 2607
petitioner or respondent issues a support order. 2608

(c) Any protection order issued or consent agreement 2609 approved pursuant to this section may be renewed in the same 2610 manner as the original order or agreement was issued or 2611 approved. 2612

(4) A court may not issue a protection order that requires 2613
under division (E) (1) (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (g), or (h) of 2616
this section unless all of the following apply: 2617

(a) The respondent files a separate petition for a 2618
protection order in accordance with this section. 2619

(b) The petitioner is served notice of the respondent's 2620 petition at least forty-eight hours before the court holds a 2621 hearing with respect to the respondent's petition, or the 2622 petitioner waives the right to receive this notice. 2623

(c) If the petitioner has requested an ex parte order 2624
pursuant to division (D) of this section, the court does not 2625
delay any hearing required by that division beyond the time 2626
with a hearing on the petition filed by the respondent. 2628

(d) After a full hearing at which the respondent presents 2629
evidence in support of the request for a protection order and 2630
the petitioner is afforded an opportunity to defend against that 2631
evidence, the court determines that the petitioner has committed 2632
an act of domestic violence or has violated a temporary 2633 protection order issued pursuant to section 2919.26 of the 2634

Revised Code, that both the petitioner and the respondent acted 2635 primarily as aggressors, and that neither the petitioner nor the 2636 respondent acted primarily in self-defense. 2637

(5) No protection order issued or consent agreement 2638 approved under this section shall in any manner affect title to 2639 any real property. 2640

(6) (a) If a petitioner, or the child of a petitioner, who 2641 obtains a protection order or consent agreement pursuant to 2642 division (E) (1) of this section or a temporary protection order 2643 pursuant to section 2919.26 of the Revised Code and is the 2644 subject of a parenting time order issued pursuant to section 2645 3109.051 or 3109.12 of the Revised Code or a visitation or 2646 companionship order issued pursuant to section 3109.051, 2647 3109.11, or 3109.12 of the Revised Code or division (E) (1) (d) of 2648 this section granting parenting time rights to the respondent, 2649 the court may require the public children services agency of the 2650 county in which the court is located to provide supervision of 2651 the respondent's exercise of parenting time or visitation or 2652 companionship rights with respect to the child for a period not 2653 to exceed nine months, if the court makes the following findings 2654 of fact: 2655

(i) The child is in danger from the respondent; 2656

(ii) No other person or agency is available to provide the 2657 supervision. 2658

(b) A court that requires an agency to provide supervision 2659 pursuant to division (E) (6) (a) of this section shall order the 2660 respondent to reimburse the agency for the cost of providing the 2661 supervision, if it determines that the respondent has sufficient 2662 income or resources to pay that cost. 2663

(7) (a) If a protection order issued or consent agreement 2664 approved under this section includes a requirement that the 2665 respondent be evicted from or vacate the residence or household 2666 or refrain from entering the residence, school, business, or 2667 place of employment of the petitioner or a family or household 2668 member, the order or agreement shall state clearly that the 2669 order or agreement cannot be waived or nullified by an 2670 invitation to the respondent from the petitioner or other family 2671 or household member to enter the residence, school, business, or 2672 place of employment or by the respondent's entry into one of 2673
other family or household member. 2675

(b) Division (E) (7) (a) of this section does not limit any 2676 discretion of a court to determine that a respondent charged 2677 with a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, with a 2678 violation of a municipal ordinance substantially equivalent to 2679 that section, or with contempt of court, which charge is based 2680 on an alleged violation of a protection order issued or consent 2681 agreement approved under this section, did not commit the 2682 violation or was not in contempt of court. 2683

(8) (a) The court may modify or terminate as provided in 2684 division (E) (8) of this section a protection order or consent 2685 agreement that was issued after a full hearing under this 2686 section. The court that issued the protection order or approved 2687 the consent agreement shall hear a motion for modification or 2688 termination of the protection order or consent agreement 2689 pursuant to division (E) (8) of this section. 2690

(b) Either the petitioner or the respondent of the 2691 original protection order or consent agreement may bring a 2692 motion for modification or termination of a protection order or 2693 consent agreement that was issued or approved after a full 2694 hearing. The court shall require notice of the motion to be made 2695 as provided by the Rules of Civil Procedure. If the petitioner 2696 for the original protection order or consent agreement has 2697 requested that the petitioner's address be kept confidential, 2698 the court shall not disclose the address to the respondent of 2699 the original protection order or consent agreement or any other 2700 person, except as otherwise required by law. The moving party 2701 has the burden of proof to show, by a preponderance of the 2702 evidence, that modification or termination of the protection 2703 order or consent agreement is appropriate because either the 2704 protection order or consent agreement is no longer needed or 2705

because the terms of the original protection order or consent 2706 agreement are no longer appropriate. 2707

