SYNOPSIS: This bill would prohibit individuals from transporting cats or dogs on a flatbed truck while traveling on a public highway with exceptions.

Amendment 621 of the Constitution of Alabama of 1901, now appearing as Section 111.05 of the Official Recompilation of the Constitution of Alabama of 1901, as amended, prohibits a general law whose purpose or effect would be to require a new or increased expenditure of local funds from becoming effective with regard to a local governmental entity without enactment by a 2/3 vote unless: it comes within one of a number of specified exceptions; it is approved by the affected entity; or the Legislature appropriates funds, or provides a local source of revenue, to the entity for the purpose.

The purpose or effect of this bill would be to require a new or increased expenditure of local funds within the meaning of the amendment. However, the bill does not require approval of a local

1 governmental entity or enactment by a 2/3 vote to
2 become effective because it comes within one of the
3 specified exceptions contained in the amendment.

17 Constitution of Alabama of 1901, as amended.

18 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:

19 Section 1. (a) For the purposes of this section, the 20 following terms shall have the following meanings:

21 (1) FLATBED TRUCK. A motor vehicle with an open

4 which will prevent the cat or dog from falling, being thrown,

21 existing crime.

22 Section 3. This act shall become effective on the 23 first day of the third month following its passage and 24 approval by the Governor, or its otherwise becoming law.