(c) In considering whether to modify or terminate a 2708 protection order or consent agreement issued or approved under 2709 this section, the court shall consider all relevant factors, 2710 including, but not limited to, the following: 2711

(i) Whether the petitioner consents to modification or 2712
termination of the protection order or consent agreement; 2713

(ii) Whether the petitioner fears the respondent; 2714

(iii) The current nature of the relationship between the 2715 petitioner and the respondent; 2716

(iv) The circumstances of the petitioner and respondent, 2717 including the relative proximity of the petitioner's and 2718 respondent's workplaces and residences and whether the 2719 petitioner and respondent have minor children together; 2720

(v) Whether the respondent has complied with the terms and 2721 conditions of the original protection order or consent 2722

agreement; 2723

(vi) Whether the respondent has a continuing involvement 2724 with illegal drugs or alcohol; 2725

(vii) Whether the respondent has been convicted of, 2726 pleaded guilty to, or been adjudicated a delinquent child for an 2727 offense of violence since the issuance of the protection order 2728 or approval of the consent agreement; 2729

(viii) Whether any other protection orders, consent 2730 agreements, restraining orders, or no contact orders have been 2731 issued against the respondent pursuant to this section, section 2732 2919.26 of the Revised Code, any other provision of state law, 2733 or the law of any other state; 2734

(ix) Whether the respondent has participated in any 2735 domestic violence treatment, intervention program, or other 2736 counseling addressing domestic violence and whether the 2737 respondent has completed the treatment, program, or counseling; 2738

(x) The time that has elapsed since the protection order 2739 was issued or since the consent agreement was approved; 2740

(xi) The age and health of the respondent; 2741

(xii) When the last incident of abuse, threat of harm, or 2742 commission of a sexually oriented offense occurred or other 2743 relevant information concerning the safety and protection of the 2744 petitioner or other protected parties. 2745

(d) If a protection order or consent agreement is modified 2746 or terminated as provided in division (E) (8) of this section, 2747
the court shall issue copies of the modified or terminated order 2748 or agreement as provided in division (F) of this section. A 2749 petitioner may also provide notice of the modification or 2750 termination to the judicial and law enforcement officials in any 2751 county other than the county in which the order or agreement is 2752 modified or terminated as provided in division (N) of this 2753

section. 2754

(e) If the respondent moves for modification or 2755 termination of a protection order or consent agreement pursuant 2756 to this section and the court denies the motion, the court may 2757 assess costs against the respondent for the filing of the 2758 motion. 2759

(9) Any protection order issued or any consent agreement 2760 approved pursuant to this section shall include a provision that 2761 the court will automatically seal all of the records of the 2762 proceeding in which the order is issued or agreement approved on 2763 the date the respondent attains the age of nineteen years unless 2764 the petitioner provides the court with evidence that the 2765 respondent has not complied with all of the terms of the 2766 protection order or consent agreement. The protection order or 2767 consent agreement shall specify the date when the respondent 2768 attains the age of nineteen years. 2769

(F) (1) A copy of any protection order, or consent 2770 agreement, that is issued, approved, modified, or terminated 2771 under this section shall be issued by the court to the 2772
petitioner, to the respondent, and to all law enforcement 2773
agencies that have jurisdiction to enforce the order or 2774 agreement. The protection order or consent agreement shall be in 2775 a form that ensures that the protection order or consent 2776 agreement is accepted into the protection order database of the 2777 national crime information center (NCIC) maintained by the 2778 federal bureau of investigation. The court shall direct that a 2779 copy of an order be delivered to the respondent on the same day 2780 that the order is entered. 2781

(2) Upon the issuance of a protection order or the 2782 approval of a consent agreement under this section, the court 2783 shall provide the parties to the order or agreement with the 2784 following notice orally or by form: 2785

"NOTICE 2786

As a result of this order or consent agreement, it may be 2787 unlawful for you to possess or purchase a firearm, including a 2788 rifle, pistol, or revolver, or ammunition pursuant to federal 2789 law under 18 U.S.C. 922(g)(8). If you have any questions whether 2790 this law makes it illegal for you to possess or purchase a 2791 firearm or ammunition, you should consult an attorney." 2792

(3) All law enforcement agencies shall establish and 2793 maintain an index for the protection orders and the approved 2794 consent agreements delivered to the agencies pursuant to 2795 division (F)(1) of this section. With respect to each order and 2796 consent agreement delivered, each agency shall note on the index 2797 the date and time that it received the order or consent 2798 agreement. Each protection order and consent agreement received 2799 by a law enforcement agency pursuant to this section shall be 2800 entered into the law enforcement automated data system created 2801
by section 5503.10 of the Revised Code, and known as LEADS, 2802
within twenty-four hours after receipt. 2803

(4) Regardless of whether the petitioner has registered 2804
the order or agreement in the county in which the officer's 2805 agency has jurisdiction pursuant to division (N) of this 2806 section, any officer of a law enforcement agency shall enforce a 2807 protection order issued or consent agreement approved by any 2808 court in this state in accordance with the provisions of the 2809 order or agreement, including removing the respondent from the 2810 premises, if appropriate. 2811

(G) (1) Any proceeding under this section shall be 2812
conducted in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure, 2813 except that an order under this section may be obtained with or 2814 without bond. An order issued under this section, other than an 2815 ex parte order, that grants a protection order or approves a 2816 consent agreement, that refuses to grant a protection order or 2817 approve a consent agreement that modifies or terminates a 2818 protection order or consent agreement, or that refuses to modify 2819 or terminate a protection order or consent agreement, is a 2820 final, appealable order. The remedies and procedures provided in 2821 this section are in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other 2822
available civil or criminal remedies. 2823

(2) If as provided in division (G) (1) of this section an 2824
order issued under this section, other than an ex parte order, 2825 refuses to grant a protection order, the court, on its own 2826
section and all of the records pertaining to that ex parte order 2828
be expunged after either of the following occurs: 2829

(a) The period of the notice of appeal from the order that 2830
refuses to grant a protection order has expired. 2831

(b) The order that refuses to grant the protection order 2832
is appealed and an appellate court to which the last appeal of 2833
that order is taken affirms the order. 2834

(H) The filing of proceedings under this section does not 2835
excuse a person from filing any report or giving any notice 2836
required by section 2151.421 of the Revised Code or by any other 2837
law. When a petition under this section alleges domestic 2838 violence against minor children, the court shall report the 2839 fact, or cause reports to be made, to a county, township, or 2840 municipal peace officer under section 2151.421 of the Revised 2841

Code. 2842

(I) Any law enforcement agency that investigates a 2843 domestic dispute shall provide information to the family or 2844 household members involved regarding the relief available under 2845 this section and section 2919.26 of the Revised Code. 2846

(J) (1) Subject to divisions (E) (8) (e) and (J) (2) of this 2847 section and regardless of whether a protection order is issued 2848 or a consent agreement is approved by a court of another county 2849 or a court of another state, no court or unit of state or local 2850 government shall charge the petitioner any fee, cost, deposit, 2851 or money in connection with the filing of a petition pursuant to 2852 this section or in connection with the filing, issuance, 2853 registration, modification, enforcement, dismissal, withdrawal, 2854 or service of a protection order, consent agreement, or witness 2855 subpoena or for obtaining a certified copy of a protection order 2856 or consent agreement. 2857

(2) Regardless of whether a protection order is issued or 2858
a consent agreement is approved pursuant to this section, the 2859
court may assess costs against the respondent in connection with 2860
the filing, issuance, registration, modification, enforcement, 2861 dismissal, withdrawal, or service of a protection order, consent 2862
agreement, or witness subpoena or for obtaining a certified copy 2863
of a protection order or consent agreement. 2864

(K) (1) The court shall comply with Chapters 3119., 3121., 2865 3123., and 3125. of the Revised Code when it makes or modifies 2866 an order for child support under this section. 2867

(2) If any person required to pay child support under an order made under this section on or after April 15, 1985, or modified under this section on or after December 31, 1986, is found in contempt of court for failure to make support payments under the order, the court that makes the finding, in addition to any other penalty or remedy imposed, shall assess all court costs arising out of the contempt proceeding against the person and require the person to pay any reasonable attorney's fees of any adverse party, as determined by the court, that arose in relation to the act of contempt.

(L) (1) A person who violates a protection order issued or a consent agreement approved under this section is subject to the following sanctions:

(a) Criminal prosecution or a delinquent child proceeding for a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, if the violation of the protection order or consent agreement constitutes a violation of that section;

(b) Punishment for contempt of court.

(2) The punishment of a person for contempt of court for violation of a protection order issued or a consent agreement approved under this section does not bar criminal prosecution of the person or a delinquent child proceeding concerning the person for a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code. However, a person punished for contempt of court is entitled to credit for the punishment imposed upon conviction of or adjudication as a delinquent child for a violation of that section, and a person convicted of or adjudicated a delinquent child for a violation of that section shall not subsequently be punished for contempt of court arising out of the same activity.

(M) In all stages of a proceeding under this section, a petitioner may be accompanied by a victim advocate.

(N) (1) A petitioner who obtains a protection order or consent agreement under this section or a temporary protection order under section 2919.26 of the Revised Code may provide notice of the issuance or approval of the order or agreement to the judicial and law enforcement officials in any county other than the county in which the order is issued or the agreement is approved by registering that order or agreement in the other county pursuant to division (N) (2) of this section and filing a copy of the registered order or registered agreement with a law enforcement agency in the other county in accordance with that division. A person who obtains a protection order issued by a court of another state may provide notice of the issuance of the order to the judicial and law enforcement officials in any county of this state by registering the order in that county pursuant to section 2919.272 of the Revised Code and filing a copy of the registered order with a law enforcement agency in that county.

(2) A petitioner may register a temporary protection order, protection order, or consent agreement in a county other than the county in which the court that issued the order or approved the agreement is located in the following manner:

(a) The petitioner shall obtain a certified copy of the order or agreement from the clerk of the court that issued the order or approved the agreement and present that certified copy to the clerk of the court of common pleas or the clerk of a municipal court or county court in the county in which the order or agreement is to be registered.

(b) Upon accepting the certified copy of the order or agreement for registration, the clerk of the court of common 2927 pleas, municipal court, or county court shall place an 2928 endorsement of registration on the order or agreement and give 2929 the petitioner a copy of the order or agreement that bears that 2930 proof of registration. 2931

(3) The clerk of each court of common pleas, the clerk of 2932 each municipal court, and the clerk of each county court shall 2933 maintain a registry of certified copies of temporary protection 2934 orders, protection orders, or consent agreements that have been 2935 issued or approved by courts in other counties and that have 2936 been registered with the clerk. 2937

(O) Nothing in this section prohibits the domestic 2938 relations division of a court of common pleas in counties that 2939 have a domestic relations division or a court of common pleas in 2940 counties that do not have a domestic relations division from 2941 designating a minor child as a protected party on a protection 2942 order or consent agreement. 2943

Sec. 3113.99. (A) For purposes of this section: 2944

Code. 2949

(2) "Obligor" means a person who is required to pay 2950 support under a child support order. 2951

(B) (1) Whoever violates section 3113.06 of the Revised 2952
Code is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree. If the 2953 offender previously has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to a 2954 violation of section 3113.06 of the Revised Code or if the court 2955

finds that the offender has failed to pay the cost of child 2956 maintenance under section 3113.06 of the Revised Code for a 2957 total accumulated period of twenty-six weeks out of one hundred 2958 four consecutive weeks, whether or not the twenty-six weeks were 2959 consecutive, a violation of section 3113.06 of the Revised Code 2960 is a felony of the fifth degree. 2961

(2) Whoever violates division (A) of section 3113.30 of 2962 the Revised Code is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree. 2963

(C) An obligor who violates division (D) (1) (c) of section 2964
3113.21 of the Revised Code shall be fined not more than fifty 2965
dollars for a first offense, not more than one hundred dollars 2966 for a second offense, and not more than five hundred dollars for 2967
each subsequent offense. 2968

(D) An obligor who violates division (G) (2) of section 2969
3113.21 of the Revised Code shall be fined not more than fifty 2970 dollars for a first offense, not more than one hundred dollars 2971 for a second offense, and not more than five hundred dollars for 2972
each subsequent offense. 2973

(E) A fine amount imposed pursuant to division (C) or (D) 2974 of this section shall be paid to the division of child support 2975 in the department of human services or, pursuant to division (H) 2976 (4) of section 2301.35 of the Revised Code, the child support 2977 enforcement agency. The amount of the fine that does not exceed 2978 the amount of arrearage under the child support order shall be 2979 disbursed in accordance with the child support order. The amount 2980 of the fine that exceeds the amount of the arrearage order shall 2981 be called program income and collected in accordance with 2982
section 5101.325 of the Revised Code. 2983

Section 2. That existing sections 2151.34, 2903.213, 2984

2903.214, 2919.26, 2923.11, 2923.13, 2923.18, 2923.20, 2923.23, 2985 3113.31, and 3113.99 and section 2923.14 of the Revised Code are 2986 hereby repealed. 2987

Section 3. Section 2923.13 of the Revised Code is 2988 presented in this act as a composite of the section as amended 2989 by both Am. Sub. H.B. 234 and Am. Sub. S.B. 43 of the 130th 2990 General Assembly. The General Assembly, applying the principle 2991 stated in division (B) of section 1.52 of the Revised Code that 2992 amendments are to be harmonized if reasonably capable of 2993 simultaneous operation, finds that the composite is the 2994 resulting version of the section in effect prior to the 2995 effective date of the section as presented in this act. 2996
